GREETING

FROM

THE NESTOR OF THE ILLINOIS CONFERENCE.

Rev. Bishop Cranston, and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

Dear Brethren:—Physical disability prevents me from attending the session of our conference. This is a disappointment to me. If I could have been in attendance at roll call, I would have answered 53 times in 54 years.

I wish to express to my conference my devout thanks to my Heavenly Father, for His providence in the perpetuation of my life to the count of eighty years, and past. I am the only member, now, living, who has attended all the sessions—save one—since my enrollment. In 1851, in the City of Jacksonville, Ill., I entered the conference with the class of 47, the largest class ever known to have entered any enrollment of an Annual Conference. I came into the conference, under the presidency of Bishop Waugh. I entered the list of the superannuated members in 1895, Bishop Joyce, presiding, holding the session in Jacksonville, Ill. From this city, 54 years ago, my ministerial history began. Of the class of 1851, numbering 47, I was the last to make mention of its history before the conference. I have set in our conference under the presidency of 24 Bishops, and counting Bishop Cranston, now presiding, the number reaches 25. If I am right in my count, I report 202 of our members, who have finished their ministry since I came into the conference.

My early ministerial training began under the leadership of Drs. Peter Akers and Cartwright. My conference has studied my personal welfare, and has conferred upon me all the honors I have deserved. I hold in highest esteem the faithful men, who have finished their worthy ministry and have entered upon their endless and glorious reward.

My work in the conference has embraced Circuits, Stations and Districts. Springfield and Danville Districts, 4 years on each. I served the Church, a member of the General Conference, holding the session in Brooklyn, New York, 1872.

In conclusion, I offer to the Divine Father, my sincere prayer in behalf of the membership of the honored old Illinois Annual Conference.

Wm. McKENDREE McELFRESH,
Jacksonville, Ill., September 19th, 1905.

The Whiten'd Fields.

Say not ye, There are four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say unto you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that He will send forth laborers into his harvest.

—Christ.

Presiding Elders' Reports.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

I entered upon my duties as Presiding Elder of the Bloomington District the second Sunday after Conference last year.

Supplies were soon secured for the unsupplied appointments and without a break the work has moved steadily forward. In my first round I tried to impress both pastors and people with the importance of three lines of work. First, we urged the people to patronize our own Church periodicals and publications; second, we tried to impress them with the importance of a widespread revival, and third we insisted on a liberal increase in our benevolent collections. While we believe the reports will show an increase on each of these lines, the results are not altogether what we had hoped for, but we trust a foundation has been laid for a greater growth in the future.

Pastoral Support.

The Quarterly Conference was liberal in fixing the salaries of the pastors, and in no case where the charge remained the same as the previous year, was there a reduction made in the salary, on the other hand an increase of about $1,000 was secured throughout the District.

Church Building and Improvements.

On the first Sunday in October a beautiful new Church was dedicated at Hartsburg, and on Easter Sunday another at Hopedale. Both of these Churches are on the Hopedale charge, each cost about $3,000 and was dedicated free from debt. A beautiful and modern new Church is in course of erection at Heyworth, at a cost of about $10,000. They hope to have it ready for dedication by November. A new parsonage has been built at Lincoln at a cost of $5,000, and another at San Jose at a cost of $3,500.

Expenditures on Church improvements are as follows: Arrowsmith, $1,000; Bloomington circuit, $300; Delavan, including an old indebtedness of $600, raised $900; Downs, $112; Green Valley, $135; Mason City, $150; Minier, $100; New Holland, $100; Saybrook, $3,200; Waynesville, $1,000, Weldon, $100. Improvements on parsonages are as follows: Bloomington First, $400; Grace, $300; Clinton, $900; Leroy, $75; Lincoln circuit, $50. In addition to this $375 was raised and paid on the site selected for the new Church at Lucretia Chapel, making a total raised for building and improving of near $30,000.

Benevolences.

Early in the spring a missionary campaign was inaugurated and carried out. A plan was arranged by which a series of three addresses were delivered by different pastors on nearly all the charges of the district. Dr. F. H. Sheets and his corps of missionary workers visited our ministerial meeting, and Dr. George Heber Jones was present at our Epworth League Convention, to add inspiration to the missionary zeal throughout the district.

Classes for the study of missions have been formed on nearly all the charges and missionary literature has been distributed. The reports I have received show a steady advance on most of the charges, only two falling behind what they did last year. Twenty-four of the twenty-eight charges of the district will take rank in the first class according to the classification sent out by the apportioning committee at New York. There will be an increase of over $500 throughout the district, making a total of about $6,000.

While we have emphasized the importance of the missionary work we have not been unmindful of the other connectional interests of the Church, and we hope when the other reports are all in to see a liberal increase in each of them.

Special Work.

Under the supervision of the Grace M. E. Church of Bloomington, a mission has been organized in the northeast part of the city which gives promise of soon becoming a strong society. A good Sunday school has been organized and it is hoped to soon have all the lines of Church work in operation.

The society at Sparta, an abandoned Church, has been resurrected and it has been attached to the Downs charge. We hope to see this society develop into its former strength and power.

Revivals were held in nearly all the charges of the district, with varied degrees of success. There were two meetings of special prominence, one at Clinton of one hundred and forty conversions, and one at Lincoln of one hundred and thirty conversions. In all there have been reported to me about six hundred on the entire district. We are grateful for these, yet, brethren, in view of the inviting field which is already ripe unto the harvest, the splendid equipment, the talent both in the pulpit and pew, we are led to conclude that we are not measuring up to God's requirements in winning lost men for Christ.

Epworth League.

The Epworth Leagues of Bloomington district have done efficient work in many lines. Besides carrying on the regular work they have raised through the station plan about $1,400 for missions, one thousand of which goes to the support of Dr. Denning, of India.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

This has been a transitional year in the history of this time honored institution. While the attendance was not as large last year as on some previous years, the character of the work was of a high grade, and upon the retirement from the presidency of the institution Dr. E. M. Smith carried with him the universal love and respect of the pupils and of the people of Bloomington.

Dr. Francis Barnes was elected president and entered upon his duties July 1st. Dr. Barnes is a man of fine intellectual ability and unlimited energy. He is making his influence felt throughout the entire patronizing territory. For several days new students have been arriving in the city and a large increase in the attendance is already assured. The future for the Wesleyan seems bright.

Personal Mention.

It would be a pleasure to mention personally, the splendid work and unceasing activity of the pastors and their wives of the Bloomington district, but time will not permit. They have wrought faithfully and well, and no words that I could write would justly represent the toils, sacrifices and labors of this band of consecrated workmen. I crave, however, the privilege of mentioning the names of three, and I am sure the others will not feel that I am discriminating, when I speak of our two aged Superannuates, Rev. J. M. West and Rev. James Shaw, who by their beautiful Christian lives, their loyalty and devotion to the Church are a constant inspiration to the younger men who are in the active ranks. The other is the veteran of our itinerant ranks, Rev. W. C. Lacy. For forty-seven years he has answered to the roll call, at the beginning of the Conference and received his appointment at its close. He has been one of the makers of Methodism in the Illinois Conference. Because of physical affliction and increasing years he will ask for a Superannuate relation at this Conference. With his faithful wife who has shared his labors through all these years of service he will live in the beautiful little town in which he has spent the last three years of his ministry, where he will be a help to the pastor and an inspiration to the Church.

Our hearts are saddened as we see these faithful fathers stepping aside, and we are admonished to put forth our best effort, that we may build successfully on the foundation which they have laid.

J. B. HORNEY.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT.

To Bishop Cranston and Members of the Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren: I have the honor to submit my first annual report of Champaign District. Having succeeded one of the most distinguished Presiding Elders of our Church, you will easily infer the excellent condition of the work committed to my supervision and appreciate how arduous the task to maintain the standard. All of the 32 charges were manned by appointment from Bishop McCabe, save Thomasboro, left to be supplied. Bro. S. H. Huber has served this during the year. On account of ill health Bro. R. M. Palmer asked to be relieved from Whiteheath charge, since when, not being able to secure a permanent supply, the work has been served by the Presiding Elder and such of the brethren as could be secured, from time to time. Other than these two instances there have been no changes in the pastoral force. Bro. Crews of the Fisher charge organized a class of 21 at Lotus during the year, which gives promise of becoming an important appointment.

Bro. J. A. Burks, Superannuate residing at Bement, passed to his reward October 22. You who were present at the Conference love feast last year will recall the earnestness and tenderness of his testimony upon that occasion. Early in the Conference year the death angel visited the Mahomet parsonage and bore therefrom the infant daughter of Brother and Sister T. S. Mitchell.

"One less at home:

The charmed circle broken—a dear face
Missed, day by day, from its accustomed place,
But cleansed and saved, and perfected by grace
One more in heaven.

One more in heaven:

Another thought to brighten cloudy days,
Another theme of thankfulness and praise,
Another link our souls on high to raise

Evangelism.

The number of conversions reported, about 800, does not tell the whole story of evangelistic effort. Special services were held in nearly every charge. In a few instances conversions and accessions have been secured continuously through the year. Wm. Sunday, the noted evangelist, is conducting a campaign at Rantoul, which promises to be wide-spread in its effects and results. Grateful for the results secured we do not, however, feel that they were commensurate with our need and numbers. Plans, therefore, have been matured for a more aggressive campaign, beginning with the new Conference year. In anticipation of and preparation for this a number of all day, week day evangelistic services have been held in different parts of the district during the fourth quarter. Encouraging attendance and interest have marked these services and the people have been exhorted to special prayer and preparation. All of the pastors will be called to meet at the time of the District Stewards' gathering, when the day will be spent in prayer, the discussion of pertinent themes and the forward movement formally launched.

Building and Improvement.

On December 11 a new modern $5,000 Church was dedicated at Sadorus. February 26 a modern Church, costing $3,300 was dedicated at Ellis on the Armstrong charge. $1,200 was expended in repairing the Church building at Whiteheath, damaged last year by a tornado. Improvements have been made on Churches at Farmer City and Mahomet, Armstrong, Cisco, Penfield, and Weedman and on parsonages at Farmer City and Mahomet. The Church building at Ivesdale is being remodeled at a cost of $2,000. The splendid new pipe organ, to which you have listened with so much pleasure, was placed in this Church in August. Our society at Gifford is building a splendid Church to cost $5,000 and be ready for dedication in October. The walls of the new Trinity Church, Urbana, formerly Parks Chapel, are nearing completion. This is to cost $30,000 and to be enclosed by December next. First Church, Champaign, Quarterly Conference, has voted to erect a new $50,000 edifice, and Rantoul will build a Church to cost $20,000 next season.

Pastoral Claims.

Last year there was a deficiency of $395 or 1 and 1-5 per cent reported on a total apportionment of $32,810, including house rent. The apportionment this year was $35,425, an increase of $2,615. Not more than $30 of deficiency will be reported. Our financial plan comprehended not only the meeting of all claims in full, but meeting them promptly each month or quarter. Every charge adopted the plan and with few exceptions carried it out.

Work Among Young People.

The district Epworth League under President Peck is thoroughly organized and efficient. 1,500 were enrolled in the Bible reading league. The Mercy and Help department contributed $704 in cash and supplies to the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage. There are a number of Mission Study classes and the amount contributed on the station plan is $900. The annual convention was delightfully entertained by the Champaign Chapter and the occasion was profitable and inspiring. The District Cabinet plans to raise $2,000 on the station plan for missions next year.

Our Sunday schools are doing good work. Home departments and cradle rolls are sustained in most of the charges and with rare exception the schools are supplied with literature authorized by our Church.

Other Auxiliaries.

The Women's Home Missionary Society has five auxiliaries with a membership of 191. A Queen Esther society at Rantoul is doing splendid work. $400 has been raised for the work this year. The Auxilliary at Champaign has pledged $2.50 per member toward the national debt, which it is hoped will be paid off within three years.

Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage.

This has been a busy year at the Home. By the death of Miss Shull, the matron, in August, the work sustained a grievous loss. The great burden she was trying to bear hastened the end. She gave her life, in a real sense, for the work. During the year there have been 85 children admitted to the Home. At present there are 43, of whom 23 are girls and 20 boys. Six have been placed in good homes. The work would surprise any who is not acquainted with it. The orphans attend Church services regularly, learn the grand old hymns of the Church by heart, and are taught many other things that a child ought to learn for its spiritual health.

Women's Foreign Missionary Society.

The womens' foreign work in the district has responded to the enthusiasm of the district president, Mrs. Minnie Coon, of Rantoul, and experienced a most successful year. New auxiliaries were organized at Bellflower, Beulah Chapel, Fisher, Fithian, Ludlow, Mt. Vernon, Rankin, Tolono and Pleasant Grove. New Young Women's societies were organized at St. Joseph and Ludlow. There are 27 auxiliaries with 592 members, an increase of nine auxiliaries and 93 members. Six Young Women's societies have a membership of 72 and five children's societies a membership of 381. Amount raised for foreign work, five auxiliaries not included, $2,533, an increase of $325.

Benevolences.

Under my predecessor this district reached high water mark, last year, on missions, which placed it in the first rank in the Conference and tenth in Methodism. The amount contributed was $9,106. Included in this was a special gift of $1,000 by Mrs. Boyd from the St. Joseph's charge, for a schol in Korea. The gift from this elect lady was to aggregate $2,500, of which $1,500 was to be given this year. In view of the fact that nothing has been done on the building during the year the $1,500 is withheld so that it can not appear in this report. This year we report from collections alone $8,002 for missions, $521 for domestic missions and $4,033 for other collections not including the womens' work.

Trinity Church.

The name of Parks Chapel, Urbana, has been changed to Trinity. Pastor Tobie, with a heroism born of a profound conviction, has worked on this problem and succeeded where many another would have failed. May 28th the corner stone services for the new building were held and on the 29th the stone was put in place. This service gave a fresh impetus to and secured new friends for the work and the enterprise was carried safely over the grade. Not only has the new Church been successfully launched, but this society has been self-supporting this year. It advanced the pastor's salary $200, paid all pastoral claims in full, with other incidental expenses, and has a surplus of $25 to begin the new year. This will encourage such as have entertained a doubt as to the ability of the society to finance the Church after it is completed. On January 11 a meeting of the Presiding Elders of the state in conjunction with the pastors of the district and a number of laymen was called and met at the chapel. A report covering these details will be made by a special committee, hence it will not be necessary to duplicate them in this report. The importance of this work grows with the years. Each term the responsibility of Methodism receives new emphasis, as the number of students from Methodist homes increases. Other denominations are moving in the matter of caring for their own. Methodism, if she would not be remiss, must move with enthusiasm, and stand not on the order of moving.

Monthly Ministerial Meeting.

One of the pleasant as well as profitable features of the year has been the monthly ministerial meeting. Steam and interurban railway facilities are such that it is possible for a majority of the pastors to convene at a central point. There are now 15 resident ministers in the Twin City. The object of this gathering was the discussion of important themes, prayer and religious fellowship.

Though the work has been exacting, the year has been pleasant. My first concern has been for and my whole time given to the work. I have visited each charge quarterly, and have personally visited every appointment in each charge. I took no vacation, not that I disbelieve in them, but because I hadn't the time. I appreciate the kindness and co-operation of my brethren and am grateful to Our Father for His unbounded goodness.

DANVILLE DISTRICT.

One year ago at the hands of Bishop McCabe thirty-five pastors received appointments in Danville District. Two charges were left to be supplied, namely, Batestown and Edgar. Rev. William Reynolds, a local preacher, was appointed to serve the former and Rev. H. G. Wass, a member of the Conference the latter.

In January Rev. N. G. Palmer, who was received on trial at our last session and was appointed to Georgetown circuit, asked to be relieved from further service. Rev. F. S. Stamm, a member of North Indiana Conference, was appointed to complete the year's work.

Revival Services.

Revival services were held throughout the District. In many charges the Holy Spirit was manifest in convicting and converting power. Wherever the membership joined heartily with the pastors in an effort to save souls the results were blessed. But I am sorry to say that on other charges the pastors confronted a painful if not a paralyzing indifference upon the part of many members and the seed seemed to fall on stony ground. Will you allow me in this connection to suggest that the modern ministry has become so burdened with our many financial enterprises and material interests that it really seems more difficult for pastors and Presiding Elders to do as we would like, the evangelistic work of the Church. Our great Church machinery and our many financial pleadings are not always so spiritualized as to lead our hearers to feel that above everything else we desire to be seekers of souls.

Taking the District as a whole, our returns will show a measure of progress, indeed substantial gains. We report 1,027 conversions and 823 additions to the membership, at the last Conference we reported 8,500 members. There is now 9,390 members. There 76 Sunday schools. Everyone of them using our own literature, 46 Epworth Leagues, 27 Junior Leagues, 16 Bible Study and 8 Mission Study classes, and organized and doing effective work. These lines of seed we hope will enlarge and yield a richer harvest.

Church Property.

The additions and improvements in Church property have not been as large during the year as are sometimes reported, but nevertheless are valuable and gratefully recorded. Edgar circuit has built a new edifice costing $5,000. It was dedicated January 1st by Dr. Horace Reed and the indebtedness was fully met. On the same circuit a new parsonage is being substituted for the old one and will soon be ready for occupancy. The Garret circuit has also provided a new parsonage at a cost of $2,000. A new Church edifice is nearing completion at Atwood and will be ready for dedication November 1st. The structure and furnishings will cost $4,500. First and Kimber Churches in Danville have been greatly beautified within and without. June 18th the Vermilion Heights Church burned its mortgage and amid great rejoicing the plant is worth $10,000. Under the inspirational leadership of Dr. Iliff Lincoln Church united Danville Methodism in its behalf June 11 and its indebtedness of $1,600 was cancelled. In all these forward movements the success is largely due to the skillful leadership of the pastors. Paid old debts, $3,431; paid on new improvements, $16,000.

Plans for new Churches are being discussed upon Chrisman, Ridgefarm, Hume and Oakwood charges. We trust these plans will soon assume a definite form.

Benevolent interests have been faithfully cared for by the pastors and Presidings Elder. Earnest effort has been made to raise the sums apportioned. Success is not always reached and often for two reasons: First, some pastors wait too long for favorable occasions and the lateness of the hour prevents success. Secondly, the Church still has some members whose selfishness creates and perpetuates a disbelief in missions and the Church enterprises extending beyond neighboring limits. Still the love, loyalty and liberality of the faithful will make an advance in our collections.

Sickness and Death.

Thrice death has entered our parsonages within the year. December 26th Rev. M. Auer, chaplain of the Soldiers' Home, while returning from the funeral of a friend dropped to the earth and in a moment was not, for God had taken him. No word or sign was uttered or made, but his life speaks eloquently of his character and service. On May 18th, at the parsonage of Indianola, Rev. A. G. Bunk., after five short days of illness quietly passed to his home on high. He was a saintly man, a royal, noble, pure hearted brother, greatly beloved by his people and all who knew him.

August 10th death claimed Harry, the only son of Rev. and Mrs. T. F. Shouse. That dread disease, typhoid fever, prostrated at the same time father, son and daughter. Father and daughter were mercifully spared to us and the Church. All our hearts go out in loving sympathy for all those so sorely bereaved.

Rev. S. A. D. McIntosh has been unable to do continuous service because of nervous prostration resulting from over-work, but we rejoice that he is coming back to health, vigor and full activity.

Aside from these cases named the pastors and their families have been blessed with good health during the year.

Peace and harmony prevailed in the District and we come to the close of the year with only one regret—that not more souls have been saved.

S. H. WHITLOCK.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

To the Bishop and members of the Conference:

In making my sixth annual report of Decatur District I desire first of all to record my gratitude to God for all the blessings he has bestowed upon me personally and the preachers associated with me during the year.

All the preachers went to their appointments cheerfully and have worked faithfully. I question if any Presiding Elder ever had a more pleasant and earnest band of preachers than the twenty-nine who have worked with me during the year.

Only a few cases of serious sickness and no deaths have occurred in any of the parsonages during the year.

Although we have not accomplished all we anticipated, still we are thankful for all the progress that has been made.

Church Property.

Substantial progress has been made in the building and improvement of Churches and parsonages.

On the first Sunday in April a new and beautiful Church was dedicated at Caldwell on the Arthur circuit, costing $4,500, and every dollar was paid the day before the dedication.

The magnificent edifice that is being built by the First Church in Decatur is enclosed and in a few months will be dedicated. When completed it will be the most magnificent building in the Conference.

The new Grace edifice is rising beautifully in all its proportions. It is large enough to accommodate 1,200 people. The location and surroundings are such that I believe it is destined to be the great people's Church of Decatur. The Quarterly Conference has sent an invitation to hold the next session in that Church.

The old Church edifice at Warrensburg has been remodeled and enlarged and made an attractive building. Great credit is due Brother Niley for his persistent efforts in making this improvement.

The contract has been let for the erection of a new Church edifice in Macon to cost $11,000. It will be a gem.

A new parsonage was completed early in the year at Latham, costing $1,300.

A new parsonage at Nokomis, costing $2,200, is nearly completed.

During the six years I have been on the District more than $120,000 have been raised for building and improving the Church property.

Evangelism.

A vigorous evangelistic campaign has been conducted during the year. I held sixteen evangelistic institutes which resulted in a spiritual uplift to many members, and at nearly every one of the institutes there were conversions. In the revival meetings the preachers have been their own evangelists, and have been very helpful to each other. The preachers in the District are to be commended for their evangelistic preaching. If any one of the twenty-nine preachers has uttered one sentence out of harmony with the fundamental doctrines of Methodism it has not come to my knowledge.

The benevolent collections I hope will be a little in advance of last year. None but the pastors know what herculean efforts are required to raise our regular benevolences owing to the crowding of so many other collections upon them.

The Sunday schools throughout the District are during an excellent work.

Some of the Epworth Leagues are doing a good work and some are in a state of transition. Under the leadership of Brother Simmons as District president I look for a revival in the league work.

The Women's Foreign and Women's Home Missionary societies are making remarkable progress.

Personal.

This has been one of the most if not the most pleasant year of my ministry. My associations in the homes of the preachers has been most delightful. Preaching has never been a greater luxury. I have preached 281 times and lectured 36 times. During the six years I have averaged 331 times that I have tried to preach each year.

Forty-one years ago, at Greenfield, Ohio, I was admitted on trial into the Cincinnati Conference. Thirty-four years ago I was transferred into the Illinois Conference. Since I was admitted on trial I have never missed a roll call. I have been highly favored with ability to work. I suppose I have preached several hundred times more than any other preacher in the Conference. So that what my preaching has lacked in quality I have made up in the quantity.

I want to record my great appreciation for the many ways the Conference has greatly honored me in all these years. While my work may be somewhat different in the future I assure you that it is a fixed purpose of my heart to give in the future as in the past the best service I can in whatever position the Church thinks I can be most useful.

HORACE REED.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To Bishop Cranston and members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brothers: With a song of joy in my heart for God's great goodness to me, and the kind co-operation of pastors and people, I submit this, my third annual report of the Jacksonville District.

One year ago the preachers of the District received their appointments from Bishop McCabe, cheerfully went to work with vigor, and have continued to this day without one halt, change or break in the ranks.

Visible Spiritual Results.

I rejoice to report that the visible spiritual results have exceeded those of his first year, yet there has been no great general quickening of the spiritual life of the Churches. We have had only some drops of what we hope is a great out-pouring of the Holy Spirit. The greatest visible harvests of souls have been enjoyed at Union Church on the Literberry circuit, Greenfield, Waverly circuit, Jacksonville circuit, Centenary, Jacksonville, Forest City and Topeka, Virginia, Franklin circuit, Greenfield circuit, Waverly and Pleasant Plains.

When there shall be a revival of home religions so that in the homes of Methodists generally the stones of the family altar, now lying, in many cases, cold amid the ashes of neglect, shall be re-erected and ablaze with holy fervor, and more religious instruction shall be given in these homes; when the officials of the Church shall more generally be leaders in spiritual, as well as financial affairs; when the preachers shall more generally preach entire sanctification—not crantification, as Bishop Fowler puts it—but the high privilege of Christians in the fullness of love; when the claims of God upon His Stewards, both financial and spiritual, which seem to rest on many with less weight as their wealth multiplies, shall be more fully honored; when that blessed time shall fully come, then the paralysis of indifference now resting so largely upon our Churches, will be broken, for "Zion shall arise and shine, her light having come and the glory of the Lord risen upon her."

The most notable revivals were at Union, Literberry circuit, 46 conversions; Waverly circuit, 30; Jacksonville circuit, 30; Waverly, 29; Virginia, 35; Centenary Jacksonville, 50; Franklin circuit, 68; Forest City and Topeka, 22; Pleasant Plains, 16; Greenfield circuit, 21; while Dr. T. J. Wheat, who is closing a successful pastorate of four years at Greenfield, reports having received 50 on probation during the year. A total of about 500 conversions have been reported.

Pastors of the First Year.

Sixteen of the 27 pastors of the District are completing their first year. Rev. P. L. Turner (the nestor of the District in active service) has served the Cantrall circuit this year, and has done good work, preaching powerful sermons, and performing as much pastoral work as his strength would permit. Rev. Robert Tennant has done faithful work on the Oakford circuit. The Rev. Jas. Brownell has been diligent in the Master's service on the Bath circuit, and brings up good reports, all things considered. Rev. J. A. Murray has had a successful year on the Literberry circuit. He conducted a blessed revival service at Union Church, resulting in 46 conversions—70 on the entire circuit. He succeeded also in building a neat Church on the site of the old Eckman Chapel at a cost of $1,600. This Church is erected in a community that needs its hallowed influence in a large degree. It was dedicated August 13th amid shouts of praise. These four brethren are serving as suplies. Pastor W. S. German has had a very pleasant year on the Greenfield circuit. He brings up good reports on benevolences, and is in much favor with his people. He reports 21 conversions and $60 expended upon Church improvements. Rev. A. V. Babbs is closing his first year on the Palmyra circuit. His scholarly spiritual preaching and kindly pastoral labors have endeared him to his people. A numerous signed pétition requests the Bishop to return him for another year. He has a good report on benevolences and reports $140 on Church improvements. The Rev. C. M. Barton has done excellent work at Waverly, there having been 29 conversions, of whom 24 have been received into full membership. There is an increase over last year of $105 for missions and $172 for all the benevolences. The list of subscribers to our periodicals has been increased by 16, and $145 have been expended on improving the parsonage. Rev. Fred L. Buck has pushed the work on the Franklin circuit with his usual vigor and success. Good evangelistic services were held at each appointment on the circuit, resulting in 68 conversions. He has received 56 from full membership, and has a good report on benevolences. The Rev. O. B. Hess is closing his first year on the Forest City and Topeka circuit, and is as popular as a young Methodist preacher ought to be. He reports 22 conversions, of whom 20 have been received into full membership. There has been a gain in membership of 25, and an increase in benevolences as compared with last year. Additional subscribers have been received for our periodicals and $75 have been expended on Church improvements. He has crowned the year's work by taking unto himself a wife, in every way qualified to aid him in winning and training souls for the Kingdom. As has been demonstrated, the Rev. R. L. Steed is well adapted for a long race, and he is making good time on his first year at Havana. There has been a gain in membership, an increase for missions and all the benevolences, a slight gain in subscriptions to our periodicals, and about $1,000 expended on Church improvements. Pastor J. M. Duff has had a pleasant year at Rock Bridge, and reports 18 conversions, an increase for missions and all the benevolences, and $65 expended on improving Church property. Rev. S. N. Wakefield has proved to be a good fit at Petersburg and is deservedly popular. The money for the Church debt was subscribed during the pastorate of the Rev. A. L. Plowman, but the payment was completed this year, and was celebrated by an all day rally and the burning of the note. He reports an increase for benevolences, and $185 expended for Church improvements. Pastor T. Lee Knox has done well at Middleton and reports ten conversions and $50 expended on Church improvements. He brings up a good report on benevolences, considering that this charge is weak and in great need of education along this line. The Rev. R. A. Hartrick, by his able preaching and good management of the Church affairs, has had a successful year at Ashland. His reports show an increase in benevolences and about $250 expended on Church improvements. The Rev. Frank Lucas has proved to be the right man for Virginia. His strong evangelistic preaching has been effective, and every department of Church work has felt his energizing touch. He reports having received 35 upon probation and a total of $400 for all the benevolences. Dr. W. H. Wilder is closing his first year at Centenary Jacksonville, and his work, as is always expected of him, has been thorough and able. He has the Church well organized, the men's union being recently formed, and he presents excellent reports. He reports 50 conversions and has gone beyond the apportionments for benevolences, while about $500 have been expended on improving the parsonage. All other pastors than those of the first year are, of course, "going on to perfection."

Educational.

The Women's College continues to grow in favor with God and man. It is enjoying the largest attendance in its history, and for the last 13 years there has been enrolled each year a larger number of students than the preceding one. There is a fair prospect of the college securing, in the near future, a new building adapted for a gymnasium and instruction in Domestic Science. With Dr. Horace Reed as field agent, and the host of friends at work for students, buildings and endowment, the future of this school appears radiant. The spiritual tone of the college is gratifying—quite a number of the young women having professed conversion during the school year. The Epworth Leagues of the District, under the wise direction of President R. A. Hartrick and his associate officers, have rendered efficient service. Quite a large sum was raised for Chaddock College and Boys' Home at Quincy, and a movement is on foot looking to the support of a missionary, on the station plan. The Sunday schools, on the whole, are in a good condition, although the attendance at a few places is not what it ought to be. The difficulty of securing the regular attendance of competent teachers may account largely for this. I rejoice that the reports show some increase in subscriptions to our Church periodicals, for every additional subscription means another assistant pastor at work in the homes of our people.

The Benevolences.

The reports indicate quite a marked increase in the contributions to our benevolences. The Rev. Vickerman Breckon left in his will a bequest of $300 for our missionary society, and it has been paid over to the Rev. Nathan English, pastor of the Jacksonville circuit. This, of course, swells the aggregate for missions for the District considerably. In certain quarters of the District there is a great lack of proper response to these worthy claims, the total for missions is about $2,940, as compared with $3,386 last year, a gain of $554.

Material Improvements.

This has not been a year of extensive improvements of this character although considerable has been accomplished. One new Church has been erected, Eckman Chapel on the Litterberry circuit, at a cost of $1,000, and one new parsonage has been built at Chandlerville, involving an expenditure of $1,500. The largest amount expended on improvement of Church property has been at Havana, where an alcove for the pipe organ has been built, the Church re-frescoed, etc., at a cost of $1,000. Other improvements have been made on the parsonage at Centenary Jacksonville, $500; at Island Grove and Alexander, $393; Church at Athens, $200; Church at Topeka, $75; on Jacksonville circuit, $150; Church at Middleown, $50; Rock Bridge, $65; parsonage at Waverly, $145; parsonage at Franklin, $400; Palmyra, $140; Greenfield circuit, $60; parsonage at Pleasant Plains, $225; Church at Virginia, $200; Brooklyn Jacksonville, $50; Church improvement on Bath circuit, $125; Church improvement at Ashland, $250; Easton circuit, $150, and Petersburg, $35; grand total, $7,300.

Members of the Old Guard.

Brother R. P. Droke resides in Waverly, and at last report was enjoying slightly improved health. He manifests a lively interest in Church affairs, and is the friend and counsellor of the pastor. The Rev. Archibald Sloan resides in Ashland, and although not in the most rugged health, is the same genial, brotherly man of the olden times. Dr. Wm. McKendree McElfresh is in fair health for him, and maintains a lively interest in the affairs of Methodism. His faithful wife, after undergoing what was considered a critical operation, is now in quite good health. If one did not consult the Conference Minutes he would not believe that Dr. W. F. Short belongs to this list, he is so vigorous and helpful to the pastors and Presiding Elder in their time of need. He resides in Jacksonville, secure in the respect and affection of a host of friends.

Salaries and Health of the Workmen.

There has been some advance in the pastors' salaries. Ashland advanced $50, Cantrall $100 and Forest City and Topeka $250. There was a slight decrease at Bath and Oakford. There will be but little deficiency, and if the stewards had in all cases pushed their work vigorously and systematically there would be none at all. I have endeavored to secure at least a quarterly payment in full of the pastors' claims, but have not succeeded as fully as I desired. The health of the pastors and their families, with few exceptions, has been very good during the year. Death has entered but one parsonage this year. At the very threshold of the Conference year, Raymond, the bright young son of Brother and Sister Nathan English, went home to God.

Thus in the early fall time this beloved child went in the spring of life to the land of eternal spring, where there is no scorching heat, or dying year, or bitter cold.

The continued poor health of the wife of Brother A. H. Flagge has compelled him to take her to North Carolina, where it is hoped that her restored health will permit them to return to our ranks in the near future.

My own health has been excellent, permitting me to fill all my engagements during the year. I have preached 190 times, beside delivering a good many lectures and various addresses. As the years go by I appreciate more and more the high calling of preaching the gospel and become more and more in love with my dear Lord and Master. Though with steps sometimes halting I may humbly say that I am pressing upward the shining way that leads to God. Conscious of my failures, but conscious also of a heart loyal to God and his Church, I submit this report.

GEORGE E. SCRIMGER.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

Bishop Cranston and Brothers of the Illinois Conference:

In presenting to you the report of the second year's work on Mattoon District I realize more than ever the futility of the attempt to report the results of such work as this. Figures speak but a partial truth. We can not measure these results according to the limits of any fiscal or ecclesiastical year. We are entering into the labors of others and future workers will gather the fruits of our sowing.

A work has been done this year by the Methodist Church in Mattoon District that has surpassed that of any other in the same field and well nigh equalled the results achieved by all the others. To speak of it in particular would require time and space inappropriate here. Under the splendid leadership of pastors the people have responded well to all lines of our work.

There have been in the main unity of action and hearty co-operation. On many charges good methods with a responsive field have brought large results. On other charges good methods with an unresponsive field have yielded meagre returns.

At the beginning of the year work on two charges was delayed by the absence of any preacher. A serious condition confronts us now. On the one hand are growing charges that desire to divide and have two pastors, on the other hand a yearly decline in candidates for the ministry. But two have taken out licenses to preach in the year.

There have been no deaths in the ranks of our effective ministers. Two dear brothers, Rev. A. Y. Graham, a member of the Conference, living at Westfield, advanced in years, has joined the triumphant host. Rev. T. H. Fierce, living in the country near Gays, Ill., died since the Conference convened. His work was done, he was ready for the summons.

But few have been hindered by sickness. Rev. J. A. Stout, stationed at Neoga, after a great revival, was compelled to resign his charge. Rev. J. W. Richards was appointed to the charge.

At the first Quarterly Conference eight charges advanced the preachers' salaries an amount aggregating $900. Brocton circuit voted to divide, Brocton and Greenwood taking the pastor at the full salary. Redman and Isabel, supplied during the year, form a new and promising charge. During the fourth round of Quarterly Conference four charges pledged an advance for next year aggregating about $600. Two new Churches have been dedicated, Morton Chapel on Toledo circuit, and Long Point, on Neoga circuit. A splendid new stone Church is to be dedicated at Stewardson in October.

Two classes have been revived, Zion, on Humbolt circuit, has moved the Church building to Doran's Station and refitted it for service. Wesley Chapel, on Clarksburg circuit, has been revived and the building refitted. A number of Churches and parsonages have been refrescoed and repainted. In many instances the entire expense has been provided by the Ladies' Aid Societies. It would be but giving honor to whom honor is due to say that there is in a number of charges no more energetic and successful society than the Ladies' Aid. They look after the furnishings and repairs of the Church and parsonage, and often contribute part of the pastors' salary.

They have great faith; they bring things to pass.

Soon after Conference last fall the evangelistic campaign was begun, that has continued almost through the entire year. This is the most gratifying part of the years' work. Many joyous victories were won. A number of the meetings were attended with great power and demonstration of the spirit. No one among us is heard to say any more that the Methodists do not have revivals as they used to have. Over 1,800 conversions were reported. Many Church members were converted who never had a saving knowledge of Christ. Many were converted who rightly belonged to other communions where they afterwards united with these Churches. We were glad that they should get these crumbs that fall from our table. But a splendid company joined us in the march to Canaan. That they were converted and grounded in the faith is evidenced by the large per cent that were received into the Church. About 75 per cent of those who united on probation have become full members. We have held three ten day camp meetings under the management of an evangelistic commission of seven ministers. Great good was done.

Soon after the most active revival season had passed the preachers of the District began the work of raising the benevolences. A campaign of education, much like an artillery action, preliminary to a battle, was followed by the public collections and personal solicitation. Success has crowned their efforts. Twenty-one charges have made important advances over last year. As you listen to their reports you will note their success. No doubt much of the advance is due to the great prosperity that prevails in the land, yet the many opportunities for making money are a constant temptation to some to refrain from giving.

The Epworth Leagues of the District are contributing on the station plan to the support of a missionary and his wife, W. H. Stephens, of Puma, Bombay Conference, India. In another year the full support will doubtless be provided.

The W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. have been doing fine work on many charges this year.

During the year the Board of Directors of the Memorial Methodist Hospital, of Mattoon, Illinois, have endeavored to bring into active operation this institution that has been so richly endowed.

They have contended at every step with selfishness and the mercenary spirit of the community. They have made considerable progress. Subscriptions for building the hospital and have been taken to the amount of $6,345. This does not include donations toward furnishing the hospital, amounting to $1,800, nor eighty acres of fine land that was mentioned in a will, but deeds for the same were secured this year. The board have recently purchased a 28 room building well adapted and well located for hospital uses and purposes to put it in operation soon.

I have touched upon the main facts of the years' work. Personally I have escaped serious accident and sickness and have been accorded the best of treatment by all classes. One real pleasure in the experience of a Presiding Elder is the association with the preachers of the District. No company of men are truer nor more pleasant companions.

In concluding this report I will summarize the work done in this District in a few lines:

Number converted during the year	1,820
Number joining on probation	1,266
Number received into full membership	877
Net gain in full membership...	839
Last year	675
Number of charges reporting salary in full (out of 35)	29
The missionary collection, $6,612, gain of	$1,220

We feel that these are only the first fruits, back of them lie unreaped harvests. These are a few gems taken from an unexplored mine. Would that they were many times more which we could bring and lay at the feet of Him who is worthy the love and gifts and service of all men.

J. W. MILLER.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

Bishop Cranston and Brethren:

Grateful at the beginning of my work to Rev. W. T. Beadles for his kindness to his successor in office, my appreciation thereof increased as familiarity with the work and the field revealed more fully its value: it was the Golden Rule put into practice.

Astoria invited its pastor, Rev. Frank S. Artz, to return for another year, but private business interests have since decided him to ask a location.

Astoria Circuit was supplied another year by Rev. E. P. Spurlock, and good meetings were held at Browning and Ray.

Under Brother W. P. Bowman's pastorate at Augusta there have been 46 conversions and 40 accessions. $350 have been spent for new walks, carpets, and other improvements at the church. The charge asks his return.

Bowen increases the salary of the pastor $200 next year as a thank offering to the Lord for the prosperity of the church. Forty-five conversions, 38 accessions, the Sunday school taxing the capacity of the Church, an eager Junior League, and an increase in missions justify the action. The charge desires Brother A. K. Byrns returned as pastor.

Rev. G. A. Cox was secured to supply Camden circuit. He reports 62 conversions and 23 accessions this year. He has done good work.

Camp Point is prospering. Twenty-seven conversions, 26, accessions, a large increase in benevolences, and electric lights placed in the Church indicate it. This place desires Brother Leo Howard returned as pastor, and will give him $100 more salary.

At Clayton there have been 19 accessions, the congregations and benevolent collections have both largely increased, and $200 have been put into improvements. The charge unanimously requests the return of Brother C. W. Monson as pastor.

Golden has a new parsonage worth over $1,500. The pastor, Rev. D. H. Hartley, took the contract, and built it, and now the people of that charge ask the Bishop to let Brother Hartley try living in the house he built.

La Prairie circuit reports the largest Sunday school enrollment of any circuit in the district. Brother W. T. Evans, the pastor, suffered severely with erysipelas last winter, but his activity after recovery enables him to bring in a good report nevertheless. This charge has in Brother W. R. Hoyt a most competent Recording Steward whose services have been given the charge continuously for 40 years in that capacity.

Littleton circuit will show an advance in benevolences, and evidences its appreciation of the pastor's labors by requesting that Brother G. W. Metzel be returned another year.

Loraine increased the salary $55 this year, spent $1,350 in improvements, which includes the complete remodeling of the parsonage, and increases its benevolent contributions under the pastorate of Rev. E. M. Barringer.

Brother S. R. Reno closed his third year's work at Mendon. A good revival with 15 conversions and 22 accessions is one result of the work.

From $750 salary seven years ago to $1,000 the past year marks the progress of Mount Sterling under the labors of Rev. N. M. Rigg during that time in every department of Church activity. It is the opinion of Mt. Sterling Methodists the time limit should not return, but Brother Rigg should for each year he continues in the ministry.

Brother W. E. Rose has served Paloma circuit acceptably for five years. Last year Coatsburg was taken from this charge and joined with Timewell. Improvements now in progress on this charge will bring all Church property on the circuit into first class condition.

For some time after Conference Rev. Abner Clarke, pastor at Payson, could not, on account of illness, go to his charge, nor was he a well man when he went, but he worked on and won health. Mrs. Clarke was bereaved of both father and mother this year, but the comfort therein is that neither needed to wait long in loneliness. Brother Clarke has done good, faithful work, and it is appreciated.

A severe fall made it impossible for Brother F. E. Smith, pastor at Plymouth, to pursue his Conference studies this year, or do full work most of the year, yet he reports 25 conversions, 19 accessions, and good benevolent collections. He is able to do full work the coming year.

Vermont Street Church, Quincy, has increased the benevolent collections, and its membership. Its finances are in the best shape in years. Its home mission work has resulted in a new Church, and a Sunday school that promises to develop into a Church. These things indicate the manner in which the pastor, Rev. Parker Shields, met his opportunities. Vermont Street asks his return for another year.

Grace Church is the name of the new Church in Quincy mentioned in reporting Vermont Street. Brother Shields and a committee from the Vermont Street official board leased Merrick Hall for a term of years, and the necessary repairs, which make it quite a good Church, were completed by the new year. Rev. M. D. Tremaine was secured as assistant pastor to Brother Shields in charge of Grace Church, and rendered very efficient service, and now comes up for admission on trial from a church which, while it cannot yet stand unaided, he has nevertheless had the honor of bringing out of the doubtful stage of a place where time and service will make it one of the most desirable charges in the Conference.

Quincy Circuit was divided this year. Rev. W. H. Day, who was teaching school at Marblehead, was given Marblehead and Seehorn to supply. * Rev. Carl Dussair finished the year here when Brother Day secured supply work in Missouri. Fowler and Melrose Chapel were supplied by Rev. J. W. McGinnis till Brother Tremaine came to take charge of Grace Church. Then these two points were given into Brother Tremaine's care. Brother Tremaine brings a splendid benevolent report from these points under the head of Quincy circuit. The necessities of Grace Church prevented Brother Tremaine giving the circuit points meetings.

At Rushville there have been 65 conversions, 50 accessions, benevolences increased, a furnace placed in the parsonage, and the pastor, Rev. J. E. Artz, is requested to return by the fourth quarterly conference.

On Rushville Circuit the pastor, Rev. M. V. Hill, has secured improvements and repairs on all the churches in the Charge, and has done all he could to prepare Oakland Center, an abandoned M. E. Church, where Rev. Andrew Potter held a successful meeting last winter, to take its place in Astoria Circuit the coming year.

Stillwell and Chili increased the salary of the pastor, Rev. Oel D. Ross, $50 this year. There have been 25 conversions and 18 accessions, and a fine increase in benevolences on this Charge this year. This Charge petitions that Rev. Ross be returned.

Timewell and Coatsburg were supplied by Rev. W. A. McKinney. Brother McKinney also took Marden Chapel, an abandoned Methodist Church, having for years had no Methodist preaching except on such occasions as Brother Rigg could spare the time to go there, and organized a society there.

Twenty conversions at Warsaw, a gain in benevolences, and financial affairs greatly helped, records some of the results of a hard year's work by the pastor, Rev. J. L. Minney. German and English Methodists should unite in this town.

From West Point and Basco I have not sufficient reports to represent the work as I would like to do, but the pastor has given faithful service. During this summer Brother C. S. Baughman was called to lay away the body of his father, whose home was suddenly changed from earth to heaven. Brother Baughman is following in his father's footsteps in his consecration to the Master's service.

Chaddock Boys' Home and School has grown too large for the space it occupies. New buildings and more ground is needed. Accordingly arrangements have been made for the purchase of a 25-acre farm with good, available buildings on it, and only one block from the street car line. One thousand dollars have been paid down, and subscriptions are being secured toward the remainder of the first payment. Miss Eleanor Tobie and her assistants are building an institution that will appeal more strongly to the hearts of the laymen than any other institution in the Conference.

Brother M. M. Davidson has done excellent work in a field the difficulties of which have greatly increased as the ranks of the veterans at the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home draw nearer the time when the last shall have entered an eternal home, and none speak more highly of his work than the members of that Home.

Five hundred and three conversions have been reported to me on the district, and 552 accessions. Of the advocates there are 21 Christian, 86 Centrals, and 187 Northwesterns taken, making a total of 295. That is good, but it leaves plenty of room for more of these or some other advocate to make the denominational spirit what it should be.

G. W. FLAGGE.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

We have had another year of substantial growth on the Springfield District. Statistics will show a decided advance over last year, as last year surpassed the year before. Not a step backward has been taken in nine years in membership or benevolence. On the contrary, each year has marked an advance. There has been no boom, but a natural and healthy development. If we have builded slowly, we have builded surely and permanently. We have more wealth, more intelligence and more consecration. We reach a mark this year in benevolence never attained before. We have better charges, and better preachers than ever, for the preachers are growing and getting ready and able for larger appointments. It is the growing preacher that makes the growing charge.

There is a District pride among us, an esprit du corps, that is very commendable, manifest in our Associations, League conventions, and missionary rallies. A disposition not to be out done by any other District. This righteous emulation I approve, and strive always to encourage. It is Scriptural to provoke one another to good work. It generates enthusiasm, and enthusiasm means victory.

We will report between three and five hundred conversions, the most extensive revivals being at Dawson, Edinburg, Taylorville, Virden and the churches in Springfield. Nearly all the Charges were refreshed and the membership increased by conversions.

Salaries have been advanced as follows: Loami $100, -Mt. Auburn $50, Waggoner $50 and Douglass Avenue, Springfield $200. Rochester pays $850, as a station, against $750, as a four point circuit two years ago, the greatest advance in salary in the district.

Brother James McCrory has achieved a great victory at Dawson in the erection of a splendid new church that cost about $8,000. It is modern in design and appointments, has an auditorium, Sunday school room, a number of class rooms and a large hall below, equipped with dining room, kitchen and other conveniences for social occasions.

To Brother McCrory and his wife, who organized and led the women, the credit for this great enterprise is universally ascribed.

The new church at Thayer mission, dedicated in February, is a beautiful and commodious structure, costing exclusive of grounds, about $3,400. The lot, worth $200, was donated by the Coal Company.

We are carrying a debt of over a thousand dollars on the building, but have never ceased our begging, and never will, till it is paid for. We have a Sunday school of over a hundred, mostly miners' children, whose parents are un-American and un-Christian. We have a few earnest members who are doing their best to combat the influence of half a dozen saloons in town of a thousand people. There would have been no church nor Sunday school there today, if we had not gone in and put one there by outside influence and money. It is a mission in which the whole District is interested, because, if it succeeds, it will be the fore-runner of similar undertakings in other mining towns equally Godless and destitute. Brother M. M. Want, our pastor at Virden has been the heroic leader in this forward movement. He raised most of the money. He inspired a couple of our well-to-do men at Virden to go into the enterprise with us, and to serve as trustees to the new Church.

He gave of his own means, as I have done, and worked fifty days with his own hands while the Church was being erected, and, by his example inspired others to donate their labor. He did about every kind of work that was done, except to carry the hod, and I am not sure but that he had some experience in that line. It took that kind of consecration to achieve success. And, brothers, it is time we had more of it.

These Godless communities are springing up every where, and rapidly changing the character of our civilization. The influx of foreigners amounts to an invasion. They are undermining the whole surface of the earth in the greed for coal, and just as surely tunnelling the fabric of society and storing it with the dynamite of socialism and anarchy.

We neglect them at our own peril. We must Christianize them, or they will heathenize us. This doctrine I am preaching all over the district and trying to get our people to see that the future stability of society, as well as the safety of life and property depends upon the civilization of these barbarians. And, the gospel of Jesus Christ is the only agency that can accomplish it. The work we have done at Thayer ought to be extended to half a dozen other mining communities whose moral condition is equally shocking and desperate. There is work for a home missionary in the Springfield District.

At Pawnee, A. C. Adams, pastor, a fine new parsonage has been completed at a cost of about $3,000. At Taylorville, Preston Wood pastor, the old parsonage has been sold, and a very desirable lot purchased, on which will be erected this fall, a new parsonage worthy of this rapidly growing city and Charge. Taylorville wants the conference next year.

A new parsonage at Shiloh will be ready for the new pastor, and Buckhart Circuit will build this fall.

Extensive improvements have been made on the Churches at Grove City, Frank McAnally, pastor,, and at Harvel on the Raymond Charge, John S. Mulcahy, pastor, and the churches at Bethel and Rural on Nilwood Circuit, F. M. Stephenson, pastor. The Douglass Avenue congregation, R. F. McDaniel, pastor, has already out grown the splendid new church dedicated two years ago. It became absolutely necessary to have more room for the Sunday school, and, after considering many plans, the trustees finally decided to finish off the large basement which was unused except for heating purposes. By an expenditure of $2,500 they have secured large and commodious rooms for Sunday school, social and other purposes, and will install a new steam heating plant for the entire building.

Our Epworth Leagues have experienced a genuine revival. We had the largest and most enthusiastic convention this summer ever held in the district. Several hundred dollars was reported on the station plan, and the district pledged $1,500 for next year, and assumed the support of a missionary in South America. Nearly one hundred Leaguers from the District attended the great convention at Denver, and came home with increased enthusiasm and consecration. There will be an increase over last year in the regular missionary collections from the Charges, and, that elect lady, Sister Mary Dunn, who gave $500 last year to missions, and $500 to the American Bible Society, has made a special contribution this year of $800 to missions. Sister Dunn, though 84 years of age, and very deaf, reads our Advocates, and her heart is stirred by the calls for help that come up from every part of the world. This is the explanation of these great gifts. Brethren, it pays to keep the Church papers in the homes of our people. Missionary literature is the seed that produces missionary harvests.

All the preachers have done splendid work. Brothers Hartman, Montgomery, Williams, and McDaniel close their fourth year of successful and popular service, and will be welcomed back again, if the Bishop shall see fit to reappoint them. Many others bid fair to remain as long and to succeed as well. In closing, it is my painful duty, to announce that, on account of failing health, two of our most worthy and beloved brethren will be compelled to turn from the active work. Brother M. V. Heidlebaugh, who has endeared himself to preachers and people, during his short connection with this conference, is so prostrated that he will seek recuperation in a milder climate. Being a young man yet, he will ask a supernumerary relation, hoping after a rest, to return and take up the work again. The saddest case is that of our dear brother Best, who closes his third year at Buffalo. While in perfect health otherwise, he is threatened with total blindness. The best oculists in the country afford him very little hope. A student all his life, a great lover of books, if the malady progresses, he will soon be able to read no more.

The faces of his loved ones will exist only as a memory. We hope and pray that this great calamity may be averted. But, just now, the darkness gathers, he cannot see his way, and will ask a superannuated relation. I know it will be granted with the deepest sympathy and sorrow. And, if our worst fears shall be realized, let us pray that the consolation of the great Milton in his blindness may come to our brother, as he reflects that "God doth not need either man's work, or his own gifts; who best bear his mild yoke, they serve him best. His state is kingly; thousands at his bidding speed, and post o'er land and ocean without rest. They also serve who only stand and wait."

Shortly after the last session of our conference held in Springfield, Preston Wood, who was so ill at the time that he was unable to attend a single session, passed from labor to reward. It is not for me to eulogize him here. His name and record are a part of our history for nearly half a century. He was the last of that constellation that included such names as Cartwright, Akers, Buck, Prentice and Davies. A son bearing his own name is in our ranks and Preston Wood will continue to answer roll call. May the Father's mantle fall on the son.

A. C. BYERLY.

WEST JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To the Bishop presiding and members of my Conference:

At the last Conference twenty-eight preachers received appointments from the hands of Bishop McCabe to do the work of Methodism within the bounds of this District and three charges were left to be supplied. Brother G. F. Hoots, because of throat trouble, gave up Naples. It has been supplied by N. L. Collins, who has done a good year's work. One month before Conference Brother G. W. Bradley surrendered his charge, asserting as his reason the sickness of his wife. Twentysix of the twenty-eight preachers with happy hearts and smiling faces make this report. The three charges left to be supplied have been cared for by faithful men and will make excellent reports.

Gratitude

is in our hearts toward our Heavenly Father. First, because there has been no crape on the door of any of our parsonages. Twice during the year Brother J. R. Edwards has passed through deep sorrow in the death of a brother and sister. In his sorrow he was consoled by the deep sympathy of his brethren. For nearly the entire year that hard working and faithful man, D. T. Back, has been sick and unable to do full work. The preachers have been kind and helped him so that he closed the year with the charge in a fine condition. Brother Black will retire from the active work, submitting his will to the Divine, asking sympathy and prayers from the brethren of his Conference.

Our second reason for

is in the abundant crop our Divine Father has given our people, for our fields rejoice to bring us much wheat, the valleys are full of corn, while the hills offer us an abundance of fruit. Yes, we have fish out of our rivers, honey out of the rocks, birds of every kind to sing, and flowers of every description full of bloom. Indeed this is the Switzerland of the Illinois Conference.

The third reason for our

is in the fact that we have had spiritual blessings. Every charge has witnessed souls converted. The Holy Ghost has revealed Christ to the people, and he has honored the preachings of the men who have lifted up Christ as the one Mighty to save. Brother W. C. Ross, a lay worker, assisted in three meetings in the District and was successful in helping the pastors to lead many souls to Christ. Apart from this the pastors held their own meetings and reported to me, eight hundred conversions.

The revival spirit has been with us all the year, for during the month of August we held seven all day rallies in different parts of the District in which much good was accomplished.

Improvements on the Property.

At Griggsville a fine modern Church, costing $12,000, has been dedicated. The pastor, Brother Drake, and his people merit the praise the people bestowed upon them for completing this enterprise.

October 15th is the day appointed to dedicate our Church at Winchester. It is one of the finest Churches in our Conference. It is modern in every respect, and is adapted for up-to-date church work. The pastor, Brother Lyles, and his people, are very happy over the way the Lord has helped them complete this Church.

Arenzville is a place where many people said the Methodists could never build a church house. Brother T. A. Adams is the pastor and he is the man who performed the miracle. Standing there about ready for dedicating is a beautiful Church costing $3,000. The old parsonage has been sold at Concord and a new one built at a cost of from $1,200 to $1,500. The Churches at McKendree and Concord both are newly painted, so that the Concord charge is ready to commence the year all new. At Monroe on the Bluff Springs charge, a Church costing $1,500 has been dedicated. F. C. Read is the pastor and is happy. At Naples the old parsonage has been sold and a new one is being built. Beside this the following amounts have been raised: Lynnville, $75; Carrollton, $700; West Jacksonville circuit, $420; White Hall, $100; Kinderhook, $125; Milton, $10; Manchester, $200; Griggsville circuit, $150; Bluffs, $50; Barry, $400; Perry, $300; Beardstown, $450; Hull, $200; Plainville, $55; Pleasant Hill, $150; Berdan, $85; Rockport, $250; Bluff Springs, $250; Chambersburg, $50; Roodhouse, $17; Pittsfield, $465; Versailles, $20; Naples, $341.

The Collections

Have been taken and when the reports are on our records I believe they will make a very good showing. The Conference should remember that we have no strong Churches to report large sums of money for the benevolences. The largest salary paid is $1,350. Land is not as valuable nor are our people as rich as in other parts of the Conference, and yet it cheers me to report an advance for missions over last year of $600, and there has been advanced for the cause in two years of $1,500, and it is hoped the other collections will not suffer.

The preachers hope for better things than even these for they are looking after

The Young People.

And are doing all in their power, through the home, the Sabbath school and the Epworth League to save the young people to Christ and the Church. Our District League convention was one of the very best of conventions. Some 50 of our young people attended and the Lord was with them in wonderful power, and many of the young people surrendered to the Lord for greater usefulness in the world. Six hundred copies of the Epworth Herald are taken and read by these young people.

Men and Money Needed.

Whatever we do, or do not need, we need men and money to develop this part of the Conference for Christ and Methodism. I will need seven or eight men to come into this District at this Conference. Many of the charges are not able to pay the salary the kind of men needed should receive. And larger salaries are paid in other parts of the Conference than in this, so that as soon as a man can do so he sets out (that is if he can) so that the condition confronting us is one which gives some of us some concern. Part of the cure for this condition of things is, first, for some strong Methodist preachers to volunteer to go and remain until they develop these weak charges. The second thing is for the missionary society to spend $1,000 a year in helping the men while they do the work. If this could be done for five years we would have a change of things in this part of the Conference that would be very satisfactory.

I believe in God and Methodism, hence hope for better days. We are praying, hoping and believing for a great revival.

It gives much pleasure to report that nearly every preacher will receive his salary in full.

Reports From Committees.

Commission.

We are glad to report to you that your commission perfected its organization immediately upon the adjournment of Conference one year ago, and has tried to be of continuous service ever since. Frequent meetings of the commission were impossible, but a very successful one was held in First Church, Springfield, in November, and in a day of great blessing for us, a school of instruction in evangelistic methods was held and plans were perfected which have produced results in every District throughout the year. By the more limited means of correspondence and publications in our Church paper, suggestions have been made which have resulted in special reading supplied to pastors and laymen, in some special local meetings, in District and sub-district organization, in public street preaching and definite revival efforts, at ministerial and Epworth League District gatherings, in summer camp meetings, and finally in the helpful pentacostal services under Dr. McKaig at the present Conference. Our chairman, Brother Robert Stephens, has been tireless in all these things and his fellow members on this commission desire to express their appreciation of his leadership. The reports from all our charges will show a total of conversions and accessions to the Church for which this Conference may well be grateful to God. Your commission is glad if, in any sense, we have been permitted to have a useful part in this work.

We recommend a more adequate organization of the commission for the ensuing year, as follows: It shall be composed of the Board of Presiding Elders, together with one pastor and one layman from each District, which pastor and layman shall be nominated by the Presiding Elder of the District, and announced, if possible, before final Conference adjournment.

The officers of such commission shall be a chairman, a recording secretary, a corresponding secretary and a treasurer. There shall be two standing committees, one upon evangelistic service and one upon finance, said standing committees to have such powers and duties as may be delegated by the commission.

The members of the commission on each District shall organize their own Districts for work at as early a date as is practicable. Each District organization shall have the right to formulate such plan of work as shall seem wise to itself in order to secure the largest results.

We are grateful for the presence of Rev. J. P. Brushingham, D. D., Secretary of General Conference Commission on Aggressive Evangelism, and for his useful suggestions on our work. We desire to heartily cooperate with the General Conference Commission in all their efforts for success in soul winning.

JOSEPH C. NATE,
Secretary.

Committee.

Your committee recommends the continuance of a special Conference commission on aggressive evangelism, and recommend that Rev. Robert Stephens shall be chairman of said commission.

We recommend that a camp meeting be held in each District under the direction of the Presiding Elder, the District members of the Conference commission and a committee to be chosen by them from the District.

We further recommend that the Conference commission be authorized to secure the subscription of two thousand dollars to be used as the commission may determine.

J. L. DANCEY,
Secretary.

S. W. BEGGS,
Chairman.

BENEVOLENCES.

Whereas, The last General Conference adopted a plan for the consolidation of the benevolent societies of the Church and raised a commission for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of that plan, therefore, resolved,

1. That we believe the best interests of the Church will be promoted by a speedy consummation of consolidation of these various societies.

2. That we will clearly set before our people the imperative duty of doing all within our power to advance the kingdom of our Lord both at home and abroad and among all peoples.

3. That we will earnestly strive to show them that the largest and best opportunities for effective endeavor in discharging this duty are found in the organized benevolent departments of the Church, namely, Missionary, Church Extension, Freedman's Aid and Southern Education, S. S. Union and Tract causes.

4. That we regard the work of the American Bible Society so vital to us as a Church, that we hereby renew our loyalty to it and its noble mission.

5. That we will give constant attention to the Doctrines of Christian stewardship and strive earnestly, both by teaching and by example, to enforce it upon our people.

6. That we will encourage by all wise means the system of tithing.

JOHN R. VAN PELT,
Secretary.

WM. H. WILDER,
Chairman.

CHURCH INSURANCE.

According to the last annual report of our Mutual Church Insurance Company, the usual 10 per cent dividend was declared for the year just closed, leaving a surplus of cash, $18,483.09, and notes not due, $227,266.15; total surplus, $245,749.24. We, your committee, recommend that the pastors and Presiding Elders urge our people to have insured in our company all Church property not now insured. Not only because of the savings effected under its terms and the convenience of meeting its annual payments, but also—and this we particularly wish to emphasize—because it is the only insurance organization that stands between thousands of our Churches and serious disasters. Let us help this work of protecting Methodism for it is only by reason of the co-operation of those more fortunately situated financially that business can be done and help extended to those dependent upon our company.

Respectfully submitted,

N. M. JONES,
Secretary.

T. F. SHOUSE,
Chairman.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Recognizing that the literature read in any community is not only an index to its culture, but an essential factor in the moral life of its people; and believing that the best means of preventing the circulation of vile literature is to keep people well informed concerning that which is good. Resolved:

That we earnestly recommend to our pastors the frequent attention to this matter from the pulpit and in pastoral visitation.

Resolved: That we call upon our membership, pastors and laymen, to use their influence with the local papers of their respective towns to the end that their columns shall be kept pure and fit for our homes.

Assured that the management of our publishing houses will permit nothing to issue from their presses except that which is helpful and wholesome.

Resolved: That we urge upon pastors the duty of acquainting their people with our own books and periodicals, and that we especially urge that our official publications be presented early in the conference year by pastors and their people be given opportunity to subscribe for them.

Respectfully Submitted,

H. T. WILLSON,

Chairman.

Secretary.

CUNNINGHAM DEACONESS HOME AND ORPHANAGE.

Cunningham Orphanage has had a prosperous year under the care of the Deaconesses.

The day school, kindergarten and sewing class have done excellent work. The children are developing many beautiful traits of character.

Our prayer meetings are helpful and doing much to mold the character and religious life of our girls and boys. We appreciate and thank the Epworth Leagues, Churches, any and all who have aided in this Christ-like work in sending donations of fruit, clothing, provisions and money. Eighty-six children have been cared for in the Home during the year. Applicants for admission are turned away for the want of room.

We need another dormitory and play room. We have a nucleus of $284.29 toward the addition. If the Lord shall put it into the hearts of His children to place the conditions around this Home so that its greatest usefulness may be reached, many more souls and bodies will be blessed, both in this life and the life to come.

MRS. A. W. CONKLIN.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The reports of the work of our deaconesses show commendable progress. The Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage needs enlargement. Children were turned away last year for want of room, but 86 children were cared for. A new dormitory and nursery are necessities. They have a $284 nucleus on building fund. Send any amounts to President of Managers, Mrs. A. W. Conklin, 507 North Franklin street, Decatur, Ill., by April, 1906. Vouchers will be returned. Receipts during the year including building fund, $5,086. Expenditures $4,742. Miss Eva A. Shull, matron, died Aug. 26. The characters of Emmeline Garrett, Susanna W. Hawkins, Elnora Hicks, Anna Bennett and Miss Cornell were passed. Also that of Minnie E. Courter, present matron.

The characters of Laura E. Aikin, Champaign, and Eleanor A. Tobie, Anna Johnson, Anna L. Logan, Emma S. Heverley, Mary Peters, Anna J. Davidson and Lucile Anderson of Chaddock Boys' Home and School were passed.

The following were licensed and recommended for consecration as deaconesses: Minnie E. Courter, Loraine Dalbey and Sarah C. Norfleet. W. H. Wilder, T. A. Canady and J. A. Lucas, class of 1908, and W. T. Beadles in place of A. C. Byerly, class of 1906, Deaconess Board of Nine, were recommended for appointment by the Bishop to those positions.

We commend the work of our deaconesses and the institutions they represent, to the prayerful and benevolent consideration of all our people.

T. A. CANADY,
Chairman.

W. A. SMITH,
Secretary.

Note: Miss Loraine Dalby was not present for consecration—sect.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

We have examined all data we could secure in regard to the actual work done by this society. While we regret that the collections taken for its support have not been larger, yet we rejoice that we can report an increase of about $500 as compared with last year. We suggest that in the future the claims of the Domestic Missions and Church Aid Society be more specifically presented, that offerings therefor be materially increased, and the crying needs of our weaker Churches fully set forth; since to fail in these particulars is to leave unsupported, societies that otherwise might be tided to abundant success.

ABNER CLARK,
President.

A. V. BABBS,
Secretary.

EDUCATION.

Board of Education.

We most heartily commend the excellent work for higher Christian education which is being accomplished for the Church through the Board of Education. We especially approve the emphasis which is being laid upon the Christian ideals. We urge that Children's Day be observed and that a collection be taken in every Charge according to the discipline. During the past year the Board has assisted 1,957 young people to pursue their studies in the institutions of our own Church. Since the beginning of the work of our Society more than thirteen thousand students have been so assisted. It will thus be seen that the work which is being done by this Board is very vital to the present and future welfare of the Church.

We commend the Christian Student to all our people as a very useful publication, touching the question of educational interests and methods.

We earnestly commend all our Christian institutions to our people of means. The Christian college was never more of a necessity than it is today. Its work is very essential not only to our own branch of the Church but to the very perpetuity of our Republic. There is no finer opportunity for investment than that which is afforded by the Christian school.

We are pleased to note that the work of the Board has been helpful within the territory of our own conference. During the past year students residing in our own territory were assisted to the number of 22, and to the amount of $1,485. The contributions of our Conference received by the Board were $1,390.99. We urge every charge within our Conference to become a regular contributor to this fund.

Boston University School of Theology.

We congratulate Boston University School of Theology upon its record, and prospects. We commend its insistence upon scholarship and its warm evangelistic spirit. Situated in the heart of a great city it offers unexcelled opportunities for practical work in city missions and evangelism, and we note with pleasure the amount of work done by both faculty and students in solving city problems. The recent changes made in the course of study are of a practical nature, and are calculated to give the young minister a more vital equipment for his work. It thus aims to meet the two requirements of an ideal Theological School, viz., to put the student in touch, first with the great truth he has to preach, and secondly with men with whom he has to deal.

We would nominate for official visitors, C. B. Taylor and E. M. Smith.

Chaddock College Boys' Home and School.

Under the management of the Deaconesses the year has been marked by growth and prosperity, which fact we gratefully note. There is an urgent need of more room. A recent purchase of 26 acres of ground with some buildings thereon has been made for $25,000, $1,000 of which has been paid and $9,000 is to be paid November 1st.

We commend the faith, courage and success of the school's management in all their efforts on behalf of the boys under their care.

We make the following recommendations:

1. For Conference visitors: The Presiding Elder of Quincy District and the pastors at Vermont street, Quincy, at Camp Point and Mt. Sterling; also C. R. Morrison, C. F. McKown and J. C. Nate.

2. For trustees for the ensuing three years: D. L. Steed, G. W. Flagge, G. M. Finlay to fill vacancy caused by death of H. E. Hewes, J. H. Clark and Mrs. Sarah Hartman.

DePauw and Ohio Wesleyan University.

We recommend the election of Theodore Kemp as a visitor from this Conference to the DePauw University and that of A. V. Babbs to the Ohio Wesleyan University.

Drew Theological Seminary.

This honored school maintains its past reputation for excellent equipment, sound and reverent scholarship, fine location and an evangelistic and missionary spirit. The proximity of the school to New York City gives its students exceptional facilities for sociological studies and practical work. We unqualifiedly recommend Drew Theological University as a place of ministerial instruction. We recommend as Conference visitors A. B. Flanigan and C. F. McKown.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

Owing to the strategic point that Garrett Biblical Institute holds in regard to situation on the lake front, near the great city of Chicago, and in the midst of the territory in which our Conference is situated, where the institute can know of the very problems with which our preachers have to deal, we heartily commend the institution to all who intend to enter our Conference, as an excellent place to get the training which shall make them the most proficient for their future labors. We endorse their professors and their teachings.

We recommend as Conference visitors Rev. J. A. Lucas, Rev. H. C. Gibbs, Rev. C. S. Lyles, Rev. W. A. Smith and Rev. Nathan English.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

At the June meeting of the trustees and visitors of the Illinois Wesleyan University Rev. E. M. Smith, D. D., retired from the presidency after five years of efficient service, carrying with him the love and good will of patrons and friends. The new president, Rev. Frank G. Barnes, D. D., assumed his duties July 1, and entered at once on a vigorous campaign to secure students and create a new interest in the school.

Dr. Barnes is a young man in the prime of life, scholarly in his attainments, broad and magnanimous in spirit and possessed of a deep religious fervor. He comes to us with several years of successful experience in connection with Christian schools and we bespeak for him the greatest success in his new field. We commend the wisdom of the Board of Trustees and Visitors in securing Dr. Barnes for this responsible position and pledge to him our hearty support in his work.

The opening of the present school year is marked by a spirit of hopefulness. Almost a hundred new students have already enrolled, making the attendance larger than that of any recent year, while faculty, students and patrons have caught the spirit that indicates faith in a new era for the Wesleyan.

We commend this school for its safe and conservative work. It stands for all that pertains to a broad and liberal intellectual culture, and for the inculcation of religious truth that lies at the foundation of character.

We nominate for members of the Board of Trustees and Visitors for the class of 1906-7 Mrs. Martha Buck, Decatur; Peter Whitmer, Bloomington; Sain Welty, A. M. LL. D., Bloomington, and W. A. Smith, A. M., D. D., Mattoon.

For Conference visitors we nominate C. Galeener, G. E. Scrimger, C. B. Taylor, A. C. Byerly, J. C. Nate and William Brandon.

Illinois Woman's College.

The past year has been one of marked prosperity. Three hundred and thirty students have been in attendance, crowding the capacity of the building. The faculty consists of 23 instructors, capable, faithful and efficient. Thorough work is being done in the class rooms. A cultured, Christian atmosphere, which is all pervading, constitutes a delightful and safe environment for young women during the formative period of collegiate education.

We heartily approve the administration of President Harker. His strong executive ability, his absorbing interest in the college, his knowledge of the field of colleges for women in general, and his own field in particular, his tireless energy and practical wisdom eminently fit him for the position he holds.

During the year the debt has been reduced by $5,000. A fine heating and lighting plant, together with steam laundry, has been added at a cost of $17,000 without debt. It is gratifying to know that while the property and equipment of the college is increasing, the debt is decreasing, thereby showing judicious and safe business management.

To secure the highest usefulness and permanence of the college for the future, additional buildings and at least $1000,000 endowment are much needed.

The trustees have determined to celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of the college in 1907, and to secure by that time, if possible, the moneys required for the above purposes. We earnestly recommend the pastors of the Illinois Conference and the people of our Churches to co-operate to this end.

As Conference visitors for the ensuing year we recommend the pastors resident in Jacksonville and Presiding Elders of Jacksonville, West Jacksonville, Springfield and Decatur Districts.

We nominate as trustees the following: For term expiring 1911, Judge T. B. O'Rear, Aelix. Platt, J. H. Osborne, J. W. Taylor, Edgar E. Crabtree and Joseph W. Walton.

For term expiring 1909: Rev. W. F. Short, D. D. As alumnae trustees, on recommendation of alumnae, Mrs. Lizzie Dunlap Nixon, for term expiring 1907, and Mrs. Lillian Woods Osborne and Mrs. Rachael Harris Phillips for term expiring 1911.

We congratulate the college upon securing the services, as its field secretary, of Rev. Horace Reed, D. D., of our Conference, and we respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Dr. Reed to that position.

Northwestern University.

We appreciate the visit to the present session of our Conference of Rev. Dr. A. W. Patton, of the Northwestern University faculty. We congratulate the Northwestern on its splendid progress made during the half century whose anniversary is celebrated this year.

Educational Monies.

We hereby recommend that any monies raised in any charge for any of our Church schools shall hereafter be reported to the Treasurer and Statistical Secretary under the regular educational column, and that amounts not specifically designated to any particular school shall be equally divided

MATTOON HOSPITAL.

In the Memorial Methodist Hospital at Mattoon, substantial progress has been made during the year. Subscriptions and cash to the amount of $6,345.68 have been taken. And 80 acres of land which had been willed to the trustees was transferred to them during the year by warranty deed.

We now have in land, the proceeds of which is forever to maintain the institution, $70,000. We also hold in deeds to land and property for the general fund $20,000.

We have recently purchased a beautiful location on which is a 28-room house, that is soon to be improved by the expenditure of $3,000.

We have also pledged the furnishings for four rooms, $500. We also have a complete outfit for the operating room worth at least $1,500.

PREACHERS' AID AND CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Resolved: First, that we earnestly commend to the members of the Conference, the claims and benefits of the Preachers' Aid Society, and that we request that the names of the beneficiaries of the Preachers' Aid Society be published in the Conference minutes with the number of years paid into said society and the annuity received.

Resolved: Second, that the claim on the Conference fund be apportioned to the charges by the presiding elders and the amount thus apportioned be collected prorata with pastor and presiding elder.

Resolved: Third, that we make an effort to meet the proposition of the Rev. W. H. Webster to give $500 to the Conference Claimant endowment fund provided that the Conference raise $4,500 for the same purpose.

Resolved: Fourth, that the statistical secretaries be instructed to place all monies received for Conference claimants in one column, and the column now used for "Received from other sources," be used to show the amount apportioned for Conference claimants.

J. J. Dugan,
Secretary.

PUBLICATION OF MINUTES.

We recommend that each pastor and presiding elder be required to take and pay for one copy of the minutes for every one hundred dollars and fraction thereof amounting to fifty dollars or more of the salary claim of his Charge, including house rent, plus two additional copies, carriage to be prepaid in every case where the money is paid before shipment.

Each presiding elder shall furnish the publisher of the minutes a list of the preachers in his district with the number of minutes each shall be required to take; after the shipment of the minutes, the publisher shall furnish each presiding elder with a list of the preachers in his district, who have not paid for their minutes, including expressage in his statement of account, and the presiding elders shall collect the accounts and forward the money to the publishers.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORMTemperance and Civic Righteousness.

Whereas, The many partial victories in the campaign which carried the local option bill within one vote of victory in the last legislature have demonstrated the efficiency of the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois as our agency for co-operation with other denominations in working against the saloon; and

Whereas, The retail liquor dealers of the state are alarmed and organized, and are engaged in raising a fund of one hundred thousand dollars to prevent fair temperance legislation, and to defeat the men who voted for local option at the last session, therefore be it

Resolved, That we believe the Church is in honor bound, and for her own protection must stand by the men who voted right on this great moral issue; and we hereby pledge our influence, our utmost efforts, and our votes, to secure the nomination and election to the next General Assembly of Illinois of men who will allow the people self-government on the saloon question.

Resolved, That we urge each Church in the Conference to send a full delegation to the State Anti-Saloon League convention to be held in Peoria, Nov. 13th and 14th, 1905; to co-operate earnestly in the county conventions that will be held later; and to push vigorously the work of securing and placing at the disposal of the League the completest possible lists of the voters of their respective communities, with their attitude on this question, as the one means by which all other plans for a successful local option campaign in connection with the coming legislative contest, can be made practical and effective.

Resolved, That we are unalterably opposed to the repeal of the Anti-Canteen law by Congress.

Resolved, That we urge upon Congress the necessity of discharging our sacred treaty obligations to forever prohibit the sale of liquor to Indians in the Indian Territory.

Divorce.

We view with alarm the growing evil of divorce. The proportion of divorces to marriages is greater in this country than in any other in Christendom. We deplore the tendency of legislatures to multiply the legal causes for divorce, and urge the adoption of more stringent and uniform state laws upon the subject until the whole question of marriage and divorce shall be regulated by Federal laws.

Mormonism.

We protest most earnestly against Reed Smoot being permitted to retain his seat in the Senate of the United States; and we urge our Senators from this state to vote and to use their influence in every honorable manner to secure his exclusion from that body, since as an apostle of the Mormon Church he has officially condoned polygamy and polygamous practices.

Resolved, That we respectfully urge Congress to submit to the States an amendment to the Federal Constitution forever prohibiting polygamy and all polygamous practices in the United States and in all places subject to their jurisdiction.

The Sabbath.

We deeply deplore the alarming growth of Sabbath desecration throughout our land. We believe that both our faith and our liberties are endangered by this unholy violation of the laws of nature and of God. We strongly condemn Sunday excursions, Sunday base ball and other amusements, the Sunday newspaper, all unnecessary Sunday labor, and all traffic and railroad travel upon the Sabbath day, and we urge all our people to set a Christian example by refraining from these things, and to use their influence in every possible manner against them.

Nominations.

This Conference being entitled to two delegates to the National Anti-Saloon League convention, to be held in Indianapolis November 22, 23 and 24, 1905, also to one representative on the Board of Directors of the National League, and to three members of the Board of Directors of the State League, we would recommend the election of the following brethren to represent us in these capacities:

For delegates to the National convention: W. H. Wilder and W. A. Smith; alternates, T. A. Canady, T. Kemp.

For member of the National Board of Direction: W. H. Wilder.

For Directors of State League: H. Reed, C. B. Taylor, C. W. Gulick.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Sunday School.

We are convinced that the income of the Sunday School Union should be very largely increased that it may be enabled to meet more fully the demands upon it, coming from both the home and the foreign field. To this end we approve and commend the plan proposed by the Secretary, that in our Sunday Schools a special class offering be made by every class during the year for the Sunday School Union.

Further, we commend to our people for use in our Sunday Schools the whole series of our Sunday School publications and strongly disapprove of the substitution of any other publications for our own. We congratulate the Church on the enlargement and improvement of the Sunday School Journal and we heartily approve the proposition of the editor that its circulation should be greatly extended by its introduction, so far as possible, into all our families as a stimulus and help to the study of the Bible.

Furthermore, we are heartily in sympathy with Dr. McFarland's plan for a more thorough training of the teachers of our Sunday Schools and we recommend that pastors use their utmost endeavors to procure for their Sunday Schools the teacher's library recommended by him in order that the teachers may have available the best literature relating to their work. And we are gratified with the announcement that arrangements have been made for an advanced course of Bible study in which the Methodist Church South and the Methodist Church of Canada are to join with our Church.

Epworth League.

We recognize the Epworth League as a mighty force in the world's evangelism and we rejoice to see the part our young people are taking in the great revival movement which is now among us. We affectionately urge all our leaguers to a full consecration to God for this glorious work, to this end we commend the personal worker's covenant.

Nothing can so strengthen the spiritual life of the individual as a knowledge of the work of foreign missions. In the League we find a splendid agency for the imparting of such knowledge, and we exhort our young people to organize mission study classes in every chapter, and to give their heartiest co-operation to the station plan.

We realize that it is to the rising generation we must look to solve the saloon question and we recommend that our leaguers be unceasing in their efforts to overthrow this terrible curse.

We nominate the following Conference officers: President, J. S. Dancey; Secretary, D. V. Gowdy; Treasurer, E. L. Pletcher.

C. H. DAVIS, Secretary.
C. F. BUKER, Chairman.

E. A. HEDGES, Treasurer.

TRINITY METHODIST EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Whereas, There are among the student body of the University of Illinois about 800 young people from Methodist homes representing every county in the State for whom there are no convenient adequate Church facilities, and

Whereas, Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, Urbana, has undertaken to make adequate provision for this body of Methodist young people and has actually raised the sum of $18,659 for this purpose from its local constituency and thereby reached the limit of the ability of that congregation, and,

Whereas, It will require about $15,000 more to complete this most important enterprise; therefore,

Resolved, That the members of the Illinois Conference be and are hereby instructed to present to their respective congregations the conditions, needs and opportunities of Methodism at the seat of the University of Illinois, and, not later than November 12th, 1905, to take a public collection and subscription to assist in building Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church, now being erected at the campus of the State University.

Resolved, That the amounts thus raised be credited in the reports of the next Annual Conference to the respective charges as "other benevolences."

Resolved, That this Conference respectively requests the other Conferences of the State to join us in this enterprise by taking similar action.

Resolved, That Rev. W. N. Tobie, the pastor of Trinity Church, be authorized to convey our request to the other Conferences and that he be permitted to select such persons to accompany him as he may desire.

Rules of the Board.

With plan of Study and Examinations for 1905-1906.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be divided into five departments, namely: Biblical Theology, Historical Theology, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology and Philosophy, miscellaneous studies being assigned to these departments so as most evenly to distribute the work. The Board of Examiners shall be divided into five sections, corresponding to the divisions of the studies. It shall be the duty of each Examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Examiners designated by the chairman, or, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange for some member of the Conference as special examiner for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed examiner, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the Board. No other grades will be given until Conference.

5. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the chairman of the Board. Such appeals shall be decided by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter, to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

8. Undergraduates shall present on each book to be read a book review of not less than 1,000 words nor more than 1,500 words.

9. All credits from Methodist Literary and Theological schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. These credits must be on a scale of 100.

10. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the chairman of the Board duplicate copies of all sets of questions to be used in examination two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time with the District Examiners for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Examiners are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the chairman; and the financial accounts of the chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the Conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of Conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of all candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection, which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information concerning the candidates obtainable, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another Communion, and the Board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-third vote of the members of the Conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. To facilitate the work of the Board in this matter, the names of all such candidates and applicants shall be reported to the Chairman as early in the year as possible, that he may have ample time to make all necessary investigations.

14. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders to report to the Chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for Orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the Chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular Conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of, and on the day before the session of, the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., to examine any who have not been examined during the year, to consider the matters involved in Rule 13., to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the year to come.

"Honorable Mention" with a public recognition of success will be conferred at the Conference of 1905 upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes respectively.

...Memoirs...

Rev. Melchoir Auer.

Rev. Melchior Auer was born in Schaffausen, Switzerland, June 25, 1841. At the age of eight years he came with his parents to the United States, settling in St. Louis, Mo. After a few years spent in that place they moved into Illinois, settling in Calhoun County. At the breaking out of the civil war he enlisted in the service of his adopted country, joining the First Missouri Cavalry. He served until September 1, 1864, when he was honorably discharged from the service. He was converted while living in Calhoun County under the labors of Rev. Elijah Corrington and joined our church, to which he was ardently attached, and for which he devoted all the energies of his life. At the close of his army service he began preparations for his education and entered Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington, Ill., from which he graduated in 1870. Having received a direct call to the work of the ministry he joined Illinois Conference in 1870 and was appointed to West Jacksonville Circuit as junior preacher, with the venerable J. H. Dickens as his senior. Brother Auer served successively the following charges: 1871, Newcomb Circuit; 1872-3, Wapella; 1874-5, Gibson City. In 1876 he was granted a location at his own request. He spent the next three years in Garrett Biblical Institute. In 1879 he was readmitted to the conference and appointed to Pittsfield, where he served two years. In 1881-3 he served Virginia; 1884, Virden; 1885-7, Winchester; 1888, Leroy; 1889-90, Delavan; 1891, Macon; 1892-3, Decatur Circuit; 1894-7, Rossville; 1898-9, Fairmount. In 1900 he was appointed chaplain of the Danville branch of the Soldiers' Home at Danville, Ill., where he completed his earthly labors. In 1872 he married Miss Alice A. Pugh, which proved to be a happy union. To them were born three sons, who survive, with an adopted daughter. Brother Auer was called to Rossville, a former charge, to attend a funeral on December 27, and while returning from the cemetery, walking with a number of friends, without a moment's warning, fell to the ground dead, without a struggle or a word. He was a faithful minister of the Word, and won many souls for his Master. He was held in highest esteem by his brethren of the conference, for his life was pure and transparent. As a husband and father he was a model in all respects, and as a citizen and comrade none was more revered than was he. The funeral services, held in Danville, were in charge of S. H. Whitlock, the presiding elder, and addresses were made by the pastor of the family, Rev. T. N. Ewing, Rev. Robert Stephens, and the writer, Rev. Mr. Ault of Grace Church, Rev. Mr. Shouse of Lincoln Church, Rev Mr., Gibbs of First Church, and Rev. Mr. Pletcher of Fairmount. Rev. Mr. Haley of Marshall also took part in the services. His body was taken to Shelbyville, Ill., for burial.—S. H. Whitlock.

Rev. Albert G. Blunk.

Rev. Albert G. Blunk was born in Hendrix County, Ind., October 1, 1868. When thirteen years of age his parents moved to Marshall, Clark County, Ill., where he grew to manhood. He was educated in the public schools and graduated from the high school of Marshall with the class of 1890. In his nineteenth year, under the ministry of Rev. D. F. Howe, he was happily converted and at once united with our church, soon becoming active and efficient in the Master's service. The pastor and quarterly conference recognized his rare ability, and in 1889 licensed him as a local preacher. At the session of Illinois Conference of 1890 he was appointed to supply Marshall Circuit. With such eagerness and devotion did he apply himself to this large and difficult field that at the close of the year the quarterly conference unanimously requested his return and without a dissenting voice, recommended him to the traveling connection in Illinois Conference. During the second year on Marshall Circuit he married Miss Cecile Keller of Marshall. At the Clinton Conference, September 22, 1893, he was admitted to full membership. For him to share the lot and labors of a Methodist preacher was to have part in the grandest work to which God ever called a human being. His appointments were: Marshall Circuit two years, one as a supply; Grandview, two years; Mattoon Circuit, one year; Bethany, three years; Christian, four years; and Indianola, where he was closing his third year with rare acceptability. In each of these charges and every church he ever served, he had the great joy of seeing souls born into the kingdom of his Christ and the church built up. He preached a simple, full, and plain gospel in the spirit of tenderest sympathy and love. He was never known to be happier or more hopeful than he had been during the spring time. There seemed to be evidences of returning health, and in it he saw the promises and opportunities of larger service. After five short days of severe sickness he died May 19, 1905.—R. Y. Williams.

Rev. James A. Burks.

Rev. James A. Burks, the son of Moses and Louisa Burks, was born in Park County, O., March 5, 1837. He was converted at the age of 13. At the age of 21 he was united in marriage with Miss Mary A. Hughes, a Methodist young lady, who has shared the experiences of his life for forty-seven years. He came to Vermillion County, Ill., in 1863, and united with the church at Fairmount by letter in 1864. January 27 of that year he was licensed to preach and spent two years at the Northwestern University in order to better qualify himself for the work which he faithfully and fervently followed for twenty-three years, until his voice gave way under the continued strain and exposure, when he was placed on the superannuated list, but not until he had gathered 1,000 souls as trophies for the captain of His salvation, who commissioned him for that work. However, he continued a faithful and constant worker in the church, and Sunday school, from which his presence was missed during his recent affliction.

Since his retirement from the ministry, eleven years ago, he had resided in Bement, a good citizen, loyal to his friends and loyal to his church.

At the call of his country he volunteered in the Seventy-eighth Indiana for sixty days, and after one month of hard duty was captured at Uniontown, Ky. After his release he came home very sick, but afterward reenlisted in the service of his country in 1865.

On Decoration day he made a short but impressive appeal to Bement citizens and referred to his own failing strength as well as to the fact that his comrades were failing and falling fast. He bore the marks of suffering on his face for some time, but finally concluded to resort to surgical treatment, hoping thereby to prolong his life. He bade his friends good-bye, not knowing what awaited him, and came to Decatur and submitted to the operation by skilled surgeons. For a while things seemed hopeful, but the last thirty-six hours of his life consciousness was gone, but the marks of peace were on his face and in his eyes. A few minutes after midnight October 22 he closed his earthly career.

Services were held over the remains at the home of his son, Mr. C. A. Burks, in Decatur, conducted by Rev. W. J. Davidson, and Rev. Horace Reed, assisted by the Revs. J. W. Eckman, and J. W. Van Cleve. On Sunday the funeral was conducted from his home church in Bement, by Rev. A. B. Peck, assisted by the pastor of the Christian Church of that place. After the service the body was taken by train to Fairmount for burial.

Rev. Adam Young Graham

Rev. Adam Young Graham, son of Rev. Issac Graham, a local preacher of our church, was born April 5, 1831, in West Moreland County, W. Va. He was baptized in infancy, was converted and united with our church in early life. During his young manhood he worshiped with the United Brethren Church for a few years, and was licensed by them to preach November 6, 1852. On July 12, 1856, the quarterly conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Highland Circuit, Baltimore Conference, recognized him as a preacher regularly licensed by the United Brethren Church, and received him as such, and he was received on trial in the Baltimore Conference the same year. He was ordained deacon in 1859, at Lewisburg, Va., by Bishop Baker, and was ordained elder in 1863 at Jackson, Mich., by Bishop Simpson. He served the following charges in the Baltimore Conference: Highland, 1856; Waynesboro, 1857; East Rockingham, 1858. In 1859 he went to Garrett Biblical Institute, from which he was graduated in 1861. He then transferred to Michigan Conference and served Allegan, 1862; St. Joseph, 1863; Decatur, 1864; Lawton, 1865-6; Cassopolis 1867-8; Berrien Springs, 1869; Pokhagon, 1870. Was transferred to the Missouri Conference, and appointed to Carthage, 1871; Nevada, 1872-73; Oscela, 1874-75. Transferred to the Illinois Conference, Shelbyville Circuit, 1876; Assumption, 1877-78; Bethany, 1879-80; Westfield, 1881; Casey, 1882. In 1883, on account of his voice failing, he took a superannuate's relation and moved to Westfield, Ill., where he quietly spent the rest of his years in the service of the Master, and, so long as health permitted, supplied pulpits for his brethren. Many young ministers received great help and encouragement from his experiences. Brother Graham was a close student, a strong preacher, unassuming, always happy in the Lord's work. He married Miss Martha L. Drake of Chicago December 3, 1861, and for nearly forty-four years they walked life's pathway together. To them four children were born. Two daughters survive—Mrs. Georgiana Campbell of Farmer City, Ill., and Miss Bertha. In his family relations he was very happy. A few hours before his death he quoted passages of Scripture and shouted "Blessed be the Lord, Amen! and Amen!" On August 3, 1905, he died. The funeral services were conducted by his pastor, Rev. J. W. Dundas, assisted by Revs. Messrs. Tharp, Pawson, Morton, English of his conference, and Revs. Messrs. Mills and Seneff of the United Brethren Church, and Rev. Mr. Lutz of the Free Methodist Church. The interment was in Maple Hill Cemetery, Westfield, Ill.—J. W. Dundas.

Rev. John Franklin Horney.

Rev. John Franklin Horney was born near Brooklyn, Schuyler Co., Ill., January 18, 1852; he died at his home in Russell, Kansas, March 20, 1905.

In 1870, Bro. Horney professed religion in a meeting held at Elm Grove on the La Prairie Circuit, and almost immediately felt his call to the ministry. Ten years were spent in preparation, as he had to make his own way through school. He was a student in the Illinois Wesleyan University, although he was not graduated from that institution.

In 1878, he was married to Cora May Hulén. In 1880 he united with the Illinois Conference, remaining in the active work for seventeen years. In 1898 he took a nominal appointment, and the following year, because of failing health, he took a superannuary relation.

Bro. Horney was uniformly successful as a preacher, pastor, and evangelist; he having held some remarkable revivals during his ministry. His appointments were as follows: 1880, Ludlow; 1881, Blue Mound; 1882, Farmington; 1883-84 Assumption; 1885-86, Rosemond; 1887, Fisher; 1888-90, Sadorus; 1891-93, Bellflower; 1894, St. Joseph; 1895, Fairmount; 1896-97, Chrisman; 1898, Champaign, as assistant pastor; 1899-1903, supernumerary; 1904, superannuate.

During the last year of his pastorate at Bellflower, 1898, his wife died. Her death was a blow to him from which he never fully recovered, for from that time on there was a perceptible decline in his energy and work.

Bro. Horney leaves a wife, to whom he was married in November, 1901, and a daughter, Mrs. F. C. Hartley, both of Russell, Kas. He has ceased from his labors and entered into his reward.

Rev. John C. Sargent.

Rev. John C. Sargent was born near Markham, Morgan County, Ill., June 27, 1828, and died at his home four miles west of Jacksonville, Ill. June 3, 1905. He married Miss Belinda Holiday May 28, 1848, who, after a happy and helpful companionship of fifty-seven years, survives. In 1851 he was converted and united with our Church. His conversion made a deep impression on his character, and he at once resolved to enter the ministry, and devote his life to that work. He was received on trial in the Illinois Annual Conference at the session held at Springfield, Ill., October 11, 1854, Bishop Morris presiding. The following is the record of the pastoral charges assigned him while effective, and his subsequent conference relation: 1854, Hardin; 1855-6, Manchester; 1857, New Hartford; 1858-9, Lynnville; 1860-1, White Hall; 1862-3, chaplain in the army; 1864-6, Payson; 1867-8, Quincy, Fifth street; 1869-70, Griggsville; 1871, Hillsboro; 1872-4, Greenfield; 1875-6, Clayton; 1877, Mount Sterling; 1878, West Jacksonville Circuit; 1879, North Jacksonville Circuit; 1880-81, South Jacksonville Circuit; 1881, Chapi; 1883-95, supernumerary; 1896-1904, superannuate. As a preacher he was earnest, practical, and popular. He possessed in very remarkable measure the gift of song, which was successfully used to the delight and edification of the people, and the advancement of the work in all the charges to which he was appointed. His genial manners won him multitudes of admiring friends. He will be greatly missed in the various gatherings and services of the church, in all of which he was always a conspicuous and honored representative. Three sons and several grandchildren survive. Funeral services were held in Centenary Church, Jacksonville, in charge of Dr. W. H. Wilder, assisted by several resident members of the conference.—W. F. Short.

Rev. Preston Wood.

In the death of Rev. Preston Wood, which occurred at his residence, 1030 South Second Street, Springfield, Ill., Saturday, Oct. 1, 1904, at 1:30 a. m. Illinois Conference loses one of its oldest, most highly esteemed members. Preston Wood was born in Pickering, Yorkshire, England, Aug. 6, 1825. As a boy he learned the printer's trade, but after his conversion he united with the Wesleyan Church, and, taking the prescribed theological course, entered the ministry of that connection in 1847, serving Rotheram and Pickering circuits. His father and mother, Preston and Anne Lythe Wood, had preceded him to this country and were taken away by the cholera scourge of 1850. Business connected with his father's estate necessitated his coming to this country in 1851. In 1852 he joined Illinois Conference, of which he remained an active member for fifty years. He served the following charges: Hillsboro Circuit, Waverly, Beardstown, LeRoy, Decatur Circuit, Atlanta, Clinton, Lincoln, Carlinville, Danville District, Bloomington District; agent Illinois Wesleyan University, Griggsville District, agent Preachers' Aid Society, Springfield District, and superintendent domestic missions in the order named. In 1892, without solicitation upon his part, he was elected chaplain of the Illinois State Senate. He was a delegate to the General Conference of 1872 and was appointed by the bishops delegate to the Ecumenical Conference at Washington in 1891. He was for many years president of the Preachers' Aid Society of Illinois Conference, an institution which owes its existence to his suggestion, and to his untiring exertions and business acumen its present prosperity is largely due. At the time he assumed the agency of the Illinois Wesleyan University, at the worst period of the panic of 1873, it was on the verge of financial collapse. He left it in a hopeful condition. During fifty-two years he missed but one roll call of his conference. In addition to his regular work in the cabinet he was thrice called in to serve pro tempore on occasions of the illness or death of presiding elders. At one conference he represented two districts. It was as presiding elder that his talents shone most brightly. He was a discerner of men, impartial in his judgments and showed neither fear nor favor in his attitude toward his preachers. As a preacher he was strong and methodical, with a vein of poetry in his make-up that served to render his pulpit efforts both ornate and strong. As an avocation he pursued the study of geology and American archaeology. His collections in both these directions are of much value. He was a contributor to the collections and literature of the Smithsonian Institution and enjoyed the friendship and confidence of Professor Henry and Major Powell.

During the rebellion he was appointed chaplain of the Thirty-Eighth Illinois Volunteer Infantry, whose fortunes he followed until sorely wounded at Fredericktown. Illustrative of his character, the surgeon offered to recommend that six months' leave of absence be granted him. "If I cannot serve my country I have no right to be a burden at such a time as this," was his reply, and he gave up his commission. Returning home he went out, at great personal inconvenience and at the cost of much suffering, to plead for volunteers and to solidify the Union sentiment in Central Illinois. This service won him the friendship of such notable figures as Illinois so freely furnished in the dark days of the great conspiracy. He was a member of the Loyal Legion, of Stephenson Post Grand Army of the Republic, and was a colonel and chaplain of the Illinois Division Union Veterans' Union. Aug. 8, 1853, he married Miss Jane K. Christian of Montgomery County, Illinois. Together they toiled faithfully and lovingly in the Master's service for over fifty-one years. Their home was ever open to the Methodist preacher. Many remember with gratitude their hearty hospitality and helpful sympathy. To this union were born nine children, six of whom survive. They are: Major William T. Wood, inspector general United States Army; Mrs. W. S. Phillips of Pontiac, Ill.; Mrs. J. T. Galford of Clear Lake, Iowa; Miss Catherine Wood of Springfield, Ill.; Rev. Preston Wood, our pastor at Taylorville, Ill., and Rev. Albert L. Wood, pastor at Brooklyn, Wis. There are also eleven grandchildren. The funeral services were held from the home in Springfield and were in charge of Rev. Nelson G. Lyons, pastor of First M. E. Church. A large number of ministers of our own and sister denominations was present. Rev. A. C. Byerly, D. D., presiding elder of Springfield District, spoke in high appreciation of the deceased. Drs. W. F. Short and W. H. Musgrove, both of Jacksonville, Ill., and perhaps the closest friends of Brother Wood, each delivered brief addresses. Interment was made at Oak Ridge Cemetery.—B—N. W. C. A., October 25, 1904.

Mrs. Sarah J. Emerson.

Sarah J. Roberts, daughter of John and Sarah Roberts, was born in Canada, July 25th, 1827. When she was a child, the family immigrated to Illinois, and settled at Barry, in Pike county.

She became the wife of Ira Emmerson, March 12th, 1846. In 1852, her husband was received on trial as a preacher in the Illinois Conference. They labored together in the travelling ministry until 1880. Brother Emerson closed his ministry at Edinburg, Ill., and it was there they made their home. On May 3, 1898, Sister Emerson was bereaved of her husband. Last fall she went to Amsterdam, Mo., to spend the winter with the family of her son, Charles A. Emerson. She had been in feeble health for several months. ty-seven years and six months.

Besides her son, she is survived by a brother, Smith Roberts of LaSalle, Ill., and a sister, Mrs. Dr. Dunn, of Perry, Ill.

In the Conference obituary of Brother Emerson occurs this tribute to his wife: "With whom he lived happily for more than fifty-two years. She was a helpmate indeed, and survives him, waiting for her call to follow on." From a child she knew the Lord, and early united with the Church. When very young, her father made her a life-member of the Missionary Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church. So her strong Christian character, and long life of usefulness stand as a monument to the godly training and uplifting influence of a Christian home.

The funeral service was held in the Church at Edinsburg Wednesday, February 22. The sermon was preached by A. C. Byerly, Presiding Elder. H. M. Ingram and E. H. Lugg assisted in the service. Lovely and pleasant in their lives, the bodies of Brother and Sister Emerson lie side by side in the Edinburg Cemetery

Mrs. Reuben Gregg.

Mrs. Reuben Gregg, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Richard Bird, was born in Sangamon county, Illinois, August 23, 1836. After a long and painful illness she found release from this mortality at her home in Princeton, Kas., June 10, 1905. Brought up in the home of a Methodist itinerant, she entered another and was for many years the faithful wife and co-worker of her now bereaved husband, the Rev. Reuben Gregg. Her father and mother, years ago, took up their dwellings in the new home and were waiting the gathering in of the children.

Mrs. Gregg was richly endowed with the spirit of courage and patience, which stood her well in hand when she came to the great battle of her life which took the form of a siege, with many desperate assaults. The soul, inside the battered citadel, did not surrender; it capitulated and was caught away to the "city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God."

Her controlling thought in life was not of herself, but of the welfare of others. She was glad to give, but slow to ask or receive favors. Her great cheerfulness, which grew from the legitimate soil of a clear conscience, often expressed itself in song as she would be about her work. On one day she was known, thus to sing entirely or in part thirty-eight different songs, several times repeating some of them. To console her stricken husband, as she lay on her death bed, she directed his thought to the precious legacy he would have for memory when she was gone, the bliss in which they had lived together. He finds comfort, and will wait a little longer, hoping to do some work for the Master.

The funeral was preached by her pastor, the Rev. Blackburn, prayer being offered by Bro. MacLean of Ottawa, Kan.

Mrs. Mary Muirhead.

Mrs. Mary Muirhead, whose maiden name was Blackstock was born at Peterborough Ontario, Canada, in 1821. She was married to the Rev. James Muirhead in 1852. They came from Canada to Illinois in 1856, where Mr. Muirhead labored faithfully in the Master's vineyard till 1891. During this time the wife served as a faithful co-worker. They have no children of their own, but they adopted a little girl, named Anna Henderson, who afterward became the wife of Dr. W. R. Wilson, of Hoopston, Ill. Here Sister Muirhead, after her husband died, found a pleasant home, where all that love and devotion could devise was constantly bestowed upon her. She died December 28 1904.

The funeral services were conducted by the writer. Sister Muirhead was highly honored for her good works and fidelity.

A. L. T. Ewert.

Margaret E. Everly.

Margaret Elwood Everly was born in Herkimer county, N. Y., February 12, 1835. She died at Kankakee, Ill., October 27, 1904.

She was converted at an early age, and was, from her conversion, untiring in her work for the Master. In 1860 she was married to Rev. John Everly, whose death occurred in 1893, and greatly aided him in his labors in the Illinois Conference for over thirty years. She devoted her life, unselfishly, to work among the young people, being never so happy as when surrounded by the children of the Sunday School and the young people of the church. The poor and afflicted were the objects of her greatest solicitations, and she often deprived herself of the comforts of life in order that she might aid others, believing that "it is more blessed to give than to receive." She was especially gifted in prayer, and many young persons have been led to the throne of Grace through her supplications in their behalf, and her own Christ-like life as an example to them.

For many years her afflictions caused her to give up active work, but her heart was always with the cause of Christ and she used every opportunity that came to her "To tell the old, old story of Jesus and his love." During recent years her Bible was her constant companion, and all her letters to her children contained passages of scripture dear to her and helpful to them.

She leaves two children to mourn her loss—L. L. Everly, of Chicago, and Mrs. W. H. Kerrick, of Bloomington, Ill.; also a brother, D. P. Elwood, of Decatur, Ill.

Funeral services were held in Bloomington, Ill., October 29, and were conducted by Rev. B. F. Shipp, pastor of Grace M. E. church, assisted by Rev. James Shaw and Rev. Frank McCarty.

Rev. Thomas H. Fierce.

Since the convening of this session of the conference word has reached us of the death of Thomas H. Fierce, who passed away at his home near Mattoon, Ill., Wednesday afternoon, Sept. 20, 1905, being between fifty-five and sixty years of age. While a youth he entered the Union Army and went forth in the service of his country.

He was converted in early life and became a minister in the Free-Will Baptist Church from which denomination he came into the membership of the Methodist Episcopal Church about the year 1888 and supplied the Cowden circuit one year, 1888-1889, and the Mattoon circuit 1889-1890. He was then admitted into the Illinois Conference and was appointed to the Mattoon circuit which he served for another year. His subsequent appointments were Bismark, 1891 and 1892; Pilot, 1893 and 1894. In 1895 he took a supernumerary relation which he held until 1900 when he was appointed to Trilla; 1901, Collison; from 1902 till his death he was a superannuate.

Brother Fierce was a good man; loyal and true. As a preacher he was forceful and evangelical. He believed the Bible to be the word of God, and he preached it to the edification of believers, the conviction of sinners and the conversion of penitents. He was a man of strong convictions and did not hesitate to stand by them under any and all circumstances. He was always found on the side of righteousness.

Brother Fierce was never satisfied with his work as a minister unless souls were converted, consequently he always had revivals. Many are living witnesses to the power of the gospel as preached by him. It may justly be said of him as Luke said of Barnabas:—"He was a good man and full of the Holy Ghost and faith and much people were added unto the Lord." His memory is precious and we shall meet him bye and bye.

Historical Address.

EARLY RELIGIOUS LEADERS AND METHODS IN ILLINOIS.

An Address Delivered Before the Historical Society of the Illinois Conference at Farmer City, Ill., Sept. 23, 1905, by Rev. W. F. Short, D. D.

The subject of my address is so comprehensive that it would require many volumes to contain a full account of all the matters, events and persons connected therewith. Indeed, many volumes have been written upon the subject from time to time, by persons of capability and integrity, some of whom were active participants in the events they relate. Those accounts, with the limited means for collecting and preserving such data at the time, are necessarily fragmentary and incomplete. Thus a vast amount of matters of historical interest and value on many subjects have been irreparably lost. It will be impossible to compress a satisfactory history suggested by my subject in thirty minutes. I have availed myself of the contributions of historians who have written upon the subject of my topic. So my paper is little more than a brief compilation of what other writers have preserved for us. Without giving credit in every case where such use has been made, I will here name some of the sources of the facts herein related: "Gazeteer of Illinois," by J. M. Peck, published by Mr. R. Goudy in Jacksonville, Illinois, in 1834; "History of the Presbyterian Church in Illinois," by A. L. Norton, 1879; "Early History of the West and Northwest," by S. R. Beggs, 1868; "History of Methodism in Illinois," by James Leaton, 1883. A number of other historians and writers have greatly enriched us by their contributions upon these subjects.

Any historical record of the settlement and early events of Illinois that should omit mention of the religious phases and persons of that time would be as defective as the presentation on the stage of Hamlet, with Hamlet left out. Indeed, no one phase seems to have been more prominent. The religious element is inseparable from human nature. It can not be eliminated from man's constitution. No abyss of intellectual and moral debasement has ever obliterated it. No means have been found that can destroy the poison of the rattlesnake. It defies the intensest heat and the most powerful acids. So it is with the elements of religion; reverence, humility, adoration, prayer, gratitude, fear, faith, hope, love; they can not be extinguished.

Owing to the poor facilities for transportation of their families and limited effects, and the hardships of a tedious and long journey, and the great privations of a residence in a new country, it was rarely undertaken except by persons possessing a large amount of energy and moral stamina. Hence among the pioneers of the state there was only a small per cent of thriftless and vicious immigrants. Many of the pioneers had been members of churches, and brought with them strong religious convictions and habits, and at once established such means as the circumstances would permit. But it must not be inferred that all who came were possessed of a sympathetic regard for religion. At that time, the beginning of the last century, and for some years, there had grown up in our country and in Europe, a wide-spread and influential infidel sentiment. It had pregated the minds of a small per cent of those who came at that time to Illinois. In some communities it was dominant. In such places the men of prominence and influence in business and in the professions were indifferent, if not unfriendly, to religion. In other places the opposite was the condition in regard to religion. I am personally acquainted with a number of communities in the state where the present religious conditions are still typed by that circumstance at the beginning of the settlement of the country. In the one case the religious conditions are still relatively weak; in the other they are dominant. It has been an irreparable misfortune in one case; in the other a priceless boon.

There are some little discrepancies in the dates given by different writers respecting the introduction and organization of the various churches in Illinois, but they are too slight to impair the historic value of the account.

The early representatives of religion in Illinois were Roman Catholics. That fact is not peculiar to Illinois and other parts of our country. It has been characteristic of that church from their beginning. No body of Christians has ever shown greater missionary enterprise, zeal, heroism and self-denial in the propagation of religion. None seem to have been actuated by purer and more unselfish motives than some of those that early entered new fields. Whatever may be said in disparagement of their methods and means (which might be affirmed in some particulars of others) it must be admitted that the world is better today by reason of their existence and work. More than one hundred years before we have any account of any Protestant minister or organization within the bounds of the territory of Illinois, Marquette, La Salle, Joliet and Hennepin traversed the long distance from the Atlantic communities through unbroken wildernesses to minister to the scattered French settlements and Indians. As early as 1673 they established missions at Kaskaskia, Cahokia and Peoria, and other points on the Mississippi.

In most of the western states the first settlement of the country and the introduction of Methodism were contemporaneous. Scarcely had the pioneer erected his cabin before the itinerant Methodist preacher was there with his saddlebags containing his Bible, hymn book and discipline, to proclaim to him and his household the glad tidings of a free salvation, and to gather them into the fold of Christ. But that was not the case in Illinois. The state had been settled more than a century before the first Methodist sermon was preached within its bounds; and it was more than thirty years after that before a Methodist conference was organized in its territory. The exact year in which Methodism was introduced into Illinois is not positively known; but it seems probable that the first Methodist was Captain Joseph Ogle, who was converted through the instrumentality of James Smith, a Separate Baptist preacher of Kentucky, who visited and preached in Illinois in 1787, who was undoubtedly the first Protestant preacher who visited the territory. So we accord to the Baptists the high distinction of the leadership of the Protestant hosts in our state. Also, to this day they have been fully abreast in influence and effort and honorable success with all the churches.

Captain Ogle was a native of Virginia. He came to Illinois in the summer of 1785, settling first in the American bottom in the present county of Monroe, and afterwards removed to St. Clair county, where he died in February, 1821, at the age of eighty years.

The first Methodist preacher who visited Illinois was Joseph Lillard, then a local preacher of Kentucky (who, during his visit, gathered the few scattered Methodists into a class and appointed Captain Ogle as their leader. That was in 1793; and was the first Methodist class or society in the state. Four or five years after Mr. Lillard's visit, John Clark visited the settlements in Illinois. He was a Scotchman. At the age of twenty he entered the British navy. He was taken prisoner and sent to Havana, where he remained in prison nineteen months. He subsequently visited England, and had several conversations with Mr. Wesley, and often heard him preach. In 1798 he crossed into Missouri, being, it is believed, the first Protestant minister who preached the gospel west of the Mississippi.

In the same year in which Mr. Clark came, Hosea Rigg, the first resident local preacher in Illinois, settled in the American bottom, in St. Clair county. He extended the work, and organized other societies in Madison county. In appearance Mr. Rigg was tall and quite thin. He had a voice of wonderful power. He was a man of deep and active piety, abundant in labors, and very tenacious for Methodist doctrine and usage, and was very useful in the church. He died at his residence near Bellevue in 1841, at the age of eighty-one.

Another early settler who aided in the introduction and establishment of Methodism in Illinois was William Scott. He moved from Kentucky, and settled at Turkey Hill, in St. Clair county, in 1797. He died in 1828.

In 1803 the western conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church embraced all the country west of the Allegheny mountains. The Illinois mission the first pastoral charge, was formed with Benjamin Young as pastor. In 1806 Jesse Walker was appointed to the Illinois circuit. When a child nine years old he was awakened under a sermon preached by a Baptist minister and soon after was converted. Here again Methodism is indebted to the Baptist church. To Jesse Walker Methodism in Illinois and Missouri is doubtless indebted more than to any other single individual, for throughout a large portion of both states he was literally its pioneer.

In April, 1807, Mr. Walker held the first campmeeting ever held in the State, about three miles south of the present town of Edwardsville. The meeting was an occasion of powerful spiritual manifestation, many persons being affected with that strange movement known as the "jerks." At one of Mr. Walker's campmeetings Enoch Moore was converted. He was the first American male child born in Illinois. He was licensed as a local preacher, and held that honored office till his death in 1848. He was a member of the convention that formed the first constitution of Illinois. For a number of years he was circuit clerk of his county, and for twenty years he was probate judge. He was a lineal ancestor of the present governor of Illinois, the Hon. Charles S. Deneen. Time does not permit even the mentioning of the multitudes of names of noted ministers and laymen who were conspicuous in establishing and extending the work of the Methodist Episcopal church in Illinois in those early years. Among the illustrious galaxy would shine John Clingan, James Word, William McKendree (afterwards Bishop), Samuel Parker, James Axley, John Scrips, Samuel Thompson, Jesse Haile, John Dew, David Sharp, Nathan Scarritt, Stephen R. Beggs and many others equally distinguished for their abilities and usefulness.

In 1817 Zadock Casey who had settled at Mt. Vernon, united with the Methodist church. He was elected to the state legislature in 1828; in 1830, Lieutenant Governor; in 1832, to Congress, in which body he served ten years; in 1848, he was a member of the state constitutional convention, and afterwards a member of the legislature. For more than forty years he was a faithful and useful local preacher. Later the Rev. Newton Cloud, long a gifted local preacher, and a member of the Illinois conference a number of the last years of his life, who was president of the State constitutional convention and repeatedly a member of the State legislature, very much resembled Mr. Casey in his great religious and political public services. Those men, like many others of their time, took a prominent part in laying the foundation of both the church and the State. In 1812 Peter Cartwright was appointed Presiding Elder of the Wabash district, at that time included in the Tennessee conference. At the end of the year he returned to Kentucky, and continued his ministry there till 1824, when he was appointed to the Sangamon circuit. Then began a career that has had no parallel in the history of the Methodist church in a number of particulars. He was a man of great physical power, indefatigable energy, superior mental force, and remarkable organizing and executive ability. The delineation of his life and work have been duly preserved in his auto-biography, and in other published accounts.

Any account of the early religious leaders in Illinois would be incomplete if the name of the peerless Peter Akers, D. D., were omitted. As a Biblical scholar and able and eloquent speaker he stands alone among all the Methodist preachers in the Mississippi valley.

It would be singular if, considering the peculiar conditions of the times, and the great number of preachers, there should not be some who became noted for various eccentricities. Indeed, such instances were frequent. Rev. William Stribling was a notable illustration of such marked peculiarities. His early ministerial life and work was in Kentucky, where he was a colleague of Dr. John P. Durbin and Dr. Henry B. Bascom, afterwards Bishop of the Methodist Episcopal church, South. On great public occasions like camp meetings in their day, the three ministers were brought together, when they would engage in a sort of pulpit tournament in oratory and preaching. They were a trio of ministerial giants. The world's fellows would sometimes make such contests an opportunity for unhallowed and unlawful profit by staking considerable sums upon the ability of the preachers which was decided by competent judges of their own kind and appointment. Stribling's wonderful power is still remembered by many who heard him in the meridian of his strength after his coming to Jacksonville. While strikingly peculiar in person and manner, he was greatly more so in his common use of language and mode of expression. The following examples may serve to indicate his eccentricities in that particular. Being violently opposed to the use of tobacco, he once administered a reproof to an old smoker in this manner: "Venerable sir, the deleterious effluvia emanating from your tobacconistic reservoir so overshadows our ocular optics, and so obfuscates our sensorium, that our respirable apparatus must shortly be obtunded, unless, through your abundant sauvity and preeminent politeness, you will disembugue that illuministic tube from the stimulating and sternerutatory ingredient, which replenisher the rotundity of the vastness of its concavity."

The proverb, "You can't make a money purse out of a sow's ear," he refined in this manner: "At the present era of the world it has been found to be impracticable to fabricate a sufficiently convenient pecinary receptacle from the auricular organ of the genus sou."

I have not at my command any source of information as to the time when the Baptist church was first organized in Illinois, nor the names of those who are entitled to that distinguished honor. But it is quite certain that they were here as early as any Protestant branch of the church. By the year 1834 that denomination included 19 associations, 195 associated and five unassociated churches, 146 preachers and 5,635 communicants. Eight hundred and sixty-five persons were baptized and united with these churches in 1833. From the beginning they have been behind no other church in zeal for evangelical Christianity, in enterprise, and in all that makes for religion, for morality, and individual and social integrity.

Possibly the most conspicuous character in the Baptist church in the early history of the State was the Rev. John Mason Peck, D. D. He was a man of large physique and commanding presence. He was born at Litchfield, Conn., in 1789. He died at Rock Springs, St. Clair county, Ill., in 1858. He had received a good classical education, which, united with his rare natural gifts, gave him a place in the first rank among the great preachers of his day in the State. Fifty years ago I heard him preach a most masterful sermon. The appearance of the man and the theme come up with wonderful distinctness as I write these words. In forcefulness and executive ability he was to the Baptist church in Illinois what Peter Cartwright was to the Methodist church. He was the author of a number of valuable works.

From the exhaustive history of the Presbyterian church in the State of Illinois, by Rev. A. T. Norton, D. D., published in 1879, we learn that the first Presbyterian minister who visited the Illinois country was John Evans Finley. He landed in Kaskaskia in 1797. The next Presbyterian ministers who set foot on Illinois territory were John F. Schemerhorn and Samuel J. Mills. They were licentiates, that is, were unordained preachers. They say in their report, "In the Illinois territory, containing more than 12,000 people, there is no Presbyterian or Congregational minister." That was about 1812. The church of Sharon, in what is now White county, is the oldest Presbyterian church in Illinois. It was organized by Rev. James McCready in 1816. From that time Presbyterian churches were organized in many places. In 1834 they had one synod, five presbyteries, 50 churches and 34 ministers.

Rev. B. F. Spillman appears to have been in the Presbyterian church in pioneer times what Cartwright and Peck were to the Methodist and Baptist churches. Dr. Norton says, "Presbyterianism in Illinois owes much to B. F. Spillman. He was the pioneer in the State. For a time he was the only Presbyterian minister, connected with the assembly, residing and statedly laboring in this vast domain, now containing three synods, 11 presbyteries, 420 ministers, 487 churches and 43,987 members. All honor to the man who stands, instrumentally, at the head of these grand results."

Rev. Samuel Giddings was in the territory as early as 1816, and was actively engaged in organizing churches in the vicinity of Kaskaskia. A score of illustrious names will occur that stand out conspicuously for ability, heroism and success in planting the Presbyterian church in our State in those trying times. Volumes might be written of Gideon Blackburn, Bergen, Ellis, Hale, and many others whose praise is in all the churches.

I have no account of the organization of Congregational churches in Illinois. In 1834 there were three or four. For some years ministers and members of that church settling in Illinois usually united with the Presbyterian church.

In 1834 there were three Protestant Episcopal churches in the State; one in Jacksonville, one in Rushville, and one in Galena. Rev. Philander Chase, D. D., was the first Bishop. He was succeeded by Bishop Whitehouse. He was a preacher of great ability, learning and activity.

In the Cumberland Presbyterian church Rev. John Berry deserves to be placed among the great leaders of the church in early times. He rightly takes rank along with the most distinguished leaders of other churches of that time. He was the author of an able volume on the subject of baptism.

Very little time is left me for the presentation of the distinctive methods of evangelistic work in Illinois in the early years of its history. Some characteristic methods were so very marked and general among all religious organizations that we may profitably recall and consider them.

The itinerant method was necessary and universal. The churches were few in membership, poor in means and widely scattered. It was many years before any were able to support a settled pastor. The circuit plan was universal. The ministers of all churches belonged to the "traveling connection." In many instances their pulpit effects partook of the same character. Announcing their text, "they went everywhere, preaching the word." Their preaching was largely doctrinal, polemical, and hortatory. Those early preachers believed some thing. Agnosticism had no place in their creed. A surfeit of modern scholarship, mixed with a large proportion of vainglorious ambition for distinction had not developed chronic Biblical paundice. They were too busy about the higher and lower verities of heaven and hell to be drawn aside to amuse themselves with the vagaries of the higher and lower criticism. They had deep and clear convictions concerning the great truths they proclaimed. They accepted them as eternal verities. They concealed nothing that they found revealed in the Holy Scriptures. They offered no apology for their earnest proclamation. They did not suggest and foster unbelief by interjecting the assumptions of modern criticism; nor trifle with the eternal interests of their hearers by the introduction of silly, sensational, and sacreligious themes to attract a crowd. They did not dim the light of the gospel by introducing the magic lantern and the stereopticon.

At that time throughout the country a fierce controversy was raging upon some of the dogmas of the church. The preaching of the time was therefore marked by polemical tournaments. The Arminian and the Calvinist, the paedobaptist and the immersionist, often went to their pulpits with their war paint on, prepared to prove their doctrines orthodox by the word of God, and under strong provocation, would not shrink from proving it by "blows and knocks."

The gift of exhortation, now almost a lost ministerial gift, was a distinguishing feature of the pulpit power of that time. Earnest exhortation followed every sermon. Frequently some one especially gifted in exhortation was chosen to follow the sermon with an application and appeal. Frequently the result was tremendous. Multitudes of all classes would be moved as by an avalanche. Many persons prominent in business and professional callings were swept as by a resistless power into the experience of a new life. In many instances business men, physicians and lawyers gave up their pursuits and at once began to preach the gospel. Many of the ablest preachers of that time were recruited in that manner.

It should be remembered that for a number of years there were no church buildings. Services were therefore held in a great variety of places. The log cabin of the backwoodsman being the usual sanctuary. Later the rude school house became the place of public worship. Barns were built with a large floor for threshing grain. Those were often used on special occasions. The advent of the world's Redeemer occurring in a stable, by natural association, may have given special impressiveness to a Christian service held in such a place. Certain it is that sublime messages were delivered, and glorious results occurred under such surroundings.

The campmeeting, the feast of the forest, took its rise as the result of such conditions at that time. It was the natural outgrowth of existing circumstances. A place would be selected affording shade and water. The plot of ground was arranged in the form of a parallelogram, with a large open space enclosed by tents. In that open space a rude platform for a pulpit was erected, in front and around which seats, made usually of rough, undressed lumber were placed. Sometimes a large pavilion was built covering considerable space. Various methods were used for lighting the camp at night. Sometimes a platform six or eight feet square, and supported by posts five or six feet high, located at several points, were built. The platform was covered with earth, and upon that a fire was kept burning. Sometimes lard oil lamps were used. A tin horn or shell was used to call the people together for worship. Sometimes some difficulty was experienced in finding a man of sufficient bellows capacity to blow the instrument. In such cases a preacher would be substituted, I suppose, because of his capacity for blowing. The tents were often made of rough lumber. Sometimes of cloth. In some instances covered wagons were used for sleeping purposes. Cooking was done in the rear of the tents by fires made against large logs. The meetings usually continued a week; sometimes two weeks. Campmeetings were often pentecostal occasions as remarkable in results as the apostolic. Frequently many hundreds were converted and added to the church. Some very singular manifestations in the form of nervous excitement, called the "jerks," that convulsive or spasmodic action, under high spiritual excitement, was wholly uncontrollable and affected alike ignorant and educated persons. It was very common, and prevailed in Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Kentucky and Tennessee. The consensus of intelligent opinion, gathered from competent witnesses, from different churches, is that it was a supernatural manifestation.

Another method that the early religious leaders employed was the circulation of good books. They believed that the reading of the people had much to do with their religious experience and life. Hence they supplied the people with safe and stimulating books. Robust religious character and efficiency can not be attained without the knowledge of the doctrines and achievements of the church. Hence the church wisely provided a suitable supply of literature for her membership. It will be a sad, a ruinous misfortune when the reading of the church is confined to the current popular publications of the secular press.

The last characteristic method of the early religious leaders of Illinois that I shall mention, is their promotion of education. That phase of churchly activity has been conspicuous everywhere from the beginning. The church has been the promoter of education. It has organized the inseparable connection between intelligence and the best type of piety. It has witnessed the dread folly of divorcing the intellect and the heart. Secular education, unaccompanied by moral influences, is more likely to prove a curse than a blessing. History abounds with instances confirmatory of that fact, both in individuals and communities. Attention was early given to the cause of education by all the churches in Illinois in pioneer times. One of their first concerns was to plan for the establishment of schools. The interest that the State is taking in the matters of education is largely due to the influence of the churches. The State may wisely take a part, within certain bounds, in the education of the young. But it would be a lamentable mistake and misfortune for the church to relinquish all part in that fundamental interest. The founding of Illinois college at Jacksonville was mainly due to Rev. John M. Ellis. The same account of McKendree college, through Bishop McKendree and other Methodist preachers can be established; and the founding of Shurtleff college through the efforts and leadership of Rev. John M. Peck. The same is true of the younger and greater educational institutions of the State. They are mainly the outgrowth of the churches.

From this brief and imperfect outline of the early religious leaders and methods in Illinois, we can realize in some measure at least, our great indebtedness to the heroic and self-sacrificing efforts of those who laid the foundations of our social, civil and religious institutions.

All hail to those immortal forerunners! They were the advance guard of an on-coming host that made this Immanuel's land. They advanced the picket lines to the sea-girt boundary of the continent. Their toil and triumph has become our inheritance. From their lofty eminence they must look down on us with sympathetic interest and large expectations. Is it improbable that on our annual convocation they may revisit their successors in the work they loved and honored?

One family we dwell in Him;
One church above, beneath,
Though now divided by the stream—
The narrow stream of death.
One army of the living God;
To His command we bow;
Part of the host have crossed the flood,
And part are crossing now.

I will close with the following extract from Washington's farewell address: "Of all the dispositions and habits which lead to political prosperity, religion and morality are indispensable supports. In vain would that man claim the tribute of patriotism, who should labor to subvert these great pillars of human happiness, these firmest props of men and citizens. The mere politician, equally with the pious man, ought to respect and to cherish them. A volume could not trace all their connections with private and public felicity. Let it simply be asked, where is the security for property, for reputation, for life, if the sense of religious obligation desert the oaths which are the instruments of investigation in the courts of justice? And let us with caution indulge the supposition that morality can be maintained without religion. Whatever may be conceded to the influence of refined education on minds of peculiar structure, reason and experience both forbid us to expect that national morality can prevail in exclusion of religious principle. It is substantially true that virtue or morality is a necessary spring of popular government. The rule, indeed, extends with more or less force to every species of free government. Who that is a friend to it can look with indifference upon attempts to shake the foundations of the fabric?"

A Charge to the Pastor

Be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity. Till I come give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine. Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophesy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery. Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all. Take heed unto thyself, and unto the doctrine; continue in them; for in doing this thou shalt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.

—Paul.

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

Bloomington District was served this year by twenty-five regular pastors and three supplies. The first of January Dr. J. A. Lucas asked to be released from his charge at Clinton, that he might take up another line of benevolent work. In harmony with the wishes of the church at Clinton and the request of the two presiding elders concerned, the Bishop changed Rev. N. M. Rigg from Mount Sterling to Clinton; and, without the loss of a service, the work has gone steadily and successfully forward.

The first Sunday after conference our church at Saybrook was re-opened after having been modernized and redecorated under the labors of Rev. J. Glick, at a cost of about $3,500, all of which was provided for. In December the church at Waynesville, which, under the leadership of Rev. W. O. Roush had been rebuilt, at a cost of about $2,000, was re-opened; and, during the same month a beautiful and commodious new church was dedicated at Heyworth. It having been erected at a cost of $10,000, which was fully provided for on the day of dedication.

Much credit is due Rev. E. S. Combs and his faithful church in the erection of this building.

With his usual energy and adaptability as a church builder, Rev. J. L. Settles is leading a splendid building enterprise at Green Valley. When completed it will be one of the most complete and attractive churches in the district. They hope to have it ready for dedication by November 18th.

As soon as possible, after conference, Rev. J. S. Dancy began to plan for the erection of a new church to take the place of the old Lucretia Chapel.

This work presents a great many complex problems, but with his wise judgment and faithful perseverance Brother Dancey is surmounting the difficulties and reaching toward success. Under the inspiration and earnest appeals made by Bishop Hamilton on the first Sunday in April $6,000 was raised in the Methodist churches of Bloomington toward this enterprise. This, with the property, which the society already possesses, will go far toward the completion of the building which is now in course of erection. The name of the church was changed from Lucretia to Park and the Society hopes to be in its new place of worship by the first of the year.

The Delevan Church has been thoroughly repaired and redecorated and when I assure this conference that it was done under the direction of that peerless artist, Rev. Thornton Clark, I am sure you will all agree it must be beautiful. There have been improvements of more or less magnitude on many others of our churches and in connection with these we have a beautiful new parsonage erected at McLean at a cost of $3,000, due largely to the good generalship of the pastor, Rev. J. C. Baker.

At Wapella, Rev. G. E. Burton has raised the money and they are now erecting a new parsonage at a cost of $2,100.

At Minier Rev. Walter E. Rose has just completed the rebuilding of the parsonage at that place and Rev. W. D. McIntosh with his faithful people on the Lincoln circuit have rebuilt and thoroughly modernized their parsonage at Lincoln.

At Arrowsmith, Rev. T. W. Greer has succeeded in paying off the remaining indebtedness on that church, and Rev. Theo. Kemp at Grace Church has done likewise. For all the above purposes, over thirty-four thousand dollars has been raised. With few exceptions Bloomington District is now well equipped with good church buildings and comfortable parsonages.

A number of the charges increased their pastor's salary this year. In all to the amount $1,200, all of which we have reasonable assurance are paid in full.

Last year twenty-five of the twenty-eight charges in the district were ranked in the first class for Missions by the apportioning committee at New York. We have tried hard to have all take rank in that class this year.

We have lost some in our special gifts for Missions this year, but have gained in the regular contributions, so we trust there will be a gain in the total amount. While the missionary work has been pushed the other causes have been faithfully presented and we are confident will make a creditable showing.

The Epworth Leagues of the District are in a healthy and prosperous condition besides doing the regular lines of league work, Bible and Mission study classes have been conducted, and in a material way the leagues of the district have contributed over fifteen hundred dollars for the support of Dr. J. O. Denning and his work in India. Among the institutions in the district which are showing unusual activity is the Illinois Wesleyan University. Dr. F. G. Barnes, with his boundless energy, and great enthusiasm is inspiring new life in every department of the work. There was a large increase last year in the attendance and while it is too early to know the exact enrollment this fall, we are sure it will show a large increase over last year's.

The literary work done is of the highest order, while the religious interests are emphasized and developed. The Methodists of this Illinois Conference should patronize this institution.

Early in the conference year I called the pastors and number of the laymen together, at which time we discussed the spiritual needs of the charges in the district. All seemed to feel the need of a great religious awakening. Some plans were discussed by which the desired results could be obtained. During the winter some of the pastors exchanged work, with good results, others employed evangelists, while others did their own evangelistic work. Good meetings were held in nearly all the churches, some having meetings of extraordinary influence and power. In all, over one thousand conversions were reported. God has blest the preachers and their families of the Bloomington District with the best of health during the year. No deaths in the parsonages and no cases of serious illness, and but one death among our retired workers, that being sister Geo. W. Reed, who passed triumphantly to her reward, after a long illness. Of our veterans, Rev. W. C. Lacey and wife at Green Valley, are active and among the most loyal supporters the pastor has in his building enterprise. Rev. James Shaw and wife of Bloomington, while growing more feeble, are as deeply interested in the work of the church and spreading of the gospel as in the days of their greatest activity.

Three times during the year the death angel seemed very near to Rev. J. M. West, but under the blessings of God and the untiring ministrations of his faithful wife he was nursed back to his former health again. There are none more faithful to the church than they. Personally, I wish to testify to the faithful work and uncomplaining service rendered by the pastors of the Bloomington District. They have labored earnestly for the Master. Their homes have been open at all times to their presiding elder and their welcome most cordial. There is no fellowship like that of the Christian ministry. The words of the old hymn are certainly true of this fellowship:

Blest be the tie that binds
Our hearts in Christian love,
The fellowship of kindred minds
Is like to that above.

J. B. HORNEY.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT.

To Bishop Hamilton and members of the Illinois Annual Conference.

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

During the session of this conference held in Urbana in 1886, Bishop Foster, after listening patiently to the reports of nine presiding elders, remarked that "a sermon with nine heads and thirty or forty sub-heads was entirely too long." Since then the tendency has been toward omitting many sub-heads and the art of brevity. If after eight years of practice this Presiding Elder shall have succeeded in the effort at condensation, it is not to depreciate or ignore any detail of this important work, but to economize the time and patience of the conference and save space in the conference minutes.

The year has been characterized by material and spiritual prosperity.

Evangelism.

The progress in the evangelistic phase of our work is indicated in the following: In 1904 there were reported 357 conversions for the year. Last year, 800. This year, 1600. Received from probation, 650; increase in membership 700. My purpose has been to keep before our people the great work of the church, which I understand to be "to seek and to save that which was lost." It is gratifying that the response has been with growing interest, zeal and success. One factor contributing to this increased interest and success has been the all-day, week-day meetings of an evangelistic nature, held in various places in the district during the last quarter of last year. The policy was repeated this year, for the good effect it might have upon district evangelism next year.

Building Enterprises.

New church building enterprises materialized at Champaign, Rantoul and Deland. New parsonages at Paxton, Bellflower, Rantoul and Deland. Gifford society dedicated a beautiful church costing $5000 last November. At Ivesdale the new $3,000 church was dedicated in June. The churches at Rantoul and Deland will be dedicated in November. Pastor E. K. Towle and family are occupying the splendid new parsonage at Rantoul while the elegant parsonage at Paxton and Bellflower will be ready for pastors Beadles and Crews early in the new conference year. Pastor Tobie has arranged for the dedication of Trinity church on Sunday, Oct. 7. Then his dream will have been realized in the completion of one of the most beautiful and churchly appearing edifices in Illinois, and the final inauguration of one of the most important religious enterprises in Methodism. God, his co-laborers and he alone know of the sacrifice and toil incident to the realization of this dream. Trinity Church is a monument to a Methodist preacher and an official board who, in spite of multiplied difficulties knew no such word as fail. All of these building enterprises represent a financial investment of $185,000.

Benevolences.

Building enterprises in some of our charges which have heretofore contributed largely to the benevolent enterprises of the church, gave us not a little concern as to the probable effect upon our benevolent collections. Trinity Church and Deland report every claim in full.

In the aggregate a large sum has been raised for benevolences. By personal appeal and otherwise I sought to interest the district in the India Missions Jubilee Fund. The San Francisco disaster served to side-track the presentation of this cause at the time suggested by the Jubilee committee as the pastors and people were quick to respond to San Francisco's need. Some charges have advanced; others have dropped below the offerings of former years. Pastor Flanigan reports $1,200 for missions from First Church, Urbana. Total for missions, $8,400.

Church Auxiliaries.

All of the departments of church activity are alert and successful. The Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues were never more efficient. The Ladies' Aid, W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. prosecute their work with growing enthusiasm and success. On 20 out of 32 charges the Sunday schools have a Home Department and 14 maintain Cradle Rolls.

Pastors' Salaries.

In 15 instances the claims for pastoral support have been advanced over last year, aggregating $1,900. There was an advance last year of $2,000. There will be little, if any, deficiency. 22 charges out of 32 have plans which insure the prompt and certain payment of these claims, weekly, monthly or quarterly. Same are slow to abandon an old policy of courting a deficiency by procrastination. Fithian enjoys the distinction of being the one place where the pastor's salary is raised in full at the beginning of the year. Dr. Gilmore is the fortunate pastor. He is invited to return with an advance of $200 on the same terms. At First Church, Urbana, this year every claim has been met in full each month. The funds to meet them have come in to the treasurer without solicitation. We doubt if there be another charge in the conference that can report so perfect a financial plan.

The Monthly Ministerial Meetings culminated in a largely attended and profitable annual gathering at St. Joseph in May.

The District Epworth League was entertained at Gibson City. The attendance was large, the interest great and unflagging. One of the results of the convention's deliberations was the decision to take up the support of Prof. Elrick Williams, one of its own Leaguers, who will go to Chen Tu, West China, this fall, where he will teach in our mission school. Prof. Williams has been connected with the Department of Chemistry in the University of Illinois. His great interest in the cause of missions has finally constrained him to devote himself to the work abroad. He will be a valuable addition to our forces in China.

It has been a busy year at the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage. The buildings have been repainted and put in good repair. The Home has been filled with children who have been given devoted christian care while at the Home, and many provided with homes, among christian people. Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis, of Ft. Wayne, Ind., have been employed as manager and matron. They have had large experience in the care of children and their employment assures the economical management of the institution. An important addition to the endowment of the one was the bequest of a 160 acre farm by the late J. C. Sheldon. This conference should not overlook this worthiest of its philanthropic institutions.

There has been little sickness and no death in the parsonages. On Aug. 24, Bro. M. R. Palmer, supernumerary, after a heroic battle for life entered into eternal life.

I regret to report the illness of Bro. J. T. Orr, one of our honored and beloved superannuates. It is a great disappointment to him not to be present at roll call. Bro. Isaac Groves, in the late evening of a long and useful life, awaits with patience the summons to reward.

The uniform kindness and consideration which pastors and people have shown to me make a heavy draft upon my gratitude, to honor which I am pleased.

Statistics.

Number of conversions, 1600; accessions from probation, 650; increase in membership, 700; offering for missions, $8,400; support of Bishops, $450; superannuates, $775; India Jubilee fund $133; San Francisco fund $150. Native preachers supported 6. For building improvements $7,133. For other benevolences $4200.

Respectfully submitted,

C. B. TAYLOR.

DANVILLE DISTRICT.

Bishop Hamilton and Members of the Illinois Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

Time in its rapid flight has swept by another milestone and another Conference year belongs to the never-to-be-recalled past. The year on Danville district has been replete with earnest endeavor and some degree of success. The thirty-six pastors appointed by Bishop Cranston one year ago went cheerfully and hopefully to their charges and without a single break have continued until the close of the year. Two charges were left to be supplied which was done without delay and all have wrought with a zeal born of a purpose to succeed.

Revivals.

Revivals were held in all the charges in the district resulting in 1241 conversions and 1002 additions to the membership of the church, an increase of 1481 members over last year, and making a total of 9444 members in the district. We are devoutly thankful to the Heavenly Father who has blessed the work of the pastors enabling them to record this measure of progress and substantial gain.

Church Property and Material Interests.

Some real progress is being made in the matter of property interests. The old church properties at Ridge Farm and Chrisman were both disposed of and more eligible locations were secured and now modern structures are in process of erection. These new buildings will have all the latest improvements and conveniences for successful church work. These new properties when completed will have required an expenditure of fifteen thousand dollars each. May 16 the church building at Murdock was burned entirely. The trustees wisely carried an insurance of $2000 and with that to start with $5000 more was readily secured and a building costing $7000 is being erected.

The pastors of these charges Brothers Fletcher, Williams and Juvinnall are nobly leading in these enterprises and the people are loyally supporting them. During the year there has been paid on old indebtedness $4958 and raised for new improvements $15,929. The church property of the district is well insured and in good condition and is being well cared for by the board of trustees.

Salaries.

There was an increase in the amount allowed for pastors' salaries of $1200 and save in a few cases all salaries have been paid in full. It has been my constant aim to impress upon the Quarterly Conference the fact that many of the Methodist preachers were underpaid men, and in response to that plea many of the charges increased the amount allowed and in some of the charges we have taken that matter up and planned for a still larger increase for the coming year.

Benevolent Interests.

The pastors have very loyally supported any plans that have been suggested by myself for an increased interest in the connectional interests of the church and have worked faithfully and well to bring success. The sums contributed for the benevolent objects will exceed that of former years.

Sunday School and Young People's Work.

In the Sunday School department we are making some advance. There is a better system of teaching and better organization, and the result is that better work is done. We have 72 Sunday schools that live all the year. They are using our own literature and working along the lines of Methodist polity and Evangelistic Christianity. The Epworth Leagues have not been as vigorous and active as we would desire. Yet some commendable work has been done. We have in the district 42 leagues and 32 junior leagues, 16 bible study, and 7 mission study classes that are doing splendid work.

A kindly Providence has kept the families of the parsonages from severe sickness or accident, and death has not been permitted to enter the homes of the pastors save in one single case, that of Rev. E. L. Pelcher of Ridge Farm. On Sept. 3 Mrs. Pullen, the mother of Mrs. Pletcher, who has made her home with her daughter for several years, was taken home to rest. For the kindly protection to the pastors and their families we are profoundly thankful to our Heavenly Father and pray that the coming year may be much more abundant in blessed results than the year just closing.

Permit me a personal word in closing. I would not intrude my personal grief upon the members of the conference, all of whom have shown such brotherly sympathy and kindness. I only want to ask that now, I who am to walk alone, shall continue to have your prayers and heart touches of tenderness and love. My dear good wife who was the joy of my youth, the strength of manhood, and support and comfort of my years as we together walked toward the sunset, has gone on before. August 17, while we were at the dinner table the fatal stroke came, and without speech or sight she lingered for eight days. She gave her life to the church, and the services of her Lord. Her joy was to care for and smooth the pathway of the Methodist Preacher. Station or rank was naught to her if he was Christ's messenger. Her home was his resting place where he dropped his burden and went with a lighter heart to his toil. On the morning of August 25, in the beauty of the morning her night ended and the morning dawned, and with undimmed sight she saw the King in His beauty.

S. H. WHITLOCK.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

In presenting to you this, my first report as presiding elder, you will appreciate the difficulty under which I labor, by recalling the fact that my predecessor left the district on the crest of the wave and was by experience and gifts a thorough master of the art I am humbly trying to acquire. Perhaps he never magnified his office more fully than at the last session of our Annual Conference in the aid he rendered Bishop Cranston in making the appointments for the present year. The district has been served by a band of men consecrated and alert, evangelistic in spirit and indefatigable in toil. They are loyal Methodists and with tactfulness and prudence, devotion and zeal have prosecuted their work. Cheerfulness, hopefulness and enthusiasm characterized them as they went to their appointments and with few exceptions this spirit has obtained through the year.

Death has come nigh no parsonage dwelling and sickness has been a stranger there save in its mildest forms. In this particular God has dealt very tenderly with us.

La Place and Lake City, a new charge, being formerly a part of the Hammond work, was left to be supplied. The death of Bro. J. S. Bicknell's father compelled him to ask to be released from the charge to which Bishop Cranston had appointed him, to return to the old home and care for his aged and infirm mother. The home being adjacent to this charge he was appointed its pastor. Here he has wrought well and obtained for himself a good report. Witt is a thriving and enterprising town on the Big Four railroad, between Irving and Nokomis and is still making rapid strides commercially as well as in population. It now has a population of more than 1500 and bids fair to become an important commercial center. Until the closing quarter of this conference year it had been furnished one service in two weeks from Irving. Believing this point to be strategical, and the time to be crucial for Methodism there, aided by the Domestic Missionary society, I secured the services of Bro. E. M. Sutton to give them station work during the latter part of the year. They ask to be made a station the ensuing conference year. It seems to me very important to Methodism at this enterprising place that this request shall be granted.

The spirit of evangelism has been prevalent through the year. Every charge has conducted its evangelistic campaign. The condition of the roads during the latter half of the winter was such that this work was not only retarded but in some places, the rural portions especially, was entirely suspended. On this account well laid plans failed in execution and hopeful meetings had to be abandoned. In spite of this fact some of the meetings were large in results. Notable among these were those held at Cerro Gorda, Blue Mound and Decatur. Every brother sought to get at "the heart of his task"—soul-winning. If our heart's desires have not all been realized—there being many removals beyond the bounds of the conference, and church records which have not been pruned for years have felt the keen edge of the knife almost mercilessly—yet the reports which have reached me give every assurance of a very gratifying increase in membership.

Perhaps the greatest advance through the year has been in new property and improvements. In December last, that which was practically a new church was dedicated at Warrensburg. This cost over $3,000. Of this amount $1,200 or more was provided for on the day of dedication. On the first Sunday in July the beautiful new Grace church at Decatur was dedicated by Bishop Berry. The marvel is that such a church could be built at so small an investment of money. Its location is excellent, its appointments unsurpassed and its beauty rare. Its cost is $45,000. More than enough was provided to meet all this. On the last Sunday in the same month the new church was dedicated at Macon by Bishop Cranston. This was a great achievement. This church is ample in size, thorough in workmanship and both rich and tasteful in finish. What is left on the cost of this church, the total cost exceeding $15,000, is secured by subscription, worth their face value. Perhaps the greatest triumph in building is to be found in the new First Church, Decatur, which was dedicated on the 9th inst by our presiding Bishop. This extensive project covered a period of three years. It certainly is the great church of the conference. For strength, equipment and splendor, it is exceeded by few of our denomination in the state. It is a triumph of ecclesiastical architecture, a delight to the congregation and an honor to the denomination. The value of this property exceeds $109,000. The small per cent of the cost unpaid on the day of dedication is fully secured with a handsome margin. The Assumption society has caught the inspiration and at this time is building a church which will be sufficient in size to meet all the needs of that growing congregation and thoroughly modern in all its appointments. Moweaqua has taken initial steps looking toward the same end. Subscriptions are being secured and plans are under consideration. The intentions churches, as Blue Mound, Stonington, LaPlace and others. Almost at the beginning of the conference year the pastor and his family at Nokomis moved into a new modern parsonage. This is a model of convenience and is lacking nothing in comfort and taste. About mid-winter the pastor at Sanner and his wife began the occupancy of the new parsonage. This is a model country home. A new $3,000 parsonage is being built at Macon, for which the funds have already been provided. This will make our property at Macon one of the most complete in the conference. Large expenditures have been made on other parsonage properties. Barring the church which is in course of construction at Assumption the cost of new buildings and improvements on the district will exceed $183,000.

It is natural to suppose that such a vast outlay in buildings and improvements, together with the special calls through the year, would materially affect the contributions for the benevolences, but such is not the case. Zealously have all the interests represented in our benevolences been cared for and they have not been sacrificed for these material improvements. The difference from the missionary offering of last year, if there be any, will not be above $100, while the contributions to the other causes will remain the same as last year.

There is a deepening interest displayed in the Sunday school work and Bible study is having a larger place among our people. The average attendance at Sunday school is increasing and the character of the work being done is improving. Some progress has been made in the Epworth League. A new enthusiasm is manifest, it is growing more evangelistic and the missionary spirit is deepening. It now has its District Missionary, in the person of the Rev. W. E. Manly in China. Plans were formulated for this at an enthusiastic convention held at Lovington in June. There is yet much advance to be made in these two departments of the church to bring them to their greatest measure of efficiency. Earnest endeavor has marked the two Woman's Missionary Societies and the majority of the Ladies' Aid Societies have been abundant in labors, especially is this true of those in Decatur, that of the First Church having rendered aid this year to the extent of $1,300.

Were I to yield to the temptation of making personal notations it would devolve upon me to include every charge and every brother of the district, for each brother has wrought well and some heroically, while loyalty and devotion to their sacred calling have characterized them all.

B. F. SHIPP.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To Bishop John W. Hamilton and the members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brothers:

With a doxology of praise to God for his wonderful goodness to me and grateful for the hearty co-operation of pastors and people, I hereby submit my fourth annual report of the Jacksonville District:

Changes in the Workmen.

These changes have occurred among the supply men:

The Rev. F. M. Hayes was appointed to supply Forest City and Topeka; but, on account of failing health, was compelled to ask to be relieved. I then secured the Rev. A. W. Gillilan, a student pastor from Chemung, Ill., who has continued until this time.

The Rev. William Long was appointed to the Oakford Circuit. Complaints having reached me of his conduct, I called the officials together, and after hearing the statements of both parties, relieved him of the charge. Permission was granted him by the parsonage trustees to remain in the parsonage until May 21st, the date of the third quarterly conference. When I arrived to hold the conference I found that with his family he had taken a sudden departure, leaving the parsonage locked and taking the key with him. Word has reached me of a number of impositions practiced by him upon preachers and churches. I have sent out warning through the church papers and by personal letters.

Visible Spiritual Results.

I called together the pastors and district stewards at the beginning of the conference year, for prayer and counsel, and God was with us in great power. The district was sub-districted and arrangements made for the pastors to assist each other so far as possible. While we recognized that machinery is valuable, yet we regarded its chief function not to create but to conserve and direct power when the power of the Holy Ghost should come upon us. Out from that fire-baptized meeting the pastors went forth to engage in earnest endeavor to win men to Christ and to build them up in the graces of the spirit. I am happy to report that the visible spiritual results are about twice as great as I was able to report at the last annual conference. About one thousand precious souls have been brought into the kingdom. The largest number of conversions reported have been from the following charges. Litterberry circuit, 150; Rock Bridge, 90; Waverly, 52; Centenary, Jacksonville, 70; Grace Church, Jacksonville, 28; Easton, 32; Greenfield, 30; Jacksonville Circuit, 29; Chandlerville, 26; Chesterfield, 27; Petersburg, 21; Waverly Circuit, 23. A union tent meeting held in Waverly, with Brothers Hart and McGann as evangelists, and in which our pastor, Rev. C. M. Barton, took the initiative, resulted in about three hundred professions of conversion, 52 uniting with our church. A union meeting was held in Petersburg, under the direction of Rev. Fred L. Buck, in which two Presbyterian churches, the Baptist and the Methodist churches united, resulting in 67 conversions, 21 uniting with our church. Successful meetings have been held at Athens, Greenfield Circuit, Pleasant Plains, Bath, Ashland, Franklin and Middletown. I have urged in my quarterly visitations a revival of family prayer, for I am convinced that we cannot expect a general and permanent revival without revival of home religion, manifested by family prayer and the home study of the Word of God. The employment of our intelligent consecrated laymen in evangelistic services, and the preaching of perfect love in a sane and sweet manner will be conducive to larger results in winning and training souls for God.

The Rev. Fred L. Buck has decided to leave the pastorate and engage in evangelistic work. He has had marked success in winning souls and his experience in the pastorate enables him to understand the pastor's problems. I heartily commend him to all who may be desiring assistance in evangelistic work.

Pastorates of Three Years and More.

The Rev. C. F. McKown is closing his third year at Athens. There seems to be a fitness in the appointment of this scholarly preacher to Athens. Brother McKown has had three good years on this charge, being more strongly entrenched in the respect and affections of his people than ever. He is a fine sermonizer and is in demand for special addresses. He reports ten conversions this year, an increase of eleven in membership, an increase of subscribers to our periodicals, and benevolences about the same as last year.

The Rev. Nathan English is closing his third year on the Jacksonville Circuit. His excellent sermons and kindly cultured manners have endeared him to the people and rendered his pastorate a mutual joy and helpful service. He reports twenty-nine conversions this year, twenty-five of whom have been received into full membership. There has been an increase in membership, as compared with last year, and an increase in all benevolences, with missions about the same. He reports $275 expended for church and parsonage improvement.

Dr. W. H. Musgrove is completing his third year at Brooklyn Church, Jacksonville. To say that the people love him is not putting the matter too strongly. His very presence in the pulpit is a benediction, while his sermons are deeply spiritual and inspiring. He reports an increase of ten in membership that year, a slight increase for missions, an increase of $47 in all benevolences and $45 expended on church and parsonage improvements.

Dr. H. H. O'Neal is rounding out a pastorate of four years at Grace Church, Jacksonville. He has proved himself to be a master workman in this, the chief church of the district. It may be truly said that Dr. O'Neal's pastorate has proved to be one of the best "fits" ever made in the "Illinois Conference Fitting Establishment." His masterful sermons, dignified, yet genial, bearing and deep interest in all classes and departments of the church have conspired to make him a marked character, not only in his church, but in the entire city. He reports twenty-eight conversions, an increase of thirty-six in membership during the conference year, an increase in missions, and all benevolences of more than $100 and $600 expended on church debts and improvements.

Educational.

The Illinois Woman's College is marching on from victory to victory. President Harker has been successful in securing from Mr. Carnegie a donation of $25,000, on condition that $75,000 is raised by the friends of the Institution. It was the understanding that $50,000 should be used in the construction of a building and $50,000, applied as an endowment fund. More than $40,000 has been subscribed and a stately building adapted to lecture, gymnasium, domestic science and music rooms now lifts its head on the campus in close proximity to the Catholic College. Whether this indicates a growing fraternity between Roman Catholicism and Methodism, or is interposed as a barrier to the further progress of Catholicism, I submit as an interesting question. It is devoutly hoped that when the College shall come to the celebration of the sixtieth anniversary of its founding, next May, happy friends will crown her brow with a laurel of victory as it shall be announced that Mr. Carnegie's conditions have been fully met, and $100,000 has come to the Illinois Woman's College. The present scholastic year opens finely with a larger attendance than ever before in the history of the school. The high spiritual standing of the college is maintained, a number of the students having professed saving faith in Christ during the last school year.

The Epworth Leagues of the District, under the efficient leadership of Prof. Hopkins, and his associate officers, have rendered noble service. The Sunday schools, on the whole, are doing well, although there is a failure in some places to secure the attendance of competent teachers. I note, with pleasure, a slight increase in subscriptions to our church periodicals.

The Benevolences.

The reports indicate some increase in missions over last year, a marked increase in the total benevolences.

A special gift to missions last year of $300, through bequest, accounts for the smaller advance in missions than the other benevolences. The Rev. Thos. H. Tull, of Greenfield, reports the largest advance in missions.

The Woman's Home and Foreign Missionary Societies have done good work. The $96 obtained from the sale of the abandoned Oakland Church property, Greenfield Circuit, has been handed over to the Conference trustees.

Material Improvements.

The people and pastors of the district are generally well housed, and the demand for new churches and parsonages is, consequently, not imperative. There have been no new churches or parsonages erected this year. There have been, however, some improvements of church and parsonage property. Our church at Chesterfield has been remodeled and improved, at a cost of $1,150. The pastor, Mark White, deserves much credit for pushing this enterprise to a successful issue. Other amounts expended are: Grace Church, Jacksonville, $600; Waverly Circuit, $300; Jacksonville Circuit, $275; Rock Bridge, $270; Waverly, $200; Pleasant Plains, $104; Palmyra, $52; Island Grove, $63; Brooklyn, Jacksonville, $45; Chandler ville, $50; Greenfield Circuit, $88; Forest City and Topeka, $20; Petersburg, $175; Havana, $75; Ashland, $200; Bath, $48; Middletown, $50; total, $2,615.

Members of the Old Guard.

Brother R. P. Droke still resides in Waverly. His health is far from rugged, but his interest in the church, local and general, is unabated.

The Rev. Archibald Sloan resides in Ashland, and although not in robust health, has been able to preach once every other Sunday during the year. He is the same saintly, courteous, brotherly man of the olden time.

Dr. William McKendree McElfresh is in fair health for him and is able to attend church services occasionally. Though rich in stores of reminiscence, he keeps abreast of the times.

Dr. W. F. Short possesses sufficient agility to leap over the usual limits of physical vigor and is one of the youngest preachers of the district.

On the fourth of July we laid to rest, in Ashland Cemetery, Sister Greenberry Garner, who, for many years shared the itinerant labors and rewards of her honored and useful husband. Precious is her memory.

Salaries and Health of the Workmen.

There has been some advance in pastors' salaries: Athens, advanced, $150; Bath, $100; Easton, $60; Greenfield, $100; Island Grove, $50. The salaries, however, have not kept pace with the advance in the cost of living. There will be but little deficiency.

The health of the pastors and their families has been unusually good this year. Death has not entered a single parsonage home.

I have enjoyed excellent health throughout the year and have appreciated the luxury of work for the Master. I have not missed an appointment because of illness during the twelve months. I have preached one hundred and seventy-five times this year, beside delivering a number of addresses. As the years go by Christ is becoming more and more to me a living reality and inspirational force in my life. To preach his gospel is a great joy, and, "The joy of the Lord 's my strength."

Respectfully submitted,

GEORGE E. SCRIMGER.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

To the Bishop, Presiding Elders and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

Dear Fathers and Brethren:

We submit this, our first report, with gratitude to our Heavenly Father for the rich blessings bestowed upon the District.

Changes Among Ministers.

Immediately after conference B. F. Hill of the Southern Illinois Conference was transferred to this conference and placed at Findley. After nine months of acceptable service he was released and went to North Dakota. Henry McLean, a local preacher, filled out the year with signal success. In January Bishop Cranston transferred J. B. Van Pelt from Shelbyville to Louisberg, Pa., and J. L. Alburton from the latter place to Shelbyville. At the close of the second quarter S. C. Pierce was released from the Bruce Circuit to look after interests in Canada and E. S. Wamsley successfully filled out the year. C. W. Jacobs, who supplied the Greenup Circuit until the close of the third quarter, was forced to relinquish his work on account of illness. J. L. Sturgell, of the Kentucky Conference, was transferred to the Greenup charge. At the close of the second quarter Joseph G. Bell was transferred from the Missouri conference to Grandview Circuit as assistant pastor of that charge.

Revivals.

Graculous revivals have visited many parts of the District during the year and over 1,200 persons professed salvation in Christ and most of these have been brought into the church. The preachers were, as a rule, their own evangelists and in several charges the revival spirit has continued throughout the year. Lakewood, Redman, Paris, Charleston, Mattoon, Filson, Livingston, Marshall, Oak Grove, Burton and Greenwood, Strasburg, Sulphur Springs, Zion on Tower Hill, Lerna and Tulla, were among the places having blessed revival results.

Pastoral Support.

Not a charge lowered the salary of the preachers and twenty-two out of the thirty-five advanced the salaries a total of $2,208. The Fourth Quarterly Conferences, where this question was taken up have advanced the salaries for the coming year a total of $2,192, making a total advance secured this year for this and next year of $4,400. As a rule the stewards deserve praise for their faithful service. Better financial plans and more preaching on Christian stewardship will give even better results.

Material Improvements.

J. W. Whitlock led the Stewardson people in the erection of a beautiful cement block church, costing $5,200. This is a great victory for that charge. Kansas Methodism is in the midst of building a handsome brick and stone church, which will cost about $14,000. S. M. VanCleve leads in this enterprise. On May 30 a cyclone so damaged Olive Branch Church on the Charleston Circuit that the building has been torn down and now being rebuilt at Fair Grange on the Clover Leaf Railroad.

An abandoned Methodist Protestant Church, near Redmon, has been thoroughly renovated at a cost of $800, and dedicated by our people. This church is now a part of the Redmon and Isabelle Circuit; Isabelle has enlarged and repaired their church at a cost of $700; Ashmore has purchased a parsonage property at a cost of $800 and expects to be at the head of a circuit. Sulphur Springs has expended $800 on repairs; 1st church Charleston has added a Primary and Junior League room in the basement and raised an old debt of $1,000. Marshall cleared away a debt of $1,000 that was contracted a few years ago for repairs. Lakewood and Zion will form a circuit and have purchased a parsonage property at a cost of $1,000. Two churches, abandoned by the Presbyterians at Walnut Prairie and Beulah, on the Walnut Prairie Circuit, were deeded to us and dedicated last February. T. O. Baty did heroic work in this cause.

Benevolences.

The district was divided into seven sub-districts, each with a Chairman. Most satisfactory results were achieved in this manner. There will be a healthy increase in the collections, as the statistics will show. In view of the many financial demands made upon our people outside of the regular benevolences, the pastors are to be commended for their faithfulness in presenting the benevolences. The missionary collection will be in advance of last year about $900.

The W. F. M. S. and the W. H. M. S. have wrought a good work. In devotion to the cause of world-wide evangelization and in the study of the fields they present an example worthy of emulation.

Epworth League.

We need a thorough campaign in the interest of Bible and Mission study among our leagues. Many of the lapsed chapters in the country districts could be revived in this way. The leagues of this district raised over one thousand dollars for Chaddock Boys' School during the year, thus leading all Methodism in this line of work.

There have been no deaths in the ranks of the effective ministers. One dear brother, William S. Hooper, a superannuate of our conference, living at Mattoon, advanced in years and honored by all, has joined the church triumphant.

A few have been hindered by sickness. A. W. Mills of Casey was ill for a part of the year; F. M. Harry of Humboldt had malarial fever during the winter; Mrs. J. S. Sharp of Martinsville lingered near death's door for a time; C. W. Jacobs, a supernumerary in charge at Greenup, was very low with an affection of the heart. All these are now fully recovered.

Honor Men—The Superannuates.

D. W. English, superannuated last year, has supplied Redmon and Isabelle this year. Two churches repaired, one class added to Methodism and a great revival in part tell the story of his labors and successes. D. T. Black supplied Casey a part of the year, during the absence of the pastor and E. S. Wamsley filled out the last half of the year on the Bruce Circuit. All were pleased with their labors. Elijah Gallagher, W. W. McIntosh, P. F. Thornburg, J. Wesley Miller, W. R. Howard, J. L. B. Ellis, D. D. Kensil, Joseph Coombs, all are true, loyal laborers for the master and an inspiration to the pastors.

Two Elect Women.

Miss Lizzie Johnson, "The Sainly Serving Sufferer" of Casey, though confined to her bed for years, has contributed over $13,000 to missionary causes as a result of the sale of bookmarks. This year her gifts have amounted to $945.

Mrs. M. A. Hodges, of the Martinsville Circuit, gives every dollar of her income to the various benevolences of the church. This year her gifts have aggregated twelve hundred and eleven dollars.

The Memorial Hospital.

This institution was formerly dedicated last March and is now in full operation. It is gaining new friends daily and is recognized by all classes as a blessing to needy and suffering humanity. In a few years it will be one of the best endowed hospitals of our connection. Now is the day of its struggle. We are glad the State Cabinet of the Epworth League set aside this noble institution for the Chapters of Matteson District to assist. The Leagues of the District ought to give at least one thousand dollars this year to the payment of the debt on this institution. We suggest, in addition to this, that every church in our Conference give the collection on the first Communion Day to this, our only hospital within the bounds of our Conference.

Dr. T. J. Wheat has done most efficient service as manager of the hospital during the year.

To the faithfulness of the pastors is due in a large measure the progress which has been made.

PARKER SHIELDS.

QUINCIY DISTRICT.

Bishop Hamilton and Brethren:

The pastors in Quincy District have been busy all the year, and I hope the brief mention each is given in this report may indicate as much.

In June Dr. D. F. Howe was transferred from Astoria to Los Angeles, Cal. Rev. C. M. Wilson was appointed to supply the work, and he did good, acceptable service. Brother Wilson applies for admission on trial this Conference.

Rev. William R. Shores was appointed to supply Astoria Circuit. He reported 86 conversions and raised a debt of $400, which had been hanging over Oakland Center for years, and took up the work at Sheldon's Grove successfully, which last year was abandoned.

Brother W. P. Bowman, pastor of Augusta, was severely injured in the Autumn while out driving, and it seemed at one time he would use crutches the remainder of his life. This prevented special meetings, but his work has been well done anyway.

Bowen increased Brother A. K. Bryn's salary to $1,000 this year. His fourth year on this charge has been very successful. Twenty-five conversions were reported during the meetings. Every department of the church is in fine condition.

Camden was supplied this year by Rev. Andrew D. Potter, formerly a member of our conference, now a local preacher. Fifty-three conversions resulted from the meetings he held on the charge.

Brother Leo Howard had the satisfaction of seeing 40 conversions at Camp Point this year, and he also helped several of the brethren in their meetings. His salary was increased $100 this year, making it $900. Camp Point earnestly desires his return.

At Clayton Brother C. W. Monson has had a very successful year. The meetings resulted in only eight conversions, but Timewell, which was added to the charge early in the Autumn as an afternoon appointment, has been greatly encouraged by his ministry, and looks hopefully toward another year. Also, almost unaided, he raised $2,500 for repairs and improvements on the Clayton Church, which now looks, as a result, like a new building. His return is desired.

Rev. D. H. Hartley has served Golden successfully his third year. Fifteen conversions have been reported and the salary was increased $70.

La Prairie charge has prospered abundantly this year under the ministry of Rev. Oel D. Ross. One hundred and two conversions took place in the meetings, 75 of which were at La Prairie itself. Accordingly, this place wanted preaching twice every Sunday. Brother Bowman, of Augusta, agreed to preach at Pulaski, and so Brother Ross was permitted to give its service to La Prairie, which makes La Prairie a very desirable appointment. Pulaski's statistics are incorporated in Augusta's report.

Rev. Fred Reed supplied Lima charge this year. Lima and Tioga last year had no preaching. By the help of the Domestic Missionary Society Warsaw was enabled to stand alone this year, and Rocky Run was put with Lima and Tioga, making the three places a good $500 circuit. But four conversions are reported from the charge, but the work of reorganizing two practically abandoned churches has been well done, and Brother Reed has shown himself worthy the admission on trial for which he asks.

From the Littleton Circuit Rev. F. E. Smith reports 86 conversions. The railroad coming to this inland town has made more preaching both desirable and necessary, so, for the coming year Littleton and Doddsville plan to take all of a pastor's time at the same salary as the four places paid this year, and want Brother Smith to be that man.

On the Loraine Circuit Rev. E. M. Barringer reports 63 conversions. Loraine itself is rapidly growing in strength and will want more service at an early date, perhaps next year, and this growth has been due to the careful management of Brother Barringer the past two years.

At Mendon Brother J. L. Minney did a hard year's work. A furnace was put in the church and the finances but on a more systematic basis. Both these things were necessary, and both were thought by many to be impossible.

Rev. N. M. Rigg went to Mount Sterling for his eighth year last autumn. Shortly after conference he took up the work at Marden Chapel, a church which, previous to the summer of 1905, had no regular Methodist preaching for 15 years, and there gained 26 of the 71 conversions reported from Mount Sterling charge. He also organized a society of 45 members at that church. In March Brother Rigg was appointed to Clinton by Bishop Cranston, and Rev. W. S. Phillips was appointed to Mount Sterling. A better successor could not have been found and the people of Mount Sterling desire Brother Phillips returned for another year.

Rev. C. S. Baughman acceptably served Paloma Circuit. Eight conversions, $700 expended on church improvements and repairs, and $100 increase in benevolences, are some of the items he can report.

At Payson Brother Abner Clarke reports 24 conversions and he has organized a Sunday School at Fall Creek and has been negotiating for a Union Church built in that village to be turned over to the Methodist Church, though as yet it is not accomplished.

Plymouth was supplied this year by Rev. G. W. Metzel. Besides Scott's Chapel, a regular part of the work, Brother Metzel, early in the year accepted an invitation to preach at Coolmar, where Brother Potter had gathered together 20 converts, but who had no preacher. In Plymouth there were 14 conversions. A $600 debt has been paid off, and a $1,500 parsonage is planned and much money subscribed toward it already.

Quincy Circuit was supplied by Rev. C. M. Wilson till June. Since then I have been unable to find a supply for a work that can pay but $200 at its best, and must strengthen the work sufficiently for next year, if possible, so it can support a man. Brother Wilson asked only his expenses while there and his work saved Melrose Chapel from being abandoned.

When Brother A. L. Casely came to Grace Church, Quincy, he found 60 members, which a year's effort has increased to 107, and most of these are not from Vermont street. There were 18 conversions. Last year this church raised $440.25 and had the assistance of Vermont street's able organization to do that in nine months. This year, without that aid they have raised $915. The Sunday school has an average attendance of 78, and most of these would be in no school but for Grace Church. The outlook for next year is very hopeful. I doubt if the Domestic Missionary Society ever invested dollars more advantageously than here.

Rev. J. W. Miller's first year at Vermont street has proven a fine success. There have been 83 conversions. The Sunday school in the south part of the city has been growing, and quite a number of conversions grew out of it. The Church supports its own missionary, Rev. Ray B. Kipp, and shows an increase in mission money, and in all other benevolences. The Quincy churches desire their pastors returned and with good reason.

At Rushville Brother A. P. Stover is serving a church in the transition period. Many deaths among the older members has greatly crippled the benevolent contributions, and another year or two will likely almost entirely change the official board. But there have been conversions, too, 125 of them. Many of these were in the church, but it would not hurt several of the churches if the same thing would happen to their membership. Brother Stover's return is earnestly asked.

Rushville Circuit is too scattered for the best results, but Rev. M. V. Hill has given it a faithful year's service. Eight conversions are reported.

In November Rev. Fred W. Mathews took charge of Stillwell and Chili. Forty-five conversions resulted from his efforts and homes seldom, if ever, visited by preachers have seen his face more than once.

Brother W. A. McKinney served Warsaw this year. This field, where we have simply been holding on till the day of opportunity to advance, seems to promise better things. With its business awakening the prospect is better than in years past.

West Point and Basco were supplied by Rev. G. A. Cox. His services have been earnest and faithful and West Point is planning to command all of a preacher's time in a year or two.

Chaddock Boys' School and Home is increasingly prosperous and manifestly more of a necessity each year. Our preachers are finding it a good school for their boys and not all of those sent in are motherless. The superior advantages it offers as a school attract as much as its home influence. This year the ministerial meeting was held in the school building and the preachers present were most favorably impressed, both by the boys and the wisdom of the deaconesses in its management. A financial agent has become a necessity to secure funds to meet the demands of growth and the right man has been found in Brother W. T. Dwire. If any brother wishes to know how that school appeals to a business man let him talk with our financial agent, and he will get a larger vision of its usefulness.

Rev. M. M. Davidson is serving his eleventh year as chaplain of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in Quincy, and he is a busy man. Five regular services each week; two to five hours each day in the hospital wards; cottage visitation; attending all funerals and you can understand how many that means when it is known that there have been 159 deaths in the last year; attend the dying and counsel seekers of soul peace, of whom there are many; these things are enough to keep him busy and these are the things he does.

Last year we reported 503 conversions on Quincy District, this year they number 877, or an increase of 374. For this great blessing we give hearty thanks to Him whose Spirit working with us made this result possible, and pray this increase may be but the prophecy of greater victory next year.

The report on missions will show a slight increase over last year. The amount raised for Domestic Missions will be nearly $400, which is a very good and necessary increase in a district which has so much mission ground of its own.

An unusually excellent Epworth League Convention was held at Rushville. Dr. Buell of the Boston School of Theology was secured for this convention by the President, Brother A. K. Byrns, and his lectures were an inspiration toward making those gatherings more a school than has been the case in the past. Those who feared the doctor's lectures would be beyond the capacity of the young people were agreeably disappointed, and are ready to continue a method that produces such results.

Generally, the year has been a prosperous one, and we look hopefully into the future, believing all the indications are that greater consecration is preparing the pastors and churches for greater victories.

G. W. FLAGGE.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

We have come to the close of another laborious and productive year. The Lord of the harvest has not withheld his blessing.

Nevertheless "we rejoice not that the devils are subject unto us, but that our names are written in Heaven." At the last session of the conference four charges were left to be supplied.

Fortunately good men were secured almost immediately to fill these vacancies. Gye Park was transferred from the Southern Illinois Conference and stationed at Sharpsburg. Buckhart was supplied by Irl V. Maxey, Mount Auburn by L. C. Moore and Riverton by Charles Rodman.

With two exceptions, the health of the preachers and their families has been graciously preserved. J. A. Burchit, of Kumler Church, Springfield, was very seriously ill for two months, but has happily recovered, and the year has been crowned with success.

The wife of W. D. White, of Mechanicsburg, was taken sick soon after Conference and after months of suffering, borne with sweet patience and heroic fortitude, passed away June 26, amid the sorrow and sympathy of the entire community. The funeral sermon was preached by Dr. G. E. Scrimger, a former presiding elder and friend of the family. J. S. Smith, R. W. Ennis and the writer assisted in the service. The interment was in the beautiful village cemetery.

Thus the great itinerant army moves on, leaving its precious dead to consecrate the soil where they fall.

A good revival spirit has pervaded the district and the harvest will approach a thousand souls. The charges outside the city sharing most largely in the refreshing, were Raymond, Rochester, Buckhart, Dawson, Mount Auburn, Chestnut, Loami and Elkhart. Special meetings were held in all the city churches, greatly quickening the membership and resulting in numerous accessions. The revival tide is plainly rising. The cloud on the horizon is overspreading the sky "and there is the sound of an abundance of rain."

Changes in the Work.

The development in the work will necessitate some changes the coming year. Auburn and Grove City will both become stations. Chatham Circuit will be greatly strengthened by the union of the Oak Ridge and McMurry Chapel Societies in Glenarm, where he have never had a church building. The Oak Ridge Church will be moved into the village and enlarged and modernized, giving us a splendid church, and a strong membership in town, instead of two weak points in the country. This enterprise, long talked of,

has been consummated by the joint labors of M. E. Hobart and T. F. Hartman, pastors of the adjoining charges of Auburn and Chatham. Sharpsburg is building a fine new parsonage and will unite with Prairie Lea, taken from the Grove City work and will become a new charge under the old name.

The division of these appointments will create two new charges, Bethany Circuit and Divernon.

New Churches and Parsonages.

Laurel Church, Springfield, is in the midst of a great enterprise, for that small, but hopeful congregation.

A choice site has been secured on South Grand avenue, the most popular boulevard of the city, and in a most beautiful and rapidly growing suburb, and the contract has been let and the work begun on a new church to cost about $16,000. We hope to see it enclosed before cold weather, and ready for dedication some time next spring.

It is not too much to say that this great achievement is almost entirely due to the courageous leadership and indomitable toil of the pastor, Dr. W. N. McElroy. No church in the capital city is more admirably located or has a brighter prospect for the future.

Jordan school house is a new appointment taken into the Buckhart Circuit. Irl V. Maxey, a young student, supplying the charge, had a sweeping revival there, resulting in more than fifty conversions. A good strong society has been organized and a new church is in process of construction, which will give us a permanent hold on that community.

The debt of $1,100 remaining on our new church at Dawson has been paid. R. E. Williams, pastor.

The parsonage at Shiloh was completed during the year and is now occupied by the pastor, H. M. Ingram.

At Nilwood, where we have long needed a parsonage, F. M. Stephenson has succeeded in raising the money and purchasing a good nine-room house, with barn, fruit and shade trees and ample grounds, making a very comfortable home for the preacher.

At Taylorville, a new parsonage, modern and up to date in all respects, costing above $4,000 is just completed and occupied by the pastor. Preston Wood. It is the wish of the Official Board, and I think I may say, the entire membership of this charge, that he may remain and enjoy the fruit of his labor. In addition to this a debt of long standing on the pipe organ, amounting to $900 has been paid, and the church refrescoed and improved at a cost of $2,100, making a total expenditure of $7,000.

Benevolences.

The campaign of education on the benevolences has continued with unabated interest. Missionary sermons, prayer meetings and rallies, and a liberal use of missionary literature, have kept before the minds of our people the great enterprises in which the church is engaged. And, if some of the good seed has fallen by the wayside, and some in stony places, where there was no depth of earth, much of it has fallen into good ground, and the harvest is a foreshadowed in the increasing intelligence and liberality of our people.

The Epworth League is rendering great service in this educational work by its mission study classes, and its zeal in promoting the Station Plan. The District pledged $1,000 this year, and assumed the support of Rev. Good-sill F. Arms, missionary at Conception, Chile, South America. The League is also doing splendid work in all other departments.

Our report on missions this year from the regular collections will go ahead of last year, though there may be an apparent decrease, owing to the fact that there was a special gift last year of $800. To partially offset this, we have three smaller gifts this year, aggregating $550, and it is my hope that the increase in collections may be sufficient to put the total amount beyond last year, which was the largest in the history of the District.

A Forward Movement.

We have organized this year in Springfield a City Church Extension Society, composed of the most wide-awake and progressive laymen in our four churches, the object of which is to unite all our forces in establishing and strengthening Methodism in the Capital City.

The enterprise was inaugurated at a banquet on the evening of April 18, with 100 Methodist men at the table. Bishop McDowell was the guest of honor and delivered a most inspiring address, approving and encouraging the new organization. The motto of the Society is "No rivalry between Methodist churches, but all together for the good of all." It will throw the surplus energy of the other three churches into the enterprise at Laurel, where Dr. McElroy is building for the future.

It is looking toward securing a foothold in two other growing suburbs. It aims to be a kind of Methodist clearing house, where all our city problems can be handled in the interest of the denomination, and so that no church shall thrive at the expense of another.

It is a most promising movement and if wisely directed and administered cannot fail to be of great service to Springfield Methodist.

Salaries.

Not a single charge has reduced the salary this year, and nearly all have paid in full. The total deficiency will be very small. The following charges have advanced the salary: Buffalo, $200; Douglass Avenue, $200; Taylorville, $100; Shiloh, $100; Nilwood, $80, and Dawson and Mount Auburn $50 each.

It is gratifying to observe that our people are becoming more stable and less inclined to seek a change of pastors for the sake of a change.

R. F. McDaniel of Douglass Avenue and T. F. Hartman of Chatham are cordially invited to return for the sixth year.

M. M. Want at Virden will be welcomed back for the fifth year, if the Bishop shall see fit to appoint him, as will Dr. G. N. Lyons of First Church for the fourth year, while a number of the newer men are in such pleasant and useful relations that they ought not to be disturbed. This is not to be construed as dictating to the appointing power, but as expressive of the increasing loyalty and devotion of our people.

It is worthy of note, also, that in the great awakening for civic righteousness, Methodism is among the forces to be reckoned with. In the local option campaign now being waged our preachers are in the thick of the fight, and the church is a phalanx behind them. In our District, one or two obnoxious men, the tools of the liquor traffic, have been renominated and it is our purpose to defeat them, if possible, regardless of their politics. Thirty-five pastors and one presiding elder will get busy soon after Conference, and there will be something doing till the polls close in November.

Insolent and despotic as the rum rule has long been in Illinois, as I go about and observe the temper of the people, I thank God and take courage, for I believe the beginning of its downfall is at hand.

A. C. BYERLY.

WEST JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To Bishop Hamilton, presiding, and Brethren of the Conference:

The Illinois Conference need not be ashamed of the people and preachers of the West Jacksonville District, for the people are as good as the best of the conference and the preachers are among the best from the ranks of their brethren.

Only one preacher has been compelled to step aside from the active work. Brother C. F. Buker had a very bad attack of typhoid fever and for weeks he lay at the point of death. The Lord saw that his work was not yet finished and he has been restored to help us push the battle for the salvation of souls with greater vigor.

One of the Old Veterans Dies.

July 17th Brother A. C. Armentrout heard the angels harping on their harps and the voice of the Master calling him home to rest and while he was engaged in the imaginary act of making bouquets of flowers he fell asleep in Jesus. Brother Armentrout at his best was a prince among preachers, a brother to his brethren, a helper to his pastor, a counsellor to his presiding elder and a sunshining Christian. A little while before he died he said, "If I had my life to live over again I would be a Methodist preacher. It beats anything I know of. I would rather have my job than the President's." In his home, to his wife and children he was an ideal husband and father and his sons and sons-in-laws carried his body to the grave, followed by a number of his ministerial brethren, who, while they sorrowed, sorrowed not as those who had no hope.

The Appointments.

The appointments given to the preachers by Bishop Cranston were accepted cheerfully. The results of their labors cannot be told in cold figures for the influence of their work can only be counted when God opens the books.

A Brief Review

Is all I will attempt.

Pastoral Support—To show that the people appreciate the work of the pastors, the salaries, including the presiding elders, have advanced this year over last more than $1,300 and nearly every preacher has received his salary in full. The district pays for salaries more than $3,000 than it paid three years ago and already there is a prospect of a very encouraging advance for next year.

Improvements in Church Property—Soon after last conference a modern church costing twenty-two thousand dollars was dedicated at Winchester. Another costing thirty-five hundred dollars was dedicated at Arenzville. A new parsonage to cost from twelve to fifteen hundred dollars is being built at Murrayville, which will become a station at this conference. Other charges have raised improvements as follows: Beardstown, $1,650.00; West Jacksonville, $450.00; New Salem, $200.00; Griggsville, $1,100.00; Barry, $150.00; Roodhouse, $160.00; Griggsville Circuit, $168.00; Plainville, $30.00; South Jacksonville, $50.00; Concord, $1,450.00; Bluff Springs, $100.00; Carrollton, $375.00; White Hall, $300.00; Meredosia, $485.00; Pleasant Hill, $218.00; Rockport, $1,000.00; Pittsfield, $70.00; Naples, $1,200.00; Hull, $30.00; Kinderhook, $235.00. Total, $9,361.00.

Benevolences—The pastors have labored early and late in their endeavors to do their best for the world outside of self. The results of their work will be found in the records of the conference. I am confident they will reveal an advance over last year. There will be at least an increase of from four to five hundred dollars for missions. Three years ago this district raised $1,735.00 for missions. It will show an increase in three years of over $1,800.00, beside the advance of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society of continued all through the year, for, commencing with the first of June, we opened a revival campaign with a tent, and since that date more than two hundred have been converted. A meeting has just closed in Bluffs, where sinners were saved nearly every night. We have been led in this movement by the Rev. M. M. Culpepper, a young man from the church south. He is one of the most successful soul winners I have ever been associated with. In these tent meetings we have reached and saved people who never came to church. Preachers report to me more than nine hundred conversions this year.

Our Young People have been cared for through the Sabbath School Junior and Senior Leagues. Beside these methods we have held conventions, all-day rallies, circulated the Epworth Herald, urged our people to consecrate their children to God in baptism. The preachers have sought by every means to impress the people with the fact that Methodism is not yet dead.

The Outlook—It is said that General Fisk asked a little colored boy down south what he should tell the people up north about them. One little fellow shouted out, "Tell them we are rising." This is the hopeful message I bring from our district, "We are rising." Three or four new charges will be made this year. This means three or four more preachers to help carry on the work. It means that the people are willing to pay more money to the preachers and there is in sight for next year at least two thousand dollars more than they have paid this year. This shows that the preachers have been hard at work and that our God is with them in their efforts. We are expecting great things next year. Plans are already made to commence and continue throughout the year a great revival campaign for the conversion of souls. Already the cloud larger than a man's hand is seen in the spiritual sky and the sound of an abundance of rain is heard in our midst.

Reports and Resolutions

Committee.

Methodism was once called "Christianity in Earnest." It has also been said, "We were born in revolution; we were cradled in change; we were brought up in adaptation. Our strength is never to sit still." We are wedded to no methods, new or old. We are unalterably committed to one work—to win men back to God. To preserve the spirit of a glorious past and embody it in methods that will win, is the duty of the hour. This, we believe, is in harmony with historic Methodism, for Methodism was a protest against inefficient methods and inefficient forms.

Your committee recommends the continuance of a special Conference Commission on Aggressive Evangelism, constituted in the manner outlined in the report of the commission to the Conference of 1905. We further recommend, in the interest of simplicity of organization, that said commission be constituted the Conference Committee on Evangelism, and as such report to the ensuing Annual Conference.

We desire to express our deep gratitude for the presence, inspiring addresses and wise counsels of Dr. T. S. Henderson, Field Secretary of the General Conference Commission on Aggressive Evangelism.

We recommend the adoption by the Conference of the following policies.

Aggressive Evangelism—Revival meetings have commenced early and ask that the commission be authorized and instructed to formulate the necessary plans for carrying these policies into effect: several hundred dollars.

1. That each District of the Conference be thoroughly organized, as far as conditions permit, for Co-Operative Effort, and that the plans of organization for each District be committed to the Presiding Elders and members of the Conference Commission from that District; and the members of the Conference do hereby give assurance of their faithful co-operation in such plans, as far as ability and pastoral obligation will permit; provided, only the Presiding Elder secures from the Quarterly Conference endorsement for such pastors to render such assistance to other churches of the conference.

2. That each Presiding Elder be requested to appoint several chairmen of Sub-Districts, whose special work shall be to encourage and assist in furthering every needed form of evangelism in the more needy charges, especially in rural sections and in places requiring missionary enterprise.

3. That the Presiding Elders be requested to appoint for their District Ministerial Associations, wherever practicable, a date early in the Fall, and that in all Association gatherings, whenever held, and also in the District Stewards' meeting, a prominent place be given to the various phases of the problem of evangelism in the territory of said District.

4. That the Commission on Aggressive Evangelism, in co-operation with the Presiding Elder of the District, be urged to hold Institutes on Evangelism in all the leading centers of the Conference, where ministers, official laymen, Sunday School officers and teachers, Epworth League officers and leaders, with all other Christian workers of these centers and vicinity, can study the best methods of soul-winning work in the local churches and communities.

5. We recommend that the Secretary of the Commission be instructed to print and mail this report to each pastor, and that on Sunday, October 21, 1906, this report, with such other matter as the Commission may order, be read in every charge by the pastor, and that an earnest effort be made by him to secure an offering amounting to one percent. of the pastor's cash salary for the prosecution of aggressive evangelistic work in the bounds of the Conference, which offering shall be sent at once to the Treasurer of the Commission, Robert Means, Esq., Saybrook, Ill. It is definitely understood that as soon as this fund shall guarantee the action, the Commission will seek, through the proper authorities of the Conference, the appointment of one of its efficient evangelistic pastors to do evangelistic work wherever in the judgment of the Commission the need is greatest, and in such special forms as the Commission shall regard as most imperative.

We recommend the adoption by the Conference of the following policies, which each Pastor is earnestly requested to observe:

1. To preach in every congregation a sermon or sermons upon Home Religion, and definitely endeavor to bring about a re-establishment of the Family Altar in every Methodist home.

2. To emphasize the privilege and importance of Soul-Winning Work by Laymen: organize in every charge a "Win-One Circle," or some similar class for inspiration and instruction in personal work.

3. To preach in the open air, in shops, factories and mines, as local conditions may afford the opportunity and need.

4. To observe "Decision Day" in the Sunday School, magnifying the work of preparation therefor and following it up with careful instruction of the converts in Probationers' Classes and by private interviews and special pastoral oversight.

C. M. BARTON, Secretary.

Conference Commission.

Pursuant to the directions of the last annual conference, this Commission met at Springfield, in November, 1905, and perfected its organization. A day was spent in planning for the work of the year. Brother Robert Stephens was re-elected to serve as our chairman and leader. An address to all the pastors and churches was formulated and, later, mailed to each pastor for simultaneous reading at the public services of Sunday, December 3. This address was intended to impress the hearts and consciences of our Methodist people with the needs and opportunities of the hour. It endeavored, also, to suggest some special and practical methods of procedure. We believe that this address was generally read and made a subject of prayer.

The Commission called for an offering from every church to enable us to pay our necessary expenses and, especially, to put a worker into the field to help the weaker churches. Our treasurer's report shows that forty (40) charges contributed a total of $210.31 in answer to this call. As our expenses have been only $11.50, we have $198.81 in the treasury to begin a new year's work.

As a whole, and through the sub-organizations in the respective districts, the Commission has tried to promote systematic revival plans and work both in winter and in summer. We are particularly gratified to have had some part, through our Chairman, in securing the presence and help at this conference of Dr. Theodore Henderson. We thank the pastors and people for their co-operation in our plans and efforts.

Respectfully submitted,

JOSEPH C. NATE, Secretary.

BARBARA HECK MONUMENT.

Whereas, There has been a proposal by some Methodists of the United States to Methodists of Canada to erect a monument in memory of Barbara Heck, at her grave, on the bank of the St. Lawrence River, near Prescott, Ontario, Canada, and

Whereas, By the Montreal conference, in June, 1905, a committee was appointed to consider the matter and decide upon the method to carry same into effect; and,

Whereas, the Secretary of that committee has communicated to our President, Bishop Hamilton, their desire for the co-operation of the Illinois Conference; therefore,

Resolved, First, That the Illinois Conference, upon the undertaking, that the erection of a suitable monument to the memory of Barbara Heck, at her grave, is commendable, and that American and Canadian Methodism should be asked to contribute means for this purpose.

Second. That all Canadian and American Methodist Conferences should be asked to endorse the project and bring it before their people, through their respective officers.

Third. That each conference hold in trust the money collected within its bounds till all the work of collecting in the conferences concerned is finished.

Fourth. That presiding elders be asked to act as treasurers for their respective districts.

Fifth. That this conference appoint one person a committee to act with such contributing conferences to determine the character of the monument and attend to all matters of detail in its erection.

Seventh. When the enterprise is completed a statement shall be furnished for publication to all connectional papers of conferences contributing to the enterprise. All expenses to be paid from funds collected.

BENEVOLENCES.

The Standing Committee on Benevolences of the Illinois Annual Conference submits the following report:

Whereas, The last General Conference adopted a plan for the consolidating of the Benevolent societies of the Benevolent societies of the church and raised a commission for the purpose of carrying into effect the provisions of that plan; and,

Whereas, the Missionary Society has already secured its new charter in accordance with those provisions, and the Church Extension Society is also chartered under the head of the Home Missionary Society; therefore be it will be promoted by a speedy consummation of the consolidation of these various societies.

Resolved, First, That we believe that the best interests of the church

Second. That we will earnestly strive to show our people that the best opportunities for effective endeavor to advance the Kingdom of our Lord are found in the organized benevolent departments of the church.

Third. That we especially commend the work of the American Bible Society and advise that it receive attention and support commensurate with its splendid mission; and we pledge ourselves anew to take the collections.

Fourth. That we will give constant attention to the doctrines of Christian Stewardship and strive, by teaching and example, to induce our people to know and heed them.

Fifth. That we will encourage by all wise means the system of tithing.

T. N. EWING, Secretary.

W. T. BEADLES, Chairman.

CHILDREN'S DAY.

Whereas, It is the law of the church that a collection for the Children's Educational Fund in each church be taken every year; and,

Whereas, The conference minutes of last year shows that 74 charges report no collection taken for this fund; therefore be it

Resolved, That the attention of the conference be called to this fact, and that every preacher be urged to take this collection, and that the presiding elders see that this is done.

CHURCH AND PARSONAGE INSURANCE.

When the Board of Insurance met in annual session in February the total business of our insurance company, the National Mutual Church Insurance Company of Chicago had increased from $23,913,926.00, the year before to $26,756,513.00. Since then the total has passed the Twenty-eight million dollar mark.

The total losses up to August 25th were 1,112, amounting to $256,762.29. In spite of the fact there is now in the hands of the policy holders considerably more than a quarter of a million dollars, which would have been collected by the company had this business been written under the stock company plan, a 10 per cent dividend was declared on last year's business. The cash reserve, as required by law, is now approximately $40,000.00, in addition to the premium notes not yet due, about $265,000.00.

As is always the case with this company there is not a dollar of losses due and unpaid. The amount of losses in process of adjustment is estimated at $4,900.00. In addition to the losses of more than a quarter of a million dollars reimbursed to our church societies and preachers, the dividends paid up to this time have aggregated over $33,000.00, making a total of approximately $300,000.00 of Methodist money that has been returned to the members. In addition to these important facts we would remind you that Methodism has been saved in many localities where churches and parsonages could not have been rebuilt but for the assistance of our company, no insurance having been carried before, and that many preachers have been saved from embarrassment and the humiliation of having the hat passed around in their behalf by carrying policies in our company.

Whenever any church is so easy financially as not to need the services of this organization, at least a part of the insurance should be placed with our board for the benefit of the work at large, thus aiding in improving the loss and expense ratio.

For further particulars apply to HENRY P. MAGILL, Secretary and Manager, 184 LaSalle Street, Chicago, Ill.

W. H. MUSGROVE, Chairman.

ABNER CLARK, Secretary.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Recognizing that the literature read in any community is not only an index to its culture, but an essential factor in the moral life of its people; and believing that the best means of preventing the circulation of vile literature is to keep the people well informed concerning that which is good.

Resolved, That we earnestly recommend that our pastors frequently call attention to this matter, from the pulpit and in pastoral visitation.

Resolved, That we call upon our membership, pastors and laymen, to use their influence with the local papers of their respective towns to the end that their columns shall be kept pure and fit for our homes. Assured that the management of our publishing houses will permit nothing to reach them from their presses except that which is helpful and wholesome.

Resolved, That we urge upon our pastors the duty of acquainting their people with our books and periodicals, and that we especially urge that our official publications be presented early in the conference year by pastors, and their people be given opportunity to subscribe for them.

Resolved, That our pastors be urged to avail themselves of the opportunity offered by the tract society for free tracts, for distribution.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The report of the president of the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage shows that the institution has been managed satisfactorily during the year, and that it is doing a most excellent and much needed work. Mr. W. A. Davis has been recently appointed superintendent, and his wife matron of the Home, which appointments have been received with great favor. We most cordially commend the institution and its work to our people, as worthy of much larger gifts for equipment and enlargement. We find that the receipts for the year amount to $4,819.16, and that the disbursements have been $4,836.23.

The characters of the following Deaconesses were passed, and their licenses renewed, namely: Laura E. Aiken, Elnora Hicks, Eleanor A. Tobie, Anna L. Logan, Anna J. Davidson, Anna Johnson, Emeline Garrett, Susanna W. Hawkins, Anna Bennett, Emma S. Heverley, Mary E. Peters, Lucile M. Anderson, Minnie E. Courter, and Sarah C. Norfleet.

Miss Grace Clark has been transferred into this Conference from the Des Moines Conference, and Miss Laura Dalbey has been transferred to the Rock River Conference, and Miss Emeline Garrett to the Colorado Conference. Miss Dora Conwell, who was recommended by the Quarterly Conference of Kumler Church, is recommended for license and consecration.

The following persons are hereby nominated for members of the Board of Nine, to serve for three years, namely: W. H. Webster, W. T. Beadles, and Mrs. A. W. Conkling.

Respectfully submitted,

DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

No one of the benevolent enterprises of the church means so much to the Illinois Conference as does the Domestic Missions and Church Aid Society. Asking no grant of funds from the Parent Board of Missions, this Conference has sought to care for its weak and waste places through the agency of this Society.

During the period of its existence it has collected and disbursed nearly $19,000. No funds have been more judiciously or helpfully expended; nothing has given to the Conference a more lasting benefit. Many charges thus aided are now self-supporting and giving aid in return.

The committee rejoices in the recent reorganization of this society, thus giving by its plan a permanent official recognition to it. It is gratifying to know that the collections for this purpose are yearly increasing in amount, expressive of continuous growth in favor with the people, the collection of this year being the largest yet taken. We respectfully urge every pastor to give this cause a fair and equal presentation with the other benevolent enterprises.

Auditors' Report.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 3d, 1906.

The undersigned, Auditors of the Domestic Missionary and Church Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference, certify that we have examined the report of Lee Matheny, Treasurer of said Society, from September 28th, 1905, to October 2d, 1906, and compared said report with records and vouchers and find the same correct.

EDUCATION.

Board of Education.

The expanding work of the Board of Education is cause for gratitude. Nearly two thousand students have been assisted to attend the institutions of our church, more than one hundred and eight thousand dollars being distributed among our institutions for the purpose of aiding worthy young men and women.

An advance of more than twelve per cent. upon the total receipts of the preceding year has been made. The contribution of our Conference to the Children's Day fund for the year ending November 30, 1905, amounted to $1,305.42. The society apportioned the students, who gave their residence as within our Conference territory, during the same year $2,305.00. It will therefore be seen that we share in the prosperity of the society. We earnestly recommend the observation of the disciplinary requirement touching the Children's Day collection for the Board of Education in every charge within the bounds of our Conference.

We recommend the use of "The Christian Student" and the American Student series published by our Board of Education; also, the program specially prepared for Children's Day.

Boston University School of Theology.

We congratulate Boston University School of Theology on its record, and prospects. We commend its insistence upon scholarship and its warm evangelistic spirit. Situated in the heart of a great city, it offers unparalleled opportunities for practical work in city missions and evangelism, and we note with pleasure the amount of work done by both faculty and students in solving the city problem. The recent changes in the course of study are of a practical nature, and are calculated to give the young minister a more vital equipment for his work. It thus aims to meet the two requirements of an ideal theological school, viz., to put the student in touch, first, with the great truth he has to preach, and, secondly, with men with whom he has to deal.

We would nominate for official visitor, C. F. McKown.

Chaddock College Boys' Home and School.

Chaddock Boys' School has passed through six successful years. The past year has been the best of all. The year opened with 80 boys enrolled. The total enrollment of the year was 130. The crowded condition of the dormitory and campus facilities on account of the large attendance, was greatly relieved by the larger boys occupying the new property purchased in August, 1905. Upon this property $9,000 was paid November 1, 1905. Valuable improvements have been made upon all the buildings. The teaching force has been increased. A financial agent has been employed to secure funds for the erection of new buildings, to provide for the increasing attendance and growing demands of the school.

While there are many free students at the institution, yet scores of poor boys were turned away during the year for lack of funds to care for them. The present school year opened with over 100 boys enrolled and a very bright outlook for the year.

We make the following recommendations:

1. For Conference Visitors—Resident pastors of Quincy, the Presiding Elder of Quincy District, J. E. Scheer, Wm. Hailey, T. L. Hancock, W. D. White, J. J. Dugan and W. S. Phillips.

2. For Trustees—To fill vacancies caused by death and resignation: Edwin Beggs and Mrs. Thos. Bennet. For the ensuing three years: Rev. Abner Clarke, Rev. E. A. Hedges, H. J. Vickers, H. B. Dines and Miss Anna Johnson.

Drew Theological Seminary.

This honored school maintains its past reputation for excellent equipment, sound and reverent scholarship, fine location and evangelistic and missionary spirit. The proximity of the school to New York city gives its students exceptional facilities for sociological studies and practical work. We unqualifiedly recommend Drew Theological Seminary as a place of ministerial instruction. We recommend, as Conference visitor, E. A. Hamilton.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

The recent commencement of this Institution was its semi-centennial anniversary. The occasion was marked by the presence of official visitors from many Conferences. Many distinguished guests, including the Board of Bishops, in semi-annual session, were in attendance. A fine program, with great addresses, marked the event.

The work of the past fifty years is of such a character as to cause the church to take a just pride in it, and warrants the anticipation of still greater things in the future. The attendance during the past year has been larger than ever before, the enrollment reaching 213. Since the last report $35,000 have been raised for the more perfect equipment of the school. We commend it to all concerned.

We recommend, as official visitors, W. J. Davidson and H. C. Gibbs.

The Illinois Wesleyan University.

Under the new administration the Illinois Wesleyan University has enjoyed a year of wonderful prosperity. The current year opens with a large number of new students, and a greatly increased attendance. We congratulate the new president, Dr. F. G. Barnes, upon the vigorous campaign upon which he has entered, and which he is so successfully conducting in behalf of this institution. His splendid generalship has inspired an interest and confidence among the people of Bloomington, and throughout the entire Conference, hitherto unknown. We congratulate Dr. Barnes, his able faculty and the Board of Trustees on their success and prospects, and heartily endorse their aggressive policy of administration.

The gift of Mr. Carnegie of $30,000 on the condition of the sum of $60,000 additional being raised, comes at an opportune time, and we heartily commend to our people this great enterprise.

The curriculum has been extended by a new Commercial Course, and also a course in Domestic Science. The Bible Course has received emphasis, and has been strengthened by the addition of a course in the History of Methodism, and one in Church History.

During the year the buildings and grounds have been beautified, at an expense of $4,000, which amount was raised by the Women's Guild, composed of 500 of the leading women of Bloomington. We appreciate their splendid enthusiasm and achievements.

We are glad to report a deepening in the spiritual life, and a great intensifying in the spiritual atmosphere among the students. The Christian associations are active in promoting the religious life and interest.

We urge our ministers and people to rally loyally to the support of President Barnes in his heroic effort to give the Wesleyan the students, the equipment and the rank it ought to have.

We would nominate for trustees, for the term of 1906-1909, Owen L. Reeves, L. H. Kerrick, Abraham Mann and William H. Wilder.

We would nominate for Conference visitors, C. Galeener, G. E. Scrimger, C. B. Taylor, A. C. Byerly, J. C. Nate and J. B. Horney.

Illinois Woman's College.

The Illinois Woman's College has had another year of marked prosperity. The vigorous and wise administration of President Harker has brought very gratifying results. Year by year new evidence of the steady and permanent growth of the institution appears. While the faculty is constantly increasing, from year to year, both in number and efficiency, and facilities for work constantly enlarging, thereby increasing expenses, yet the college never acquires a debt on account of current expenses; on the contrary, there is always a balance to its credit.

This calendar year will witness the completion of a splendid new, five story building, at a cost of $50,000. This building will furnish new and ampler accommodation for the Art, Music and Domestic Science Departments; also an elegant new chapel with a seating capacity of six hundred. The erection of the new building will leave vacant space in the main building for about forty additional students. There is already an urgent demand for largely increased boarding capacity, as, with the opening of this year all available room is taken. The wisdom of employing a field secretary to represent the college within the Illinois and adjacent conferences, seems fully justified by the experience of the past year. Rev. Dr. Horace Reed, the incumbent of that office has faithfully, ably and efficiently served the college.

Plans are being devised for the appropriate observance of the sixtieth anniversary of the college, which will occur next year. It is earnestly hoped that by that time the college will have secured $200,000 for additional buildings and endowment. Of that sum $35,000 are already secured. The Carnegie fund will add $30,000 more when the first $100,000 is secured.

The outlook for the college for the present year, and the future years, is very hopeful.

We recommend for election as trustees, the following, to fill vacancy occasioned by the resignation of Judge O. P. Thompson, Mr. Harvey Sconce.

We recommend as official visitors, on the part of the Conference, the following: Pastors resident in Jacksonville, and presiding elders of Jacksonville and West Jacksonville districts, Preston Wood, M. G. Coleman and S. W. Beggs.

Educational Moneys.

(1) We hereby recommend that the regular educational column of our minutes shall include only funds raised specifically under the provision of Paragraph 337, of the Discipline as the "Public Educational Collection" of the charge. All special gifts or gifts of supplies, provisions, etc., if certified by vouches, shall be reported under "other benevolences."

(2) We further recommend that the monies of the regular educational column, not specifically designated to any particular school, shall be equally divided among the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College and the Chaddock Boys' School. In case any charge has given a note to any of our four schools, the otherwise undesignated educational money from such charge shall be paid on such note, provided the Conference Treasurer be notified of the unpaid amount due on the same.

(3) We sincerely believe that the present educational offering of our charges should be greatly increased, in view of the special conditional gifts now offered our institutions, making this a crisis period in the history of each of them. We strongly urge our people to give largely to this end.

Respectfully submitted,

THEODORE KEMP, Chairman.

A. K. BYRNS, Secretary.

FRATERNAL OVERTURE.

The Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, in session at Worden, Ill., did, by resolution adopted this day, direct the President and Secretary of the Conference to convey to the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, now in session at Taylorville, Ill., the most cordial fraternal greetings of the body, and to inform our brethren that, for the abatement of all friction and hurtful rivalry, and to adjust all differences that may arise from the occupancy of the same or contiguous territory, or from a proposal on the part of either church to occupy territory already occupied by the other—in short, to answer all the ends and exercise all the powers agreed upon in the legislation adopted by both church or recommendation of the Joint Commission on Federation—this Annual Conference ordered the appointment of a Commission on Federation, to hold office for four years, to act with a similar commission which the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church is requested to appoint. This commission, consisting of three ministers and two laymen, the President of the Conference has appointed as follows: Rev. I. W. Longacre, Murphysboro, Ill.; Rev. R. J. Watts, Rev. W. D. Blaylock, S. S. Vick, and Samuel Carpenter.

Sincerely your Brethren in Christ,

JNO. J. TIGERT, Presiding Bishop.

GENERAL CONFERENCE REPRESENTATION.

In order to reduce the size of our General Conference, which has become almost unwieldy, and is constantly growing larger, and to save much unnecessary expense, we respectfully request our bishops to submit the following resolution to our Lay and Annual Conferences:

Resolved, That we, as Lay and Annual Conferences of the Methodist Episcopal Church, respectfully memorialize our next General Conference, convening in 1908, to so alter Part II., Article II., Paragraph 38, Section 1, of our constitution by striking out the words "fourteen" and "forty-five," and inserting the words "twenty-five" and "seventy-five," thus causing this clause to read: "The General Conference shall not allow more than one ministerial delegate for every twenty-five members of an annual conference, nor less than one for every seventy-five. HOSPITALS.

We hail the auspicious omen of an awakened church on the subject of establishing, thoroughly equipping and endowing Protestant Christian Hospitals, and rejoice that the Methodist Episcopal Church now has one such institution, and others give promise of becoming such at an early day.

Memorial Methodist.

Since the purchase of the property last year at Mattoon, Ill., the house of 25 rooms on the premises has been thoroughly remodeled and finely equipped at a cost of about $8,000. It was opened with appropriate and enthusiastic ceremonies last March, and in its operation since that time, its success has surpassed all expectation, practically paying its own way. We have an endowment of about $100,000, but which is as yet non-productive. To complete the payment for the property and the cost of the improvements, we must have larger immediate means. The citizens of Mattoon and surrounding country have done well, giving $10,000 through the agency of Rev. E. S. Wamsley and Dr. T. J. Wheat during the last two years. We have a plant which is worthy of support, and a large patronizing territory. The hospital trustees request the conference to endorse the plan recommended by Presiding Elder Shields in his report: that all our pastors be asked to take an offering at their first communion service after conference, and forward the amounts to Dr. T. O. Freeman, Treasurer, at Mattoon; and Epworth Leagues of Mattoon District, for the ensuing conference year, be encouraged to render every assistance in advancing the interests of the hospital.

We recommend the confirmation of the following as Hospital Trustees for the coming year: Dr. D. M. McFall, J. F. Hughes, Dr. T. O. Freeman, T. J. Wheat, E. D. Champion, S. W. Phillips, E. S. Wamsley, the Presiding Elder of Mattoon District, and the pastor of First Church, Mattoon.

We also commend the Wesley Hospital of Chicago to the favorable consideration of all our preachers and people in the purpose and effort to build up a great institution in that metropolitan city.

INDIA JUBILEE.

Believing that the action of the last General Conference calling for the commemoration of the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of our missions in India by special jubilee exercises and the raising of a jubilee thank offering fund of a quarter of a million dollars for the extension of our missionary activities in Southern Asia was a wise action; and

Believing further, That the raising of such an offering would greatly encourage our missionaries in the field, awaken the home church to greater interest in missions and glorify God, while the failure of our church to respond would tend to discouragement at home and abroad; and,

Recognizing that, while many churches have responded most encouragingly, it is nevertheless true that unexpected events have intervened to prevent many others from observing this anniversary and receiving a special offering, we, the ministers of the Illinois conference, hereby pledge ourselves at the earliest practicable moment after the adjournment of our Annual Conference, wherever the jubilee has not been observed, to present this great cause, receive an offering and forward the proceeds to the Missionary Secretaries, 150 Fifth avenue, New York, for the Jubilee Fund before December 26, of this year. LAY ASSOCIATION.

Whereas, It is exceedingly desirable that the laymen should be brought into close and intimate relation with the business of the Annual Conference, in order to enlist the largest number in the most intelligent co-operation in the world-wide work of Methodism; and,

Whereas, Many laymen have expressed a desire for a closer touch with the business of the Annual Conference; and,

Whereas, There is an increasing number who attend the Annual Conference in the interest of their local churches; therefore,

Resolved, That we most respectfully request the laymen of the Illinois Conference to form and maintain a lay association, which shall hold its annual session at the same place and time of the Annual Conference session, and that one laymen from each district selected by the lay association be invited to sit on all standing and special committees except such as have to do with passing upon the character of the minister.

POST GRADUATE COURSE OF STUDY.

Memorial.

The following resolution was adopted by the Danville District Ministerial Association, held in Homer, Ill., 1906:

Resolved, That this Association ask the Illinois Conference to provide a post graduate course of reading, leading to an honorary recognition by the conference. This course to be optional with each member of the Conference; all technicalities of the course to be arranged by the Special Conference Committee.

Course of Study.

Your committee beg leave to report that they believe arrangements for such a course are both desirable and feasible, though we had not time to mature plans.

We would suggest that courses could be offered in Theism, Natural Science, Literature, Biography, Psychology, Political Science and Economics, Applied Christianity, Biblical History, Christian Experience.

We believe that the course should cover four years and be rewarded with some kind of diploma or certificate issued under authority of the Conference.

We recommend the appointment of a committee to mature such plans, outline the course and offer the same at the earliest date practicable.

PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY AND CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS.

Statement of Committee from the Preachers' Aid Society.

Brethren: The Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference is a corporate body composed of ministers and laymen, and has for its object the creation and maintenance of a permanent fund for the support of Conference Claimants who are members of the society.

It has now a permanent fund of $32,472.14, which consists of money received from annual and life subscriptions of its members and of gifts, legacies and bequests from our friends. The method of the society recognizes the principle of self help, which we believe is conducive to thrift; for God helps those who try to help themselves. We also believe that our brethren, the laymen, have a right to expect of us the recognition of this principle before making an appeal to them for aid in creating a permanent fund for the support of any class of Conference Claimants.

Members of the Conference may become members of the Preachers' Aid Society by the annual payment of $10.00 for a limited term of years, and, at superannuation, they become beneficiaries upon the funds according to a fixed scale based upon the number of years of effective service while in regular standing in the society. This permanent fund is surely, though slowly, growing. We are profoundly thankful for the generous gifts of our lay friends.

and feel that we would be basely ungrateful were we not appreciative of their aid, or should we fail properly to care for the interests they have invested in us. We believe their aid has come to us largely because we were trying to aid ourselves.

While we would greatly rejoice to see every member of the Conference enrolled in this society, we do deeply regret that there should appear to be any misunderstanding concerning the aims, the rights, the vested privileges, and advantages accruing to the members of the Society, or concerning the methods employed by this conference for our Conference Claimants, and, as members of the Preachers' Aid Society, we most earnestly desire that the entire Conference may reach such an understanding that all may heartily co-operate in some method or plan by which an intelligent conviction may be produced among our people in favor of an adequate support for our veteran ministers, their widows, and minor children. We are also hopeful of reaching such an understanding before this Conference adjourns.

Therefore, we are authorized by the Preachers' Aid Society to ask for a committee, which shall be composed of persons who are not members of the Preachers' Aid Society to confer with a like committee from said society, with the view to devising some plan of harmonious procedure to increase the permanent funds for Conference Claimants, and that such joint committee be requested by you to report some plan for your action at this Conference session. Should the joint committee be unable to devise and agree upon such a plan for Conference action before adjournment, that said committee shall be authorized to devise some plan and present it to the trustees of the annual conference, who shall be directed to put the plan into effect at once. Should the joint committee fail to agree upon any plan, then it shall present to the Conference in 1907 a complete report of all its doings.

We do now request this most honorable body to appoint and authorize such committee.

(Report No. 1.)

The following declaration of principles was unanimously adopted by the Joint Committee on the support of Conference Claimants, appointed to devise some plan of harmonious procedure to increase the permanent fund for Conference claimants:

1. It is conceded that the Preachers' Aid Society, a corporate body, is not to be disturbed in its rights touching its invested funds.

2. It is understood that the present Conference Claimants' Permanent Fund of the Conference must be held inviolate for Conference Claimants without reference to any years of service or self-help plan devised, and it is understood that the dividends from the Book Concern, the Chartered Fund, and the annual collections from the churches must be administered as they are at present.

3. It is desirable to devise some plan whereby the Illinois Annual Conference, besides increasing its present permanent fund for Conference Claimants, may be organized upon the principles of self-help, and, years of service, for the purpose of raising a permanent fund for the support of its claimants.

4. It is desirable that we find a basis of agreement upon which we can send out an agent to raise a permanent fund to be administered on the principle of self-help and years of service, and to increase the present Conference fund.

5. It is desirable that we seek and find a basis upon which we may appoint an agent for the purposes set forth in item 3, without waiting for the details of a plan by which the Preacher's Aid Society may agree to cease its activity to increase its membership and funds.

This declaration of principles has been submitted to the Preachers' Aid Society, and we herewith submit its action thereon as a part of this report:

Whereas, The Joint Committee appointed to devise some plan of amicable adjustment whereby the entire Conference may be harmonious in an advance movement to raise a permanent fund for the support of superannuated ministers and other Conference claimants; and,

Whereas, The Joint Committee has reached a general basis of agreement for such advance movement, in a declaration of principles, in which the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society are recognized as being subject only to the Preachers' Aid Society, and that we are only asked to temporarily cease activity to secure members and additional funds for the society; therefore,

Resolved, That our answer to Question 1 by the Joint Committee be in the affirmative.

Resolved, Second, that in answer to Question No. 2, we reply: We will endeavor so to do by the help of God, as soon as such an organization as is agreed upon in item 3, of the declaration of principles, is actually effected. However, we do not know how far we can go under the laws of the State.

Committee—Wm. T. Beadles, J. F. Wohlfarth, T. A. Canady, William H. Wilder, H. C. Gibbs.

Questions Addressed to the Preachers' Aid Society.

1. Is it probable that the Preachers' Aid Society would be willing to enter upon an agreement to cease its activity to increase its membership and funds, provided an organization such as is contemplated in item 3 shall be effected?

2. Is it probable that the Preachers' Aid Society will agree, under condition of the organization of such a Conference society, to adjust itself and funds to the new organization on what may be an equitable plan, and still conserve all trust interests invested in the society?

Adopted by the Joint Committee.

J. F. WOHLFARTH, Secretary.

Report No. 2 of Joint Committee on Preachers' Aid Society and Conference Claimants.

Whereas, The Preachers' Aid Society and the Annual Conference have both approved the report of the Joint Committee, submitting a declaration of principles for the unification of our interests and efforts for the relief of Conference Claimants.

Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of an agent to solicit funds to increase our permanent fund in harmony with item 3 of the declaration of principles, and that the trustees of the Conference be authorized to make suitable provision for his support.

Resolved, That we recommend the appointment of a commission to work out the details of a plan of organization in accordance with item 3 of the declaration of principles, and that said commission be required to print and circulate its report at least sixty days before the ensuing session of the Annual Conference, and to present it to the Conference for action.

Joint Committee—W. H. Webster, M. M. Want, T. A. Canady, J. F. Wohlfarth, J. W. Van Cleve, J. B. Horney, H. C. Gibbs, J. W. Miller, W. H. Wilder, W. T. Beadles.

Resolution.

Since practical unanimity has been secured by the action of the Conference through the Joint Commission of the Preachers' Aid Society and of the Conference, we believe the time has come for a forward movement to raise permanent funds adequate to furnish all our Conference claimants a comfortable support. And we hereby pledge ourselves to receive and heartily support the field agent to be appointed for this purpose, and to co-operate with the Conference Commission in its plans to reach and awaken our people to a becoming appreciation of the merits of the cause.

We also recommend that the superannuate fund be apportioned to the several charges on the basis of a pro rata claim with other claims for ministerial support.

We also recommend that the presiding elders be directed to acquaint the several quarterly conferences with this action, and at the first quarterly conference of this year seek to secure a similar pledge from the members of that body.

W. D. WHITE, Secretary.

PUBLICATION OF MINUTES.

We recommend that each pastor and presiding elder be required to take and pay for one copy of the minutes for every hundred dollars and fraction thereof amounting to fifty dollars or more of the salary claim of his Charge, including house rent, plus two additional copies, carriage to be prepaid in every case where the money is paid before shipment.

Each presiding elder shall furnish the publisher of the minutes a list of the preachers in his district with the number of minutes each shall be required to take; after the shipment of the minutes, the publisher shall furnish each presiding elder with a list of preachers in his district, who have not paid for their minutes, including expressage in his statement of account, and the presiding elders shall collect the accounts and forward the money to the publishers.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORM.

I.. Temperance.

1. Resolved, That we reaffirm our uncompromising hostility to the liquor traffic in all its forms. We regard it as one of the most appalling evils that ever cursed mankind, as well as one of the greatest barriers to successful Christian work. Surely the time has arrived when it is the duty of every minister of the Gospel, and all Christians, to take an open stand against this greatest obstacle to the spread of the Redeemer's kingdom, and to ally themselves with every agency that has for its object the riddance of the saloon from State and Nation.

2. We hereby record our disapproval of the license system in all its features, and especially enter our emphatic protest against the issuing of license by national or state authority in territory adjacent to municipalities where the people have declared against the saloon, whereby "cold storages" are set up, thus practically defeating the will of the people in the municipality near by.

3. That in the approaching election of members to the General Assembly we hold it to be the duty of every Christian voter to ascertain the attitude of each candidate in his district toward the Anti-Saloon League local option bill as presented in the last legislature, and, regardless of party affiliations, we pledge our influence and our votes to the support of those candidates who stand committed to the said local option bill, and use every legitimate means to defeat those candidates who are opposed to the bill.

4. That we affirm our loyalty to the disciplinary requirement as stated in article 248, that no member of the Methodist Episcopal Church shall become bondsman for persons engaged in the liquor traffic, or rent his property as a place in or on which to manufacture or sell intoxicating liquors, and that we call upon the ministry and the laity of our Church to stand united in the enforcement of this provision of our Book of Discipline.

5. It being well understood that our national Congress is directly responsible for thrusting this monster evil out upon our people, we therefore memorialize President Roosevelt that in his next message to Congress he will recommend such legislation by that body as will lead to the annihilation of the liquor traffic by the removal of all revenue and the sanction of law.

II. The Sabbath.

The Christian Sabbath is not only one of the mainstays of religion and morality, but also one of the great bulwarks of social order and civil liberty. To maintain it, not as a holiday but a holy day, should be one of our chief concerns. We therefore call upon our preachers and people to throw the whole weight of their influence against all forms of Sabbath desecration, and to use every possible means for the creation of a healthier public sentiment upon the question of Sabbath observance.

III. Polygamy and Divorce.

1. We denounce the Mormon hierarchy for its defiant continuance of polygamy in flagrant violation of its plighted faith to the national government. We deplore the failure of the United States Senate to exclude from its membership Reed Smoot, the Apostle of this disloyal and law-defying church, and earnestly urge his exclusion at the coming session of Congress. We also urge upon Congress the submission to the States of an amendment to the National Constitution authorizing Congress to pass laws governing marriage and divorce.

2. The alarming growth of the divorce evil—more prevalent with us than in any other Christian land—covers us with shame as a nation; while the fact that so many of these divorces are among members of the great Evangelical Churches, scandalizes the church in the eyes of the world. We therefore declare it our set purpose to fight uncompromisingly, in pulpit and press, this great sin, affirming steadfastly that there is but one ground for divorce that is warranted by the teachings of Jesus Christ.

III. Nominations.

We recommend the election of the following:

Delegates to the National Anti-Saloon League Convention—J. W. Van Cleve, M. G. Coleman; alternates, W. T. Beadles, T. L. Hancock.

Member of the National Board of Direction of the Anti-Saloon League, W. H. Wilder.

Directors Illinois Anti-Saloon League, H. Reed, A. C. Byerly, C. W. Gulick.

SUNDAY SCHOOL AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Sunday Schools.

Recognizing that the Sunday School is of the highest importance as a factor in the church of the present and the future, as it touches as no other institution can, the lives of men in the pliable days of youth; therefore, we recommend:

1. That all our schools use the literature produced by our own church.
2. That training classes be formed for the preparation of teachers.
3. That at least on one Sunday in the year a missionary collection be taken by classes.
4. That Decision Day be observed in all our schools.

Epworth League.

The heart of the Chapter being in its spiritual life, we recommend as helps for the development of the spiritual life, that Bible Study classes be formed, Personal Workers' Covenants be subscribed, and the Morning Watch be observed.

In the effort of the Epworth League for the evangelization of the world, we recommend the Station Plan, and the special work offered by the Missionary Society, and that collections be made for the general Missionary movements of the Church.

We recommend also the formation of Missionary Study classes.

We would nominate the following for Conference officers: President, N. M. Rigg; Secretary, F. W. Moore; Treasurer, J. E. Scheer.

E. L. PLETCHER, Chairman.

A. M. WELLS, Secretary.

Statistics.

Resolved, That the Conference instruct the Statistical Secretary to prepare and issue such form of blanks to the pastors that shall require a report of every senior and every junior Epworth League Chapter; and that these reports shall be tabulated in the minutes by Districts.

THANKS.

1. Resolved, That the Christian courtesy, impartial dealing and executive ability, together with the excellent addresses and masterly sermon of our President, Bishop John W. Hamilton, have greatly endeared him to us, and we shall be glad to welcome him again whenever in the order of Providence he may be assigned to the Illinois Conference.

2. Resolved, That we record our appreciation of the conscientious and faithful services of the Secretaries and Treasurer of the Conference, and of their assistants, and all those who in any way have served us officially at this session.

3. We thank the pastor of this church, Rev. Preston Wood, for the acceptable manner in which he and his local committees have provided for the entertainment of the Conference. We also recognize the efficient services of Rev. W. S. Phillips in leading the singing; the local press in reporting the Conference proceedings; the First National Bank and the Farmers National Bank for valued favors to our Treasurer and members; the railways for special rates; T. W. Brents, Sheriff of Christian County, for the free use of Court House rooms; and the local churches and pastors for their fraternal courtesies.

4. The cordial and generous hospitality of the people of Taylorville, and their unremitting consideration for our wants and comfort as their guests, will ever be a pleasant memory on the part of every preacher. We tender our grateful appreciation and pray for God's constant blessing upon their homes.

5. We gratefully commend the earnest, forceful and evangelical sermon of Dr. T. S. Henderson and his inspirational and instructive work in the field of aggressive evangelism.

UNIFICATION OF BOOK CONCERN.

Whereas, The General Conference of 1904 "approved the principle of unifying the Book Concern by consolidating its manufacturing departments and placing them under one official management" which action we endorse; and,

Whereas, The General Conference appointed a Commission on the "Unification of the Book Concern," and ordered that, "if it shall adopt a plan," the commission "shall proceed to outline and determine the same for consolidating the manufacturing departments of the Book Concern and for their future administration under one official management," and,

Whereas, The General Conference directed "That upon the completion of said general plan the Book Committee shall at once proceed to carry the same into effect," and, that if the commission fails to adopt a plan of consolidation it shall make a complete report of all its doings to the General Conference of 1908;" and,

Whereas, The Commission on unification of the Book Concern has semi-officially, if not officially, announced that it has decided that the manufacturing departments of the Book Concern shall remain as they are at New York and Cincinnati, and that the management shall be unified under one publishing agent with two assistants; therefore,

Resolved, I—That it is the sense of this Conference that the decision of the Commission, if correctly reported through the Advocates of the Church, is scarcely warranted under the limitations of authority given the Commission by the General Conference since it does not provide for actual or practical consolidation of the manufacturing departments and it is not a "complete report of all its doings," Resolved, II—That we doubt the wisdom or expediency of such a consolidation as the report proposes.

Resolved, III—That we most respectfully memorialize the Book Committee to refrain from carrying the proposed modification of the Book Concern into effect, believing that it does not meet the general demand for unification of the Book Concern.

Resolved, IV—That a copy of this paper be sent to the chairman of the Commission, and of the Book Committee; also a copy be sent to Rev. John Harmon, D. D., the General Conference representative of this district.

THE W. H. & W. F. M. S.

We hereby congratulate the W. H. M. S. & W. F. M. S. on their growth and progress during the past year.

We could call attention to the substantial and indispensable aid of the W. H. M. S., to the cause of Christ in the South and West, and especially in Utah.

We heartily endorse and commend the work of the W. H. M. S. and insist that the formation of auxiliaries of either or both societies in the charges wherever practical would increase missionary zeal and prove a blessing to the members.

To these consecrated women we pledge our prayers and hearty support.

Rules of the Board.

With plan of Study and Examinations for 1906-1907.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be divided into five departments, namely: Biblical Theology, Historical Theology, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology and Philosophy, miscellaneous studies being assigned to these departments so as most evenly to distribute the work. The Board of Examiners shall be divided into five sections, corresponding to the divisions of the studies. It shall be the duty of each Examiner to assist as fully as possible, by corresponding or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Examiners designated by the chairman, or, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange for some member of the Conference as special examiner for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed examiner, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the Board. No other grades will be given until Conference.

5. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the chairman of the Board. Such appeals shall be decided by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter, to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

8. Undergraduates shall present on each book to be read a book review of not less than 1,000 words nor more than 1,500 words. Such review shall cover the entire work, and state the object of the author in writing the book, the ground covered, the style and plan of the work.

9. All credits from Methodist Literary and Theological schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. These credits must be on a scale of 100.

10. The examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the chairman of the Board duplicate copies of all sets of questions to be used in examination two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time with the District Examiners for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expense of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Examiners are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the chairman; and the financial accounts of the chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the Conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the Chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of Conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of all candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection, which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information concerning the candidates obtainable, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the Chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another Communion, and the Board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-third vote of the members of the Conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. To facilitate the work of the Board in this matter, the names of all such candidates and applicants shall be reported to the Chairman as early in the year as possible, that he may have ample time to make all necessary investigations.

14. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders to report to the Chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for Orders, with their post office addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the Chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular Conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of, and on the day before the session of, the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., to examine any who have not been examined during the year, to consider the matters involved in Rule 13, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the year to come.

"Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at the Conference of 1907 upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes respectively.

Memoirs

Adam Clarke Armentrout

Born in Pendleton county, Virginia, Feb. 20, 1835. Died at his home in Griggsville, Ill., July 17, 1906. He was united in marriage October 3, 1858, to Miss Sue Wright, who survives him. Eight children were born of that union, six of whom are living. He was converted in 1855, and entered the Illinois conference in 1856, at the session at Quincy, Ill. In 1858 he was received into full connection at Griggsville, Ill. In 1902 he was granted a superannuated relation at his request, not because of either physical or mental weakness, but for the reason as he said he "counted the years and saw it was time to rest." The last four years were spent in retirement, but not in inactivity, his services being frequently called for on various occasions, which were cheerfully rendered, and with great efficiency, as was instanced in the revival labors during the last winter.

Brother Armentrout loved his home. His wife and his children were dear to him. He was at the height of happiness when surrounded by his family, and his family loved him almost beyond description. His sons and sons-in-law bore his body to the grave. In death he was victorious, and in peace and joy he went to his reward.

Brother Armentrout possessed in large measure natural gifts for public and efficient address. He had an attractive and impressive presence, a very musical voice, a sweet and happy spirit, refined and graceful manner, humor and pathos. Those gifts, with a readiness and elegance of language, gave to his public address a charm and impressiveness and eloquence seldom witnessed. His manner of preaching was largely expository for which he was richly gifted, as he also was when he took some special theme in hand. The effect of his preaching upon his audiences was often overwhelming. Such occasions will long be remembered by multitudes who sat under his eloquent ministry. He served the following charges in the Illinois conference: 1856, Chatham; 1857, Jacksonville Circuit; 1858, Berlin; 1859, West Urbana; 1860-61, Delavan; 1862, Griggsville; 1863-64, Quincy, Fifth Street; 1865-66, Winchester; 1867-69, evangelistic work; 1870, Westfield; 1871, Pawnee; 1872-74, Mason City; 1875, Pana; 1876-77, Perry; 1878-80, Decatur Circuit; 1881-83, Lincoln Circuit; 1884-86, Virginia; 1887-91, Moweaqua; 1892, Cerro Gordo; 1899, Griggsville; 1897-98, Edinburg; 1899, Bluffs; 1900-01, Naples; 1902-05, superannuated.

The funeral services took place at the M. E. Church, Thursday, July 19, at 4 o'clock p. m., and were largely attended by friends and admirers of the deceased. The Presiding Elder, Dr. Robert Stephens of Danville, delivered the funeral sermon from the words: "And they buried him in the city of David among the kings."

"Being dead he yet speaketh." The wise will heed his message. Dr. W. H. Wilder of Centenary Church, Jacksonville, and Dr. Scrimger of the Jacksonville district, delivered brief addresses; Rev. Kirkpatrick and Rev. Nathan English read the Scripture; Rev. H. F. Cusic offered prayer and Rev. Davis read the obituary. Burial was in the Griggsville cemetery.

William Story Hooper

Rev. William Story Hooper was born in New Albany, Ind., August 15, 1836. He was converted and united with our church in that city when twelve years of age. He was educated in the Indiana State University, from which institution he received the degree of master of arts in 1861. He married Miss America Robertson, April 17, 1862, at Bloomington, Ind. He twice offered himself in the service of his country in the Civil War, but was rejected because of physical unfitness. Being called of God to the work of the Christian ministry, he joined Indiana Conference on trial in 1858, and was stationed at Alton. The next year he was sent to French Lick and the following year to Bloomington Circuit. He took a certificate of location in 1861, and in 1863, was elected president of Rockport Collegiate Institute. He was readmitted into the Indiana Conference in 1864, and continued in the presidency of the above named institution until 1866, when he was transferred to Illinois Conference and sent to Marshall, both as pastor and as president of Marshall College. His succeeding charges were as follows: 1867, Charleston; 1868-70, Hillsboro; 1871-73, Quincy, Fifth Street and Trinity; 1874, Kimber Church, Danville; 1875-77, Delavan; 1878-80, Winchester; 1881-82, Paris; 1883-85, Farmer City; 1886, Paxton; 1887-89, Shelbyville, First Church; 1890-92, Mattoon; 1893, Charleston; 1894, Carrollton. In 1895 he took a supernumerary relation in which he continued until 1901, when he was placed on the superannuated list where he remained till he died at Charleston, Ill., April 19, 1906. Since he ceased active work in the ministry he was in business with his son-in-law, Frank Kern, of Mattoon, Ill., until failing health made it necessary a few months ago for him to be relieved of all responsibility. For several years he has been in a physical decline, and a great sufferer, but he endured as seeing Him who is invisible, and uncomplainingly bore his physical disabilities in a spirit of true Christian fortitude and resignation. A few weeks ago he submitted to a surgical operation as the only hope of prolonging life, but his chronic malady was so far advanced that his new lease of life was of short duration. Soon "God's finger touched him and he slept," while still in the sanitarium. Brother Hooper was an excellent preacher, clear, scholarly, forcible, convincing, evangelical and even evangelistic, and hence successful. Revivals attended his ministry in which many souls were saved and saints edified. He was also a man or more than ordinary literary attainments. He edited Peter Cartwright's work, "Fifty Years a Presiding Elder." He was for five years secretary of the Illinois Conference, a position which he creditably filled. He was a Knight Templar and was twice their state grand orator.

He made a large place for himself in the affections of the people in the charges and Conferences where he lived and labored. In his honor the Wesley Brotherhood chapter in the Mattoon, First Church, is named "Hooper Chapter." His life-companion and their two children, Cyrus Luron Hooper, of Chicago, and Mrs. Frank Kern, of Mattoon, and her son, his only grandchild, to whom he was greatly attached, survive him. Both his brothers and two of his four sisters also remain on the shores of time. Brother Hooper rests from his labors and his works do follow him. The funeral was held in First Church, Mattoon, his home for eleven years, April 21, conducted by Presiding Elders Parker Shields and S. H. Whitlock, Rev. D. W. English, Rev. E. D. Champion, Rev. Naboth Osborne and the writer, who delivered the funeral discourse. The interment was in the cemetery near the city.

Nathanael Harris Kane

Nathanael Harris Kane was born in the State of New Jersey, April 23, 1826, and died at the home of a nephew in Cumro, Neb., December 28, 1905. He was converted at Beverly, N. J., Jan. 3, 1851. In his early life he was a carpenter by trade and engaged in shipbuilding. His educational advantages were small, for according to his own statement he had gone to school but a few months in his whole lifetime. He was not, however, without thought, or without a good fund of information, and the ability to use it for doing good. In September, 1872, he was received on trial in the Illinois Conference of our Church. The following is his formal Conference record: 1872, Shelbyville Circuit; 1873-4, Manito; 1875, Mason City Circuit; 1876, Palmer; 1877, Winchester Circuit; 1878-9, Astoria Circuit; 1880, Chili; 1881-2, Camden; 1883-5, Sadorus; 1886, Rankin; 1887, Ogden; 1888, superannuate; 1889, Lima; 1890-1905, superannuate.

Bro. Kane was a man of deep spirituality, being a modest professor of the blessing of perfect love. He was an honored and useful member of his conference, giving much thought to the arrangement and execution of his work, not only by his own personal effort but as well by utilizing the local talent found in preachers and exhorters. His brethren hold him in loving remembrance. He was interred in the Davis cemetery, Pesotum, Ill., by the side of the remains of his faithful wife who had preceded him a number of years ago. The Rev. H. C. Turner, a classmate in the conference, performed the last, sad funeral rites. There are no surviving children.

Jacob Garretson Little

Jacob Garretson Little was born in Milo, Me., November 21, 1831. In his ninth year he was converted and began those earnest devotional habits which characterized his beautiful and saintly life. In young manhood he settled in Illinois. After teaching school for a year or two he responded to the call of God for the work of the ministry and in the fall of 1858 was received on probation in the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, where for twenty-five years he did effective service on the following charges: Taylorville, Virden, Delavan, Beardstown, Urbana, Lincoln, Bloomington, Quincy, Lincoln, First Church, Champaign, and again at Delavan. In 1878 he was appointed presiding elder of the Champaign District, which he served four years. At the session of his conference in 1879 he was elected a delegate to the General Conference of 1880 held in Cincinnati. Some years after entering the ministry he carried on a non-resident course of study through the Illinois Wesleyan University and received the degree of A. M., pro merito, from that institution. With somewhat impaired health in 1883 he took a supernumerary relation and moved to Perry, Ia., where he resided at the time of his death. He married Elizabeth P. Norris May 1, 1857, who, with three daughters and a son survives. Brother Little was heir to a splendid religious heritage, numbering among his ancestry and relatives in various denominations many devoted men of God, several eminent for their works' sake. He was related to the noted Presbyterian home missionary known as patriarch of two synods, the Rev. Henry Little of Texas, and also distantly to Rev. Dr. Chas. J. Little, president of Garrett Biblical Institute. Brother Little was a man of unusual intellectual powers, with marked sweetness in spirit and life. Though in his seventy-fifth year, he was as much a student as in youth; white haired and venerable, it yet never seemed quite harmonious to speak of him as old. Always fresh and of wide range in thought, his sermons, testimonies, and conversations were intellectual inspirations, while the simplicity and depth of his piety gave great spiritual weight to his utterances. But it was perhaps in prayer that he most excelled. His sympathies were broad and responsive. Public interests of benevolence and reform enlisted his active support. And yet in the most aggressive work of reform he was so supremely the brother of men as to command the moral respect of even those whose evil he sought to restrain.

He was an active worker and voter for prohibition. In the latter part of his life he was much in the south for his health. He was acting pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in New Orleans at one time, and at another of the Church in Port Arthur, Texas. He was deeply interested in the work of the Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society and labored in its behalf.

The sense of his value to the community in which he lived is fitly expressed in a local editorial: "Perhaps there never has been a death in Perry which has called forth so many expressions of regret as has the sudden taking away of Rev. Mr. Little. He was so truly and thoroughly a Christian, and so exemplified the principles of the God of love that he was recognized by old and young alike as one of the best men that ever lived in our midst." He died July 10, 1906, after less than four days' illness of typhoid pneumonia.

Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. A. H. Collins, assisted by several other pastors of the city, and a lawyer, a special friend of Bro. Little. Burial was made in the city cemetery at Perry.

A. H. COLLINS.

Matthias R. Palmer

The subject of this sketch was born near Carlinville, Ill., April 13, 1860, and died in Champaign, Ill., August 24, 1906. He resided with his parents at the place of his birth until he was about seventeen years of age. He then went to Jacksonville, Ill., and entered the public schools of that city. After completing the public school course, he entered Illinois College and took a partial course in that institution.

At the age of twelve he was brightly converted and never during his life did he doubt his acceptance with God. After leaving college he taught for four or five years and then felt and realized clearly his call to the ministry. He hesitated not, but went at once into the work. He entered the Illinois Conference as a probationer and was sent to the Riverton Circuit in 1884.

He served in succession the following charges: Riverton, 1884; Marshall Circuit, 1885-7; Neoga, 1888-9; Oakland, 1890-1; Bethany, 1892; Martinsville, 1893-4; Elkhart, 1895-6; Auburn, 1897-8; Waverly Circuit, 1899. Owing to impaired health he was compelled to take a supernumerary relation at the conference of 1890 and in this relation he remained for two years when he was again placed in the effective ranks and sent to White Heath, which charge he served for two years. It was while serving the last named charge that his health gave way to such an extent that he was compelled to relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. This was a sore trial to Brother Palmer as his heart was in the work and his chief delight was to preach the unsearchable riches of Christ.

He was married May 24, 1888, in Terre Haute, Ind., to Miss Ida Briggs, who with five children survives. Two children preceded him into the glory world. The survivors are Lois, Bliss, Ruth, Edith and Haven.

Brother Palmer was a godly man and an excellent preacher. During his active ministry he was always punctual and reliable. He could be depended upon to do his duty. He was studious in habit, interesting and instructive in his preaching and careful in all that pertained to his work.

He was hopeful of a return to health until the end drew near. But he realized that his condition was perilous and yet he feared not the last enemy. In conversation with the writer only a few days before his decease he spoke with great confidence of the future and declared that all was bright ahead.

His funeral was attended by a number of his brethren in the ministry and he was laid to rest in Mt. Hope cemetery, Champaign.

CHRISTIE GALEENER.

Agnes Seymour Austin

Agnes Seymour Austin, widow of Rev. J. H. Austin, daughter of John and Sallie Seymour, was born in Pierson County, N. C., October 17, 1824. She died at the home of her son, near Waverly, Ill., April 25, 1906. When she was four years of age her parents moved from North Carolina and settled on a farm near Franklin, Ill. She was converted and united with our church when about twenty years of age. On December 25, 1845, she married Rev. J. H. Austin, who was for many years a local preacher of great acceptability and power, and who became a member of Illinois Conference in 1873, and for nearly twenty years sustained an effective relation in the conference. Her husband died at Paris, Ill., September 26, 1893. To them were born nine children. Two died in infancy and three after they were grown. The four who survive: Charles F. Austin of Fisher, Ill.; Mrs. J. H. Grantham of Irving, Ill.; Mrs. Joseph Fishback and Carlin A. Austin of Waverly, Ill. There are also five brothers and one sister, Robert and Edward of Franklin, Ill.; Jarrett and George of Jacksonville, Ill.; Henry of Kansas, and Mrs. John Hutchison of Waverly, Ill. After the death of her husband she lived near Paris, Ill., until six years ago, when she moved with the family of her son, Carlin Austin, near Waverly, Ill. She lived a faithful and consistent Christian life. In her last days she was bright and cheerful. She was sick but a few days, and her mind was unclouded to the last. During her last moments she said good-bye to her loved ones and asked them to meet her in heaven. She was given a vision of the heavenly city, and said she could see departed loved ones calling her home.

The funeral service was held in Providence Methodist Episcopal Church of Franklin Circuit, and was conducted by her pastor, the Rev. J. M. Eldredge of Waverly, assisted by the Rev. F. L. Buck of Franklin Circuit. The remains were laid to rest beside those of her husband, in the cemetery adjoining the church and await the resurrection of the just.

Mary Elizabeth Elliott

Mary Elizabeth Elliott was born in Salem, Mass., Oct. 28, 1833, and died in Jacksonville, Ill., Friday, August 17, 1906, being 72 years, 9 months and 20 days old. She was a daughter of Capt. John Burns, a pioneer settler of Adams county, who came to Quincy in 1834. Her early life was spent in Payson, the family returning to Quincy in 1853. On May 19, 1859, she was married to the Rev. Emmor Elliott of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, then pastor of Trinity Church, Quincy. They were stationed at Havana, Rushville and Griggsville. At the time of Bro. Elliott's death which occurred Oct. 25, 1868, he was Presiding Elder of Griggsville. While driving from Griggsville to Barry he was thrown from his buggy in a runaway, and received injuries from which he died ten days later. During the following month all five of the children had diphtheria. Two, Jessie, aged seven, and John Wesley, aged five, died in the same week. One son, Abraham L., died in St. Louis in 1892. Two children survive: Charles Emmor of Oskaloosa, Kan., and Abbie M., who, until recently, made her home with her mother. She leaves, besides these, four sisters, two brothers and four grandchildren.

At an early age Mrs. Elliott gave her heart to God and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and during the active years of her life was a faithful worker in the church. For the past fifteen years she had been an invalid much of the time, and was a great sufferer. She had been in failing health since last February. As the end drew near she said: "I cannot get well, but I have a hope," and repeated, softly, "Yes,

I have the hope." In this hope she fell asleep.

The funeral services were held at Payson, in the midst of near relatives and friends, and the sermon was preached by the Rev. Abner Clarke, after which the body was laid to rest in the cemetery of the place.

Mary Redman Garner

Mrs Mary Redman Garner was born near Jacksonville, Illinois, November 18, 1821, and died at Pleasant Hill, Illinois, July 2, 1906. At the age of 12 years she was left an orphan in the world, both parents dying suddenly from an epidemic of cholera. March 31, 1836, she was united in marriage to Mr. Greenbury Garner and with her husband entered the Illinois Conference in 1847, by whose side she walked for more than 51 years. She was the mother of ten children, one-half of whom have crossed the flood, while Mrs. Bagby of Ashland, Mrs. Wolfe of Chicago, George of Ashburs, Mo., Charles of Dixie, Arkansas, and Mrs. Her of Pleasant Hill, Ill., and thirteen grandchildren and five great grandchildren "mourn not as those who have no hope." Possessing a vigorous constitution, with great powers of endurance, few women have been able to do the work for others that she did in her day. The wise man's words described her perfectly, as she was seen, the central figure in her home with husband and children about her: "She worketh with her hands willingly." None delighted more than she to extend the hospitalities of her home to all who entered it. Many faint and weary toilers in the Master's work have been refreshed and rested in her neat and cozy home. Her home was her empire, where she reigned in quiet, queenly grace and loveliness. No shadows were allowed to linger in her path or throw their sombre folds about her life. She wore no cloud upon her face to render sad the heart of husband, child or friend. Her soul was full of life and hope. In the process of removal from the earthly to the heavenly home she was spared the physical sufferings which are common. In a good, ripe old age, and comparatively good health, she was stricken with paralysis of the heart, and sank down, as though weary, to rest. She was conscious until the end. Being a follower of Christ and a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church since early childhood, she had no fear of death, but testified to a beautiful acquiescence in the divine will and a profound peace of mind through the merits of her precious Saviour, to which must be added the testimony of her well spent life:

Say not the mother dies!
Though in the dust she lies.
She cannot forfeit her melodious breath,
Unsphered by envious death!
Life drops the voiceless myriads from its roll:
Their fate she cannot share,
Who, in the enchanted air,
Sweet with the lingering strains that echo stole,
Has left her dearer self, the music of her soul.

The funeral services occurred in the Ashland M. E. Church, July 4th, at 2:30 p. m., conducted by Rev. R. A. Hartrick, assisted by Revs. Geo. Scrimger, D. D., W. A. Musgrove, D. D., Jacksonville; W. W. Carter, Pleasant Plains, and A. Sloan. The interment took place in the Ashland cemetery.

Anne Sims Gunn

Mrs. Anne Gunn, whose maiden name was Sims, was born in Morgan County, Illinois, December 27, 1833, and died in Jacksonville, Illinois, September 30th, 1904, aged 71 years, 9 months and 3 days. Her husband and three children had preceded her to their final home. She is survived by one son, A. M. Gunn of Chicago, and one daughter, Eva Gunn, who has always been with her mother.

In 1855, conscious of her need of Jesus Christ, she sought and found Him in pardoning grace and united with the old East Side Church, now Centenary, Jacksonville, Ill. In 1858, she was united in marriage with Rev. James A. Gunn, who until his death in 1868, was an efficient and most successful member of the Illinois Conference.

For ten years Sister Gunn shared with him successes which were continuous in charges at Edinburg, Springfield Circuit, Concord and other places; for they were eminently successful in winning souls to Christ. She knew also the sorrows and trials and hardships incident to the life of a pioneer Methodist preacher's wife.

While yet a young woman, left with several small children, her lot was not an easy one; but faith in herself and in the promises of God never failed her. Until the day of her departure she maintained an irreproachable Christian character and manifested a perfect loyalty to the church of her young womanhood. As nurse and evangelist of mercy she has ministered in many homes of the city where her influence will linger for years as a sweet fragrance upon lives blessed by her example of correct living and deeds of holy doing.

For some time she was a great sufferer but she never complained. That stalwart and familiar frame wasted away under her affliction, but her spirit grew in sweetness and hope as she dwelt upon the glory of the redeemed. Conscious that her work was done, she patiently waited in fullness of hope for the hour when liberated from her prison house of clay her soul could take its flight to that house above prepared for her and her loved ones.

Her funeral services were held in Centenary Church and were conducted by her pastor, W. H. Wilder.

Note.—By some oversight the above memoir was overlooked and omitted last year.

Sara Hall Janes

Sarah Hall Janes, widow of Lester Janes, D. D., late of Central Illinois Conference, died at Quincy, Illinois, her home, June 27th, 1906. She was born at South Hadley, Mass., March 8, 1815, and was therefore when she died in the 92d year of her life. While yet very young, she became interested in and professed religion, and joined the Congregational Church at South Deerfield, Mass., where she then resided with her parents, and during the whole period of her earthly career continued to be an earnest and exemplary Christian, and died in the "triumph of a living faith." When scarcely more than 20 years of age, she accepted a position as principal and teacher of a young ladies' seminary at Booneville, Mo. In company with other teachers, bound for the west, she made the long journey, which required then more than ten weeks' time, by rail, river, and largely by stage, and entered upon what she then considered her life work at this distant town on the banks of the Missouri. An all wise but Overruling Providence, however, had arranged for her quite another sphere of usefulness. After a year or two of teaching with great and growing success, she met and married a young Methodist preacher, who on horseback was then riding the Booneville circuit, over 100 miles in circumference, and occasionally came to Booneville to preach. For more than half a century, she shared in the labors of her faithful and earnest husband, in the itineracy of the Methodist Episcopal Church, through the states of Missouri Massachusetts, New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Texas, and Illinois. She was the kind and loving mother of ten children, and out of this number reared a family of seven, all to have families of their own. Four sons and twelve grandchildren, and one great grandchild still survive her, to cherish her blessed memory and revere her faithful teachings. Beside being a member of the Vermont Street Methodist Church, she was also a member of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society and of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union at Quincy, and was until a few months before her death a faithful attendant at the meetings. Her childlike faith and trust in Jesus as her Saviour, was practically exhibited in the last few years of her life. She put her trust implicitly in Him, threw off all care and worry, and lived peacefully and happily, notwithstanding much pain and suffering from the infirmities of old age itself, and in particular from the effects of a broken limb, which hastened the close of her long and eventful life.

Funeral services were held from the late residence, by her pastor, the Rev. J. W. Miller, and the body was laid to rest in Woodland cemetery, Quincy.

"How blest the Christian when she dies
When sinks the weary soul to rest
How mildly beam the closing eyes.
How gently heaves the expiring breast
So fades the summer cloud away,
So sinks the gale when storms are o'er
So gently shuts the Eye of day,
So dies the wave along the shore."

Mary Moore Read

Mary S, daughter of the late Rev. W. H. Moore, D. D., of the Illinois Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and Mrs. Julia A. Moore, was born in Clark County, Illinois, March 5, 1845, and died May 21, 1906. She was converted and united with the Church at the age 11 years, when her father was pastor at Urbana. She came to Bloomington with her father's family in 1867, when he became Presiding Elder of the Bloomington District. The Moore family took up its residence in Normal in 1868.

The deceased was married to George W. Read, April 2, 1874. Two children were born to them: Clara E. and John, the latter dying in infancy. The surviving husband, Rev. George W. Read, is a member of the Illinois conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, holding the superannuate relation. The only daughter lives in the home. The Misses Mamie and Iona Read are adopted children. Besides these there lives in the home Mrs. Moore, mother of Mrs. Read, at the advanced age of 88 years. Mrs. Read was of a family of eight children, four of whom survive: Thomas, R. E. and John H. of Lincoln, Neb., and William E., of Red Oak, Iowa. Mrs. Read was an earnest Christian woman, and an active worker in the church so far as her feeble health would permit. She had been in delicate health the most of her life, and for the past year or two she had been confined, almost wholly to the house. The last illness was a general breaking down of the life forces.

Funeral services were held from the late residence in Normal, and were conducted by the Rev. C. P. Masden, pastor of the First Methodist Episcopal Church of Bloomington, assisted by the Rev. C. O. McCullough, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Normal. The body was laid to rest in the Bloomington cemetery.

Sarah Riddle Semple

Sarah Riddle was born in Sangamon County, Ill., September 30, 1826, and died January 11, 1906. She was the daughter of David Riddle, an early settler of Sangamon County. Her father's house was one of the preaching places of early Methodism in Illinois. Drs. Akers, Cartwright, Heath, Allyn and Leaton were among those who preached there. Quarterly meetings were held here, when people came twenty-five miles in covered wagons, and often the meeting lasted several days, and as many were entertained in the house as could sleep on the floor. Miss Riddle was converted at an early age at a camp meeting held on the ground where the cemetery is located in which her body now rests. Her conversion was clear and she lived a consistent member of the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was married to the Rev. Alexander Semple, a member of the Illinois Conference, in May, 1853, and for thirty years she shared with him the joys and sorrows of an itinerant Methodist preacher. To them were born four children: James Irwin, who died in infancy; Anna Louise, Frank Ames and William Finley. William Finley is at present a practicing physician in Chicago, and Anna L. is a deaconess, her field of labor being at present in the Trinity Church, Denver, Colorado. Since the death of her husband, in 1883, Mrs. Semple has been mostly with her daughter, Anna. During her last illness they removed her to Chicago, where she might receive special attention from her son. She was a great sufferer, but a marvel of patience, never once uttering a complaint. She frequently spoke of the journey being nearly ended, and always with perfect calmness, and when it came, she passed away peacefully and without a fear. The funeral services were held in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Mechanicsburg, Ill., conducted by Rev. W. H. Musgrove, of Jacksonville, Ill., an old-time friend of the family, assisted by the Rev. W. D. White, pastor of the church. The remains were laid to rest in the beautiful Mechanicsburg cemetery in a grove, by the side of those of her husband, to await the resurrection of the blest.

W. H. M.

Jennie Noble White

Jennie Noble White, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Owen Price Noble, of the Pacific Conference, Methodist Episcopal Church, South, was born at Missouri City, Mo., July 23, 1870, married to the Rev. William Dean White at Guthrie, Okla., Nov. 27, 1895, and went up to the Father's House from the home of her sister at Eureka Springs, Ark., June 26, 1906,—the days of her pilgrimage having been 35 years, 11 months and 3 days. Her husband, four children, father and mother, a brother and sister are left to cherish her precious memory.

At an early age she was converted and received into the membership of the Methodist Church under the ministry of her father, and the gift then laid on the altar was never recalled.

She received her education at Little Rock University, Little Rock, Ark., later moving with her parents to Oklahoma Territory where, at an Annual Conference, she met and later married the husband who grieves her loss today.

Of her all can be said that can be told of any of God's latest and best handiwork—she was a blessing from heaven to her husband, her home and her friends. Blessed with a favorable beginning her life throughout was lived on a high level, for into her life, from childhood, were instilled all those beautiful traits that come from a home ordered of God.

Patient through long months of ill health and suffering—always patient, sunny and hopeful, her influence abides in the home she has left as a benediction from heaven, and the memory of her sweet and gentle life is as ointment poured forth, or as the alabaster cruise broken in the house of Simon the leper.

The funeral sermon was preached in her home church by Dr. Geo. E. Scrimger, Dr. A. C. Byerly, her presiding elder, having charge of the services.

"The Lord gave, and the Lord hath taken away;

Blessed be the name of the Lord!"

Mariah Horton Whitlock

Mariah J. Horton was born in Piqua, O., April 25, 1842. Her girlhood days were spent in that city. Early in childhood she was converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church and her whole life was spent in the services of the church and of the Christ. In 1860 she was married to S. H. Whitlock and eight years later came with her husband to Illinois, sharing with him the joys and cares of the Methodist minister. In each place where their lot was cast—at Nokomis, Maroa, LeRoy, Potomac, Ridge Farm, Homer, Clinton, and at Kimber Church, Danville, she fulfilled with the utmost fidelity her duties as a pastor's wife. And throughout the Quincy, Mattoon and Danville Districts was known by all the pastors of all the charges as the sympathetic and kindhearted wife of the Presiding Elder. She was always interested in all phases of church life and was zealous and gifted in promoting the welfare of the various organizations to which she belonged. While her husband was Presiding Elder of the Quincy and Mattoon Districts she was President of the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society of the District and when she came to Danville was asked to take the same office for the Danville District, but was compelled to decline on account of failing strength. Her death occurred in Danville, August 25, 1906.

Mrs. Whitlock was known throughout the Conference particularly for her kindness and hospitality to the preachers, and for her interest in and service for the poor. Among the ministers she had no favorites unless all might be so considered for she esteemed them all alike the servants of God and as such the friends of her Lord and Saviour.

Yet in all her devotion to the enterprises of the church she did not in any way neglect those whom God had given her for special care and tutelage in the home. And the sincere and beautiful affection of her children, now grown to manhood and womanhood, is but the natural response of a grateful and filial spirit.

Mrs. C. B. Butler, W. R. Whitlock, Mrs. J. G. White, Merle H. Whitlock—these are the ones, together with her devoted husband, for whom she expended her first thought and care and unto whom her going away spells out the inexpressible loss contained in the word "Mother."

The church and communities where she lived will miss her for many, many years to come. The genuineness of her devotion emphasizes the irreparable loss that is ours. Yet not as those who have no hope do we grieve but as those who believe in a Resurrected Lord, and expectantly await his coming again.

The funeral services were conducted at the Kimber M. E. church under the direction of the pastor, T. N. Ewing, and at Homer, Ill., under the direction of Rev. W. D. Fairchild. A large number of the preachers of the Danville District were present and many from various parts of the Conference. Presiding Elders Harney and Byerly, Dr. Horace Reed, W. J. Calhoun, Fred Clearwater, W. H. Webster and H. C. Gibbs took part in the services at the Kimber church. Burial was at Homer, Ill. Services at the cemetery were very impressive, the preachers joining in singing "Abide with Me." and in repeating the Lord's Prayer.

Mary Padgett Wilson

May Jane Padgett, wife of Rev. Henry Wilson, was born at Albany, New York, on Sept. 20, 1840, and died at the home of her daughter, Annie, wife of John M. Graham, 1730 Wrightwood Avenue, Chicago, Ill., on Sept. 13, 1906. She was buried at Quincy, Ill., Sept. 16, 1906. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. W. Miller, pastor of the Vermont Street M. E. church.

She was the daughter of George and Ann Finlay Padgett, sturdy Scotch-Irish folk, who emigrated from County Gavan, Ireland, shortly before her birth. Her mother was a sister of Rev. William B. Finlay, Matthew B. Finlay, Mrs. Jane Carrott and Mrs. Mary B. Jones, who came to this country about the same time and settled in or about Quincy. Members of her father's family also came, and one sister of her father still survives, Mrs. Margaret Livingston, who lives at Anna Brown Home for the Aged.

While she was quite young, her parents removed to Quincy, where she grew to womanhood and secured her education at the old Quincy College, afterwards known as Chaddock College. She was converted early in life and joined the Vermont Street M. E. church.

On Sept. 2, 1863, she was united in marriage with Rev. Henry Wilson of the Illinois Conference, who first came to Quincy from Garrett Biblical Institute in Evanston, to teach in Quincy College and while there made the acquaintance of his future wife.

Then followed the life of the itinerant ministry for over forty years, with its mingled joys and sorrows, lights and shadows. Mrs. Wilson was a good performer on the organ or piano at a time when the accomplishment was not so common as it is now, and at an early day often assisted her husband in the services in this capacity. Five children were to this union, three of whom survived to maturity: Annie, wife of John M. Graham, of Chicago, Ill.; George H. Wilson, of Quincy, Ill., and Jessie, wife of Henry F. Crowl, of Wooster, Ohio.

Always frail in her childhood and girlhood, during her young womanhood she came to enjoy a fair degree of health and strength, but later the infirmities of increasing years began to beset her, and for the last twelve to fifteen years she had been a confirmed invalid, so much so that her husband had to give up the active work of the ministry about twelve years ago to devote his time to the preservation of her ebbing health and strength. Since then they spent most of their time in Santa Barbara, Calif., where they made a large circle of enduring friends. They returned to Illinois in the early part of May of this year for the benefit of a change of climate and to fulfill her often expressed desire that she might see her children again.

Mrs. Wilson always led a retired and sheltered life on account of her delicate health and was not interested in the activities of the great world but the homely duties of her own family and friends enlisted her constant care and devotion. She was a good wife and a most loving and devoted mother. She was a woman of strong affection, and friendship to her had the sacredness and obligation of religion.

Always of pronounced religious convictions, during her latter years as the material began to recede, and she became bowed with the weight of years and physical infirmities, she dwelt more and more upon the unseen world and often spoke of the end with Christian hope and fortitude, and, toward the last, even with anticipation, that she might be released from her sufferings, which she endured with remarkable patience. She had no fear for the future and went down into the valley of the shadow of death comforted by the rod and staff that sustained the psalmist. In her sudden death she was permitted to leave no parting sign of her faith and love. She has left a legacy in the memory of her friends that will never be effaced.

Presiding Elders' Reports

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In submitting this, my third annual report of the Bloomington District, I desire first, to express the pleasure it gives me to have the Illinois Conference meet in this city. We most cordially welcome you within the bounds of the District and to the city of Bloomington, and after staying with us a week we shall not be surprised if some of you shall become so pleased with this territory that you will want to stay within its borders. Of course we will gladly take you in. We hope while you are with us to give you the best we have, and are expecting in return, that from this Conference there will go out a spiritual influence that will strengthen the Church and bring many souls to Jesus Christ.

Progress has marked the different lines of work in this District during the year. There was an increase of over $1,000 on pastors' salaries at the beginning of the year, and so far as we can learn all will be paid in full.

There has been growth in the material work. In November, a beautiful and modern new Church was dedicated at Green Valley, which was erected at a cost of over $4,000. On the last Sunday in May, Park Church of this city was dedicated. This enterprise has passed through many varied experiences, and now that it has a substantial and well located church the wisdom of the enterprise is proven. A good congregation worships there, and the Sunday school has increased from an enrollment of 120 to 338 in less than four months. The buildings and grounds cost about $17,000. At Weldon they are rebuilding and modernizing their church at a cost of about $3,000. This will add greatly to the strength of Methodism in that community. At Leroy under the liberality of a consecrated layman and wisdom of a wideawake pastor, they are taking advanced ground in church enterprise in this Conference. A new addition for institutional purposes, at a cost of $5,000, is being erected. When completed it will contain a swimming pool, gymnasium, library and additional Sunday School rooms. We predict there will be more churches, that want to care for their young men, follow in Leroy's example.

Bloomington District is now well housed with good churches and, with one exception, good parsonages. Other improvements have been made on churches to the amount of $3,500 and on parsonages $1,500.

The benevolent causes have been faithfully presented to the people throughout the district. An educational work through the Mission study classes, and the faithful presenting of the work by the pastors, both from the pulpit and personally, is raising the standard of missionary intelligence in this district. Most of the charges will show a gain in their offerings for the benevolent causes.

Revival meetings were held in nearly all the charges during the year, with good results in nearly every case. In two places meetings of unusual power and influence were held. At Saybrook, almost the whole town turned to the Lord, and at Lincoln over one hundred were added to the church. In all there have been reported over six hundred converts, most of whom have come into the church. While the number is not as large as we wish it were, yet we have been pleased to note the spiritual growth and development of Christian character that is steadily going on in our different churches. If this continues we may expect larger increases in the near future.

The Epworth Leagues of the District are in a healthy condition and doing some very substantial work. Besides doing their regular work they are supporting Dr. J. O. Denning and his co-laborer in India at a cost of $1,600 per year, and have undertaken to raise $1,000 on the Wesleyan Fund by the first of January.

This has been a great year for the Illinois Wesleyan. With his usual energy Dr. Barnes is leading his hosts on to certain victory. During the month of June, with his helpers, he raised $40,000 in Bloomington toward securing the Carnegie fund. If the two conferences will now come to the help of the Institution the remaining $30,000 can be raised and the Illinois Wesleyan be placed in the rank of Colleges where it properly belongs.

Soon after conference one of our veterans and a faithful follower of his Master was promoted. Rev. J. M. West, who had been a member of the Illinois Conference for forty-eight years, was called to his reward. He died as he had lived, full of hope and without fear.

On Friday, July 26, the noble and promising son of Rev. G. E. Burton, of Wapella, passed from this life. The unwarranted incident connected with the death of this young man, and the cutting short of what seemed to be a promising life, cast a gloom over the entire district.

Two veterans linger with us, Rev. James Shaw, of Bloomington, and Rev. W. C. Lacey, of Green Valley, both full of sunshine in their experiences and bearing fruit in old age.

Time nor space will permit me to speak in detail of each pastor and his charge. The pastors have labored earnestly and hard. The charges have been responsive and helpful. Peace and harmony have prevailed, and "the best of all is, God is with us."

Respectfully submitted,

J. B. HORNEY.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT.

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

With gratitude to God for His favor and to the ministers and laymen of the district for their co-operation, my third annual report is respectfully submitted.

The thirty-two charges of the District have been faithfully served by the pastors appointed to them by Bishop Hamilton. Everyone is deserving of special mention, but time forbids.

Dedications.

November 4, Trinity Church (University charge), Urbana, was dedicated, with every dollar of its cost provided for. This occasion was a fitting climax to the "patient continuance in well doing," strenuous financiering, great sacrifice and heroic endeavor of Pastor Tobie and the members of Trinity Society. Dr. W. D. Parr, of Kokomo, Ind., officiated with President E. H. Hughes, of De Pauw. This charge, by reason of its position and opportunity, is destined to become one of very great importance to Methodism.

December 16 at Rantoul, Bishop McDowell and Dr. C. H. Jennings led Pastor Mills and his people in the successful dedication of a strictly modern church, costing $25,000. On the same day at Deland, a beautiful and well appointed church costing $17,000 was dedicated by Dr. Parr. Every dollar of the cost of this building has been paid. Last, but not least, September first witnessed the dedication of the beautiful, perfectly equipped, imposing stone church at Champaign. Dr. C. B. Mitchell, of Cleveland, O., preached, and Dr. Parr managed the finances; $34,000 was secured to finish paying for the building, which cost about $75,000. Pastor Galeener and his people are justly proud of this achievement. With its strategic position and fine equipment this Church will take rank among the first in the Conference. They would be pleased to entertain the next session of the Conference.

Parsonages.

There is a growing and commendable disposition to provide comfortable homes for the preachers and their families. Rantoul, in connection with its church building, erected a new $5,000 parsonage. Paxton also completed a new $5,000 home for the preacher. At Bellflower and Philo new parsonages costing $2,300 each have been occupied by the pastors. The parsonage of First Church, Urbana, has been remodeled and moved to a new site to make room for enlarging the church building, which has become altogether inadequate for its growing membership and work. Besides these enterprises, important improvements were made on the church at St. Joseph, where by an expenditure of $1,000 the building was completely transformed without and within. At Fisher, Ogden and Rankin important improvements were made. Altogether $134,518 has been expended in building and improvements.

Aggressive Evangelism.

Two thousand one hundred and fifty conversions have been reported to me. Agreeable to the reports from pastors the membership has been increased 931. A District tent Evangelistic campaign was authorized by the joint meeting of District Stewards and Preachers last October. It was inaugurated June 2 and closed August 18. One hundred and fifty conversions were reported, but that which is quite as important was the permanent effect for good upon the charges visited. Eight meetings were held. Of these Dr. Horace Reed held four. His preaching and Bible expositions were able, convincing and evangelistic, his methods sane and his management skillful. He leaves the charges stronger in every way and completely in the hands of the pastor. Evangelist D. C. Blunt conducted three meetings, giving excellent satisfaction. Conference Evangelist F. L. Buck conducted one meeting. Brother Buck's work demonstrated that the Conference made no mistake in requesting his appointment to this special field. As a revival leader, he is a live wire the voltage of whose current is strong, but not erratic. The results of the tent campaign are its best justification. With the experience of this year, we hope that next year's work will far surpass this.

Benevolences.

Great church building enterprises and unfavorable crop conditions have served to make very difficult the pastor's work in behalf of the benevolent interests. I have sought to impress the people how disastrous it would be to withhold from the earth's neediest ones in order to invest in better equipment and more comfort for ourselves. It is not necessary to take the bread from the starving, while we sit around the banquet board. There is enough for all. Some charges report a decrease in gifts, while others have increased so that the total indicates an advance.

Auxiliaries.

The Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues are doing superior work. The Home Department and Cradle Roll are organized in most of the schools, while the number of Leagues pursuing Mission and Bible study is increasing. The Ladies' Aid Societies are all that the name implies. Most of them hold meetings regularly and thousands of dollars have been raised through the efforts of these elect women. Flourishing auxiliaries of the W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. are maintained.

The good work which the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage is doing is only limited by its capacity and means. The Home has been filled with children who are given the most careful training, and whenever possible are placed in good Christian homes.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Davis, manager and matron, are conducting the institution with efficiency and economy.

Salaries.

The claim for pastor's support was advanced $800, making the total advance for the past three years over $5,000. Deficiencies will be small, if any.

The Old Guard.

Brothers M. W. Everhart, J. R. Reasoner, L. F. Walden, J. T. Orr, A. M. Danely, W. M. Poe and W. D. Best form the detachment of our forces known as the "Old Guard," not by reason of extreme age, but because of distinguished service. In sympathy and service they are on the firing line and afford not a little help and a great deal of inspiration. After years of decline and patient suffering, Rev. Isaac Groves closed a useful and long career and passed triumphantly to his reward early in the year.

Recruits.

One of the phases of our work causing profound concern is the decline in reinforcements. I am happy to say that four bright young men, three at Tolono and one at Urbana First Church, dedicated themselves to the work of the ministry, were licensed to preach and have taken up the work of thorough preparation.

Moral Reform.

In addition to the great denominational interests to be maintained, "the people called Methodists" are not unmindful of the great moral reforms.

They are contributing time, money and personal effort in behalf of temperance and civic righteousness. The saloon has been banished from all but five towns in this District. Much to the delight of the friends of the cause and greatly to the surprise and dismay of the liquor traffic and its sympathizers, the saloon was put out of business in the Twin Cities, the seat of the University of Illinois. The history of that campaign would make "mighty interesting reading," but time forbids indulgence. Suffice it to say that by a concerted action of the moral forces in both cities the liquor traffic received its death blow. Without invidious distinction between the denominations engaged in that fight, it is not boasting to remind you that our preachers were active leaders and our laymen loyal supporters of the movement. All sorts of dire predictions were made by the liquor sympathizers as to the injurious effect it would have upon business and the attendance at the University. Unfortunately for them, business has never been so good and the attendance upon the University is the largest in its history. Mayor Love, of Urbana, whose deciding vote drove out the saloon from that city, and whose determination that the law shall be enforced, has made life miserable for evil-doers, is treasurer of First Church, Urbana. His face is set like a flint and the people have in him a safe and courageous leader. To say that "the saloon must go" means more now than ever. The hand-writing is on the wall. Press reports indicate that prohibition carried by a decisive vote in Oklahoma. There never was a time when the reform was so vigorous, when it gathered such momentum with the passing days, when there was so much cheer for the victims of the traffic, and the friends of humanity. And there never was a time when it so much behooved good people to keep awake and be alert and move with irresistible purpose upon the enemy until the un-American saloon is forever consigned to the pit whence it had its origin.

Statistics.

Conversions, 2,147; raised for building and improvements, $134,518; increase in membership, 931; raised for Foreign Missions, $5,282; Home Missions and Church Extension, $2,490; all other benevolences, $4,202; Conference claimants, $1,020.

C. B. TAYLOR,

DANVILLE DISTRICT.

Dear Brethren:

At the last session of the Illinois Conference Bishop Hamilton assigned thirty-seven pastors to as many charges within the Danville District, leaving two without pastors. These two charges were supplied by the Presiding Elder and thirty-nine men entered very early upon their work, and continued until the close of the year. Each man has wrought faithfully and well during the year. There has been no break in any of the charges and no changes have taken place in any of the appointments.

The health of the pastors and their families has been markedly good during the year; no serious illness has been in any of the homes, and death has not visited the parsonages in the District.

Revivals.

Revivals were held in thirty-five charges resulting in 1,200 conversions. Some of these revivals were occasions of remarkable power, marked by deep conviction and clear conversions. The greatest of these revivals was the Union revival of the eight Methodist Churches in Danville, under the direction of the Evangelistic Commission led by Rev. Hugh E. Smith. The Methodism of Danville was quickened into new life and energy and cemented into one as it had not been for a generation. One feature that made it so valuable and so successful was that it was Methodist and religious from start to finish. Many other revivals in the District were scenes of great spiritual power and were just as successful, only not of such magnitude.

The finances in all departments have been well looked after and cared for by the pastors. There was an aggregate increase in the amount apportioned for pastoral support of $1,100 over the last year. I am thankful to report to the Conference that the salaries have been paid. There will also be an increase in the amount contributed for the benevolent causes. To secure this the pastors have been very active, going from man to man to gather what they bring. Their reports will show a year of earnest, faithful toil for the Master and His Church. All honor is due these faithful servants of the Church.

Sunday School and Epworth League Work.

There has been a manifest increased interest in the work of the Sunday School department of the Church. Better teaching is being done, Normal class work being pursued in many of the schools, and a better system of the study of the Bible as the text book.

The Epworth League department is making some progress, but not so marked as we could desire. This department of church work needs in many places a real genuine revival that will bring leadership into this department.

Material Interest.

In this department we are growing quite successful and substantial. On February 24 a new church building was dedicated at Ridgefarm; is a very substantial brick building, modern in all respects, and reflects the energy of the pastor, Rev. E. L. Pletcher, and his faithful official Board. The entire cost of the enterprise was $15,000. The entire amount needed to complete the enterprise was pledged on the day of dedication. July 14, at Murdock, under the enthusiastic leadership of Rev. C. F. Juvinall a new church edifice was completed. It is a substantial building of brick and cement, and has audience and Sunday school rooms so arranged as to be made one large room, when needed. The entire cost of this enterprise was $8,500. It was dedicated by Rev. W. D. Fairchild. Only $1,000 was needed to meet all claims, which was readily and joyfully given.

At Oakwood, where Rev. J. H. Howsmon is the faithful pastor, a new building was completed and dedicated September 15. A building of less dimensions, but large enough to meet the demands of that society for some years in the future. This is a frame building, veneered with red sand brick, and is a substantial and beautiful structure. This was a very difficult undertaking and only the push and persistence of the pastor made it a success. It cost, completed, $5,000, and all claims were fully met.

On September 29 the new Church building at Chrisman will be dedicated. This is one of the best constructed and best arranged church buildings in the Conference. It is modern in every way, with closed class rooms for the Sunday School below and above alike. It will cost in its completed form $17,000, and but for the fact that the pastor, Rev. R. Y. Williams, was both architect and contractor, would have cost much more. It is a great victory for that people and the pastor.

Grouping the pastors of the District, the classification shows this condition: One pastor is closing his sixth year, two their fifth year, two their fourth year, six their third year, twelve their second year, and sixteen their first year. Of the latter class two pastors are supplies.

One question the Church must solve: Do we move too much and too often? Not one of the above pastors but is doing good work, and I believe would do better work if he were to remain, to plan largely and wisely, and for the years of the future plan great things for the Kingdom of Christ. One of the weaknesses of Methodism today is an unwise desire for change. No real reason is given, but just because we have the habit of changing. Ought we not to solidify and build stronger and make the Church the center of power in every community?

S. H. WHITLOCK.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

It will be recalled that, from the last session of our Annual Conference, eleven men went forth to new fields of labor on the Decatur District. Those who returned to their former fields of labor as well as those who were assigned to new charges, went quickly and gladly, entering upon their work heartily, and have pursued it earnestly. Each man accepted his charge as the place God had for him to fill in His kingdom, and accepted as his duty the task of bringing a larger measure of heaven down to that field. To the pastors the year has been one of unusual activity, and the zeal with which the year opened abated not until our faces turned toward this place. The best service has been given to evangelism, while careful attention has not been withheld from building and improvements, the cancelling of indebtedness, and the deepening of the interest of our people in the causes represented by our benevolences, that the waste places in the home-land may be made to blossom, and in the regions beyond the glory of the Lord may be declared, and His wonderful works known among all nations.

The sickness in the parsonages, with but few exceptions, has been mild. For this cause, few of the pastors have been from their pulpits for any length of time. Diphtheria found its way to the home of Brother R. W. Ennis, at Illiopolis. Only for a short interval was the work suspended. His daughter, who was smitten by the disease, made a rapid recovery, and the quarantine was speedily lifted.

The health of Brother S. W. Beggs, seemed to have steadily failed through the year. Though the work has not been impeded thereby, he has sustained it under great difficulties and at a cost of much distress and inconvenience. He has had sever throat trouble, which has threatened his lungs, and added to this he has been compelled to struggle through the year with serious nervous difficulties. He feels compelled to ask release from pastoral cares and seeks a Superannuated relation.

Mrs. Bicknell, the mother of Brother J. M. Bicknell, an elect lady, who had long been in failing health, took seriously ill during the winter. The days of watching and waiting were long and many, when the gentle spirit took its flight to join the company awaiting. For our Brother heaven is richer.

The death angel entered the parsonage at Nokomis and bore away a precious treasure in the person of the youngest daughter of Brother and Sister Gowdy. In their sorrow they proved the promise, "My grace is sufficient to thee," and never before did His words, "Suffer little children to come unto me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of heaven," have such a new and tender significance.

Brother H. B. Pollock has been grief-stricken and sadly touched by the death of his daughter, Mrs. Whittington. No less were the triumphs of sustaining grace displayed in this sorrow.

The Witt charge, a new one, was left to be supplied. Shortly after Conference the services of the Rev. Irl V. Maxey were secured. He labored faithfully on the charge for about five months, when he was compelled to resign on account of failing health. He was succeeded by the Rev. L. G. Adams, a member of the St. Louis Conference, and a recent graduate of the Boston University School of Theology. He has endeared himself to the people and made the few closing months count much for God and Methodism. On account of the illness of his wife, the Rev. E. E. Strevey was compelled to ask to be relieved of the Oconee charge. The physicians ordered Mrs. Strevey to a dryer climate. Early in May he left for North Dakota, where he is serving the Mott charge, on the Fargo district, and is now engaged in the erection of a new church at that place. Brother Lewis Campbell, a supernumerary member of the North Nebraska Conference, was secured to succeed Brother Strevey. He entered enthusiastically into the work and is now leading the people in a new church building enterprise.

Immediately after Conference every brother addressed himself to the supreme duty of his calling—that of evangelism. As early in the year as possible, plans were well formulated for a vigorous campaign. Most of these plans were executed. Some failed, in connection with the rural portions of the district, on account of the condition of the roads and severe storms. We shall be able to report a thousand souls as the result of the pastors' evangelistic endeavor. Among the charges which share the larger measure of these results are LaPlace, Cerro Gordo, Harristown, Owaneco, Arthur, Moweaqua, Latham, Decatur Circuit, and the churches in Decatur, while the Hammond pastor come to Conference directly from a successful revival.

Having regard to the general condition of prosperity, many of our pastors have accepted the present as an opportune time to give special attention to our material interests. Consequently much of our property has been improved and several new buildings have been erected. On Sunday, July 28, a handsome new church was dedicated at Assumption, representing an outlay of $17,000. A description of this structure is unnecessary, save to say that it stands as a monument to the ripe experience of Brother J. M. Bennington in church building. The cost unpaid is fully covered by good subscriptions. There is now under roof, at Moweaqua, a church, beautiful in design and attractive in architecture. Its cost will exceed $20,000. The initial step in this undertaking was the securing of a subscription list of $15,000. The contract has been let for a new church at Oconee and the work is already in progress. This church is not as large as those referred to, but will be no less attractive. Its cost will not be less than $11,000. The church at Rosemond has been thoroughly modernized at a cost of $2,000. It will be ready for reoccupancy in about a month. To Brother W. T. Beadles the best things are coming last. He moved into the new parsonage at Macon early in the conference year, which he says is the best he has occupied in his long ministry. It is modern and convenient, spacious and substantial. A new parsonage has been built at Witt, which is neat, and amply meets the needs of that growing charge. The substance of things hoped for is found at the Niantic appointment. Believing that the progress of their appointment will soon admit of them becoming a station, the people have purchased parsonage property, which at present is rented and furnishing a revenue for the church. That which so long seemed an impossibility at Argenta has been realized. It is the securing of good parsonage property at a cost of $2,000. This was accomplished under the leadership of Brother J. W. Whitlock. The portion of this purchase price remaining unpaid is provided for in good pledges. With a view to the division of the Decatur Circuit, the parsonage property at Decatur has been sold and excellent property has been purchased at Mt. Zion and also at Elwin.

Extensive repairs have been made on the Sharon church on the Harristown and Niantic charge, at Irving and Maroa, while the parsonage property has been greatly improved at Arthur and Butler.

The reduction of indebtedness has kept pace with the building and the improvements. This is true of Latham, Hillsboro and Warrensburg, as well as of the new churches dedicated last year. Pledges given have been redeemed according to arrangements. Thus, of the $109,000, the cost of the First Church, Decatur, $101,000 have passed through the treasurer's hands and has been paid, leaving only $8,000 of this vast sum unpaid, one year after dedication. Good pledges cover this $8,000. The proportion unpaid on the Grace church and the church at Macon is even smaller than this.

As far as reports have reached me I believe I am warranted to hope that the membership will be increased this year by some hundreds, although there are instances where the records of membership have been pruned by some scores.

The consolidation of the benevolences may cause some slight confusion in the reports, and impose upon us a more difficult task in making the comparison with other years. Nevertheless, with the various building enterprises and debt paying campaigns, the reports I believe will show a substantial gain in our missionary offering, in our offering for the superannuates and a proportionate gain in all the other offerings.

The Epworth League, under the leadership of Mr. T. B. Ewing, the district president, has made some progress. The program of the district convention was especially strong and a new enthusiasm is displayed in mission. The quality of the work in the Sunday Schools is advancing. Brotherhoods are being organized and in a few places the class meetings are being well sustained. The aggregate of the advance in pastors' salaries is $1,100. In this item of pastors' salaries there will be few deficiencies.

Every brother is deserving of personal notation, but time will not admit of a record of their toils and sacrifice. I do wish, here, to record my appreciation of the loyalty of the people, the devotion of the pastors to their high calling, the cordial and fraternal relations which have existed between us, for their constant thoughtfulness and unbounded hospitality, for their hearty co-operation in all we have sought to accomplish, in reconciling men to God, in establishing them in righteousness, and in bringing the world back again to Him.

B. F. SHIPP.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To Bishop William F. McDowell and the Members of the Illinois Annual Conference.

Dear Father and Brethren—Grateful to God for His great goodness to me, and the hearty co-operation of pastors and people throughout this conference year, I hereby submit my fifth annual report of the Jacksonville District:

Changes in the Workmen.

Soon after Conference the Rev. T. O. Hyler, who had been appointed to supply the Oakford Circuit, decided to move to Oklahoma. Having difficulty in securing a man for the charge, the Rev. Jasper Miller, who had been appointed to the Literberry Circuit, kindly consented to take the Oakford work in addition to his first appointment, and has efficiently served both charges.

Pastorates of One Year.

The Rev. R. S. Eggleston was appointed to Bath and Fairview, having joined the Conference on trial. I received him as a single man, but the charge being weak, he felt the need of support and took unto himself a wife. He certainly exercised most excellent judgment and has found a companion who will largely assist him in the work of the ministry. He reports seven conversions, and all having been received into full membership. He brings up a fair report on benevolences, and the charge has expended $110 on improvement of church and parsonage property.

The Rev. A. H. Flagge is closing his first year on the Franklin Circuit. As a preacher and pastor he is much in favor with his people, and they declare that if the Bishop will appoint him they will be glad to follow the "Flagge" another year. Very substantial improvements have been made to the church in Franklin internally and externally at a cost of about $1,300. He reports $463 for the benevolences.

The Rev. T. L. Hancock closes his first year at Havana in a gratifying manner. He has rendered efficient services in connection with the State Epworth League Chautauqua, located at Havana. He presents a fine report on benevolences, reaching $120 beyond the apportionment.

Mrs. H. W. McFadden, an elect lady of this charge, was translated to glory during this conference year, but "her works do follow her," she having made provision in her will for a gift of $1,000 to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and which became immediately available.

Rev. B. D. Wiley is closing pleasantly the first year on the Jacksonville Circuit. Inclement weather and bad roads interfered materially with revival work, but he reports seven conversions. The report on benevolences is good, being $203, and there has been expended on improvement of church and parsonage property $375.

Pastor Merle English followed his father as pastor of Centenary Church, Jacksonville, after an interval of 29 years. Indeed, he was born in the parsonage where he now resides as pastor. The finances and various organizations of the church have responded to the touch of a master, while he ranks high among the people, both in the pulpit and in the home. He held a successful revival meeting, being largely his own evangelist. Rev. J. W. Waltz assisted as leader of the singing. He reports 40 conversions. Owing to the death of a number of the chief contributors to the benevolences, it has been very difficult to reach his apportionment. He reports $450.

The Rev. Joseph C. Nate closes his first year in Grace Church, Jacksonville, in a very acceptable manner. His versatile preaching, skill as an organizer, faithfulness as a pastor, and tact in the management of delicate problems, marks him as a "workman that needeth not be ashamed." He held a good revival meeting, being his own evangelist, in which 35 professed conversion. He brings up a fine report on benevolences. There is an increase in regular benevolences, while $12,000 has been given by Grace Church to the Woman's College during the year. Other Jacksonville churches and the district as a whole have contributed to this college.

The Rev. Jasper Miller has filled two charges this year, Literberry and Oakford Circuits, but being the largest preacher in the Conference, he has met the demands upon him well, especially upon the Oakford Circuit as he has been favored with great revivals. About 130 persons professed saving faith in Christ at the Oakford and Atterberry Circuits. Evangelist George Miller assisted the pastor. There have been $100 expended on church improvements.

Rev. W. P. Bowman has served faithfully at Petersburg, where there have been peculiar difficulties and discouragements during the year which have prevented Brother Bowman from achieving all he would like to have done.

Rev. J. O. Kirkpatrick has put in a hard year of work at Virginia. He is recognized there as an able pulpit man, and a faithful pastor. He has given special attention to the children and youths of his charge. Assisted by Evangelists Shannon and Culpepper, he held a very successful tent-meeting, resulting in 50 conversions, of these 44 united with our church. He reports $222 expended on improvements on church and parsonage property and about $400 for benevolences.

Sherman, though little among "The Tribes of Israel," has a faithful band of Methodists who have been shepherded this last year by Rev. A. H. Alkire in an efficient manner. He reports the benevolences in full. He reports also $46.50 expended on the improvements of the church.

Visible Spiritual Results.

We have had a good year in spiritual harvest. The preachers have preached the cardinal doctrines of the Bible, and Methodism with plainness and power, and the laity, generally, have co-operated with them heartily in the work. In addition to the conversions above reported, there are the following reports:

Athens, 100	G. F. McKown, Pastor
Island Grove, 70	O. B. Hess, Pastor
Ashland, 60	R. S. Hartrick, Pastor
Chandlerville, 40	W. T. Evans, Pastor
Pleasant Plains, 35	W. N. Carter, Pastor
Chesterfield, 25	Mark White, Pastor
Middletown, 23	T. Lee Knotts, Pastor
Greenfield, 12	T. H. Tull, Pastor
Greenfield Circuit, 5	W. S. German, Pastor
Rockbridge, 4	J. M. Duff, Pastor
Waverly Circuit, 1	J. M. Eldridge, Pastor

Easton, 51	T. O. Holly, Pastor
Brooklyn, 14	Dr. W. H. Musgrove, Pastor
Palmyra, 65	A. V. Babbs, Pastor
Waverly, 3	C. M. Barton, Pastor

Making about 1,000 professions of saving faith in Jesus Christ. "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

Conference Evangelist, Fred L. Buck, has proved himself to be a strong, safe man, rendering efficient aid at Athens, Havana, Easton, Brooklyn and Island Grove.

Conference Evangelist, C. N. Cain, rendered efficient assistance at Asbury, on the Brooklyn charge, and Evangelists Culpepper and Geo. Miller greatly aided at Ashland and on the Oakford Circuit.

Educational.

The Woman's College is marching with the swing of victory. The campaign to secure Mr. Carnegie's offer has come to a successful issue. A new building has been completed at a cost of $50,000 for the departments of music, art and expression. The new studio is said to be one of the best arranged in the middle west. The new department of domestic science is fully equipped and promises to be one of the greatest features of the college. Every term for fourteen years has shown an increase in attendance and this year is no exception, the buildings being crowded, while to crown all else, the ideals of the founders of this institution, after sixty years, have been realized, as the college now offers courses leading to the regular college degrees, and will rank with the best woman's colleges in the country.

The meeting of the Bishops here in May was a great inspiration to the college, to Jacksonville and indeed to Illinois Conference Methodism. They held their sessions in the Woman's College building, addressed mass meetings in the interest of education and benevolences and ably filled the pulpits of Jacksonville and adjacent cities on Sunday. One of the greatest honors of my life has been the privilege of welcoming our chief pastors in behalf of local Methodism and the Illinois Conference.

The Epworth League has done good work this year under the presidency of Rev. T. H. Tull, and with the efficient assistance of his cabinet. The annual meeting held in Greenfield was one of the best in the history of the district. The State officers have located the State Epworth League Chattanooga near Havana. The location is ideal, and it is hoped that it will become a great power for good to the young Methodism of the great commonwealth of Illinois.

The Benevolences.

The almost unprecedented delay in harvesting and thrashing of the crops, occasioned by the continuous rains, have retarded the collecting, and perhaps, in some cases, affected the amounts collected for the benevolences. I entertain the hope, however, that the total collections will be in advance of last year.

Material Improvements.

There have been no new churches or parsonages built this year, but quite a large amount expended in the improvement of church and parsonage property. A new church enterprise is under way at Middletown, which I hope will materialize next spring. We have the following reports.

Athens, $400; Ashland, $350; Franklin, $1,200; Pleasant Plains, $417; Havana, $350; Bath and Fairview, $110; Waverly Circuit, $100; Chandler-ville, $199; Island Grove, $200; Petersburg, $60; Chesterfield, $185; Sherman, $46; Greenfield Circuit, $30; Easton, $124; Jacksonville Circuit, $275; Virginia, $222; Palmyra, $200. Giving us a total of $5,500.

Members of the Old Guard.

Brother R. P. Drake resides in Waverly, and although his health is far from rugged, yet he takes an active interest in Methodist affairs and is a prized friend and counsellor of the pastors.

The Rev. Archibald Sloan lives in Ashland, and although not in robust health, yet is faithful in attendance to church duties so far as possible.

Dr. Wm. McKendree McElfresh is in rather feeble health, and is unable to attend church regularly. He is the same kind, courteous, brotherly man of the olden time.

Dr. W. F. Short is vigorous and when any of the old young men need assistance this young old man "helpeth their infirmities."

Salaries and Health of the Workmen.

There has been some advance in pastors' salaries. Island Grove advanced $50; Ashland, $50; Pleasant Plains, $50; Greenfield, $100; Havana, $100; Brooklyn and Asbury, $200; total, $550.

I fear there will be a slight deficiency in a few places. The health of the pastors and their families has been good. Dr. W. H. Musgrove was compelled to undergo an operation, but it resulted successfully and he is enjoying better health than he has for years. The aged mother of J. O. Kirkpatrick passed to her crown during the winter.

Personal.

My own health has been excellent. I have preached 170 times besides delivering a number of addresses. I find that the presiding eldership involves work and have been convinced for several years that such is the work, responsibility and power of the office that six out of twelve consecutive years is enough for most men, and will rejoice when the law of the church shall so define it, however, I would have it possible, upon a majority vote of two-thirds of the annual Conference requesting it, for the presiding bishop to appoint a man who has completed a term immediately to another district. I have mingled emotions as we meet in this beautiful city. Here I came when a boy with my father twice a year from the home farm eighteen miles away to lay in supplies of food and clothing. Here I attended school at the Illinois Western University, during which time, in a cottage a short distance from this church, I was gloriously converted to God. Here, subsequently, I served as pastor.

Reminiscences, present duties and responsibilities and the outlook for our beloved Methodism, all strangely blend. But above it all, Christ sits enthroned, as I humbly believe, as the "Presiding Genus," "Lord of All," whose I am and whom I serve.

Respectfully submitted,

G. E. SCRIMGER,

MATTOON DISTRICT.

Bishop McDowell and members of the Illinois Conference:

We submit this, our second report, with praise to Our Father in Heaven for his blessings given us during the year.

Changes Among Ministers.

Immediately after Conference W. L. Selby, of the Kentucky Conference, M. E. Church, South, was assigned to Stewardson. B. F. Hill, who was assigned to Marshall Circuit, but accepted work in the North Dakota Conference. After several weeks of vain search we secured Henry Hindmarch, of Ireland, to fill out the year. He expects to unite with the Nebraska Conference. In December Andrew Warner, of Toledo, was transferred to Cody, Wyoming, and J. C. Bell, of the Northwest Indiana Conference, was appointed to that charge. At the close of the half year J. P. Morton was forced to give up his work at Martinsville on account of poor health and Edward Kaneen, of the Wisconsin Conference, took his place. S. C. Pierce surrendered Gays

Circuit in June and W. H. McLean, a student from DePauw, filled out the year.

Revivals.

No widespread revivals have come to the district during the year, but there have been many gracious outpourings of the Holy Spirit. Arcola, under the leadership of E. K. Towle, has witnessed a blessed work. Over 100 united with the church. Other charges that have enjoyed more or less of a revival spirit are as follows: Moulton Church, Shelbyville, G. M. Calhoun, pastor; Humbolt circuit, F. M. Harry, pastor; Gays circuit, S. C. Pierce, pastor; Cowden, Daniel Dundas, pastor; Stewardson circuit, W. L. Selby, pastor; West Union circuit, P. L. York, pastor; Grandview, Wiley Johnson, pastor; Kansas, S. M. VanCleve, pastor; Livingston circuit, J. E. Owens, pastor; Hindsboro circuit, J. H. Elder, pastor; Findlay circuit, M. C. Hull, pastor. At Sullivan the great union meeting brought over 200 into our church. At Mattoon A. L. T. Ewert has had a continuous revival spirit and not a Sunday of the conference year has failed to witness accessions to the church. Over 1,000 conversions will be the aggregate for the district.

Pastoral Support.

Twenty-three charges advanced on the pastor's salaries for this year just closing, giving a total of $3,018 in advance of last year, and eighteen have advanced $1,914 for the coming year, making a total advance secured during the year of $4,932, and of $6,989 during the two past years. While this may seem like a large increase yet there are many charges that can do far better in the way of pastoral support. We are urging a systematic financial plan in every church.

Benevolences.

There will be a good advance on the benevolences, nearly all of the charges bringing up the full apportionment on foreign and home missions, conference claimants and other benevolences.

Material Improvements.

S. M. VanCleve led the Kansas people to victory in the building of a beautiful modern church costing $15,000, which was dedicated free of debt on July 14. He also led in the purchasing of an abandoned church building south of Kansas, where the Disciples had held forth three quarters of a century. This was thoroughly overhauled and refurnished at an expense of about $800. A revival has been held and a class organized and the Hitesville Church will be a part of the Westfield charge.

At Fair Grange a beautiful frame church was erected and on April 28th dedicated. Walter Mitchell led these people. This is the Olive Branch society whose Church building stood some two miles west of Fair Grange and was destroyed by a cyclone last year.

Extensive improvements amounting to practically new buildings are being made on the North Arm Church on the Vermilion circuit and on the New Hope Church on the Grandview circuit. The former will be ready for re-opening in a week or two. At Oliver, south of Paris, a new Church is to be erected and a class organized immediately after Conference. Some six miles southwest of Lakewood, H. E. Crane has organized a class and is now in the midst of Church building. The new Church will bear the name of Mt. Olive. An abandoned Presbyterian Church near Darwin has been secured and will be moved at once to Darwin to take the place of the one swept away by cyclone two years ago. At York, Walnut Prairie, Strasburg, Camp Chapel and Cowden the Churches have been improved at considerable expense. Redmon has purchased a parsonage property costing $1,700 and Greenup has built a large modern parsonage costing about $1,500.

There have been no deaths or serious illness among our preachers or their families. All of the superannuated preachers have kept in good health except P. F. Thornburg, of Martinsville. He lingered near death's door for a time, but is now much improved in health.

A Healthy District.

Our Superannuates.

D. W. English has had another good year as supply on the Redmon circuit. E. S. Wamsley filled out a part of the year on the Gays circuit. J. L. B. Ellis preaches frequently and acceptably for neighboring pastors. W. R. Howard, Elijah Gollagher, W. W. McIntosh, J. Wesley Miller, D. D. Kensil, Jos. Coombs, P. F. Thornburg are all faithful to the Master.

After a ministry of forty years Austin H. Reat will ask for the superannuate relation. He has done faithful and acceptable service on the Ashmore circuit this year and seeks the superannuate relation only because of physical disabilities.

The Memorial Hospital.

Our Memorial Hospital at Mattoon is recognized as a great blessing to that city and the district. In the recent frightful wreck on the interurban line where eighteen were killed and over thirty injured, this institution was truly a Godsend. In a few years it will come into a large, productive endowment. It is struggling now and asks the Conference to set apart the third Sunday in October as Memorial Hospital day in which all the Churches of the Conference shall be asked to give a free will offering for its maintenance.

Faithfully submitted,

PARKER SHIELDS.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

Bishop McDowell and Brethren:

May it be apparent by this report that something has been accomplished and something more made possible by the work of the past year.

Appointments.

Neighboring charges absorbed Quincy circuit.

Scott's Chapel preferred not to have a pastor this year.

Rev. A. J. Meyers, not Brother Woodworth, served Astoria circuit well.

Brother Harry Williard was transferred to the Illinois Conference and served Mendon faithfully.

Fred W. Mathews marred a year well begun at Warsaw by taking the benevolences collected to Ocean City, N. J., and not returning the same.

Rev. G. A. Cox has brought Loraine to a half station for next year at the same salary as the four point circuit.

Paloma circuit drops an appointment, keeps the same salary, and requests Brother Baughman's return.

Coatsburg circuit is a new four appointment charge resulting from the above named changes.

Rev. M. S. McCoy, superannuate only in name, labored six days in his office, the seventh as supply to make Mount Sterling circuit possible for next year. Rev. J. H. Hughes helped out during vacation.

Evangelism.

An Evangelistic Conference of laymen and pastors, held in October, prepared a district plan for work in neglected fields. It was carried out as far as possible. Rev. Leo Howard directed the summer work under a plan arranged at the Ministerial Association. The results are so satisfactory that some form of these plans will likely be carried out another year.

Almost every charge had a revival. The conversions number 729. Seventy per cent of the converts entered our Church on probation. Some were already members of some Church. Most of the remainder entered some other denomination, which indicates we still are a blessing to our neighbors.

Eight and one-half per cent of the probationers were not received into full membership. What per cent of these will yet be so received I can not say.

Salaries.

The salaries of pastors and elder were increased on Astoria circuit $27; Paloma circuit, $109; Augusta, by the addition of an appointment, $128; and by the formation of a new charge, Huntsville and Brooklyn, $763 were added to the total increase of money paid for pastoral support. Of the charges reducing salary we will not speak, except to say they reduced the net gain in the district to $700. Several moderate increases will occur next year.

Churches and Parsonages.

Plymouth, led by the pastor, Rev. G. W. Metzel, built a new parsonage, beside the Church, at a cost of $1,625, and the amount is all pledged.

Pleasant View, one of Rev. E. M. Barringer's appointments, built a new Church; value, with lots, $3,000. The money all provided for.

Rev. F. E. Smith induced his people at Littleton to consider remodeling their Church. That ended in the erection of a new Church which will be worth, when completed, $6,000.

Bethel Church, Camden circuit, greatly needed repairs. The pastor, Rev. A. D. Potter, encouraged the people to believe they could meet the need, and they have expended above $750 on the property.

Because Methodist money recently put Centennial Church in fine repair, the United Brethren sold that Church, worth $1,200, to Union Society, on Loraine circuit, for $300, and our people now worship there.

Grace Church, Quincy, now owns a fine Church site, and good parsonage, purchased for $3,600. Thus Rev. A. L. Caseley has led his people a step nearer a Church home.

At last Vermont street Church, Quincy, is paid for. Three previous attempts left an unpaid balance, but Rev. J. W. Miller led the fourth attempt, and $3,129 cash cancelled the mortgage.

Huntsville purchased a parsonage for $1,000. Mount Sterling put $350 into a furnace and other parsonage improvements. West Point paid the last $430 on its Church. Rushville is making extensive repairs and improvements on its church, and hundreds of dollars have been expended in improving or repairing other Church properties.

Chaddock.

Chaddock continues to grow. Preparations for the better accommodation of the students at the Academy have been made. A new financial plan has been adopted which will insure a better support. And the trustees ask the Bishop to appoint Rev. W. T. Beadles financial secretary of the school, which I hope may be done.

Various Items.

Brother M. M. Davidson, Chaplain of the Soldiers' Home, fills acceptably the most difficult position of all our preachers in Quincy district.

Bishop Vincent gave a series of lectures at the Camp Point Chautauqua, which were most inspiring to the pastors of the district, and the Christian people of the town. It was through our pastors the Bishop was secured, as to them he offered the lectures because he could not be with us at our Ministerial Association.

The Epworth League prospers, and its convention in June was very enthusiastic and helpful.

A Sunday School Conference is proposed for next year in connection with our Ministerial Association, because county conventions do not meet the needs of our Church.

Benevolences.

Mentioned last because for this part of the report one must wait for the last layman to hand in his contribution.

Even now I can not say positively what the gain will be, but Missions will increase several hundred dollars; Domestic Missions will receive $100 increase, and most of the other benevolences will be increased.

G. W. FLAGGE.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

There are thirty-four charges in the Springfield district.

Changes in Pastoral Relation.

At the last session of the Conference three charges were left to the supplied. After some delay, Buckhart was supplied by A. M. Sinclair, Bethany circuit by W. T. Moore, and Nilwood by S. S. Sims, and the work cared for as well as possible during the year.

J. F. McAnally, in the midst of his first year at Morrisonville, and in the high tide of success, was called by the Missionary Society to the pastorate of First Church, San Juan, Porto Rico, and left for that distant field the last of May. Providentially, Arthur F. Ewert, just through his studies at Boston University, was secured to fill the vacancy. He has succeeded so well and the Church has prospered so under his ministrations that his return is unanimously desired.

July the first, J. A. Burchit, of Kumler Church, Springfield, was transferred by Bishop McDowell to the Upper Iowa Conference and stationed at First Church, Davenport. S. W. Thornton, of our Conference, was then appointed by the Bishop to fill the vacancy at Kumler. He has proved to be the right man in the right place, and his return is unanimously desired. All other pastors have continued at their posts during the year, and the reports they bring up attest the quality and abundance of their labors.

Salaries.

The salaries have remained about the same as the year before. A number of charges, however, have declared their purpose to increase the coming year. Mt. Auburn will pay almost double. L. C. Moore, who has supplied this charge the past two years, has brought it up to where it will become a station and pay $800 and parsonage, $150 more than it paid as a circuit. Brother Moore's return the third year is earnestly desired. He is up for admission into the Conference, and is the kind of man we want.

Building and Improvements.

On the Buckhart circuit, a new parsonage has been built at Buckhart, costing $1,500, and a new Church at the Jordan appointment costing $3,000. This new Church, with a membership of fifty and a large congregation, is the fruit of a revival held in a school house by Irl V. Maxey, who supplied the work last year.

Chatham circuit has been greatly strengthened by the addition of a new appointment at Glenarm. Two weak country appointments, McMurry Chapel and Oak Ridge, were united in the village of Glenarm midway between, making one good strong society. The Oak Ridge Church was moved into town, and enlarged and improved at a cost of $3,000, giving us a beautiful, modern Church in that thriving village.

The old historic McMurry Chapel was sold and the proceeds applied on the new enterprise. It will start off with a good membership and a large and growing congregation. T. F. Hartman, the laborious and popular pastor, has completed his sixth year on this charge, and has brought it up to where it will pay next year $1,000 and parsonage. It is now one of the best circuits in the Conference.

At Mt. Pulaski, H. B. Montgomery, pastor, a splendid Church is approaching completion. The main body of the old building is worked into the new structure in such a way as to disappear entirely, giving us practically a new Church worth $9,000, for an actual outlay of $5,000. It will be ready for dedication the first of November, and will be a great triumph for our cause in Mt. Pulaski.

At Sharpsburg a new parsonage has been built costing $2,200, and both Churches improved at an expense of $1,150. In addition to the great revival last winter that nearly doubled the membership on this charge, a camp meeting was held during the month of July, and a Prohibition Chautauqua in August, greatly stimulating and promoting the moral sentiment of the community. The salary will be increased one hundred dollars next year, and the pastor, F. M. Stephenson, is invited to return.

At Douglas Avenue, Springfield, the last of the indebtedness on Church property has been paid.

Some idea of the progress and strength of this growing charge may be gathered from a brief summary of what has been accomplished in the six years in which R. F. McDaniel has been the pastor.

Six years ago the Church property was valued at $1,600. Today it is $18,000 and no indebtedness.

Six years ago the membership was 170. Today it is 447.

Six years ago the benevolent collections were $310. This year it is $1,340.

Six years ago the pastor's salary was $700. The coming year it will be $1,500. I doubt if any other charge in the Conference has made such a growth in the same number of years.

Dr. N. G. Lyons is closing his fourth year at First Church. The building is now in the hands of workmen undergoing alterations and improvements that will cost $5,000, and when complete it will be better adapted to the wants of the congregation and more attractive and beautiful than ever before. It will be reopened September 29, when all the expense incurred will be provided for. During Dr. Lyons' pastorate the splendid parsonage, without doubt the best in the Conference, has been acquired.

The greatest triumph of the year has been the completion and dedication of the new Laurel Church in the city.

For two years Dr. McElroy led what seemed almost a forlorn hope. But the impossible has been achieved. A splendid Church costing $22,700 stands on the finest boulevard in the city, and in the most popular and rapidly growing residence district. It was dedicated May 5th by Bishops McDowell and Berry, both of whom expressed their approbation and pleasure at the success of this heroic undertaking.

The indebtedness on this splendid property, worth at least $25,000, is $2,500. This will be no embarrassment to a congregation destined to be in the near future one of the strongest in the city. Of course Dr. McElroy is expected to return.

Revivals.

Notwithstanding the floods and impassable roads that prevailed from December to May, making it almost impossible to hold protracted meetings, we have had some times of refreshing.

On the Sharpsburg circuit, F. M. Stephenson, pastor, there were ninety conversions, and on the Thayer circuit, E. V. Young, pastor, there were over a hundred.

G. V. Metzel had a wonderful meeting at Spring Bank on the Elkhart circuit. At Auburn, M. E. Hobart, pastor; Chatman, T. F. Hartman; Douglas Avenue, R. F. McDaniel; Taylorville, Preston Wood; Waggoner, Gye Park, and a number of other charges, the revival spirit has prevailed and there have been gracious ingatherings.

Virden is a great field for missionary and evangelistic work, owing to the large mining population. Realizing that this field was white unto harvest,

Brother Brandon has been abundant in labors. Special meetings were held for weeks during the winter, and a tent campaign down town during the summer, followed by frequent services in the open air. By these methods hundreds have heard the gospel who would never have been reached in the ordinary way. This is aggressive evangelism in earnest. We ought to do more of it in all our charges.

Benevolences.

Our benevolent causes have been faithfully presented by the pastors and the aggregate reports from collections will be about the same as last year. We have received one special gift of a thousand dollars for Missions from Mrs. Peter Keplinger, of Carlinville.

That this great cause is laying hold of the hearts of our people who have means is attested by the fact that Springfield district has not been without its annual special gifts for a number of years past. And they grow increasingly frequent and liberal.

Epworth League.

There are 47 chapters of the Epworth League united in the most efficient district organization I ever knew.

Christian Stewardship, personal work, Missionary and Bible study are stimulating our young people and equipping them for service as never before. J. F. McAnally, a brother beloved, who went out from us to the mission field in Porto Rico, is being supported by the League on the "Station Plan." One thousand dollars was pledged for this purpose at our enthusiastic district convention.

In closing my report one year ago I spoke of the activity of our preachers and people in the great fight against the saloon and predicted the triumph of local option. I am happy to record the fulfillment of that prophecy and to report that we are now busy mapping out the districts that will become "anti saloon territory" at the spring elections.

A. C. BYERLY.

WEST JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To the Bishop Presiding and Members of the Conference:

The appointments announced by Bishop Hamilton numbered thirty-four. During the year we added one, so we closed the year with a district of thirty-five charges, manned by thirty-five Methodist preachers. Seven of these brethren are not members of the Conference. The other twenty-eight are men from among your ranks. The entire thirty-five men have worked enthusiastically for the success of Methodism. The results of their labors will be found in the Acts of the Apostles, namely, in the minutes of this Conference.

Evangelism.

This has been the watchword and battlecry of these preachers throughout the year. Believing as they do that Methodism has the doctrine, polity and life which the people need, they have made it their one business to teach these things to the people. They have lifted up Jesus Christ, the One mighty to save. This has been done in the old fashioned revival meetings where sinners have bowed at the mourners' bench, sought and found Christ, and went out shouting over the victory. They have held all day rallies, tent meetings, preached on the streets, done much personal work, they have been insistent in season and out of season, and as a result they report to me that 1,084 have professed to be converted, and a large per cent have been saved to the Church.

Improvements.

Murrayville finished their parsonage at a cost of $1,900. It is a beauty. People and preacher are happy. Pittsfield improved their Church at a cost of $1,400, and it shines inside and out like a new dollar. The people smile, so does the pastor. Hull purchased a parsonage at a cost of $1,050. People and pastor are well pleased over the purchase. At Florence, a town on the Illinois river, we built a Church costing $1,500. This is the first Church ever built in the town. It was made possible by the hard work of the pastor, T. O. Batey, who worked with his own hands for forty-two days. This is a great victory for Methodism in that part of the district. At Richland, on the Berdan charge, the Church has been made new at a cost of $800, and one man not a member of our Church, paid the entire bill. May such men multiply in the earth. Chambersburg modernized their Church, putting in new seats, a furnace, lecture room and otherwise beautifying the building at a cost of $3,000. The people and pastor are very happy over the improvements. Bluffs spent $210 in frescoing and otherwise improving their Church. Beardstown, $150; Pleasant Hill, $105; Perry, $75; New Salem, $120; Plainville, $125; White Hall, $65; Kinderhook, $20; Concord, $75; West Jacksonville, $100; Naples, $200; Barry, $400; Bluff Springs, $100; Milton, $120; Nebo and Pearl, $25; Rockport, $19.13; Meredosia, $195; Jerseyville, $760.

Advancement.

It is a great pleasure to report that the labors of these preachers has meant advancement in all departments of Methodism. The district raised last year for Missions, $3,684. This year it will raise $4,246. Four years ago it raised $1,735 for Missions. This year $4,246, an advance of $2,511. Four years ago the people paid $19,089 for salaries. This year $27,325, an advance of $8,236. This includes preachers and presiding elder, but does not include the parsonages. Three charges promised an advance of five hundred for next year. The Lord of Hosts is with us and greater things are yet to take place in this district.

Will Invite the Conference.

Another mark of advancement is seen in the fact that we are able to invite the Conference next year to Carrollton. I hope you will accept the invitation. We promise you a great time. You shall have corn from Egypt, honey out of our rocks, fish out of our rivers, the best chicken you ever eat, and plenty of them. In coming to the Switzerland of the Illinois Conference, you will come to the home of the red, and humming birds. You will see the golden rod, which is our district flower, in all its beauty and glory. You will rest through the day and sleep through the night in the balmy atmosphere of the sunny south. You will be delighted, and returning to your homes you will exclaim "The half was never told" and the one expression of your appreciation will be in the language of our noble President, "It was delightful."

ROBERT STEPHENS,

Reports and Resolutions

AGGRESSIVE EVANGELISM.

Whereas, We believe that the time has come for a more systematic and determined evangelistic effort and after a careful and prayerful consideration of the matter by the joint committee of ministers and laymen, it is the unanimous conviction that the success of the movement depends largely on the thorough organization of each presiding elder's district, and in order to achieve this purpose, we recommend a meeting of the ministers and representative laymen of the district at the time and place of the district stewards' meeting, to consider and adopt such plans as may be deemed advisable in the respective districts.

First—We recommend the initiative of the movement to be in the hands of the presiding elder, but in case the conditions are such that the presiding elder can not assume the added responsibility, we urge the appointment by the representatives assembled of some pastor in the district to carry the plans into effect.

Second—We favor the appointment of Conference evangelists, but suggest that it be done after the most careful investigation concerning the gifts and graces of such men as are to be appointed.

Third—We recommend the plan of tent campaigns, as it has been conducted in one or two districts of our Conference.

Fourth—We advise and urge the custom of street preaching, believing this to be one of the best methods of reaching men.

Fifth—We place the following names in nomination as members of the Evangelistic Commission for the ensuing year; Chairman, Robert Stephen: Bloomington district, Frank Lucas, Robert Means; Champaign district, W. F. Stevenson, E. G. Coon; Danville district, Frank Harry, W. G. Cathcart; Decatur district, W. J. Davidson, T. H. Ewing; Jacksonville, T. H. Tull, G. W. Smith; Mattoon, E. K. Towle, G. W. Miller; Springfield, Wm. Brandon, W. A. Joy; West Jacksonville, F. C. Buker, Joseph Smiley; Quincy, J. W. Miller, W. T. Dwire.

BENEVOLENCES.

Whereas, The plan adopted by the last General Conference for the consolidation of the benevolences has now become operative, and

Whereas, The opportunity of the Church to enlarge its fields of usefulness was never so great before. Therefore be it

Resolved, First, that we heartily approve the reorganization of the benevolent societies and will faithfully present the claims of the societies separately.

Second, That we suggest that some plan be formulated whereby the benevolences may be presented simultaneously in all the charges of the Conference.

Third, That we suggest the following plan. October to December for Home Missions. February to April, Foreign Missions. May and June to Education. July and August to Superannuates.

Signed: T. F. SHOUSE,
Secretary.

E. L. PLETCHER,
Chairman.

BROTHERHOODS.

This committee regards the organization of Brotherhoods in the Church as one of the most important steps the Church has taken for many years. Its opportunities are very great and its possibilities for the social and spiritual development of the men of the Church are many.

We recommend this new movement in the Church to our pastors and Churches in the Illinois Conferences and urge that wherever practicable an organization among the men of the Church be effected.

M. G. COLEMAN,
Secretary.

W. N. TOBIE,
Chairman.

CHURCH LITERATURE.

The moral and spiritual atmosphere, as well as the culture and refinement of the home, depend largely upon the literature which comes into that home.

Therefore, realizing the value of good literature and the baneful influence of bad literature, especially upon the minds of the young, and being assured of the value of our own literature, our books and various periodicals, permit us hereby to urge upon the ministry the duty of making the Church familiar with our official publications, and that the opportunity to subscribe for them be sufficiently and efficiently presented. Also that the laity co-operate with the ministry in bringing our Church literature to the people.

C. F. JUVINALL,

N. M. DERBY,
Secretary.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

Meagre information has been furnished the Board of Nine concerning the licensed deaconesses of the Conference. While some of them have made full reports, as yet, we have not any report from others.

Miss Grace Clark has been transferred to the Wyoming Conference.

Miss Olive T. Webster from the Rock River and Miss Catherine Bates from the Detroit Conference, have been transferred into this Conference.

The licenses of the following persons were renewed:

Anna J. Davidson, Anna Johnson, Emma S. Heverly, Sarah C. Norfleet, Lucile M. Anderson, Eleanor A. Tobie, Minnie E. Coulter, Susannah Hawkins, Iona Cornwell, Catherine Bates, Laura E. Aiken, Olive G. Webster, Elnora Hicks, Anna Logan.

We find that Miss Roxanna Beck is a suitable person, having the requisite qualifications for a deaconess, and recommend that she be consecrated as a deaconess.

We believe the Church is to be congratulated upon the good work that is being done at the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage and most heartily commend it as worthy of your active support. We have not received any report as to its financial condition, but larger gifts are needed and if awarded the institution they will be wisely used.

We recommend that W. A. Smith, Mrs. S. A. Bullard, and Mrs. H. L. Haywood be elected members of the Board of Control for the class of 1910, and that Walter Aitkin be elected to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of Dr. T. A. Canady.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

This Society is one of the creations of this Conference and the work done by it speaks for the wisdom shown in its organization. It stands to help in the building and supporting of Churches in this Conference and without such aid about ten per cent of the Churches of this Conference would not be doing the work they are doing today.

It is the earnest desire of the committee that the full apportionment for this Society be raised in full, thus making it possible for this most excellent Society to continue its good work.

We recommend that the Treasurer's Report be printed in the Conference minutes and that the following persons upon nomination of the Board of Trustees be elected as trustees of this Society: Ministers. Theo. Kemp, W. N. McElroy, G. T. Wetzel, Laymen, Jas. Ransom, W. A. Payton, C. T. McCarty.

Auditor's Report.

Springfield, Illinois, Oct. 1, 1907.

The undersigned Auditors of the Domestic Missionary and Church Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference certify that we have examined the report of Lee Matheny, Treasurer, from October 2, 1906, to October 1, 1907, and compared said report with papers and vouchers submitted, and find the same correct.

EDUCATION.

The Board of Education, Freedman's Aid and Sunday School.

Pursuant to the order of the General Conference and the action of the Commission on the Consolidation of Benevolences, the work hitherto accomplished by the Board of Education, Freedmen's Aid and Southern Education Society, Sunday School Union and Tract Society is henceforth to be carried on under the organization known as the Board of Education, Freedmen's Aid and Sunday School, this action taking effect January 1, 1907.

It is of the utmost importance that there be a clear understanding concerning the new method of proceeding. During the past year the Board of Education aided 1,926 students, $108,000 being expended for that purpose. Children's Day is to be maintained without interruption, as provided in the Discipline, and the collection promptly sent to the Board in New York City.

The observance of Lincoln Day has been growing with increasing beneficial results; and Rally Day has become an interesting and profitable institution of the Sunday School, the proceeds of the day being devoted to the Sunday Schools. It is earnestly hoped that the pastors everywhere will see to it that these days are observed.

Besides the above the Board urgently requests that one Sunday be taken for the general presentation of the claims of the work. The collection here taken is to be divided in the ratio of two dollars to one between the Freedmen's Aid and Sunday School.

Nothing less than the full amount asked for will enable the Board to do all the work which is needful in these great fields of endeavor.

This is a time of transition, attended by some danger, not only for these societies, but for the great interests which they seek to serve. It is of the utmost importance that every pastor should co-operate during this experimental period that all these interests may be wisely conserved. The apportionment of the united societies is 40 per cent of the amount apportioned to the cause of Foreign Missions, Children's Day, public collection in the Churches, the collections on Lincoln Day, and Rally Day, all being counted in the total amount.

Drew Theological Seminary.

Drew Theological Seminary maintains its high grade of scholarship and efficiency. Its nearness to the city of New York makes its department of applied Christianity attractive to students interested in problems of the city. We commend also its new department of Church Music, and recommend this course to other theological schools.

We recommend for official visitor W. N. Tobie.

The Boston University School of Theology.

This, our oldest school of theology, looks back upon a splendid past. It has a great present and a magnificent prospect. Situated, as it is, in the heart of a great city it offers unparalleled opportunities for practical work in city missions and evangelism, and we note with pleasure the amount of work done by both students and faculty in solving the city problem. We commend its insistence upon a high grade of scholarship and its warm evangelistic spirit. It aims to meet the two requirements of an ideal theological school, viz., to put the student in touch, first, with the great truth he has to preach, and, secondly, with the men with whom he has to deal.

We would nominate as official visitors C. F. McKown and F. A. McCarty.

Chaddock Boys' School.

Chaddock Boys' School has had a prosperous year, enrolling 135 students, embracing 75 full pay, 53 part pay students, and 37 supported by donations from friends of the institution. All departments, military, manual literary and agricultural, have shown marked efficiency. At the last commencement the first graduate received his diploma. The proceeds of the farm have reduced materially the cash expenses of the institution. Almost as many students as enrolled were turned away for lack of room. A temporary building which will provide for thirty students has been completed. We recommend as visitors the presiding elder of the Quincy district, J. E. Sheer, William Haley, A. L. Caseley, W. D. White, J. H. Dugan, W. S. Phillips. As trustees, term to expire 1908, W. T. Beadles, Parker Shields, Thomas Smith, Edwin Beggs, G. M. Finley.

Garrett Biblical Institute.

Situated the nearest to our Conference of all the theological schools, Garret Biblical Institute offers superior advantages. The splendid scholarship insisted upon, and the advantages given to applied Christianity in the city of Chicago, places this institution among the best training grounds for the ministry.

We especially call the attention of all those who intend to enter the ministry to look into the advantages which Garrett offers—the standing of the professors among the scholars and the preparation they make for fitness for the ministry.

We nominate C. S. Lyles and J. B. Horney as Conference visitors.

Illinois Woman's College.

The past year has been marked by six events, any one of which would make a college year memorable.

1. The completion of a new building at a cost of $50,000, for the departments of music, art and domestic science.
2. The successful issue of the canvass to secure $75,000, which, with the $25,000 promised by Mr. Carnegie, makes a total of $100,000 secured during the year.
3. The beginning of an endowment fund now amounting to $50,000.
4. The advance of the college to the full collegiate standard.
5. The meeting of the Board of Bishops at the college last May was of great value in attracting the widespread attention of the Church to the school. At the close of their session the Board of Bishops officially endorsed the college as worthy the confidence and patronage of the entire Church.
6. The celebration of the 60th anniversary of the founding of the college and the enthusiastic reunion of old students and friends at the last commencement.

The building contains a large music hall, which seats over 600, a beautiful art studio, well equipped rooms for domestic science, nearly forty rooms for piano practice and ten studios for music teachers.

The field secretary, Dr. Horace Reed, has greatly aided in the work of the year and has done very successful and efficient service. At the request of the Board of Trustees, we recommend that his appointment be continued.

We nominate the following trustees: For the term expiring 1913, Steven R. Capps, Rev. Horace Reed, D. D., Thomas J. Pitner, M. D., A. C. Wadsworth, Harvey Sconce and J. W. Hairgrove, M. D.

The Alumnae nominated as Alumnae Trustees, Mrs. Jennie Kinman Ward and Mrs. Mary Callahan Mercer, and we recommend their appointment.

As Conference Visitors we nominate the following: M. G. Coleman, Preston Wood, W. J. Davidson, the pastors resident in Jacksonville and the presiding elders of the Jacksonville and West Jacksonville districts.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

We observe with gratitude and satisfaction the many signs of progress in this historic institution. Already much has been done to make the university a medium for the expression of the best in the modern educational spirit.

The new departments of domestic science and of commerce are showing themselves highly efficient and have proved that an urgent demand exists for the work they offer. In the past year the college of music has been thoroughly organized. It is now under the direct control of the president of the university and pays a fixed per cent of its receipts into the general university treasury. The academy has been reorganized as a separate department and placed under the principalship of Arthur Allen Heinlein, A. B. Mr. T. B. Scott, of Northwestern University, the new director of athletics, is a positive Christian character and his influence will stimulate the best quality of sports. Mr. Chester Graham, succeeding Miss Mitchell in history and French, was trained in Amherst and Princeton, with two years of study abroad. Miss Eleanor Craig, trained at Vassar and the University of Chicago, succeeds Professor Armstrong in the chair of English. The religious interests of the students are a matter of serious concern with the University. Last year Rev. Theodore Henderson, of the General Conference Committee on Aggressive Evangelism, led a series of meetings that brought help to many. The department of public speaking is demonstrating a high efficiency. Last year the Wesleyan debating teams won in the joint contests with Albion College and Milliken University and the orator of the university was awarded second place in the state inter-collegiate contest. The public estimate of the institution is reflected in the increased attendance which, in the college and academy, has increased nearly three hundred per cent in three years.

Educational Moneys.

1. We hereby recommend that the regular educational column of our minutes shall include only funds raised specifically under the provision of Paragraph 337, of the Discipline, as the "Public Educational Collection" of the charge. All special gifts or gifts of supplies, provisions, etc., if certified by vouchers, shall be reported under "other benevolences."

2. We further recommend that the monies of the regular educational column, not specifically designated to any particular school, shall be equally divided among the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College and the Chaddock Boys' School. In case any charge has given a note to any of our four schools, the otherwise undesignated educational money from such charge shall be paid on such note, provided the Conference Treasurer be notified of the unpaid amount due on the same.

3. We sincerely believe that the present educational offering of our charges should be greatly increased, in view of the special conditional gifts now offered our institutions, making this a crisis period in the history of each of them. We strongly urge our people to give largely to this end.

For trustees in the class of 1910 we recommend Hon. Benjamin F. Funk, George P. Davis, Jesse Meharry, Benjamin F. Harber. In the class of 1909, to succeed Leonidas H. Kerrick, deceased, we recommend Chalmers C.

Marquis. As official visitors we recommend Chris Galeener, George E. Scrimger, Charles B. Taylor, A. C. Byerly, J. C. Nate and J. B. Horney.

Respectfully submitted,

W. D. FAIRCHILD,
Secretary.

H. C. GIBBS,
Chairman.

HOSPITALS.

A Report of the Memorial Methodist.

To the Members of the Illinois Conference:

We bring you tidings of your hospital at Mattoon. I am to convey greetings to the Illinois Conference and say that this institution has been on duty the entire Conference year. The doors have always been open to welcome the sufferer, and trained workers with kind hearts have ever responded to the call of pain. Often times the building has been taxed. Recently, when the fearful wreck occurred on the interurban, the hospital was full, rooms and halls. Never, perhaps, before has the hospital impressed the people so deeply with its necessity and utility. On every hand we could hear the words, "What would we have done without the hospital?" Thus the hospital not only cares for local cases, but for those that come from afar.

The people of Mattoon have assisted nobly and constantly. When we consider the fact that the expenditure constantly is in excess of income, and that to meet the deficit the trustees must make frequent appeals, it will be apparent that some kind hearts somewhere must constantly respond. The people of Mattoon have responded most willingly and repeatedly. But since the hospital is under the care of the Illinois Conference, we have a reasonable right to expect that all the pastors will take an interest in this splendid institution and do something to assist it until such times when the legacies already made shall become available upon the death of the donors.

Meanwhile we face the facts. We have a note of $1,000 and interest due now. This comes from the purchase of the property. We have another of $1,500, made by the trustees to liquidate debts that had accumulated. The work is being run as economically as it is possible to run it. The superintendent and two trained nurses with a few probationers as undergraduates constitute the working force with such other helps for kitchen and general work as is needed. Under ordinary circumstances these are ample. No one can sufficiently know the value of the hospital until associated with its work. Those who go in and are tenderly cared for come out with a new love and admiration for the Memorial Hospital. Sometimes it works a spiritual as well as a physical change. At the opening of the Conference year I visited the institution. The superintendent took me to a room where a lady had just been taken whose condition required an operation. Who is this? The Methodist preacher. Ah, yes, I am so glad you have come. A word of prayer? Yes, I wish you would. She recovered, came out, joined the Church and ever since has been one of the most untiring, devoted workers I have ever known.

The hospital is a beautiful frame building, 40 by 90, with 25 rooms, sanitary, well lighted. The whole building is warmed by steam heat. The operating room is said to be one of the very finest.

We have recently opened a training school, where young women with the proper desire, adaptability and affinity may receive training. If you know in your charges any who greatly desire to qualify themselves for the work, write to us and the superintendent will gladly correspond. They receive during their probationary period their board, wash and a small compensation.

The Illinois Conference ought to be proud of this hospital. I will urge that soon after Conference each preacher speak upon this work and make a special appeal. Take an offering and send the amount to the treasurer, J. F. Lawson. We would suggest the third Sunday in October as Hospital Sunday, so that all might do the same work at the same time.

We recommend to the Conference for confirmation as Trustees, Dr. D.

W. McFall, E. S. Wamsley, Parker Shields, T. H. Wheat, S. W. Phillips, E. D. Champion, John F. Voigt, Jr., J. F. Lawson, A. L. T. Ewert.

The Memorial Hospital.

Your committee, to whom was referred this new form of humane work in our Conference activities, are glad to be able to report a year of successful work.

The hospital has made a splendid record this year. Besides a large number of medical cases, the numerous railroad and interurban accidents have furnished an unusual number of surgical cases. It is with pleasure that we mention the success attending the medical and surgical work of our new memorial hospital plant. We have a splendid hospital staff and are as well prepared in the matter of surgery as any hospital in central Illinois.

The hospital is open to all persons without prejudice. We therefore heartily commend it to the sick and those needing hospital treatment, for aid, and to the generous and humane for financial support. Hospital work is, in large measure, charity work, and the needs are urgent. We recommend that hospital day be observed on the third Sunday in October in all the charges, an offering taken and the proceeds sent to the treasurer, J. F. Lawson, at Mattoon, Illinois. We also recommend that the agent whom the trustees of the hospital may employ be welcomed in our pastoral charges, and that vouchers for all sums raised, in a pastoral charge be given by said agent to the pastor to be credited to "other benevolences."

Respectfully submitted.

INSURANCE.

The annual report of the Board of Insurance shows that at the beginning of this year the business of our fire insurance company, the National Mutual Church Insurance Company of Chicago, had grown to $29,287,204.00.

Notwithstanding the fact that the San Francisco conflagration was the most terrible disaster of the kind on record, resulting in a property loss estimated at all the way from three hundred million dollars to twice that amount, our company was able to close the year in a most satisfactory condition and return to the policyholders a dividend of 6 per cent. Although a cash surplus remained, after providing for all losses and expenses, larger than was paid out under the 10 per cent dividend of last year, the directors felt that at a time like this, when many companies that had so far weathered the storm were still struggling desperately against the effects of San Francisco, the policyholders would approve of the dividend being limited to 6 per cent.

It is gratifying to know that ours was the first company to adjust a loss after the fire and that our payment of $4,500.00 to the First Swedish Methodist Episcopal Church of San Francisco was the first insurance money paid after the holocaust. 1906 has given an unanswerable demonstration of the correctness of the claim always made by the management that our company is conflagration proof and naturally inspires the utmost confidence in the corporation and the Board of Insurance which represents the General Conference.

The total losses up to January 1, 1907, were 1,152, amounting to $278,808.13. As is always the case with this company, there is not a dollar of losses due and unpaid. The accounts were audited by one of the largest firms of expert accountants in the world—Marwick, Mitchell & Company. It may not be generally known that for years the secretary, treasurer and all employees having access to the funds have been under bonds issued by the American Surety Company of New York.

Notwithstanding the easy terms upon which our policies are written and the fact that the deferred premium money remaining in the pockets of our members, which would have been collected in advance by stock companies and put to earning interest, represented considerably more than one quarter of a million of dollars, the dividends returned to policyholders have aggregated $38,404.46, which, added to the losses, makes a total of $317,212.59 returned to the members.

As has been the case in former years Methodism has been saved in some localities where no insurance had been carried at all the easy terms offered by our Board made protection possible, and where local conditions had so changed as to have made rebuilding out of the question otherwise.

As our money exists for the protection of Methodist interests, the profits and benefits going back to the policyholders, we urge that insurance on all properties used in the service of Methodism be insured in our own company.

The secretary and manager, Henry P. Magill, whose address is 184 LaSalle St., Chicago, Ill., will give any further particulars desired.

Secretarial Incumbents.

Whereas, Assistant Secretaries have been appointed in our newly organized benevolent Societies in sufficient numbers to defeat the economical purposes of the recent consolidation of such societies.

Therefore Resolved, That the Illinois Annual Conference memorializes the General Conference to take such steps as will curtail the power of said Boards in this matter and adopt such measures as will limit the number of such Secretarial incumbents.

REAPPOINTMENT OF PRESIDING ELDERS.

Whereas, The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church provides in Par. 173, Art. 2, that the Bishop shall not allow a Presiding Elder to preside in the same district for more than six consecutive years, nor more than six years in any consecutive twelve, and,

Whereas, There is no law or statute in the Discipline to the contrary, be it

Resolved, That we request our presiding Bishop not to allow an Elder in our Conference to hold the office of Presiding Elder more than six years in any consecutive twelve.

Provided, however, that this action be not intended to apply to the reappointment of any Elder to the district which he is now serving, in which he has not presided the term of six years; be it

POST GRADUATE COURSE OF STUDY.

The Post-Graduate Course of Study has been placed under the care of eighteen Examiners and a Registrar. Plans for Examinations which will not be burdens to the student, but which will assure good work, have been arranged for.

At a meeting in Springfield early in the Conference year the Committee arranged for the first year of a four years' course of study in nine departments: Biography, Biblical Literature, Christian Experience, Literature Natural Science, Psychology, Practical Christianity, Sociology and Economics and Theism. Work in the Course covering every Department has been done by Matriculates this year.

The Examiners are planning now for the second year's work and ask for space in the Conference Minutes of 1907, for the publication of the first two years of the course, together with names of Examiners and the regulations relating to the Course.

We recommend that the Conference make provision for the public recognitition and suitable certificate or diploma for each student completing the four years' Course.

PREACHERS' AID AND CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS' SOCIETY.

Report of the Joint-Committee.

To the Preachers of the Illinois Conference:

The Joint-Committee, appointed at the last session of the Conference on unifying our work for the support of Conference Claimants, adopted as its report the following proposed constitution together with the resolution appended thereto, and appointed the undersigned a committee to print the report on its approval by the Preachers' Aid Society and send it to you. The Preachers' Aid Society having approved the report, we, therefore, on behalf of the Joint-Committee, submit it as follows:

Action of the Joint-Session of the Annual and Lay Electoral Conferences.

To the joint-session of the Annual and Lay Electoral Conferences, you committee respectfully submit the following:

Whereas, The Gospel of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ is the only hope of the world, and, to be made effective as the power of God unto salvation, it must be preached by men called of God; and,

Whereas, It is the duty of the Church to provide for its ministry since it is written "even so the Lord hath ordained that they which preach the Gospel shall live of the Gospel;" and,

Whereas, "The claim to a comfortable support rightfully inheres in the Gospel ministry and inures to the benefit of the preacher in the Methodist Episcopal Church when he is admitted to membership in the Annual Conference. The preacher may voluntarily relinquish this claim, but it can be neither justly questioned during his active service, nor invalidated by his being superannuated;" and,

Whereas, Though the Methodist Episcopal Church has endeavored to fulfill its promise to provide a comfortable support for its superannuated ministers, but has failed to do so because of its poverty until more recent years; and,

Whereas, The future of the Church in the efficiency of its ministry is involved in this problem of support as "a starving superannuate produces a second class pastor and a dying Church:" and,

Whereas, There seems to be an awakening in the Church and a steady and healthful growth of the sentiment which seeks to make adequate provisions for Conference claimants as is evidenced by the public utterances of our chief pastors, the bishops, and many eminent laymen, among them Charles W. Fairbanks, Vice President of the United States, who on July 28th, standing under the old elm at Boston Commons, where Jesse Lee planted the first seed of Methodism in New England, said:

"The man who planted here the seed of the great Methodist Episcopal Church did a mighty good for his time and for all eternity. We do not sufficiently estimate the service of the ministry of the Methodist Episcopal Church. The American citizen of the future is to be the best citizen of all the world, and one of the greatest influences to make this ideal citizenship is the great Church. If there are any men worthy of the people's gratitude they are superannuated ministers of the American pulpit;" and,

Whereas, The Church, through the General Conference Commission, calls us to an aggressive advance movement in the interest of our "worn-out" preachers, therefore,

Resolved, first, That a standing commission of three persons from each presiding elder's district, consisting of the presiding elder, one pastor and one layman, and a corresponding secretary, be appointed who shall give direction to efforts and plans of promoting the interests of Conference Claimants during the ensuing quadrennium. The commission may appoint an executive committee so located as to meet as often as may be necessary to carry out the purpose of the Conference in creating said commission.

Resolved, second, That since the annual collections in the congregations have been and must ever be the chief source of income from which to provide a support for Conference Claimants, we will earnestly endeavor to persuade each pastoral charge to meet its full apportionment in the annual collection for Conference Claimants; and, since the apportionment is for "ministerial support," we recommend that "the amount apportioned shall be a claim in common with that of the pastor, the presiding elder and the Episcopal fund for ministerial support, and the moneys raised for these purposes shall be applied pro rata to these several claims on the basis of the authorized apportionment for each.

Resolved, third, Since there will always be claimants in "special need" through sickness or other misfortune, and the annual collections do not and can not make adequate provision in all such cases, we earnestly and urgently appeal to our people to contribute to the permanent funds of the Conference.

1. Those to whom misfortune and special need appeal without reference to long and faithful service in the itinerancy, should contribute to the permanent fund, the income of which is applied only to those in special need.
2. Those whose sense of duty prompts them to aid in furnishing conditions under which the minister can more easily devote himself wholly to his sacred calling without distraction, those who recognize the great value of faithful life service devoted unselfishly to the cause, and those who believe the principle a sound one, that the minister should help to provide for his old age, should contribute to the fund, the income of which is applied only on the principle of service and self-help.

Resolved, fourth, That the trustees of the Conference and the Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society be and they are hereby authorized to examine thoroughly the subject of receiving annuity funds; and, after establishing safe and conservative rules for their guidance, to receive such funds, engaging to pay the annuitant a fixed percentage upon the same.

Resolved, fifth, That we memorialize the General Conference of 1908 to adopt without amendment the proposed plan of the General Conference Commission for the support of Conference Claimants, and that the secretary of the Annual Conference and the secretary of the Lay Electoral Conference furnish a copy of this memorial to the chairmen of the respective delegations, clerical and laity.

Respectfully submitted,

Payment of the One Per Cent.

Resolved, That each effective member of the Conference pay to the presiding elder of his district to be sent by him to H. C. Preachers' Aid Society.

The Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church desire to place upon record the following statement:

The Board of Control for this corporation has kept faith with you in the agreement into which we entered last fall at Taylorville, and have not been active in efforts during the year "to secure members or additional funds for the Society." We are profoundly thankful that the joint commission of the Conference has arrived at agreement, adopted a plan, and that the plan has been adopted as the plan of the Conference. This plan involves certain amendments to the constitution of the Society. The constitution provides that all proposed amendments to the constitution shall lay over one year after being offered. To lessen the time from this present date, the Society held a legal session on the 27th day of last March, at which meeting the amendments were offered by the Board of Control. They were fully considered, and the Society pledged itself to effect the amendments on the conditions which are named in the plan which the joint commission presented to this Conference and which it has adopted. We will keep faith to the end, and we are confident that the members of the Conference will keep faith with the Society.

The funds of the Society have been carefully guarded by the Board of Control and our most careful treasurer, Hiram Buck Prentice. The $100 which has been added to the fund came without solicitation and under such circumstances as justify the disposition made of it by your corresponding secretary.

Respectfully submitted,

STATE OF THE CHURCH AND MORAL REFORM.

This is a time of unrest in the political and moral worlds, there is no stagnation anywhere, but activity everywhere. Both the forces of good and evil, are active, intense, bold, aggressive, nothing is taken for granted.

The foundations are challenged. Great questions agitate the social, business and moral conditions of the country. We look upon this as a hopeful sign. Nothing is worse than contentment in bad conditions. Quietness in such circumstances indicates intellectual and moral decay and approaching dissolution. Among the evil forces, we discover unholly greed; law defiance; graft in high places and low; unscriptural divorce; Sabbath desecration; non-Church attendance; uncleanness and drunkenness. These things threaten our social, business and moral foundations. Greed lies back of bad combinations in the business world (for there are good combinations as well as evil ones.) Trusts; like Standard Oil, and Steel, Railways and watered Stocks, and all efforts after dishonest gains, are the children of greed!

Law defiance is the outgrowth of the same passion, and decay of patriotism as well as graft is another child born of the same parentage. Unscriptural divorce, which is so prevalent, breaks up homes, ruins lives, orphans children, sends vagabonds wandering over the earth, and helps to feed the brothels, is an evil unsurpassed and strikes at the foundation of our social order and is a blotch dark and dreadful upon our social life. While Sabbath desecration by railway excursions, baseball games on Sunday and general desecration of the day by picnics, social visitings, and using it altogether as a day of pleasure, is breaking down this shield which protects man from man, and this day of God, ordained for human weal, and is largely the cause of the neglect of the house of God, and all that such neglect means of future evil.

Uncleanliness and drunkenness work their desolation in our country as they have in all lands, as attested by the voice of all history. But along these lines of darkness we see falling lines of light. Thieves, whether millionaires or petty pilferers, are no longer safe. Thanks to President Roosevelt, and the courts of the country, the law breakers no longer are left alone. Fines of millions have a meaning unmistakable, imprisonment in penitentiaries is needed and boodlers behind bars will furnish a sure remedy. Christian society and church activity among the young men and women who form these marriages, which dissolve like the morning dew, along with more strenuous legislation, will greatly lessen, if it does not entirely banish the divorce evil. We rejoice in the growing interest in the Sabbath day, and its observance as witnessed by closing the Jamestown Exposition on Sunday, and the demands of organized labor for a universal Sunday rest day. God's laws written in the natural world and in the Ten Commandments demand it, and declare in sternest declaration that their demands can not be disregarded. The most encouraging outlook is offered in the great reform of reforms, that of temperance. There is a movement that, like a great ground swell, is shaking the land, and is destined to shake the distillery, brewery and saloon out of it. May God hasten the day. Georgia and soon Mississippi, Alabama, Texas and even Kentucky are to join the prohibition phalanx, while Kansas stands firm, and through the Illinois local option law we trust Illinois will soon join the great procession of states which march onward in this great reform.

The liquor hosts are frightened. They see the handwriting on the wall, and, like Belschazzar, are shaking while their knees smite together. May they get worse and worse frightened until they shall quit the business or perish as Belschazzar perished. This land we call our own is God's land, bought with the blood of the fathers, it must not perish through our prevalent sins. There are rifts in the clouds, and a clear sky will soon, we believe, bend over us. Let us be true to our country and to God. Encouraging all moral reforms, realizing as we push the Gospel onward and build up the Church of Christ that all true and permanent reform must come through the transformation of individual character. In conclusion we commend President Roosevelt on his firm stand upon law enforcement. We protest against easy divorce in the courts of our state. We protest against the reinstatement of the liquor canteen in army and army posts. With sorrow we deplore the action of the United States Senate in not unseating Senator Reed Smoot, and we especially condemn the course of Senator Hopkins in his course in the matter, and pronounce our condemnation of this semi-recognition of polygamy in our country. We heartily endorse the Anti-Saloon League of our state and rejoice in its success in securing for our state the local option law which has been put upon the statutes of the state through its influence. We pray for a greater regard for the Sabbath day and Sabbath laws, with the flag of our country nailed under the cross of Christ. We are resolved to press the battle against moral evil until this land of ours shall become the most moral and religious and happy as well as the richest and the freest on the earth.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUE.

We continue to believe with the illustrious founder of Methodism that the Sunday School is "the nursery of the Church," and one of "the chiefst means employed of God to renew the world in righteousness."

We can not too persistently urge all pastors and Sunday School boards to see that our own publications be furnished to our own Sunday Schools.

We would urge that every Sunday School be organized into a missionary society according to the provisions of the Discipline. We also believe the monthly missionary program will prove to be a useful means to increase the missionary spirit of the Sunday School. In every case where "Decision Day" has been wisely observed it has proven to be a day of great awakening in the Sunday School. The monthly temperance lesson and organized temperance work in the Sunday School has been and will continue to be a necessary and important branch of education along the line of temperance.

The normal class for the training of teachers is almost indispensable in equipping teachers for efficient work. We can not too strongly urge it as a measure to secure better teachers and teaching.

The Epworth League has not exhausted the possibilities of its usefulness. We are at a time where the work of the League should be better adjusted to the needs of the young people. We recommend tithing bands, mission and Bible study classes and personal workers' covenants as aids to the development of the spiritual life of the young people.

We believe the time has come for the organization and maintenance of an Epworth League Summer Institute and stand ready to co-operate with other Conferences in this matter. We, therefore, recommend a committee of three of which the chairman shall be one, to carry out the spirit of this recommendation.

Rules of the Board.

With Plan of Study and Examinations for 1907-1908.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be divided into five departments, namely: Biblical Theology, Historical Theology, Systematic Theology, Practical Theology and Philosophy, miscellaneous studies being assigned to these departments so as most evenly to distribute the work. The Board of Examiners shall be divided into five sections, corresponding to the divisions of the studies. It shall be the duty of each Examiner to assist as fully as possible, by corresponding or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District as may be determined by the chairman. They shall be in charge of District Examiners designated by the chairman, or, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the chairman shall arrange for some member of the Conference as special Examiner for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed Examiner, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the Board. No other grades will be given until Conference.

5. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the chairman of the Board. Such appeals shall be decided by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter, to any one of the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

8. Undergraduates shall present on each book to be read a book review of not less than 1,000 words, nor more than 1,500 words. Such review shall cover the entire work, and state the object of the author in writing the book, the ground covered, the style and plan of the work.

9. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. These credits must be on a scale of 100.

10. The Examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the chairman of the Board duplicate copies of all sets of questions to be used in examination two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time, with the District Examiners for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expense of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Examiners are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the chairman; and the financial accounts of the chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their Annual Conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the Conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate covering all his work, signed by the chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of Conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of all candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection, which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information concerning the candidates obtainable, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another Communion, and the Board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the Conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. To facilitate the work of the Board in this matter, the names of all such candidates and applicants shall be reported to the chairman as early in the year as possible, that he may have ample time to make all necessary investigations.

14. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders to report to the chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for Orders, with their post office addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular Conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of, and on the day before the session of, the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9:00 o'clock a. m., to examine any who have not been examined during the year, to consider the matters involved in Rule 13, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the year to come.

"Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at the Conference of 1907 upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes respectively.

In Memoriam

MEMOIRS

William Owen

William Owen was born near Westville, Champaign County, Ohio, July 19, 1826, and died at his home near Tennessee, Ill., October 26, 1906. He came with his parents to Illinois in 1840, and received scholastic training in Prof. Holton's Seminary and at Shurtleff College. He was converted and united with our Church at Hillsgrove, Ill., when 18 years of age.

In the year 1848 Brother Owen was received on trial in the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and was appointed to Jacksonville circuit. To the work of a Methodist preacher he gave himself without reserve, having the warm love of his people and the confidence and approval of his Presiding Elder. God blest his work and gave him the pleasure of seeing many conversions. After seven years of this arduous service, having received a serious injury from a vicious horse, causing a breakdown in his health he asked for a superannuated relation. After five years, thinking himself sufficiently recovered from his affliction, he entered the effective ranks, but at the end of the second year's service his health was again so shattered that he returned to the roll of superannuates and there continued till the end.

The subject of this sketch was endowed with a bright, clear, searching intellect, which made him a good, sound thinker, as well as a close and profiting observer. He had great stability and force of character, and possessed a manly courage. He was blest with an attractive personality, and a fine voice for public speaking. By mind, character, personality and voice, together with a good supply of the English language, he was a fine subject of which the Holy Ghost might make a preacher. To an unusual degree he was able to draw people to him, elicit their love, lead them to see as he saw, think as he thought, and do as he directed. There was a close mutual attachment between him and his friends.

Nine years before his death he was stricken with a serious malady which caused him much suffering, and confined him to his room for the remainder of his life. Through all those years his submission was touching. His faith grew stronger, and his spiritual life deepened. A few days before the end he declared, as he had often done before, that "The old time religion" was good enough for him; that he had given his heart to God in his youth and had trusted Him ever since, and was now trusting Him to give him the victory in his last battle. His mind was clear to the end. At noon, of the Sabbath day, in his home, that he loved so much, surrounded by his dear and devoted family, his spirit passed from this world of trial, pain and strife to the place prepared for him in the Father's house on high.

His wife, formerly Miss Margaret Fulkerson of Hillsgrove, Ill., now aged and feeble, and three sons and two daughters survive him. Three daughters had preceded him in death. Funeral services were conducted by his pastor, the Rev. G. W. Metzel of Plymouth, Ill., assisted by the Rev. T. W. Puffer, pastor of Colchester circuit, Central Illinois Conference.

Rev. James M. West

Rev. James M. West of the Illinois Conference, was born in Pike County, Ill., December 24, 1835, and died at the home of his son-in-law, R. S. Simpson, in Kansas, November 8, 1906. He was converted when a boy of fourteen years of age, and joined our Church. At the age of twenty-one he united with the Illinois Conference as an itinerant preacher. He filled many charges with acceptability and hundreds were converted through his ministry. For thirty-eight years he served as pastor and was a wise counselor, and true friend as well as earnest preacher. He was gifted in prayer and powerful in appeal to the unsaved and through him many were led to believe in Christ. For the past eleven years he was a superannuated member of the Conference, living in Bloomington, Ill., where he has many friends who value his Christian character and lovely spirit. His life was gentle yet he was a man of convictions. His religious experience was victorious. His constancy was an example and his devotion to Christ was the master passion of his life. His devoted wife survives. Rev. J. A. West, his son, is a member of the same Conference.—C. P. M.

Isaac Groves

Isaac Groves was born in Cerne Abbas, Dorsetshire, England, on January 28, 1823, and died in Champaign, Ill., December 12, 1906. The time measurement of his earthly existence was eighty-three years, ten months and fourteen days. He was born of the Spirit at the same place in England, November 2, 1841. This was the dawn of his conscious Christian life. On that date he commenced and to the day of his death continued to walk with God. He was married in England to Miss Elizabeth Vailor. Shortly after this event he and his wife came to America. Two daughters born to them are still living—Mrs. Hugh Mitchell of Champaign, and Mrs. Thomas Foster of Sac City, Ia. In 1852 death bereft him of his wife. Later he married Mary Cole. Their two sons are Dr. J. I. Groves of this city and C. W. Groves of Marengo, Ill. In addition to the children born to him, he took a girl in her infancy, who was in no sense related to him, and raised her to womanhood—Mrs. Jessie Phillips. These bereft daughters and sons have been left a rich inheritance in a noble example of Christian living and triumphant dying. Brother Groves was licensed to preach in 1845 by the Wesleyan Methodist church in England, and brought his credentials with him. He moved to Illinois in 1848. It was in the month of May of that year that he was received into our church on certificate by Rev. Oliver Munsell. In 1849 he was admitted on trial in the Illinois Annual Conference, and maintained an honorable relation to the same until the day of his death. In a complete sense he was a pioneer preacher. When he commenced his itinerant life and for some time after, much of the vast territory over which he traveled was indeed missionary ground. Some of his charges had appointments ranging from nineteen to twenty-four in number and he was required to preach at each one, once in every three weeks. This required extensive travel, where roads were largely a thing of the future, and it was a heavy draft on his nervous and mental energies. In addition to this stated work, he participated in numerous camp meetings which were both popular and beneficial in those days. Without hesitation he went from place to place at the command of the appointing power of the church. None were more eminently qualified than he to assist in laying the foundations of Christianity in the new state. He possessed poise of mind, a large fund of common sense and a glowing religious experience. He saw clearly the turpitude of sin, the love of God as manifest in redemption by Christ and the sad destiny of the finally impenitent. Underlying the qualifications was a loving desire to rescue men and women from sin's destructive consequences. Thus equipped he entered difficult and unremunerative fields to preach the glorious gospel of Christ, the secret and power of which he was a conscious possessor. No wonder that under his ministry hundreds were converted and scores of churches organized, which are centers of Methodism in their respective localities to this day. The late Hiram Buck, D. D., was contemporary with the subject of this sketch. In writing of Groves as a pastor, he said, every charged served by him is left better than he found it. His funeral took place from the church in Champaign, Friday, December 14. The writer read the memoir. W. D. Best made the prayer. A. S. Flanigan read the Scriptures and Dr. W. A. Smith of Hoopeston, Dr. C. B. Taylor of Urbana, and Dr. C. Galeener of Champaign made very fitting addresses. Revs. W. M. Poe, W. N. Toby, J. C. Enninger, J. R. Reasoner, L. F. Walden and S. H. Huber were pall bearers. His body was laid to rest in Mount Hope cemetery.—M. W. Everhart.

Mrs. M. R. Palmer

Mrs. Ida May Palmer, nee Briggs, was born in Terre Haute, Ind., Sept. 4th, 1865, and died in Champaign, Ill., Dec. 31st, 1906. Her parents died when she was but nine years of age and she went to live with friends in Greencastle, Ind., where she remained for ten years after which she returned to her childhood home at Terre Haute. During her stay in Greencastle she was soundly converted and united with the church and to the day of her death there was never a more devoted and tireless worker than she.

She was married to Rev. Matthias R. Palmer, of the Illinois Conference, May 28th, 1888, and walked by his side a true help-meet until God translated him August 24th, 1906. During her life in the itinerancy she was faithful in all the duties that pertained to the position of a minister's wife. She went uncomplainingly to the less inviting fields as well as to those more promising. She did her full duty in every department of work to which the wife of a minister is called.

She was the mother of seven children, two of whom went on before and five remain: Lois, Bliss, Edith and Haven.

During the long illness of her husband which terminated with his death, Sister Palmer shouldered the burden of caring for her family of young children like the heroic noble woman that she was and when left in widowhood she continued the struggle without a single complaint, relying with a beautiful faith upon the widow's God and the orphan's Friend.

She has entered into rest; the tired hands that toiled so unselfishly for others are folded in quiet sleep; the eyes that kept many a long vigil are now closed in that slumber that shall be broken when her Lord shall awaken her to the life that tires not and to the day wherein is no sorrow.—Christie Galeener.

Historical Address

By REV. W. A. SMITH, D. D.

These were heroic as well as historic days of Methodism, though such days are not past. In some of our charges and out on the frontier, there are souls as noble and self-sacrificing as were the fathers. These pioneer preachers did not wait for civilization to pave the way for their coming, but with true aggressive and progressive spirits they pushed their way beyond the borders of organized communities into the wilderness wilds. They were like the Methodist itinerant who followed a new comer's wagon track in the early days, into the dense and distant forests of Kentucky. No sooner had the proposed settler halted in a vast wilderness than a man with the early Methodist preacher's library—a copy each of the Bible, the Methodist Discipline and the hymn book—in a pair of saddlebags, rode up and accosted him: "I saw your fresh wagon tracks and decided to follow you up and learn whether or not you are a Christian and a Methodist." The new settler said in dismay: "I came all the way from the Carolinas to get away from you fellows, but it is of no use. I might as well surrender first as last." He did so, and became the initial member of the first Methodist society in that region. No wonder Dr. Guernsey said these pioneer preachers had saved the country from semi-barbarism. They saw to it that the cross rather than the crucifix became the presiding genius of our civilization, and the greatest power in this land of the free and the home of the brave.

So it was within the bounds of the Illinois Annual Conference, though their influence was nation-wide, and even world-wide, like that of the world-parish preacher, John Wesley. Yet they were simple and child-like in faith and earnest and powerful in prayer. This spirit extended to even the ordinary affairs of life. This is illustrated in the career of Rev. Wilson Pitner, one of the earlier members of our Conference, who was an eccentric character of small culture, but of large native ability—a veritable diamond in the rough. His dress was purely primitive, his customary cap being made of otter skin with the furry side out. Dr. Prentice said that on one occasion when his old cap was no longer fit for use, Brother Pitner set his trap one evening among the haunts of that animal, knelt down beside it, held his antiquated head-gear aloft, and thus importuned heaven: "Oh, Lord, my old cap is worn out. This is a pretty looking thing for a Methodist preacher to be wearing. I need a new one. O, Lord, send an otter into my trap." He was not surprised the next morning to find that his faith had been rewarded and his prayer answered. Indeed, he would have been surprised had it been otherwise. He took the pelt thus secured, tanned it, and with his own hands made it into a new cap. Thus holding always that "all things are possible with God," these preachers also held to its co-related truth that "all things are possible to him that believeth," and their conquests were remarkable and even amazing.

I prefer to speak first of these choice souls in their average capacity rather than of the movement which they inaugurated, for these rare men made the Church what it is, and laid the foundation for the great Conference superstructure which is now being erected. Like all God's true ministers and laymen, these men of God were twice born. The eloquent Summerfield was once asked by a noted Doctor of Divinity where he was born. Mr. Summerfield answered, "I was born in Preston and in Liverpool." "Pray," said the questioner, "how can that be?" The eloquent divine answered, "Art thou a master in Israel and knowest not these things?" In this respect our fathers were true Wesleyans. Luther had tried the experiment of making men regenerate by simply making them orthodox in belief. Wesley demonstrated the fact that the only way to make men truly orthodox is to make them scripturally religious. No converted heart is every anything else than orthodox.

Then they believed in a divine call to the Christian ministry. They could not explain it, but it was a fact of consciousness which they could not doubt if they would, and which they would not if they could. It was an inherent, pungent conviction that would not down, and that made them feel the Pauline "woe is me" if they preached not the gospel.

They also wisely interpreted a call to preach to mean a call to prepare to preach, and they governed themselves accordingly. Their educational facilities were very meagre, and as a rule their scholastic attainments small, though a few of them were more highly favored. They were men—manly men—before they were ministers, and more manly still thereafter; but like Paul, they were made ministers by the grace of God. They were close and constant students of the one book—the book of books. They especially sought the equipment of the peculiar qualifications and special endowments of the Holy Ghost, to fit them for their sacred tasks. They believed in spirit baptisms subsequent to regeneration—after they first believed. They craved the baptism of fire and power. Thus the truth was as a fire shut up in their bones that must find outward expression and expansion. Hence, they had the eloquence that is born of sincerity and earnestness—a subtle soul-power filled with the heavenly afflatus and surcharged with divine dynamics. Their eloquence was similar to that of the sainted Simpson, but less intense. A professor of elocution once went to hear that matchless minister as a professional study. Afterward he was asked what he thought of the Bishop's elocution. "Elocution," said he, "I never thought of it. What does he need of elocution?" Thus these men came not with enticing words of men's wisdom, but they preached in demonstration of the spirit and of power. Their creations were usually sufficiently rhetorical to be marked by beauty of utterance, yet they never used the cross of Christ as a mere peg upon which to hang any tawdry rag of flowery speech. They never covered up their meaning with useless dress. That is the mark of the true orator. Their sermons were generally thoughtful, the subject matter of a high order, the arrangement methodical, and the arguments cumulative and convincing. Their style was marked by crystalline clearness. You could hardly mistake their meaning. They said what they meant, and meant what they said. Their ideals were lofty, their purposes pure, for they were actuated by the noblest motives. They were honest in that highest integrity that places principle before policy, champions the cause of truth in the face of prejudice, and defends the right for its own sake, unswerved by favoritism, and unbribed by pelf, place or power. Their manner in dealing with the great themes of revelation and their experience of the deep things of God, with the added power of the Holy Ghost, gave them access to the hearts of the people and a large and blessed influence over their lives. They were apt, natural, forcible in illustration. They had something to illustrate, and their illustrations were windows through which to let in the streaming sunlight of heaven. Yet they were not so numerous as to endanger the strength of the mental structure they were erecting, or to mar its symmetry and beauty. They belonged to the integral parts of their discourses, growing gracefully out of them, as leaves from the tree, or blossoms from the bough. They were never artificial appendages—never tacked on for mere effect. The Hero of the gospels was the inspiration of their life and ministry. Their commanding theme was Jesus only. That grand utterance of Paul was the cardinal feature of their ministry, "I determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ, and Him crucified." Thus their mission was Christ-like, and their message was mighty. It had the marrow of the gospel. It had the power of the law. It struck down through the conventionalities and false etiquettes of society and made its power known and felt. It had therefore the swing of conquest. If we had more of that kind of preaching today, the monotony of our modern religious services would more often be broken up by that piercing Pentecostal cry, "Men and brethren, what shall we do?" The fathers did not need the modern evangelist. They were their own evangelists. Bishop Merrill at a campmeeting in Iowa a few years ago was vigorously emphasizing that point. Evangelist Weber was on the platform in charge of the evangelistic services. No sooner had the Bishop finished than Mr. Weber jumped to his feet. "Yes," he said, "that is true about the fathers, but we have no such preachers, and no such preaching as that now-a-days, so we must have the evangelist. 'Come on!' The good Bishop himself had to smile at the way in which he had been turned down. But the fathers had the fire and the power, and the march of their might was divine. God was in it. Did they preach about the Church? It was only as she was the bride of Christ. If they dwelt upon the sacraments it was because they bound to the heart of Christ. Did they take up the polemical sword against error? It was that they might defend the truth as it was in Jesus, and earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered to the saints. They constantly felt the spirit of one of the strongest preachers of our day, who wrote in his diary: 'If I take a text from the inspired volume and do not to the utmost extent of my ability fathom and exhaust its meaning, I feel that I am a doomed man.'" With singleness of purpose and a profound dependence on the Holy Spirit they went to the word to learn its meaning and to make it known. With resolute hearts and sure hands they sounded the depths of the gospel. With unerring grasp they laid hold of its eternal verities, and gave them out to men in words that burned and sentences that flamed. They were never heterodox, or "liberal," so-called, in their theology. Yet they were not narrow or bigoted. They brought home the truths of the gospel with emphatic directness to the hearts and consciences of men. They made no substitute of morality for saving faith in Jesus, or of the filthy rags of man's self-righteousness for the spotless robe of the righteousness of Christ. They raised no clouds of doubt to obscure that central Sun—no mists of semi-infidel questionings to veil that precious truth. In their versatile minds and holy enthusiasm they sought, like Paul, by all means to save some. Like the facet-cut diamond, they were many-sided, and flashed out the light all around them. They rejoiced with those who did rejoice, and wept with those who weep. The scholar found in them eager, sympathetic listeners. The man of science found in them the open minds to receive the latest, freshest facts in the world of nature. But they were also devout believers in the truth that through the ages one increasing purpose runs—the purpose of an ever-living, ever-loving, all-powerful God, who, in the beginning, "spake and it was done," who "commanded and it stood fast," and who ever reigns and rules on high. In short, their labors were almost superhuman, their zeal apostolic, their wisdom wonderful, their courage sublime, their organizing powers transcendent, their qualities many and great, and their characters practically blameless. They builded more wisely than they knew. We can hardly give them credit with foreseeing what we now behold in the growth of our great Conference. But they were heroes, more grandly heroic than many a soldier who fights and falls for a smaller cause on the field of battle. They possessed the humility of true greatness. They lived largely for others rather than for self. They acted as Shakespeare must have written, unconscious of their greatness and the worth of their work to the world.

There have been thinkers and philosophers who have lived in advance of their day, and have had to wait for future generations to fathom their thought and appreciate their philosophy. So these unselfish men nobly did all they could to help humanity and save the world, and the value of their valor and toil is appearing more and more as the years come and go. There is said to be in Italy a cave where a single whisper is taken up and gathers in the passes in volume and power until it sounds like a mighty army responding in cheers. In the Alps a single peal of thunder reverberates from cliff to crag until it would seem that all heaven's artillery is unlimbered there. So the Lord, through human agency, has taken up the work of these men and is carrying it on toward a glorious completion. But that mighty unfolding of which it is capable is not yet ended. It has only begun. Yet in our onward march into the future we have reached and passed our allotted three score years and ten, the biblical limit of human life since its post-diluvian reduction. We have left our swaddling clothes behind, passed out of our childhood, through our youth toward maturer years. But Churches and Conferences, unless attacked by some deadly disease in their vital parts, live longer than individuals. Our Conference, then, though more than an octogenarian, is still a youth. But it has reached the period of its dawning manhood, and should, therefore, be manly in its speech. With that grand age of the New Testament it ought to say, "When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child; but when I became a man I put away"—not child-like but "childish things." We have never, however, made the foolish speech of the negro whom Mr. Moody met down South in the early part of the civil war, concerning one of our noblest sects. Mr. Moody asked, "Is your master a Christian?" "No, sah," said Sambo, "he's a Presbyterian." "But are you a Christian?" "Yes, sah, I'se a Methodist." Such bigotry is unpardonable. Yet we are sometimes caught talking of ourselves as though Christianity was born with us, if it is not the exclusive heritage of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Shall we be vainly boastful? God forbid. Yet we are only moderately modest. What is in store for us the future will reveal. If we can keep alive the spirit that animated and actuated the fathers, there is a wonderful future before us. Let us never forget that Methodism came as God's pure evangel to spread primitive religious simplicity and scriptural holiness over this land and all other lands. We have ever claimed that Methodism is New Testament Christianity. It is apostolic and Christ like. I do not say this is not true of the other evangelical Churches. It is; but I am not talking of them now. Rev. M. D. Hawes once preached the funeral sermon of a woman whose husband expressed himself as displeased with it. "What is the matter with you?" asked the pastor. "Why," said the man, "you never said one word about me." "Well," said Hawes, "I wasn't preaching your funeral." But lest that figure should be made to go on all fours and prove too much, I will say that I am not preaching the funeral of any of the noble churches, the Methodist Church included. If we are a corpse, we are still very much alive, and our life is the life of Christ. Our power is the power of Christ; our doctrines the doctrines of Christ; our spirit the spirit of Christ; and our all-absorbing theme the complete and universal salvation of Christ. We still stand by the Bible of Christ and the Christ of the Bible, despite the "higher critics," and the highest or lowest infidels.

I may speak a further word for the present and future. Our mission is to the masses. On its human side, our Church is like our government—of the people, for the people and by the people. As such it shall not perish from the earth. In other days when limited grace and restricted atonement were taught, Methodism proclaimed a free salvation, without money and without price; a conscious salvation, with its inward witness; a full salvation, bringing pardon for every sin and cleansing from every stain; a universal salvation, offered to every man and woman and child of the race; and a working salvation, showing like James, its faith by its works, and proving its right to live by its ability to cause things to come to pass. When we cease to be the evangel for all classes, the poor as well as the rich, our days will begin to be numbered.

We must continue to be a progressive Church. If not in advance, we have always kept abreast of the times. We presented a solid and impregnable front against the encroachments of African slavery, and were in the van of that noble march that drove it from our shores. We stood by the red man in his unequal struggle for his rights. We have caused many deadly blows to descend on the head of the slimy Mormon serpent, and we join hands with all other good people in trying to forever close the doors of Congress against polygamous representatives of that abomination. We are uncompromising in our battle with the cunning, coiling worm of the still, and we shall never declare an armistice with that armed and hostile power until the last brewery and the last distillery and the last saloon shall be trampled out of existence under the feet of an indignant American people and an aroused Christian sentiment that is all but omnipotent. Our Church, having been born in a college, and our founder under God being a classical scholar, we have ever been the friend of education. Thus we have many colleges and universities scattered all over the land, climaxing the whole with that magnificent university at Washington, thus helping to make knowledge as free as air. We have honored womanhood by giving her equal and undoubted devotional rights, and we have honored ourselves as well by making her eligible to membership in our general and governing Conference. We believe she was taken, not from man's head, to show that she was to lord it over him, or from his foot, to indicate that she was to be trampled under, but from his side, to prove that in domestic, social, religious and even political privileges, God meant her to stand, walk and act there as his honorable equal in all lands and ages. If we can continue to adapt ourselves to the necessities of inevitable material change we shall continue to live and prosper, and remain denominationally intact. If we can not do so, we must take the consequences, and in time pass away.

We must not, however, attach undue importance to our Church polity. Methodism is not a slave to methods, but instrumentalities of some sort are essential. Yet we must avoid the form without the power of godliness. A Baptist preacher once complained to a witty Methodist preacher that he did not like our machinery because it was too complicated. "That may be," said the latter, "but one thing is sure, and that is, that it does not take near so much water to run it as it does yours." Yet it does take power—Holy Ghost power, climaxing all other power. Our machinery is not perfect, but it enabled us all through our history to turn away with great and blessed results which we could not have attained without it. Keep it ever before you that we must observe the spirit rather than the letter of the law. "The letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life."

Especially must we keep the evangelistic fires burning on our altars. The spirit of revival was our native air, and it is our vital breath. We were born in the greatest revival of modern times. We were nourished on revivals in our early life, and have grown large and strong because we were fed on them in our later years. Wesley and Whitefield, revivalists, shook two hemispheres, and set the world on fire. That reformed reformation, the revival of primitive Christianity, was the genesis of evangelical religion in England and on the European continent. Then the revival wave swept across the Atlantic and a tide of power rolled over this land from the East to the West. There have been recurrences of these visitations since that time, when the gospel was invested with a kind of almightiness, especially in 1858, when God seemed to be preparing this land by a baptism of fire for the baptism of blood soon to follow.

If the time ever comes when the revival fires burn low on our altars and die down, our life will go out with them. We still have a great work to do, and like the Master, we must be about the Father's business. Life in this vast age is the greatest drama God ever enacted. America is the greatest theater of action God ever created. Today is father of tomorrow. We make the present, and hence are responsible for the future. Here will resound the clash, not of arms, but of sentiments and ideas. The Methodist Episcopal Church is our medium of operation. If in this old Illinois Conference we measure up to the demands of the hour, we shall be a potent factor in helping to make the nation free in the best sense, and to give it perpetuity. In this we shall also aid in extending our Christian civilization around the world, Americanizing the nations, and our own happy millions, not for 131 years only, or 1,000 years, but for 10,000 years shall dwell in peace and safety beneath the flag of our country and the cross of Calvary.

Rules of the Board

With Plan of Examination for 1908-1909.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the Chairman and Registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the Chairman. They shall be in charge of District Examiners designated by the Chairman, or, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the Chairman shall arrange with a member of the Conference as Special Examiner for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed Examiner, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

Each undergraduate shall before the day of examination, notify the Examiner before whom he is to appear, so that questions will be certain to be on hand for his use.

Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the Board. No other grades will be given until Conference.

5. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter, to any one of the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

8. No syllabus or book Review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period.

I hereby certify that I have given the book

(Signed)

These certificates will be forwarded by the District Examiners to the Registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in the Methodist Review.

9. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the Chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. These credits must be on a scale of 100.

10. The Examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board duplicate copies of all sets of questions to be used in examination two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the Chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the Chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time, with the District Examiners for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expense of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Examiners are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the Chairman; and the financial accounts of the Chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information, concerning the candidates obtainable, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. To facilitate the work of the board in this matter the names of all such candidates and applicants shall be reported to the Chairman as early in the year as possible, that he may have ample time to make all necessary investigations.

14. It shall be the duty of the Presiding Elders to report to the chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of and on the day before the session of the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., to examine any who have not been examined during the year, to consider the matters involved in Rule 13, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the year to come.

"Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at the Conference of 1909 upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively.

IV Reports

A. District Superintendents

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

Bloomington District, consisting of twenty-seven charges, has been ably served during the year by twenty-five regular pastors, one superannuate and one supply. The men entered promptly and cheerfully into their work after conference, and the summing up of the year's labors show decided gains in many, and we trust, in all lines of work.

There were increases in pastor's salaries to the amount of $650, all of which, we believe, are paid in full. Improvements to the amount of $6,000 have been made on the churches and $2,500 on the parsonages. At Weldon a beautiful and commodious new church, which has been rebuilt at a cost of about $4,500, was dedicated on the 10th day of November, and on the last Sunday in December the new institutional department of the church at Leroy, which had cost over $5,000, was dedicated. A new parsonage costing $2,500, is in course of erection at Arrowsmith and will be ready for the pastor and family soon after conference. Bloomington District now has splendid parsonages and churches and is fully equipped to do aggressive spiritual work.

Each year shows a marked development among the people in regard to their missionary and benevolent intelligence. The result is increased giving. While this has been the hardest year to raise finances of any since I have been on the district, I am sure from the reports I have from the preachers we will meet most of our obligations in full. There is an increase of over $800 reported for missions.

In spiritual lines this has been the banner year. Nearly every charge was blessed with a sweeping revival. The great Sunday meetings held in Bloomington permeated the entire district. As a visible result we note the following:

Number of conversions, 2,130; number received on probation, 1,703; number received from probation to date, 1,278; number received by letter, 875. One of the most encouraging features of the religious work is the interest manifested by the men. In many places where we had few or no men at all in our services, we now have strong men's classes and greatly strengthened official boards. As a result of the above spiritual awakening the Sunday Schools, Leagues, and Benevolent Societies of the churches have been materially strengthened and are in good condition.

Upon the resignation of Dr. F. G. Barnes as President of the Illinois Wesleyan, Rev. Theodore Kemp, D.D., pastor of Grace M.E. Church, Bloomington, was chosen to fill that position. The selection of Dr. Kemp seems to have given universal satisfaction, both to the people of Bloomington and the patronizing conferences. The Grace Church quarterly conference released Brother Kemp from his duties of the pastorate and he entered upon his duties as President July 1st.

The prospects for the Wesleyan were never brighter. When $20,000 more have been raised on the endowment fund it will secure the Carnegie gift and will make about $200,000 endowment for the institution. We believe under the superior management of Brother Kemp the above amount will be speedily raised. The present enrollment promises to be the largest for many years. We hope all the Methodists of this conference will send their young people to the Illinois Wesleyan.

Soon after conference death came to the parsonage of Brother and Sister J. T. Stretton, at San Jose, and took their beautiful young daughter, Ruth, from their home. In January Sister Hecox, widow of C. Y. Hecox, was called to her reward, and on August 4th we buried Sister Hewes, widow of our late lamented M. A. Hewes, of this conference.

Blest among us are the lives of our two superannuate ministers, Rev. James Shaw and Rev. W. C. Lacy, with their wives. Each is an impressive example of how to grow old beautifully. Their presence is a benediction in the communities where they reside.

I desire to express my heartfelt appreciation, for the preachers, the officials and members within the bounds of the Bloomington District. Harmony has prevailed on all the charges, the pastors and people have labored together in love, and God has marvelously blest their efforts. My personal relations with both pastors and people have been of the most pleasant nature, and I wish it were possible to give every charge a better preacher and every preacher a better charge.

With gratitude to God and thankfulness to those with whom we have labored in the Master's Kingdom. J. B. HORNEY.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT.

To Bishop Berry and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference—Dear Bishop and Brethren:

An epitome of the year's work on the Champaign District is hereby respectfully submitted:

Nine thousand four hundred members, an increase of 1,200 members; thirty-two pastoral charges, and as many pastors; six local preachers, three supernumerary and nine superannuate constitute the District contingent. With but one exception all of the charges have been served during the year by pastors appointed by Bishop McDowell. Thomasboro was left to be supplied, and a regular supply could not be secured until July last, since which time C. R. Booth, a Wesleyan student, has been serving the charge. R. E. Pierce, pastor at Ogden, was compelled, on account of ill-health, to give up his charge July 1st. J. O. Lehman, member of our conference and student at Evanston, was secured to fill out the year. Rev. J. T. Orr, of Paxton, a most worthy and beloved member of this conference, and one of the honored "Old Guard," passed from labor to reward March 7, last. His genial presence, his efficient work and able and wise counsel are greatly missed by the church at Paxton. A complete memorial will be read at the conference memorial service. Alice Chapel, an abandoned society formerly on the Philo charge, has been revived during the year by Pastor Minney and the fourth quarterly conference restored it to the plan of the work. These are all the changes in the personnel and geography of the district during the year.

Evangelism.

Nearly every pastor held special revival services. Marked results were secured at Cisco, Mahomet, Fithian, Mansfield, Ogden, Fisher, St. Joseph, Sidney, Ivesdale, Monticello and Deland. Evangelist Fred L. Buck assisted at Mahomet and also conducted the tent campaign through the summer months, holding meetings at Thomasboro, Lindsey Chapel and Deland. Evangelist Ross was at Ivesdale with Pastor Smith and Captains Ruth and Helmquist, of the Salvation Army, were with our churches at Fithian and Ogden. At Monticello Evangelist Pledger, Mr. Sunday's assistant, conducted a tabernacle meeting during July, which resulted in one thousand professions. About 300 united with our church at Monticello and seventy-five with our churches contiguous. Monticello was aroused as perhaps never before, and the religion of Christ was placed upon a more popular footing. In all 2,150 conversions have been reported to me from the several charges in the district, and an increase in church membership of 1,281.

Men's Movement.

Fifteen Methodist Brotherhoods have been organized, all but four during the present year. On June 14, upon invitation of the Brotherhood at St. Joseph a district meeting was held and initial steps for the organization of a District Brotherhood were taken. This movement will be perfected at the time and place of the District Stewards and Preachers' meeting in October. Rev. A. M. Wells was elected District President.

Church Building and Improvements.

A new church, costing in excess of $4,000, the cost of which is all provided for, is in process of construction at Mayview on the St. Joseph charge. This is one of a series of victories won by Pastor Wells. Improvements on churches and parsonages have been made at an expenditure of $12,300.

Benevolences.

The financial panic of last November, the unfavorable and uncertain crop conditions of the spring and early summer, and the national political campaign combined to make this feature of the pastor's work exceedingly difficult, especially where pastors failed to take collections early in the conference year. We have labored to hold the work steady under the trying conditions, not at any time conceding any obstacle too difficult to be overcome, so that there might be no falling away in this critical time. I believe that the reports will indicate that these causes have held up well. Foreign missions, home missions and church extension aggregate $8,000; other benevolences, $3,657, an increase of $1,579; other collections, $5,051, an increase of $3,183, and a total of $16,738.

Pastoral Support.

There was a net increase of $1,870 in claims allowed for pastor's support, all of which, including bishop's and conference claimants, will be met in full, I believe.

Orphanage.

The Cunningham Orphanage has had a busy year. Seventy-five children have been cared for, thirty-four of whom are now in the home, the youngest being sixteen months old and the oldest fourteen years. The average age of boys is six years and that of the girls is seven. A kindergarten and school are conducted. The great need of the home now is more room, and furnishings of bed and house linen, dishes, etc.

Auxillaries.

Work in the Epworth League is being systematized and becoming more practical and definite. The District League supports Eleric Williams, missionary at Chen Tu, China. Commendable improvements are noticeable in the Sunday Schools. Interest is growing in men's Bible classes and in general class organization and graded schools.

Local Option.

The campaign of last spring resulted in extending the liquor drouth in Illinois into every large town in the district. Only two wet spots in small places remain. The greatest interest centered at Urbana and Champaign, seat of the University of Illinois. The temperance forces of the Twin Cities united and succeeded in keeping these towns dry. A campaign of law enforcement in which ex-saloonkeepers of both towns were finally apprehended, indicted and convicted for violations of the city ordinances, convinced these law-defiers that prohibition prohibited. Several hundreds of dollars in fines were assessed and collected and a few served jail sentences. The Law Enforcement Leagues of the Twin Cities propose to make it uncomfortable and unprofitable for violators of the law. The county and precinct and search and seizure features which it is hoped will be incorporated in the State local option law by the next legislature, will enable us to clean up the district and add another big white patch to the map of Illinois. Our battle is only begun. To go to sleep now at our post would be the rankest treason. This is the psychological hour! As Brutus well said to Cassius:

"Our legions are brimfull, our cause is ripe;
The enemy increaseth every day;
There is a tide in the affairs of men,
Which, taken at the flood, leads on to fortune;
Omitted, all the voyage of their life,
Is bound in shallows and in miseries.
On such a full sea are we now afloat;
And we must take the current when it serves,
Or lose our ventures."

Brethren, let us go to our charges next week with the determination in every proper way to aid in the election of a legislature that will place the standard higher and a congress that will incorporate in a national law safe-guards of the people's will in dry territory.

C. B. TAYLOR.

DANVILLE DISTRICT.

Bishop J. F. Berry, D. D., and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

Danville District has passed the year without a single break in the services of the thirty-nine charges. There have been a number of changes in the personnel of the pastorate of the district. Early in January Rev. E. A. Hamilton, who was serving the Newman charge in the fifth year of his pastorate, asked to be relieved from further serving the charge, which was granted him and he at once left the community. Later he surrendered his credentials and withdrew from the ministry and membership of the church.

Rev. C. W. Caseley was taken from the Hume charge and placed in charge of Newman, where, under the most trying conditions that could exist, he has patiently and quietly toiled and watched over the interests of that charge until again harmony and peace prevail. To fill the place made vacant by Rev. Caseley's removal, Rev. J. M. Judy was taken from Georgetown and placed at Hume and Rev. E. S. Vorbeck was transferred by Bishop Cranston from the Missouri Conference and appointed to Georgetown.

In March Bishop McDowell transferred Rev. J. E. Scheer, stationed at Villa Grove, and appointed him to a charge in the Kansas Conference, and at the same time transferred Rev. C. E. Taylor from the Kansas Conference and appointed him to the Villa Grove charge in the Illinois Conference. Rev. William Reynolds, who was appointed as a supply on the Collison work, left in the early summer and Rev. C. W. Hamand, who had just returned from the Boston School of Theology, was placed in charge of the work. He will be here for admission to the conference at this session. In all of these changes not one single service was lost from any of these churches.

The work of the year has been faithfully done by the pastors and, save in the one single case, peace and harmony have prevailed. The health of the pastors and their families have been markedly preserved; no serious illness has taken place in any of the parsonage homes and death has not been permitted to enter therein.

Revivals.

Revivals were held in all the charges, mostly conducted by the pastors, and visible results of the year's work bring out these facts. There has been 630 conversions; 600 received on probation; 600 received from probation into full connection, which will make a gain over last year in the membership of the church.

On the financial lines the District will show the largest reports of her history given for all purposes. The collections for the regular benevolences will be in advance of last year.

Our Field Secretary, Rev. Robert Stevens, has found the District a very fruitful field to cultivate for the Preachers' Aid Society and the Conference Claimant Fund. His report will show the neat sum in cash, notes, wills and bequests of $13,100. In addition to these gifts, a plain farmer stepped into the First National Bank and asked for a draft for $10,000, which was sent to Homer Eaton at New York for the missionary treasury of our church. It is but just that on that sum he draws a small annuity during his life.

At the beginning of the conference year the good people of Chrisman with their life-long pastor, Rev. R. Y. Williams, dedicated a new and beautiful building costing $20,000. It is one of the most complete and modern church buildings in the conference and reflects great credit on the pastor and his people.

At Hume, under the leadership of Pastor J. M. Judy, a new church enterprise is under way of completion. The old building was sold and contracts have been let for a new and modern brick building that will cost when completed $15,000.

At the Vermilion Heights charge they will have ready for the new pastor a beautiful parsonage of eight rooms, with all modern conveniences. It will cost when completed $2,500. That heroic people will undertake any enterprise that tends for the good and advance of the church work.

Sunday School and Epworth League work has been carefully looked after and some marked improvement is taking place in these departments of the church's activities. We believe better teaching is being done in Sunday Schools and a larger and better spiritual life is taking hold of the young people in the League work.

Salaries.

There was an increase in the apportionment allowed for salaries of $515 over last year and save in a very few cases, the amounts will all be paid. We have tried hard not to have a single dollar of deficiency, but we fear that there will be some small deficits.

In common with all the rest of the conference and the State, the pastors and people entered the fight for the success of the local option law and to protect the home and save the men and boys. We succeeded in driving the saloon from the territory of the Danville District, save in the city of Danville, which, of course, is the stronghold of this iniquity in that region. There the representatives of the brewers came with hand-bags bulging out with money to buy the purchasable voter, and the bought them by the hundred with the aid of the corrupt politician who wants the saloon retained for political purposes. But defeat only nerved us for a stronger and harder battle and the forces that make for righteousness will never surrender or quit the field until victory is ours; for and that glad day will come in the not distant future.

"Since God is God, and right is right, And right the day must win,"

Aside from the gloom caused by the fall of the one man, the year's work has been pleasant and profitable to both pastors and people and we believe much good has been done for the Master's cause.

To myself, pastors and people have been uniformly kind and helpful and our relations have been delightful. I owe much to the faithful pastors, for which I pray the richest of Heaven's blessings upon them and theirs.

S. H. WHITLOCK.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

Bishop Berry and Brethren:

I submit this, my third annual report of the Decatur District to this Conference with no small measure of gratitude and not without pleasure, for the year has been strewn with mercies, crowned with blessings and great in achievement.

Through the year the "Grim Reaper" has not entered a parsonage home in the district, nor has sickness found a place there, save in its mildest form. Even among the supernuates good health has obtained, and to those who perhaps are nearest God's "well done" the year has been rich in blessing and they have grown in meetness for the Kingdom Eternal.

Because of these conditions, the effective men have been able to render the church a full measure of service, and such service has been accompanied by zeal and devotion that becometh those who are engaged in the King's business. The pastors have co-operated heartily in every project for the incoming of the Kingdom, and every enterprise launched, that maketh for righteousness has been loyally sustained by the laity.

In a substantial advance in salaries our people are expressing a higher appreciation of the faithful and consecrated labors of our pastors. In the estimates of pastor's salaries there has been an increase of $1,500. Including the extra amount, incident to the division of the former Decatur Circuit, the aggregate of the advance exceeds $2,100. The statistics will show few deficiencies on these estimates.

Through the bounds of the district great triumphs have been achieved for the cause of temperance. When the smoke of the battle had lifted it was found that the whole district was anti-saloon territory, save a very small strip at the southern end, just sufficient to include the adjacent towns of Witt and Nokomis. In this battle our pastors and people were at the forefront. No others fought more bravely than our pastors or in the conflict displayed greater heroism and daring. In them the saloon has, indeed, found "an unsparing no-quarter enemy."

While from the material side the advance has not been so marked as the two previous years, good progress has been made. On Nov. 21, 1907, the remodelled church at Rosemond was formally reopened. The $2,300 expended thereon has made it practically new. On Dec. 29, 1907, the beautiful new church at Moweagua was dedicated. This structure was erected at a cost of $23,000. It is commodious and convenient, conforming in style to the latest in ecclesiastical architecture, insuring attractiveness and durability. On June 21, a new church, costing $11,000, was dedicated at Oconee. Here also richness, convenience and beauty are combined with durability. In the success of these enterprises the pastors' toil and enthusiasm were important factors. On the cost of these buildings the small amount remaining unpaid is amply provided for by valid subscriptions. At Harristown improvements have been made on our property reaching in cost fully $1,500, while extensive improvements have been made at Owaneeco and Blue Mound, and the contract has been let for the remodelling of the parsonage at Illiopolis. The reports will reveal a large reduction of indebtedness for recent building and improvements, and many obligations assumed for these purposes fully discharged.

From a few charges reports on the benevolences have failed to reach me, but from the data at hand we are warranted to believe, through the faithfulness of the pastors and the loyalty of the people, in spite of the financial depression and unfavorable crop conditions, there will be no falling off in our regular contributions for these causes, but rather an advance.

As we believe it should be, our greatest achievement has been in our evangelistic endeavor. Few are the charges in which a successful revival has not been held and few are the pastors who have not experienced the joy of soul-winning. At Decatur, the metropolis of the district, where Mr. W. A. Sunday aided in a union meeting, the revival fires burned the more brightly. From these the fire swept almost through the district, until, by a conservative estimate, our share of the converts to which we may rightfully lay claim, are not fewer than 3,500, and the number received into the church in full membership will approach 2,500.

The year has been one of advance in Sunday School and Epworth League work. There are more adults enrolled in the Sunday School than ever before. Our teaching force is more capable and the work is prosecuted with greater efficiency. Few of the chapters of the Epworth League fail to sustain classes either in Bible or Mission studies. In the Junior work some advance has been made.

In the mission work represented by the Woman's Missionary Societies the year has not been barren of results. The reports of these organizations will show a year of faithful service and a healthful growth.

The district sustains a great loss in the departure of two of its foremost leaders, Dr. W. H. Wilder, of Pana, and Dr. W. J. Davidson, of First Church, Decatur, the entire ministerial career of both having been in this Conference. The former goes to Washington, D. C., to assume the presidency of the National Training School for Missionaries and Deaconesses and the latter to Lincoln, Nebraska, to the chancellorship of the Nebraska Wesleyan University. We part with them regretfully and assure them they have a large interest in our prayers that God's blessing may attend them in their new fields of labor.

My associations with the pastors and their families have been most cordial. They have been very forebearing and considerate. To the faithful and earnest toil of the pastors, and the hearty and loyal support of the laity, under the blessing of God, we attribute any measure of success that may have attended our united endeavor.

B. F. SHIPP.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

To Bishop Joseph F. Berry and the Members of the Illinois Annual Conference, Greeting:

Dear Fathers and Brethren: Profoundly grateful to God for His great goodness to me, and appreciating the hearty co-operation of pastors and people throughout this conference year, I hereby submit my sixth annual report of the Jacksonville District:

One year ago twenty-six men received their appointment from Bishop W. F. McDowell, and they have kept steady step and unbroken rank until this day, with one exception. In the month of June, Rev. A. V. Babbs, of Petersburg, and Rev. William L. Holly, of Council Bluffs, Iowa, mutually desired to exchange, and the consent of the authorities being secured, it was effected, and the Bishop will doubtless announce the transfers at this session of our Conference.

The spiritual harvest, though not as abundant as desired, gives reason for thanksgiving to God. Revivals have been held in almost every charge, with more or less visible results. There has been a total of six hundred and seventeen conversions reported.

Educational.

The Illinois Woman's College halts not in its onward march, having reached the dignity of a full college, offering courses leading to regular college degrees, this school is attracting wide recognition, and students, who crowd the institution to the very doors, come this year from Florida, in the South, to British America, in the North. President Harker knows not how to rest on his laurels, but in order to meet the opportunities before his beloved school, confidently asks the public for a half million dollars, half of which shall be endowment and half expended on new buildings and apparatus. To him faith is a reality, "the substance of things hoped for," real in his dreams and in due time appearing as real to the general public. Early in the Conference year Rev. T. H. Tull found it necessary, on account of his pastoral work, to resign his position as District President of the Epworth League, and Mr. Frank L. Draper, a layman, of Kilbourne, was appointed to fill the vacancy. He has proved a very energetic, efficient leader, and at the last convention was unanimously elected for the coming conference year. The State Epworth League Chautauqua at Havana was a great success this year and promises to be a mighty power for God and Methodism in this great Commonwealth of Illinois.

The Benevolences.

In view of adverse conditions of weather and of general business I was prepared to find a slight deficiency this year in the benevolences; but it now appears that the pastors have overcome these obstacles, and that there will be an increase over last year. This applies to the regular offerings. Last year, Sister McFadden, of Havana, left in her will one thousand dollars to the Woman's Foreign Missionary Society, and we have received no such gift this year. An elect lady, of Greenfield, who recently went to her crown, left in her will one-third of her estate to the Missionary Society of our church, and this gift will mean ten thousand dollars for missions, but the estate was not settled in time for this amount to be counted on this year's benevolences.

Material Improvements.

There has been a goodly amount expended in improving churches and parsonages. The most extensive improvements have been made on Centenary church, in Jacksonville. This historic church has been beautified, externally and internally, at a cost of $7,600, and is practically a new building. The auditorium has few, if any, superiors in the conference. Rev. Merle N. English, the pastor, deserves great credit for the skill and energy with which he has pushed this enterprise. Doctor Parr was present August 30th, when the church was re-dedicated, preaching and managing the finances with great acceptability. Pastor T. Lee Knotts is building a fine, modern church at Middletown, which will cost $12,000. It will be ready for dedication early in the new Conference year. Rev. W. T. Evans has begun the building of a new church at Walker's Grove, on the Easton Circuit, which will give our people their own church home, having heretofore worshipped in a Baptist Church. The church will cost $2,000. We have the following report of amounts expended on the improvement of church and parsonage property: Ashland, $100; Franklin, $400; Middletown, $20;

Athens, $40; Greenfield, $40; Oakford, $80; Waverly Circuit, $200; Island Grove, $380; Virginia, $225; Bath, $124; Easton, $30; Rock Bridge, $500; Waverly, $45; Grace Church, Jacksonville, $139; Jacksonville Circuit, $500; Literberry Circuit, $200; Topeka, $150; Centenary, Jacksonville, $7,600; Pleasant Plains, $225; Brooklyn, Jacksonville, $50; Palmyra, $400 and Chandlerville, $170, making a total of $11,660.

Members of the Old Guard.

Brother R. P. Droke lives in Waverly, and I am glad to report that his health has been slightly improved of late. He manifests a deep interest in the work of the church, local and general, and is a valued friend of the pastor. The Rev. Archibald Sloan resides in Ashland, and although not in robust health, yet is faithful in attendance to church duties and enjoys the universal respect of the church and community. Dr. William McHenry McElfresh is in rather feeble health, but keeps in sympathetic touch with all matters Methodistic, and is the same kind, courteous brother of the olden time. Dr. W. F. Short has wrestled with "the gripe" last winter and slowly recovered from its clutches, but is now in his usual health.

Salaries and Health of the Workmen.

There has been quite a fine advance in the salaries of the preachers this year. Palmyra has advanced $100; Petersburg, $60; Middletown, $100; Ashland, $50; Oakford, $350; Grace, Jacksonville, $400; Literberry Circuit, $100; Franklin, $50; Rock Bridge, $100; Chandlerville, $50. This gives a total of $1,360. There has been no fatal, and very little serious, sickness in any parsonage home.

Personal.

This is my final report. In order that I may not seem to compare myself with my honored predecessor, but with myself, I will compare the work at the end of my first year on the district, with the work today. In 1903, the full membership of the district was 5,505. Now it is nearly 6,000. Church property was then valued at $238,900; now about the same. The parsonages were then valued at $44,900; now, $51,500. There was given to missions, then, $2,971; now, nearly $4,000. Total benevolences, then, $9,464; last year the total was $25,000. It should, however, be stated that last year $12,000 of this amount was raised for the Woman's College. This would leave a balance of $13,000 for benevolences, which is a handsome advance. Then there was raised for pastoral support $24,570; now, $27,090. This showing is not fully satisfactory, but we thank God and take courage. Whatever has been achieved has been due under the blessing of God to the faithful, self-sacrificing labors of the pastors and the cooperation of the laity. They have made it possible, God bless them all. Recognizing the individuality of the pastors, and that no iron-clad rule can be made to work everywhere, I have allowed the largest freedom of action on their part consistent with the solidarity of Methodism. I believe that I have never avoided any leadership or responsibility inhering in the delicate and responsible functions of the office. I have never, intentionally, told a pastor anything that would give him needless trouble or withheld a word that would cheer his heart and strengthen his arm. As God knows my heart, I have never, intentionally, wronged a brother minister. Sweet and sacred have been my associations with the pastors and their families of the district. As a cherished treasure, I will ever enshrine these memories in my heart. Only two pastors who entered upon the term with me remain in the district, Brothers T. L. Knotts and A. H. Flagge. Conscious of much infirmity, and far from perfect service, I leave it all, in my Heavenly Father's keeping, and to the considerate judgment of my brethren.

GEORGE E. SCRIMGER.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

Bishop Berry and Members of the Illinois Conference:

We submit this our third annual report, with thanksgiving to God for His grace and guidance during the year:

Changes Among Ministers.

At the close of the second quarter J. S. Tull, of Casey, was released from his charge on account of poor health. He is now on a farm in Ohio. A. L. Caseley, of Grace Church, Quincy, was appointed to fill out the year. J. G. Bell, of Etna, was released in March and has since joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, and W. L. Ewing was appointed to fill out the year. In December J. W. Richards, of Oakland, a graduate of the Boston School of Theology, withdrew from the ministry and membership of our church. F. B. Ward, a graduate of the Boston School of Theology and member of the Indiana Conference, was appointed to that charge. J. F. Sapp, who was supplying West Union, surrendered his work in March and D. H. Munson filled out the year. E. B. Houck has supplied a part of the Windsor Circuit the last half of the year and W. H. McLane has served as junior pastor of Findly Circuit the last quarter.

Revivals.

A spirit of evangelism has prevailed throughout the district. Several sweeping revivals have brought multitudes into the Kingdom. The great awakening at Charleston, under the leadership of the peerless Rev. W. A. Sunday, reached several thousand souls for Christ and brought many hundreds into the church. Our church at Charleston more than doubled its membership. This is due largely to the untiring work of Pastor Walter Aitken. At Toledo over two hundred were saved and our church greatly strengthened. At Paris a new church has been born out of the blessed work done in the north part of that city. In both of these places E. K. Towle, our pastor at Arcola, led the forces of righteousness. At Findly a wide-spread revival brought practically every unsaved man in the town into the Kingdom and more than doubled our church in Findly and the surrounding country. At Kansas Pastor Edgar has won blessed victories at both points on his work. At Mattoon a continuous revival is on. For two years without a break in the chain there have been accessions every Sabbath. The numbers joining on probation and by certificate ranging from two to thirty-five. This church leads the conference in the size and average attendance of its Sunday School. In many other charges the revival spirit has been strong. We shall report an increase in membership greatly in excess of last year, reaching about 1,500. We have fought the saloon out of the Mattoon District except a little village of Seigel. It would have been a complete victory but for the fact that the Shelby County Committee became so completely involved in the fight at Shelbyville that they overlooked this little foreign village.

Pastoral Support.

Seventeen of the forty charges advanced on the salaries over last year, giving a total of $2,512 in excess of the preceding year, and nine of the charges have already advanced for the coming year. With intelligent, systematic giving our church could easily provide an abundant support for the ministry.

Material Improvements.

A new parsonage, modern in every respect and costing $2,000, has been completed at Hindsboro. It is on an excellent location and has abundant room adjoining for the new church soon to be erected. The Ladies' Aid at Mattoon have expended over $800 in remodeling and beautifying the fine parsonage property. At Marshall the old church has been demolished and a handsome stone structure with every modern equipment is being constructed. It will cost close to $25,000 and will be ready for dedication about January. The old parsonage is no more and a fine new building worth $3,500 has been erected on a new location. Pastor Pletcher is certainly making a clean sweep. A new church has been erected six miles southwest of Lakewood. It is known by the name of Mt. Olive and cost about $1,600. Pastor Crane led in this enterprise. This church will be a great blessing to the community. Pastor Hull, of the Paris Circuit, has been extremely busy. Soon after conference North Arm was reopened, after expending about $2,500 in an addition and improvements. In December New Hope Church was reopened after putting about the same amount on additions and improvements. In May a temporary tabernacle was erected in North Paris and the successful revival was held therein. At Oliver a new church is in the course of erection and will be dedicated soon after conference. It will cost about $3,000 and will be our first entrance into that section. The abandoned Presbyterian Church near Darwin was secured and moved into that place to take the place of our church that was destroyed by a cyclone two years ago. This is the third abandoned Presbyterian church we have rededicated since coming on the district. At Westfield the old parsonage was sold and a large and comfortable one purchased at a cost of $2,500. The abandoned Graham church near Allenville has been thoroughly overhauled and the class reorganized. At West Union we have organized a class and have secured the Friend's church for services. Evangelist Towle is now conducting a series of revival meetings there. The number of charges next year, if there is no change in the district, will be forty-three, an advance of eight during the last three years.

Heavenly Rewards.

After a ministry of fifty-five years and all spent in the bounds of the Illinois Conference, William R. Howard went peacefully and with confidence from his home in Shelbyville to his heavenly home. His pastor and son in the Gospel, Norton M. Rigg, had charge of the funeral service.

On Monday, July 27th, Winfred, the precious two and a half year old little son of Brother and Sister N. M. Rigg, of Shelbyville, slipped out of their arms into the Infinite arms there to be safely folded until the dear parents arrive home.

Memorial Hospital.

The Memorial Methodist Hospital made a strenuous effort to free itself of debt this year. Only a partial success was achieved, but the institution goes forward in its blessed mission of service. It is getting on a better footing and under the faithful and efficient superintendency of Miss Delphine Pearson is now recognized as one of the very best of the smaller hospitals.

District Evangelist.

Rev. E. K. Towle has felt impressed for several years that he should enter the evangelistic work. During the past year he has, in addition to looking after his own charge in every particular, conducted revival services with marked success at Toledo, Paris and Chicago. He asks the conference to appoint him conference evangelist and will give himself wholly to this work. He is now engaged in a tent campaign at West Union with a glorious outlook. He is already planning to hold meetings in Martinsville, Casey, Oakland, Marshall, Mattoon, Neoga and Lerna.

PARKER SHIELDS.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In making my first report as a District Superintendent, I find more facts worthy of mention than I can crowd into the narrow limits set to our reports by the Conference Trustees. However, I'll try and get most of them in.

I believe we have as good a set of preachers in the District as you can find in any District of the Conference. But they are serving the people for less money than they should receive.

There is a supposed inability to pay salaries with a margin in too many of the charges.

We believe that the preacher, like the merchant, the farmer, and others, should be given a margin for his services; thus giving him the same chance with others to save a little money against old age. I have tried hard to make the people see this. Alas, there are Stewards, as well as others, who seem to have no conscience when it comes to fixing preachers' salaries. Thank God, a number of the charges responded to our appeals, and the total increase in salaries over last year is $1,750. Our laymen must be made to see the righteousness of giving the preacher more than a bare existence; they must be willing to give him a margin as they want it for their own services.

In almost every charge there has been earnest, diligent and faithful service rendered by pastor and people. And they have not labored without results. A goodly number of souls have been saved, and many have entered into a richer Christian experience.

Astoria—Bro. W. L. Cunningham, a strong preacher and a good singer, brings up all the benevolences in full.

Astoria Circuit—Donald G. Vint, from a sister church, held several great revivals at different points, which resulted in over a hundred and fifty conversions. There is a more promising future for that field.

Augusta—Bro. Tharp has led the forces here for three years. They refreshed their church and have done much good work through their League.

Bowen—This well-organized charge has done exceedingly well. Pastor W. W. Drake is "making good" at this point. Large numbers of men wait on his ministry.

Camden—On this charge they dedicated a new church at Bethel.

Camp Point—Bro. Leo Howard finishes his fourth year in this fine charge. He has had the best revival of all the years.

Clayton and Timewell—Bro. Monson, another four-year man, has had another red-letter year.

Coatsburg—Bro. A. D. Potter, the singer and harpist, traveled over this scattered work. His labors have not been in vain.

Golden—Bro. C. M. Wilson closes two very successful years here. He is an indefatigable worker. He gives attention to details and it counts, as his full reports will show. His home was the only one in the District visited by the death-angel. On Nov. 11, 1907, we laid little Val David to rest. He is "Safe in the Arms of Jesus."

Huntsville and Brooklyn—Charles Liston, who has the elements of a successful Methodist preacher in him, has done a remarkable work among this people the past months.

LaPrairie—Oel D. Ross closed his third year on this charge. He has had a good year and brings up the benevolences to last year, notwithstanding heavy losses in his membership by deaths and removals.

Lima—Here Bro. J. C. Ewing has had a good year and they want more of him.

Littleton—Bro. F. E. Smith finishes his third year on this charge, and crowned his work by the dedication of a new $6,000 church. They also had a gracious revival.

Lorain—It was hard to do much needed work here because of the frequent quarantine, imposed for various contagious diseases. Yet Bro. Harry Willard will give a good account of himself. They reseeded and otherwise improved the church at Lorain; and paid off an indebtedness on Centennial.

Mendon—This point was left to be supplied. And Bros. Hayes and McKinney shared the vicissitudes of the place.

Mt. Sterling—The pastor, W. H. McGhee, early in the year, had to undergo a critical operation and was confined to the hospital for many weeks. But his people, with the help of Bro. M. S. McCoy, a worthy superannuate, and others, kept the work moving, so it has not suffered seriously.

Mt. Sterling Circuit—Bro. Heater had a meeting at Ripley in which twenty souls professed saving faith.

Paloma—This is one of the best circuits in the conference. C. S. Baughman has had charge of affairs for three years. The Paloma church was newly papered and carpeted, and all the properties are in good condition.

Payson—Walter Mitchell has had a good year here, and the people want more of his good preaching. A better light falls upon him and his people than when he went there. For this they are indebted to the Ladies' Aid Society.

Plymouth—Bro. G. W. Metzel has by his financiering and other excellent management made this little charge a desirable one.

Quincy, Vermont Street—This strong church has had three years of Dr. J. W. Miller's efficient pastoral services. He has been ably supplemented by Miss Webster, the deaconess. They had a gracious revival of nearly one hundred souls; and Dr. Miller has distinguished himself by extinguishing a long-standing debt. We hope to have the greatest religious awakening next February, when "Billy Sunday" comes to us.

Grace Church—Charles Rodman, appointed to take up the reins here, has done so well that they now have their own church, and all paid for except about $500.

Rushville—Pastor A. P. Stover finishes his third year in this historic church. They had a good revival. They frescoed the church and made it a thing of beauty. Some friend, not a member of the church, left them $1,000, which the Trustees have invested.

Rushville Circuit—It has had the pastoral oversight of Bro. Barringer for several years, and is doing well. During the year we dedicated a new church costing over $4,000, at Pleasant View. Souls have been saved at all points on the work.

Scott's Chapel—I was unable to supply this point and have transferred the membership to the Plymouth charge.

Stillwell and Chili—Bro. Shores has held sway here for two years. He still keeps his people at the head of liberal givers in the District.

Warsaw—Henry Wilson, an honored superannuate, has served this point with satisfaction.

West Point and Basco—Bro. Fred Reed closes two pleasant and profitable years there. He has been laborious, untiring and successful. New windows and a new carpet adorn the Basco church. All debts are paid.

Bro. M. M. Davidson continues to look after the spiritual interests of the old soldiers at the Soldiers' and Sailor's Home.

At the Chaddock Boys' School the eight deaconesses, under the leadership of Miss Eleanor Tobie, are doing some of the most wonderful work done under the skies. This is a first-class institution. The teachers understand boy's nature; and they know how to use his surplus energy to his and the school's advantage. Here discipline and orderliness are almost brought to perfection. Happy the boy who spends a few years under the moulding hand of these self-denying deaconesses.

Dr. W. T. Beadles has been the financial secretary of the school, and has done much to brush away some misunderstandings, as well as collect some money.

For health and strength to meet most of my Quarterly Conferences; for the uniform kindness and courtesies of the pastors and the people with whom I have labored; for the presence of Christ and His Spirit, whose I am and whom I serve, I am devoutly thankful to Almighty God. And I renew my vows of consecration, and humbly pray for more of His Spirit and for greater and better results for the coming year.

J. F. WOHLFARTH.

Summary.

We built three new churches, made improvements amounting to $9,847; paid off old indebtedness amounting to $6,937; increased the pastor's salaries over last year to the amount of $1,750; and witnessed the conversion of 649 souls. To God be all the glory.

J. F. WOHLFARTH.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

The District was never better organized or equipped than at the present time. It consists of thirty-eight appointments, eighteen stations and twenty circuits. One new church has been dedicated during the year, that at Mt. Pulaski, worth $9,000, the result of three years' of heroic and successful effort on the part of the pastor, H. B. Montgomery. The Quarterly Conference unanimously request his return for the fourth year.

At Buffalo, S. M. Vancleve, pastor, a splendid new church is assured. Over $10,000 is subscribed, the last $3,000 being secured in one day. Work will be begun as soon as practicable, and when completed Buffalo will have the best and most beautiful church on the interurban between Springfield and Decatur.

Salaries.

In the face of the panic last fall, twelve charges increased the pastor's salary, and none reduced it. The total increase is over $2,000, nearly all paid in full.

Improvements.

First Church, Springfield, was to have been re-opened the first Sunday of this conference year, after an expenditure of $4,360 in altering and refinishing the interior, when a disastrous fire destroyed all the work done and much more, inflicting a total loss of $15,000 and rendering the church unusable for nearly half the year.

Under great difficulties, in such a place of worship as could be secured, Dr. Masdan held the congregation together till the ruined edifice was restored, with alterations and improvements that make the glory of the latter house greater than of the former. The cost of these improvements will exceed $18,000.

The church at New City, M. V. Hill, pastor, has been modernized and beautified at an expense of $1,500.

Zion Church, on the Dawson charge, William Landis pastor, will be repaired and improved to the extent of $1,000 or more. Work will begin immediately after conference.

At Pawnes, W. W. Henry pastor, a debt of nearly $1,000 on the parsonage has been paid. The mortgage was burned at a quarterly meeting service and was not regarded by the District Superintendent as strange fire on our altars. The appreciative quarterly conference urgently request Brother Henry's return for the fourth year.

A new parsonage is being built at Farmerville, on the Waggoner Circuit, where we have never had a home for the preacher. This will make it a very desirable charge. H. C. Turner is the happy pastor, and will return at the request of his people.

Revivals.

Our four churches in Springfield united in a revival campaign during the month of February, with Hugh Smith of California, as evangelist. The meetings were held in the First Church and resulted in over two hundred conversions and in greatly quickening the life of the churches. Successful meetings were held also at Buffalo, Carlinville, Dawson, Kenney, Mechanicsburg and Mt. Auburn.

Perhaps the greatest meeting of the year has just closed at the New Salem appointment on Curran Circuit.

Benevolences.

When the panic fell on us last fall, I feared for the preacher's salaries, and especially for the benevolences, as the church finances were the first to feel the stringency.

This apprehension has been relieved so far as the salaries are concerned. They have not only been maintained, but some advance has been made. We are coming out also in benevolences better than I feared. There will be no falling off in the collections, though we shall miss the thousand dollar special gift of last year, and on that account our report will show a decrease, while in reality there is none.

In submitting this my sixth and last annual report a brief resume of the administration seems in order.

When I entered upon the work six years ago the District consisted of twenty-nine charges and the total membership was 7,400. Without enlarging the District there are now thirty-eight charges and the total membership is 8,500, an increase of 1,100, nothing to shout over, but in these days of decrying the church, we thank God it is not a decrease.

But, if the membership has not increased as we could desire, it has become more consecrated and spiritual, as the evidence herewith submitted attests.

The total amount raised for ministerial support the first year of my administration was $23,600. This year the same people practically are sustaining nine additional charges, and will contribute for ministerial support $31,500, an increase of nearly $8,000.

The amount raised for missions the year I took charge was $4,852, and this was an advance over any preceding year.

This increase has continued through five consecutive years, until last year we reached the high-water mark of $6,456, an increase of $1,604 over the first year.

This year, owing to the panic and failure of crops I fear there will be no advance, but we thank God there will be no retreat.

During the six years the following charges have dedicated new churches: Dawson, costing $9,000; Douglas Avenue, Springfield, $18,000; Laurel, $25,000; Mt. Pulaski, $9,000; Pawnee, $12,000; Thayer, $4,000, and Williamsville, $14,000.

The following charges remodeled and modernized their church buildings: Auburn, at an expense of $2,000; First Church, Springfield, $18,000; Girard, $2,000; Glenarm, $2,000 and Sharpsburg, $2,000.

Total increase in value of church property, $106,800.

New parsonages have been built as follows:

Buckhart cost $2,000, Mt. Auburn $2,200, Nilwood $1,000, Pawnee, $2,500. Riverton, $2,000; Sharpsburg, $2,200; First Church, Springfield, $8,000; Shiloh, $2,000; Taylorville, $4,000, and Wagoner, $2,000.

Total increase in value of parsonage property, $37,000.

Total increase in church and parsonage property, $143,800.

City Church Extension Society.

Last, but not least, I report the organization and incorporation of a City Church Extension Society in Springfield, the first of the kind, I believe, in the bounds of our Conference. Such an organization is absolutely necessary, as I conceive, to extend and build up Methodism in our rapidly growing city. It is composed of the most aggressive laymen in our four churches, and has a membership of over one hundred.

Its purpose is to abolish rivalry between our own churches by uniting them in a common effort to build up the denomination.

It will aim to acquire eligible sites in the rapidly-growing suburbs, and aid in the erection of new churches as they shall be needed. I believe my successor, who by virtue of his office will be President, will be enabled to develop this new enterprise into a powerful factor in promoting Methodism in the Capital City.

This resume of six years' work is submitted in no glorying or boastful spirit. It is not claimed that preachers or people have done their best. "Greater things shall ye do," has been the ever-alluring promise. But the things done are not to be despised, and "praise is comely," as we realize what God has wrought through our humble instrumentality.

The position of Superintendent of Springfield District is no sinecure. I have had as much hard work and exposure as I ever had on the large circuits in my youthful days, travelling overland fifteen to twenty miles and preaching three times on a Sunday.

But I am grateful to record that I have not missed a single appointment in the six years on account of sickness.

Roughing it always has agreed with me. But I am now ready to unpack my grip, settle down in a parsonage and lead a respectable life. I never want another district. I have had all the honor and experience of this kind I desire. I take leave of the work with the most kindly feelings toward preachers and people. I have tried to be helpful and impartial to both, and they have been charitable enough to give me credit for my purpose, where my performance had not met their expectations. Good wishes and kind words have made my last trip around the district a continuous benediction. I am glad to resume my place in the ranks, touch elbows with my brethren and march on to victory, superannuation and Heaven.

A. C. BYERLY.

WEST JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

Bishop Berry and Brethren of the Illinois Conference:

In obedience to the appointment of Bishop McDowell, assured of the grace of God and the cooperation of my brethren, I assumed the superintendency of the West Jacksonville District.

The year is spent; what has been done, is done; the record is made; the history is with God; for the mistakes we have regret, and a determination not to repeat them; for the measures of success, gratitude unto Him who giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

We have only to mention the name of our predecessor to assure you that everything connected with the Presiding Elder's office was in good shape; his name stands for advancement on all lines and points out the road to success for those who follow.

Owing to the limited number of large towns in the West Jacksonville District, we seldom have the privilege and honor of entertaining this body, and with unfeigned pleasure we extend the glad hand to the Presiding Bishop, members of the conference, visitors, both official and otherwise, Brother Buker and his loyal band of helpers will do all in their power to make your visit enjoyable, and may you find at its close the prediction of my predecessor true, "The half was never told."

From a temporal standpoint many of our people have literally passed through deep waters, early in the year; the rain descended and the floods came, covering the lowlands to such an extent that the farmers were unable to prepare the ground or plant, until seeding time had long passed. To communities entirely dependent upon agriculture, this condition is very embarrassing; as a matter of course, the church suffers with all other institutions, but such things bring out the strength, courage and self-sacrificing spirit of Christian men and women, and we gladly record that in only a few cases has the church suffered from distressing conditions. God bless such men and women!

The following places were left to be supplied after the adjournment of conference, viz.: Detroit, Lynnvile, Beverly and Riggston, all of which were in a short time manned with acceptable preachers, who entered into their work with ardour and enthusiasm, and come to this conference with splendid reports.

Some changes have taken place made necessary by the removal of pastors to other fields. Immediately after conference Rev. O. L. Overdeer was transferred to Indiana; Rev. N. R. Johnson was secured, and has filled the place very acceptably and brings up a fine report. Rev. Richard Pickles was appointed to Milton, preached one week and returned to the place from which he came. During the month of May Rev. W. L. Tyler suddenly left his charge for parts unknown. Rev. Roscoe Fairchilds was appointed to the place and finished the year's work to the delight of the people.

Death invaded one parsonage home, claiming the eight-year-old daughter of Brother and Sister J. L. Pickett. But they are comforted by the words of the Master, "For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven."

On July 17th Rev. J. W. Madison, who for fourteen years labored among us, passed to his reward peacefully. He was superannuated in 1896, since which time he has resided in Plainville, Illinois. He was a faithful, earnest Methodist preacher, and has gone to receive the reward of the faithful.

A very profitable and enthusiastic ministerial meeting was held at Murrayville in April, which was largely attended by the pastors and laymen of the district.

An Epworth League convention, held in Griggsville, was voted by unanimous consent a successful, inspiring occasion. Over 150 enrolled delegates were in attendance, besides many others from the surrounding country who did not register.

As a matter of course, all the preachers labored earnestly in special meetings for a revival in the church and the salvation of souls, and with gratitude to God we report a total of 800 souls converted to God. A glorious outpouring came upon the church at Beardstown, where 250 persons confessed saving faith in the Lord Jesus Christ. Brother Clark and his membership have carefully conserved the fruit of this meeting, which has wonderfully strengthened that people. Manchester had the best revival in its history. About one hundred souls were converted. While Pittsfield, Pleasant Hill, New Salem and Murrayville all had splendid revivals, and others, laboring just as faithfully, saw less visible results. But only the all-wise Father, who knoweth all things, and viewing the coming centuries, seeth the ultimate results, can estimate the value and far-reaching effect of even one soul rescued from a sinful life and saved for service in His Kingdom.

There has been a measure of temporal activity. Detroit has purchased a comfortable parsonage, and made other improvements on the church property at a cost of $1,600. The parsonage of the West Jacksonville Circuit has been enlarged, making it one of the best homes for the preacher in the district, costing $500. Plans are already matured by which $500 will be spent on the parsonage at Plainville. Versailles is also in the list of church and parsonage improvement to the amount of at least $400.

The pastor at White Hall, Brother Hailey, has been successful in placing a beautiful pipe organ, worth $2,000, in the church. May its swelling notes lift the people to mountain peaks of praise. Other improvements have been made upon the entrance and interior of the church building which, when completed, will cost $2,000 more, making a total of $4,000; and minor expenditures at Baylis, New Salem, Hebron, Milton, Perry, Bluffs, Pleasant Hill, Manchester, Carrolton, Berdan, Boothouse and Meredocia, aggregating $2,000, making a total of nearly $11,000 spent in improvements.

The church at Beardstown has paid off an old debt of $800; Winchester, $2,000; Griggsville, $400; Hulls, $75; Versailles, $104; Naples, $450; Rockport, $150; Pittsfield, $200, making a total of $4,000.

The district has never been counted as one of the wealthy portions of our conference. Its ministerial force has been sadly undervalued and underpaid. We gladly note an aggregate of $1,550 increase in pastoral support. There still remains room for improvement and some charges have already pledged better things for the coming year.

Early in the year the pastors were embarrassed by the panic, and later by the unfavorable conditions of the seasons, which made it impossible to commence on the benevolences as soon as desired, but when the battle began it continued until the last hour before coming to conference, "Going after the last man to get the last dollar." Consequently we hope to maintain the record of last year.

Concluding, permit me to thank the preachers of the district for their uniform kindness and cordial relations between us and their co-operation, without which little could have been accomplished. To God be all the glory.

BENEVOLENCES.

We heartily approve the action of the last General Conference in reorganizing the Benevolent Societies of the Church. We recognize the necessity and opportunity of the Church to enlarge its sphere of usefulness in spreading the Gospel to the ends of the world, and promise to strive to maintain the high standard and spirit of loyalty already attained and to secure larger contributions by faithfully presenting these causes to our people and by circulating the literature of these societies. We believe that the simultaneous presentation of these causes in the different charges of the conference would arouse the interest of the people, define the position of the Church, increase knowledge, and secure larger contributions. We suggest, therefore, that the recommendation of last year be carried out this year, namely, that October and November be given to Foreign missions

December and January be given to Home missions, February and March to Freedmen's Aid, May and June to Education, August to the other causes.

Respectfully submitted,

W. D. M'INTOSH, Chairman.

M. L. BROWNING, Secretary.

BROTHERHOODS.

Resolved, that

First.—We heartily concur in the action of the General Conference relating to the Methodist Brotherhood.

Second.—We recommend that the various Men's Organizations in our several charges become affiliated with and enroll as active chapters of the Methodist Brotherhood.

Three.—We recommend that as far as practical the men in all our charges be organized into such chapters of the Brotherhood.

Four.—We recommend that our Conference Organization be set in motion at once, according to the general constitution.

M. M. WANT,

CHURCH LITERATURE.

Realizing the importance of good literature being placed in the hands of our people, and believing that our Church publications are second to none,

We therefore urge all our people to place our periodicals in their homes and our publications in our Sunday Schools; and our pastors to leave for their successors an accurate list of subscribers to our various periodicals.

CONFERENCE CLAIMANTS AND PREACHERS' AID SOCIETY.

Resolved, That we commend in the highest terms the efficient work of Rev. Robert Stephens, our Conference Secretary for Preachers' Aid and Conference Claimants, as shown by the full and detailed report furnished by him to the Conference. We further commend the Preachers' Aid Society in its present close identification with the Conference, and we earnestly urge all the members of the Conference, who have not already done so, to identify themselves with this organization.

Resolved, That we approve the request of the General Board of Conference Claimants for a special collection to be taken some time during the month of October, to be then at once forwarded to the Central Office to be used in promoting the work of the Board, and for the further purpose of providing funds for immediate distribution.

We recommend that Wm. Landiss, the present Treasurer of the Board of Stewards, be designated as the Treasurer to receive the allowance from the Connectional Fund.

COMMITTEE.

Legislation.

Whereas, Our Conference is now systematically organized to meet the needs of our Conference Claimants, and is successfully collecting funds for that purpose through our efficient agent, Rev. Robert Stephens, and through the annual collections the Book Concern Dividends and the chartered fund, and

Whereas, We feel the need of a clearer understanding as to the meaning of the new law and of its practical application, therefore

We recommend that no action by this Conference be taken at this session in carrying into effect the provisions of the new law of the Conference claimants, except as involved by the operations of our present plan.

The Preachers' Aid Society.

The Board of Control of the Preachers' Aid Society of the Illinois Annual Conference met at the call of the President at Urbana, Ill., October 10, 1907. At the same date and place a meeting of the Conference Trustees was held and joint action was taken relating to the method of work of the Conference Field Agent, Robert Stephens, which plan has been in operation during the year.

On March 17, 1908, the Board of Control met at Springfield. The Investing Committee reported that it was their judgment that the Clinton property should be turned into cash as soon as a satisfactory sale could be made. The Committee was authorized to effect such sale.

Mr. Wm. Moore, of Hoopeston, Ill., was enrolled as a Life Member of the Society in recognition of his contribution of $50.00 last year. The President was authorized and directed to call a meeting of the Society in Springfield, March 31, to consider the amendments to the constitution which were proposed one year before and ratified by the Annual Conference in September, 1907. The meeting was duly called and held. The amendments to the constitution were adopted as printed in the Annual Conference Minutes of 1907, and said printed copy is now the constitution of the Society.

At this meeting an order was passed directing the Secretary to credit each member of the Society with one year in the Society, provided he had paid the one per cent of his salary on account of the Field Agent for the year 1906-7. (Did not occur at this time.)

The Board of Control met again at Decatur, Ill., July 9, 1908. Reports from Robert Stephens and the Assistant Treasurer, H. C. Gibbs, were received. At the same place and date a meeting of the Conference Trustees was held, and joint action was taken. According to the action taken, the Board of Control joins with the Trustees in asking the continuance of Robert Stephens as Field Agent, according to Article VI. of the Constitution of the Society. It was agreed by the parties to this action that the agent's salary and expenses should be paid out of such funds as may be available for the purpose in the hands of the separate Boards, but should there be any deficiency, such deficiency shall be paid out of the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society and Conference Claimant's Funds respectively, pro rata according to the receipts of the year for each.

The Board of Control was called and met at Decatur, Ill., July 9, 1908, preparatory for a joint meeting with the Trustees of the Illinois Annual Conference at the place on the same day. Dr. W. N. McElroy, H. C. Gibbs and Robert Stephens were appointed to fill vacancies in the Board.

After full consideration of the proposition to ask for an agent for the field next year, the President of the Board was instructed to report to the Trustees of the Conference that it was desirable to have an agent in the field next year, provided satisfactory arrangements can be made for his salary and expenses.

In joint session with the Trustees of the Conference the following resolutions were passed:

First—Resolved, That we recommend that Robert Stephens be employed as Field Agent for the Preachers' Aid Society next year, according to Article VI. of the constitution, and that the presiding Bishop be requested to appoint him to this work.

Second.—Resolved, That we allow the agent next year $2,000.00 and his traveling expenses.

Three—Resolved, That the agent's salary and expenses be paid out of such funds as may be collected by the agent, and are available, but should there be any deficit it shall be paid out of the funds of the Preachers' Aid Society and Conference Claimant's funds, pro rata according to receipts for each during the year.

Four.—Resolved, That we recommend the foregoing to the Annual Conference for its action.

At the meeting of the Board of Control held in Carrollton, Ill., September 19, 1908, the following resolutions were adopted:

First—Resolved, That each member of the Conference, who has paid the full amount of the one per cent of his salary to meet the expenses of the Field Agent of the Preachers' Aid Society, be credited with one year annuity rights in the Society, and any member who has already acquired the full annuity right of thirty years and has paid the full amount of one per cent of his salary for Field Agent this year may have that one per cent refunded.

Second, Resolved, That all the money of back dues and notes be placed in the permanent fund and that money derived from this year's dues be distributed by the Disbursing Committee.

The Committee on Nominations made the following report:

President—H. C. Gibbs.

Vice President—J. P. Edgar.

Secretary—W. M. Poe.

Assistant Secretary—A. M. Wells.

Treasurer—H. B. Prentiss.

DEACONESS BOARD OF NINE.

The following Deaconesses have been transferred: Miss Kathyryne Bates to Central Ohio Conference, Miss Jane Hawkins to Oklahoma Conference, Miss Dora Conwell to Missouri Conference. The licenses of the following Deaconesses were renewed: Laura E. Aiken, Olive G. Webster, Dora Conwell, Sarah C. Norfleet, Jane Hawkins, Anna Logan, Roxanna Beck, Anna J. Davidson, Emma Heverly, Eleanor A. Tobie, Lucile M. Anderson.

Miss Catherine E. Wright has been transferred from the New England Southern Conference to the Illinois Conference. By some mistake the name of Miss Susanna Hawkins appeared in the records of the minutes last year.

Encouraging reports were received from the Cunningham Deaconess Home and Orphanage. The growth and prosperity of the Institution makes building expansion imperative, if the supply is to equal the demand. We heartily commend this institution to the members of the Conference for their hearty co-operation and loyal support.

We recommend that H. C. Gibbs, John W. Miller and Walter Aitken be elected members of the Board of Controll for the class of 1911, and that W. A. Smith be elected President and Walter Aitken Secretary.

Board of Nine.

Class of 1909: W. H. Webster, W. T. Beadles, Mrs. A. W. Conklin.

Class of 1910: W. A. Smith, Mrs. S. A. Bullard, Mrs. H. L. Haywood.

Class of 1911: H. C. Gibbs, John W. Miller, Walter Aitken.

Respectively Submitted,

WALTER AITKEN,
Secretary.

W. H. WILDER,
President.

DOMESTIC MISSIONS AND CHURCH AID SOCIETY.

Fully ten per cent of the Churches in our Conference have received aid from this society, and the calls for assistance are as urgent as ever. Hence the necessity for raising the full apportionment for this claim.

Your committee recommends that the Treasurer's report be printed in the minutes and that the following persons be elected Trustees: Ministers A. S. Flanigan, W. N. McElroy, G. T. Metzler; Laymen James Ransom, W. A. Payton, C. T. McCarty.

LEW E. BALDWIN,
Secretary.

JAS. McCORRY,
Chairman.

EDUCATION.

Board of Education.

The Student Loan Fund is one of the most useful of our Benevolences. One hundred and eighty young people in our own State were aided by it the past year. The Children's Day collection should be urged in all our charges and the largest possible amount should be forwarded to New York.

We call attention to the request made by the Board of Education asking for a special collection for the school for the people of the white race in the South. This is a worthy cause, and we recommend that the request be complied with.

Chaddock Boys' School.

The eighth year of this fine institution has been the best year in its history. There are now enrolled 125 boys, about one-fifth of whom are part pay, about the same number are full pay students, while the remainder are supported by donations from friends of the school. The 26-acre farm has helped to solve the financial problem of the school. We most heartily commend the institution to the attention of friends. Conference visitors: W. N. Tobie, W. H. McGhee, R. W. Ennis, Walter Aitken, M. N. English.

Illinois Woman's College.

The property of this college now amounts to a total of $300,000 in buildings and endowment. For the past sixteen years the attendance has annually increased. This year the number of students is so large as to compel the use for the first time of certain cottages around the campus, which were purchased a few years ago as a safeguard to the college's property interests. Students come from a constantly widening territory, the present enrollment representing all parts of the Union, as well as British America. The graduates are increasingly in demand, as teachers for grade and high schools in this and other States. The college is highly popular in Jacksonville, and the present success is regarded there as an augury of much larger success in the future. Conference visitors: J. C. Willits, M. G. Coleman, Preston Wood, the District Superintendents, and pastors resident in Jacksonville.

Illinois Wesleyan University.

The Trustees of the University, instead of securing a man outside its patronizing territory as President, elected Rev. Theodore Kemp, A. B., D. D., for three years pastor of Grace Church, Bloomington, for many years pastor in this Conference, and acquainted with the University and its struggles. The selection commends itself to the Conference, and we assure President Kemp of our hearty co-operation.

The chair of French and History becoming vacant, Charles Eggert, A. M., LL. B., Ph. D., was elected to that professorship. Miss Lois Preston, A. B. has been elected to the chair of English Language and Literature, Miss Helen May Dean, B. S. Instructor in Latin and History, Arthur G. Stillhamer, A. M., Professor of Physics, and Miss Ruth Hemenway, Assistant in Department of Public Speaking.

The Woman's Guild has rented and furnished two dwellings as dormitories for female students, and they are under the care of a cultured Christian matron. The attendance exceeds that of last year, and some of the class rooms are crowded. These conditions call for the early erection of the proposed Science Hall and the Woman's Dormitory. The President, who will soon take the field to secure the remaining $20,000 necessary to secure the Carnegie offer, confidently expects the corner stone of at least one of these buildings to be laid next spring.

There is a strong religious spirit in the school. One of the evidences of this is the unusual number of students, about 30, who are studying for the ministry. This feature will be emphasized by the new administration. We recommended for Trustees of the class of 1911, Mrs. Martha A. Buck, Sain Welty, William A. Smith and William Dever. Conference visitors: Chris. Galeener, George E. Scrimger, G. W. Flagge, A. C. Byerly, J. C. Nate, J. B. Horney.

Theological Schools.

We commend our schools of theology for their sane and progressive scholarship, their growing spirit of evangelism, and the increasing attention to practical problems of the ministry, and we urge all our young men to seek the benefit of a full course in one of these institutions. Conference visitors: Drew Theological Seminary, G. E. Rainsberger, G. E. Scrimger, Garrett Biblical Institute, S. R. Reno, C. F. McKown, Boston School of Theology, F. A. McCarty, A. K. Byrns.

Educational Money.

First.—We recommend that the regular educational column of our minutes shall include only funds raised specifically under the provision of Paragraph 337 of the Discipline of 1904 (or the corresponding Paragraph in Discipline of 1908), as the "Public Educational Collection" of the charge. All special gift or gifts of supplies, provisions &c., if certified by vouchers, shall be reported under "other benevolences."

Second.—We recommend that the monies of the regular educational column shall be equally divided among the Illinois Wesleyan University, the Illinois Woman's College and the Chaddock Boys' School. In case any charge has given a note to any of our three schools, the educational money from such charge shall be paid on such note, provided the Conference Treasurer be notified of the unpaid amount due on the same.

Third.—We regard the present receipts under the regular educational offering as very inadequate for these three important home interests of our Conference. We recommend a total apportionment equal to 20 cents per member for the entire Conference membership, and we urge upon District Superintendents, pastors, and people the raising of these apportionments in full.

Educational Commission.

We recommend the appointment of an Educational Commission to be constituted in the following manner:

First—The Presidents of our three institutions of learning.

Second—One representative of each of these schools severally, selected by their executive committees.

Third—Three persons selected by the Annual Conference, who shall not be connected with any of these institutions. We recommend the appointment of J. W. Van Cleve, A. K. Byrns, W. D. Fairchilds as the Conference members of this commission.

We recommend J. F. Clearwaters as visitor to DePauw University.

W. N. TOBIE,	A. K. BYRNS,
Secretary.	Chairman.

EVANGELISM.

Whereas, We agree with the spirit of the resolution of last year, that the time has come for a more systematic and determined evangelistic effort, and that success depends on thorough organization, and

Whereas, We believe that every pastor, if a true representative of the Great Soul Winner, Jesus Christ, should be an evangelist, and that the permanent growth of Christ's Kingdom depends upon pastoral evangelism, therefore we recommend:

First—That each Conference District be the unit of organization.

Second—That the District Superintendent appoint a pastor in his district to be President of the District Evangelistic Association.

Third—That as far as practicable the said District Superintendent and Evangelistic President, in conjunction with the pastors, plan for a revival in every charge in the district, and that the expenses of said meeting be defrayed by the charge where the meeting is held.

Fourth—We recommend that as far as practicable the work be done by as many pastors as will give at least ten consecutive days to the work.

Fifth—That each charge where a proposed meeting is to be held shall be districted and thoroughly organized for personal work by the pastor and people of the charge in advance of the meeting.

Sixth—Recognizing street preaching as an effective means of reaching the unchurched, we recommend its practice.

Seventh—We desire to conform to the action of the last General Conference and recommend that a Conference Evangelistic Commission be appointed, and further, that Rev. Robert Stephens be appointed by the Bishop President of said commission.

LEO HOWARD,
Secretary.

L. G. ADAMS,
Chairman.

HISTORY OF METHODISM.

Whereas, Material has been gathered for a history of Methodism within the bounds of the Illinois Conference and throughout the State, and

Whereas, Dr. W. N. McElroy is recognized and is known to be eminently qualified to write such history, therefore be it Resolved, That the Bishop be and is hereby requested to appoint Dr. McElroy President of the Historical Society, and that he be requested to prepare for publication such history, provided satisfactory compensation for his labor can be secured.

WM. T. BEADLES,

HOSPITAL.

We the committee hereby submit the following report:

Our Illinois Conference has a Memorial Hospital plant, at Mattoon, of which we are justly proud.

The plant was made possible by the gifts of Dr. and Mrs. McFall, Mrs. Dr. Morris, Mr. William Taylor and others.

By virtue of the courtesy of the Chaddock Management the services of Miss Lucile Anderson were secured as Field Secretary.

We heartily appreciate the services of Miss Anderson and recommend that the Board of Trustees employ her for another year.

We have reason to believe that in matters of efficiency, the Mattoon Hospital stands among the best of the smaller hospitals.

While it is not so extensive in its buildings as some, yet in its operating room and furnishings it has been pronounced by leading Chicago surgeons as among the best in the State.

It has Miss Delphine Pierson, a very capable woman, graduate of Wesley Hospital, as Superintendent.

There are two graduate nurses and six pupil nurses who are being trained by the staff for graduation.

The staff is composed of the physicians, surgeons and specialists of the city.

We commend the charges that have contributed to this institution for their loyal support during the past year and urge that every pastor give the Field Agent an opportunity to present the claims of the Hospital.

We would impress upon all our pastors the importance of supporting our own Conference Hospital, and think it but just that it should have the preference over all other hospitals in the matter of financial support.

We further recommend that the report made by the Secretary, Rev. A. L. T. Ewert, be published by the Trustees, and be forwarded to the pastors of our conference.

G. E. BURTON,
Secretary.

WILEY JOHNSON,
Chairman.

NATIONAL MUTUAL CHURCH INSURANCE COMPANY.

Whereas, The National Mutual Church Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., was organized to give safe, satisfactory and reasonable insurance for the church and parsonage properties of the M. E. Church, and said insurance company now carries over sixty-five million dollars of these properties, and that in the last quadrennium more than a quarter million dollars in losses were promptly and satisfactorily paid, be it

Resolved, That said company is worthy of our confidence and patronage and is cordially recommended to the confidence of the Boards of Trustees of our Church and parsonage property, and we urge that all our Church and parsonage properties be kept well insured.

JOHN A. KUMLER,
Chairman.

PASTOR'S STATISTICAL REPORTS.

Resolved, That the District Superintendents be requested to see that the men under their supervision be carefully drilled in the work of properly filling out statistical blanks.

Second, That each District Superintendent appoint one man in his district to gather the statistical reports for his district, in order that all reports may be in hand at the close of the statistical session.

Third, That on the morning of the opening session the roll of districts shall be called and the District Statistician shall report those pastors whose statistical reports have not been handed in.

Fourth, That the names of brethren not making their statistical reports on the first day of the Conference session shall be referred to the Committee on Conference Relations.

WALTER MITCHEL.

PUBLICATION OF MINUTES.

We recommend that each Pastor and Presiding Elder be required to take and pay for one copy of the minutes for every hundred dollars and fraction thereof amounting to fifty dollars or more of the salary claim of his Charge, including house rent, plus two additional copies, carriage to be prepaid in every case where the money is paid before shipment.

Each Presiding Elder shall furnish the publisher of the minutes a list of the preachers in his district with the number of minutes each shall be required to take; after the shipment of the minutes, the publisher shall furnish each Presiding Elder with a list of preachers in his district, who have not paid for their minutes, including expressage in his statement of account, and the presiding elders shall collect the accounts and forward the money to the publishers.

STATE OF THE COUNTRY AND MORAL REFORM.

Article 1.—Temperance.

Section 1.—We heartily endorse the Anti-Saloon League of our State and rejoice in its success in securing the Local Option law, and that in the first year of its operation more than fifteen hundred saloons have been closed in this State. We further record our earnest desire for the passage of an adequate Search and Seizure Law and for a County Option Law, and we pledge our support to those legislators who use their active efforts to secure these laws.

Section 2.—Resolved, That we commend to all our Churches the work of the Temperance Society of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and earnestly request that they carry out the plans and wishes of this Society.

Section 3.—Whereas, Complete enforcement of State and Local Prohibition Laws will not be possible until the passage of the Interstate Liquor Shipment Bill, or a similar measure to protect the States in the enforcement of their valid enactments, and

Whereas, This measure is so generally favored that we believe it will pass whenever it is brought to a vote, and

Whereas, It has been pending at least five years in Congress, and has not yet been voted upon, and

Whereas, The speaker of the House of Representatives of the National Congress absolutely controls the procedure of the House, be it

Resolved, That we respectfully petition Congress to pass this measure in the form approved by the accredited representatives of the Anti-Saloon League of America, and be it further

Resolved, That we advise our people to vote this fall for candidates for Congress, who will not only vote for the law, but will also agree to support for speaker a man who will give them a chance to vote for it.

Article 2.—Riot.

Whereas, The capitol city of our State was recently the scene of a riot so disgraceful in character, so shameful in its excesses and so awful in the resulting loss of life and property as to appall us and cause us, as citizens of Illinois, to bow our heads in disgrace and shame, therefore

Be It Resolved, That we condemn the unfairness and the unchristian spirit that would make the crimes of a few vicious men an excuse for persecuting a whole race.

Article 3.—Divorce.

We view with alarm the increasing number of divorces given for trivial causes and we believe that more strenuous legislation is needed to secure relief from this evil, and we believe that there should be greater uniformity in the laws of the various States and Territories regulating divorces.

A. M. WELLS,
Secretary.

JAY W. SOMERVILLE,
Chairman.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND EPWORTH LEAGUES.

Recognizing as never before the need of saving our children and young people to the Church, we earnestly pledge ourselves to a more careful organization of our Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues, looking to the conversion of the unconverted and the spiritual development of those who have saving faith in Jesus Christ.

Looking to this same end we urge parents and teachers to see to it that our children and young people attend the public worship as well as the Sunday School and Epworth League.

And we further recommend that in order to place our Conference in line with the most advanced position of our Church that a Conference Board of Sunday Schools be organized, as suggested by the General Board of Sunday Schools, to consist of the District Superintendent, one minister and one layman from each district to be nominated by the respective superintendents. We recommend that said superintendent, minister and layman in each district be constituted the District Board of Sunday Schools and that the various District Boards together form the Conference Board, to co-operate with the General Board for the further development of our Sunday Schools.

We further recommend that we as pastors see to it that the dues of the General, State and District Epworth League work be paid in full.

We also wish to commend the Epworth League Institute held the past year under the auspices of the State Epworth League on their grounds at Havana, and recommend that a similar institute be held this coming year.

WOMAN'S FOREIGN AND HOME MISSIONARY SOCIETIES.

Whereas, The Woman's Foreign Missionary Society is the invaluable and indispensable means for reaching foreign heathen womanhood, and,

Whereas, The Woman's Home Missionary Society is the absolutely necessary agency for carrying the Gospel to the heathen and the down-trodden and the orphaned multitude in our beloved home land, and,

Whereas, These societies are meeting with phenominal success in their respective spheres of activities, therefore,

Resolved, That, as pastors, we will, so far as practical and possible, open the way in our charges for the representatives of such societies and will welcome organizations of the same.

MEMOIRS

DAVID GAY.

Rev. David Gay was born in Taunton, Mass., January 28, 1842. He was of English-Irish descent. His father was born on Prince Edward's Island, and his mother in Ireland. In the fall of 1841 his parents moved to Taunton, Mass., where David Gay was born, he being the only child, out of seven, that was born in the United States. His mother died when he was only one year old. On her death bed she had her son dedicated to God in holy baptism by Rev. James Butler, a Methodist preacher. In 1849 his father moved to Wisconsin and entered a tract of land in Fond du Lac County. Desiring to give his children a better opportunity for education than the country life afforded, the father moved with his family to the town of Fond du Lac. Here young Gay had the advantage of the best educational facilities of the town. In the summer of 1857 the family moved to Adams County, Illinois. David Gay was converted in December, 1855, and united with our Church. He spent the summer of 1857 in teaching school. Feeling a call to the ministry and anxious to exercise his gifts and graces, he held a meeting in the county in the fall of 1859, resulting in twenty or more conversions. At the close of the meeting he was licensed to preach at a quarterly conference

Robert Chapman.

In January, 1860, a few days before he was eighteen years old, he was licensed to preach at a Quarterly Conference held in Pike County, Illinois, Rev. W. H. H. Moore presiding elder, and Rev. W. M. Reed preacher in charge. In the fall of 1860 he was admitted on trial in the Illinois Conference. He was appointed junior preacher on the Martinville Circuit. He rode on horseback 250 miles to reach his field of labor. On his way to his charge he stopped at Springfield to call on Hon. Abraham Lincoln, who was at that time a candidate for President. His next charge was Windsor Circuit, where he stayed one year. He then served Oakland Circuit two years; Delawan station, two years; MacKean station, three years; Urbana station, three years; and Tuscola, Paris, and Farmer City one year each. He was again appointed to Urbana in the fall of 1877, remaining two years. In the fall of 1879 he was appointed presiding elder of the Mattoon District. After the expiration of his term on the district, he served Brooklyn and Jacksonville one year each; and Vernon-street, Quincy, two years; Decatur Circuit, three years; Arcola station, one year. In 1890 he assumed a supernumerary relation. In January, 1891, he was transferred to the Austin Conference and made presiding elder of Fort Worth District. After three years of district work, he was stationed at Gainesville, Tex. In 1894 he was transferred back to the Illinois Conference and stationed at Payson. In February, 1896, he was appointed superintendent of the Illinois Children's Home for the Springfield District. In March, 1897, he was appointed superintendent for the Children's Home Society for the state of Missouri. During the summer of 1901 he worked for the Anti-Saloon League in Illinois. In the fall of 1901 he was appointed to Batchtown, where he remained two years. He took a superannuated relation in 1904. He was married to Miss Louisa Gallagher, near Shelbyville, Ill., in 1862. To them four children were born. He received the degree of D. D. from Carleton College, Farmington, Mo. After his superannuation he supplied the following charges in Southern Illinois Conference: Litchfield Circuit, Hornsby, Grafton, and New Douglass, and was serving Piasa at the time of his death, which occurred at the Baptist Sanitarium in St. Louis, Mo., December 12, 1907. Dr. Gay was a preacher of unusual ability. His cheerful disposition, patience, and kindheartedness endeared him to all who knew him and made him a success in the ministry. He loved our Church and the work of the ministry. He endured all the toil and hardships incident to the itinerancy that he might preach the gospel of Jesus Christ. His wife, four children, and three brothers (one of whom is a member of the Illinois Conference Rev. Philip F. Gray) survive him. The funeral services were held in Bowman Church, St. Louis, after which he was laid to rest in Bellefontaine cemetery.

DANIEL HODGES HATTON.

The Committee on Memoirs has not been able to obtain any information as to the time and place of the birth and death of Brother Hatton, nor any particulars of the character of his work in the Conference except that which is given in the Conference minutes. During the thirty-six years of his superannuation he has resided at considerable distance without the bounds of the Conference and has not attended its sessions; and, therefore, was not known except by a small number of its present membership. But he is well remembered by the older members of the Conference who were associated with him during the years of his effective service. All these bear positive and grateful testimony to his high worthiness of life and ministerial faithfulness and usefulness. He possessed in unusual measure a happy and genial spirit, and was greatly beloved by the people whom he served. He continued to preach, as health and opportunity allowed, to the end of life.

The Conference minutes contain the following outline of his pastoral work: Received on trial, Illinois Conference; 1840 Nashville; 1841 Salem; 1842 Sparta; 1843 Upper Alton; 1844 Pottsville; 1845 Camden; 1846 Columbus; 1847 Se.; 1848 Pulaski; 1849-50 located; 1851 Perry; 1852 Mt. Sterling; 1853-59 Se.; 1860 Augusta and Pulaski; 1861-2 LaPrairie; 1863-5 Se.; 1866 Plymouth; 1867 Chili; 1868 Versailles; 1869-70 New Hartford; 1871-2 Palmyra; 1873-1906 Se. Near the end of the last named conference year (1906) probably in September, 1907, he died it is supposed at Minnesota, Lake Co., Florida.

JOHN W. HELMICK.

Rev. John W. Helmick was born October 15th, 1831, in Clinton County, Ohio. His parents moved to Vermilion County, Illinois in 1832. His father, Rev. Eli Helmick, was an ordained local minister in the M. E. Church.

J. W. Helmick was converted in 1847, was licensed to exhort in 1858 and to preach in 1861, was appointed as a supply by the Presiding Elder as Junior preacher of Danville Circuit in 1862. Organized and traveled the Burr Oak circuit 1865, and received into the church that year 84 persons. Was ordained local Deacon September 24th, 1865, at Decatur, Illinois, Bishop Janes presiding. Was received on trial in the Illinois Conference in 1869, and ordained as a Local Elder by Bishop Thomson the same year at Lincoln, Illinois.

Bro. Helmick served acceptably and successfully the following charges: Tilton, Catlin, Bloomfield, Palmyra, Greenfield circuit, Manchester and Franklin. In 1889 he took a supernumerary relation. Bro. Helmick gave sixteen years of very efficient service as a member of this Conference, and several years in supply work before he joined the Conference. His ministry was blessed with many gracious revivals.

Bro. Helmick was a man of deep piety and always commended the gospel he preached by his life. He honored his calling; was never given to lightness or foolish conversation; was of a very social nature and always knew his members, and would recognize them in a friendly way and with a hearty hand shake. He was a good gospel preacher and used well and faithfully the talents that God gave him.

In 1885 he took a supernumerary relation at the conference in Rushville, and moved to Morris County, Kansas, where he made a home, living there eight years. There were no churches in the country, but he preached regularly in the schoolhouse every two weeks and helped sustain a Sabbath school during the eight years. He also preached in neighboring school houses.

His health failing he took a superannuated relation and later in 1893 moved to Baldwin, Kansas, where he was class leader and teacher in Sunday school until failing health compelled him to remain at home.

He had creeping paralysis. Becoming quite helpless and being unable to care for himself he moved to Chanute, Kansas, to the home of his son, the Hon. Parks Helmick, July 1907, where he passed away September 24th, 1907. His funeral was conducted by Dr. S. S. Murphy who had been his pastor in Baldwin seven years. The text used was 2nd Tim. 4th Chapter 6-8. His body was laid in Elmwood Cemetery, Chanute, Kansas.

J. W. Helmick was twice married. To Marie W. Dolbee, October 28th, 1864. To this union were born three daughters who are still living. September 3rd, 1873, he was united in marriage to Mary Parks in Georgetown, Illinois, who survives him and resides with their son in Chanute, Kansas.

The writer knew Bro. Helmick very intimately, having lived in the same town for two years, and the better I knew of him, the more I loved him and appreciated his pure and manly character. I esteemed him as a special friend, and we corresponded with some degree of regularity as long as he was able to write.

L. F. WALDEN.

Urbana, Illinois.

WILLIAM R. HOWARD.

Rev. William R. Howard was born in Brown County, Ohio, November 14, 1829, and died in Shelbyville, Ill., July 5, 1908. From the state of his birth he came to the state of Illinois with his parents in the fall of 1836, and settled in Dewitt County, where he grew to manhood. Brother Howard was one of the oldest ministers in the Illinois Conference, having been for more than half a century a worker in the Master's cause. He was converted in March, 1840, and united with our Church. In 1848 he was licensed by his quarterly conference to exhort, and so used his gifts and grace as to find favor and acceptability in the Master's cause. In 1850 he was licensed by his quarterly conference as a local preacher. He now felt the need of better equipment for his work, and entered McKendree College at Lebanon, Ill., in 1850, spending the year at that school and the following two years at the Illinois Wesleyan University at Bloomington. He now felt plainly the call to preach and devote himself entirely to the work, so in 1853 he joined the Illinois Conference at its session in Beardstown, beginning October 12, Bishop Levi Scott presiding. The venerable Peter Cartwright was his first presiding elder. In 1856 he was married by Dr. Cartwright to Miss Sarah E. Short. Eight children were born to this union. The wife died in 1877, and on July 28, 1881, he married a second time, this time leading to the altar Miss Ella F. Bivins of Shelbyville. Brother Howard's translation came after a long siege of suffering, the direct cause being cancer of the stomach. In the fall of 1904 he attended conference at Springfield and sat under the ministry of Bishop McCabe. Before the session was closed he was taken ill, and on coming home continued to suffer. The malady was then beginning its work, and continued through a period of more than three years till its dread work was done. At one time in his life he had read medicine, and had practiced some, but soon felt that his whole time should be given to the ministry. Therefore, knowing what he did of disease and remedy, he was well able to diagnose his own case and did so. His sufferings were very great, but he bore them all in patience. He had "let patience have her perfect work." To the loved ones who ministered to him he always had a word of cheer and a smile. In the face of death his feelings were as calm and peaceful as rest itself. The bitter anguish in his body could find no entrance into his soul. To his callers he always had a hopeful view of the situation. When any of his brother ministers visited him he would call for a season of prayer before they left, and then second their devotions with hearty unctions. The time came at last when he spoke of his death as being very near, and he expressed not only a willingness to go, but anxiety. One day, as his beloved wife ministered so tenderly to him, he jokingly remarked, "You're so good you don't give me a fair chance to make headway." When the end did come, it came as he had wished, very peacefully and calm. Simply a last breath and the soul was with its Maker. He is survived by his wife and six children. N. M. RIGG.

JAMES W. MADISON.

Rev. James W. Madison was born at Brooklyn, Schuyler County, Illinois, July 28th, 1837. He died at his home in Plainville, Illinois, July 17th, 1908.

In 1861 he left his father's home with others to take a part in the great civil struggle then begun. He did not continue long in the service. Physical disability, resulting from exposure at Fort Donelson, brought him his discharge.

Upon regaining his health, he attended school at Abingdon, subsequently entering the ministry of the Christian Church. After several years of labor therein, he united with the Methodist Episcopal Church, and in 1882 was received on trial into the Illinois Conference. He served successively the following charges: Lima, La Prairie, Hopedale, New Hartford, and Plainville. Since 1896 his name was upon the roll of superannuates.

Brother Madison was a man of much native ability. Could he have had in the earlier years of his life the educational advantages allotted to many more favored ones, he would have surpassed them far in after-achievement. He had an intellect keen and discriminating, quick in its methods and positive in its conclusions. His language was forcible, his manner convincing.

He loved devotedly his home. He was true to his friends. He could admire and acknowledge an honorable foe, but let those who fought him fight fair, or feel the sting of his lash. He had much kindness of heart. The needy always got his half loaf.

His energy seemed untiring. But he had passed his three-score and ten. For several months preceding his death he was a constant sufferer, but a patient one. The solace of the Christian's faith and hope was his; his feet were on the Rock, life and health were just before. Beyond the gates he has found the life and blessedness to which so often he had pointed others.

JAMES T. ORR.

Rev. James T. Orr, son of Thomas and Elizabeth Keppers Orr, was born in Harrison County, Ohio, December 3, 1836, and died at Sidell, Ill. March 7, 1908. He was converted in Adams County, Illinois, September 12, 1853, and was received on trial in Illinois Conference in 1858, with great acceptability, serving the following charges: Martinsville, Edgar, Vermilion, Tuscola, Neoga, Camargo, Monticello, Middletown, Champaign, University Place, Saybrook, Hillsboro, Pana, Farmer City, McLean, Delavan, Charleston, Mattoon District, Hoopeston, Buffalo, and Griggsville. In September 1899, at his own request, he was granted a superannuate relation and took up his residence in Paxton, Ill., where he has since made his home. On October 23, 1861, he married Miss Martha Burd at Armstrong, Ill., who for more than forty-six years faithfully and beautifully shared with him the arduous work of the itinerant ministry and who, with the following children, survives: Mrs. Emma Kate Pawson, Sidell, Ill.; James Riggs Orr, Springfield, Ill.; and Elbert Rutledge Orr, Paxton, Ill.; and six grandchildren. One daughter, Mrs. Jennie Orr Pawson, preceded him June 16, 1903. A brother, M. S. Orr of Quincy, Ill., and three sisters—Mrs. R. J. Jeffers, Camargo, Ill.; Mrs. M. N. Behymer, St. Louis, Mo.; Mrs. S. E. Hoskins, Quincy, Ill., survive. For fifty years Brother Orr gave the best of his life to the itinerant ministry, and his success was indicated in the many who were won to the Christian life, not a few of whom have been and are engaged in the active ministry and in other lines of Christian work. His sterling integrity of character, abounding life, radiant good nature, and striking personality enabled him to impress his individuality for the improvement of the charges he served and to the great good of individual life. His leave-taking has imposed a heavy bereavement, not only upon his surviving widow and children, but upon a large circle of preachers and laymen of his own Church and sister denominations and upon the Church here in Paxton. Here, as it was in all communities where he had given his life in Christian service, he gave himself in behalf of the interests of the Church he loved so well. So faithful, so genial, so helpful has he been that everyone who knew him feels a personal loss in his departure. Though dead, humanly speaking, he will continue to live in good deeds done, in lives made better and stronger, and in the immortal memory of a consecrated life. The end came silently, quietly, being found dead in his bed at Sidell, but he was prepared. Soothed and sustained by an unflinching trust, he was like one who wraps the drapery of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams. He fell asleep on earth to awake in heaven. His funeral was held in our church in Paxton, conducted by Dr. C. B. Taylor, presiding elder of Champaign District, assisted by a number of the ministers of the conference, in the presence of a large concourse of sympathizing friends, when the body was laid to rest in Glenn Cemetery, near this city, to await the glorious resurrection.

J. EDWARD ARTZ.

PINCKNEY L. TURNER.

In his home at 330 South State Street, Springfield, Ill., at 7 o'clock, Sunday morning, Dec. 8, 1907, occurred the death of the Rev. Pinckney L. Turner, aged 76 years.

The deceased was born in Iredell county, N. C., May 1, 1831. When 14 years of age he went with his widowed mother to Missouri, and was, at his time in his life, converted and at once joined the Church. At 22 years of age he began preaching in southwestern Missouri and became a member of the St. Louis Conference. His pastorate covered a territory of over 200 miles. His circuit was so large that he was kept busy preaching both Sundays and week days.

He left Missouri in 1863, and in 1864 he joined the Detroit conference, where he remained until 1871 when he was transferred to the Illinois conference, where he held appointments at Mt. Sterling, Kinderhook, Philo, Decatur circuit, Charleston, Clayton, Versailles, Milton, New Salem, Hartford, and Calhoun.

While he was deprived of early educational advantages, Bro. Turner made the most of his opportunities in his odd hours. He studied persistently after entering the ministry, and his preaching showed marked progress with the maturer years. He was at all times strongly evangelistic and had large additions to the Church where he ministered.

In 1892 he took a supernumerary, and in 1900 a superannuate relation, which he held until his death, doing more or less preaching almost to the very close. Only a week before his death he filled the pulpit, both morning and evening, of the Third Presbyterian Church in Springfield.

Brother Turner was united in marriage with Miss Adeline E. Green at Pilot Knob, Mo., Sept. 5, 1854. Their golden wedding anniversary was celebrated with the marriage of a granddaughter, at the home of their son, C. B. Turner, in Mason City, Ill., in 1904.

He is survived by his wife and two sons, C. B. Turner of Springfield, for many years secretary of the Springfield Young Men's Christian Association, and F. C. Turner of Pittsfield, Ill. A daughter, Miss Nettie R. Turner, died Oct. 14, 1901.

Funeral services were conducted from Douglas Ave. Church, Springfield, by the Rev. Dr. C. P. Masden, assisted by Presiding Elder A. C. Byerly, the Revs. W. N. Tobie, W. N. McElroy, S. W. Thornton, and the Rev. A. P. Higley of the Second Presbyterian Church. Interment was at Oak Ridge cemetery.

LUCY NEWELL CECIL.

Lucy Flora Newell was born in Carroll County, Ohio, March 16, 1860, and came with her parents to Schuyler county, Ill., in 1864. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of 13 years. She was married to the Rev. S. A. Cecil Jan. 30, 1883. To this union were born four sons and four daughters. Three of the sons preceded the mother to the better world.

Mrs. Cecil passed from this life July 31, 1908, leaving a husband, four daughters, one son, seven brothers and a host of friends to mourn her death.

Sister Cecil developed an active interest in the work of her husband, sharing his toils for twenty-three years, and often, when her husband was absent at other parts of his work, she would fill the pulpit.

CHARLOTTE IJAMS COLWELL.

Charlotte, daughter of Col. Lewis and Eliza Ijams, was born near Zanesville, O., September 1, 1839. At the age of twelve, she moved with her father's family to Illinois and settled in Bloomington. Her parents were staunch members of the Methodist Episcopal Church, and she was carefully trained in the teachings of the Scriptures. Early in life she recognized the claims of Christ to her love and service, heartily accepting Him as her personal Saviour. She promptly united with the church of her parents, and remained an active, useful and devoted member of the same, until translated to the fellowship of the saints above.

October 7, 1863, she was married at her Bloomington home to Rev. J. B. Colwell, who the same week was admitted to membership in the Illinois Conference.

For forty-three years, as a faithful wife, she cheerfully shared with him the privations and labors, incidental to the itinerant life. She proved a true helpmate, unselfish and kind; allowing no sacrifice to deter her from the performance of duty; and uncomplainingly assuming the burdens so often laid upon the pastor's wife.

In a pronounced measure, Mrs. Colwell was endowed with a truly refined and gentle nature; to admire the beautiful, the true and the good, was native to her soul, giving her an attractive and pleasing personality.

In the various charges served by her husband she labored even beyond the limit of her strength as a teacher in Sunday school; as a worker in the Epworth League; as superintendent of the Junior League. She labored untiringly. Also as an officer in the Ladies' Aid and Missionary Societies; while her counsel and sympathy were always prized, and her quiet earnestness is well remembered. Although physically frail, seldom was her place vacant in the prayer meeting, revival meetings or other services of the church.

But it was in the family her worth was most apparent, as wife, mother and mistress of her house; to make home attractive was her uniform ambition. To her husband she was a never failing source of comfort and strength in the trials of his chosen calling. To secure the proper care and culture of her children she regarded her sacred duty. In all, she wrought so nobly, that of her we may say: "Well done, thou faithful one, thy toils are o'er, enter thy rest."

In September, 1906, her husband having been granted a superannuated relation, she came to live in Topeka, Ill. The following August, as she was in failing health, they removed to Chicago, where their children reside. Here, on the evening of November 19, 1907, in the presence of her sorrowing husband and children, she passed peacefully and trustfully to her eternal rest, with the praises of Jesus upon her lips.

Services were conducted in Chicago by Rev. W. S. Fleming; and also in Bloomington by Rev. Dr. F. G. Barnes, President Illinois Wesleyan University. She is survived by her husband, three sons and one daughter; Lewis W., Dr. Jno. B., Clyde C. and Mary E. Also by three brothers and two sisters. Interment was made in Evergreen Cemetery, Bloomington, Ill.

REBECCA GOODNER DON CARLOS.

Rebecca Goodner Don Carlos was born near Columbia, Murry County, Tennessee, November 4th, 1824, and died December 6th, 1907, in New York City, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Harry C. Thompson. With this daughter she had spent nearly twenty-five years of her widowhood. Her paternal grandfather, Conrad Goodner, and his wife were of German descent. He was a Methodist minister, and served for a time in the Revolutionary war. Her father, Jacob Goodner, was also a Methodist minister, was the father of twelve children, and in 1834 moved from Tennessee to Nashville, Illinois. Prior to this removal at the age of eight years, Sister Don Carlos was converted, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church. She was married October 12th, 1843, to the Rev. Americus Don Carlos.

To them were born seven children, five of whom are still living, Mr. Harry Don Carlos of Lawrence, Kansas; Mrs. J. Arthur Wemple of Liberal, Kansas; Mrs. Martin Vogel of Jacksonville, Illinois; and Mrs. Harry C. Thompson, and Mrs. J. D. Hackett, of New York City.

Rev. A. Don Carlos commenced preaching in 1838, joined the Illinois Conference in 1840, and died February 23rd, 1883, in Mason City, Illinois. He was in active work for 29 years. Was a supernumerary preacher for some ten years, living in Jacksonville, Illinois, and during this time served several charges. Thus Mrs. Don Carlos was for forty years the wife of a Methodist Minister who, with others of a valiant band, was laying the foundations on which the present generation is building the structures of state and church which we see in our day. It took brave hearts in women to undergo a life in the ministry in days that often tried men's souls. They had to endure as seeing the Invisible, for the visible means of support were far from being adequate. In the days of adversity she proved her worth, and was a tower of strength to her husband and her family. She was a woman of more than ordinary accomplishments, and was a good singer and musician. Her husband was greatly helped in his ministry by her efforts, and was accustomed to say that she won more souls with her voice than he by his preaching. During the Civil war she gave many concerts to assist the Union cause. The writer was her pastor for several years, and his impressions of her character come from close association. She was then growing into old age, but was young in spirit, active in mind, conversant with all matters in the world at large, a great reader of her church paper, and always interested in the progress of the Kingdom of God. Her presence and interest in the worship of God's House was a constant inspiration, and she was a ready witness to the power of Grace to help and brighten the pathway of life. She was highly spiritual in her tone, hopeful and warmhearted, and with a certain mental poise and strength in her religious talk that was a tonic to the weak and unbelieving. She had come up out of the struggles and triumphs of years, holding her faith in the things that were good and pure, and that make up the valuable assets of life. For seventy-five years she exemplified the power of Grace to sustain the soul in the most trying scenes of life. The faith of this woman in her efforts as wife and mother to raise and educate her family, her courage, and the results of the same, are telling in the lives and characters of those who mourn her loss.

Funeral services were held the afternoon of Dec. 9th, at the home of her daughter in New York City, conducted by Rev. T. B. Young, pastor of Grace M. E. Church. A brief sketch of her life was then read, and her favorite passages of the Scriptures, viz. Psalms 23rd and 91st.

Her body was brought from New York City to Jacksonville, Illinois, and buried by the side of her husband in Diamond Grove Cemetery. On the morning of December 11th, 1907, brief services were held at the grave, conducted by Rev. H. Wilson of Quincy, Illinois, assisted by Rev. Chas. Morrison of Jacksonville, Illinois.

ALMIRA CLEVELAND FEREE.

Mrs. Feree, whose maiden name was Almira Cleveland, born in the state of New York August 29th, 1833, died March 30, 1908, and was therefore in her 75th year. She was married to Samuel George Feree March 10th, 1853. Two sons were born to her, both of whom are dead, but several grandchildren survive, as also a brother, C. C. Cleveland, of Benton, Ill., and Miss Cleveland, of Barry, both of whom attended her funeral. Before ten years of her married life had passed she was called to give her husband to the service of his country. Mr. Feree enlisted in the army in October, 1861, and served four years and eleven months, when he was honorably discharged, having attained the rank of captain. He joined the Illinois Annual Conference at Lincoln in 1869. For twenty-five years she accompanied him to his various charges, until 1894, when he took a supernumerary relation. He died in Quincy at the home of his sister June 30th, 1898. For years she had been sorely afflicted, but her trials are now all past. Sweet be her rest.

The funeral was conducted by Rev. W. T. Beadles in Quincy, on Monday, June 1st, and her remains were laid beside those of her late husband in Woodlawn cemetery. The services were held in the chapel of Freiburg's undertaking parlors and were simple in character.

CAROLINE CHENEY HEWES.

Mrs. Caroline Cheney was married to the Rev. M. A. Hewes, Sept. 18, 1894, at Delavan, Ill.

She was with her husband eight years in his effective relation to the Conference, and two years in his superannuation. For two years more she traveled on in widowhood before she was called to her reward. She was a good woman, a true wife and help to her husband in his advanced years.

She died in Sedan, Kansas, August 1, 1908, and was buried at Saybrook, Ill. The Rev. J. B. Horney preached the funeral sermon.

MRS. C. Y. HECOX.

Mrs. C. Y. Hecox was born October 6, 1825, and died in Normal, Ill., January 6, 1908. Mrs. Hecox was a teacher for many years, and as such endeared herself to many men and women of the last generation. She was the faithful wife of a Methodist itinerant, and endured the hardship and toil of the earlier days of Illinois Methodism. She was an ardent member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, which society attended her funeral in a body. Rev. James Shaw, an old friend, spoke of her active life. The pastor, the Rev. J. W. Summerville, was assisted by Rev. Mr. Kemp, District Superintendent Horney, Revs. Messrs. Morgan, McIntosh and Knapp.

The remains were taken to Dixon for interment, where other services were conducted.

Since the death of her husband, Mrs. Hecox had resided in Bloomington until a short time ago when she moved to Normal, where her death occurred. She leaves no descendants. The living relatives are a sister, Miss Hawley, in her 88th year, one nephew, John R. Carpenter, of Dixon, Ill., one grand-niece, and two grand-nephews.

MRS. IDELLA F. MCCOLLOM.

Mrs. Idella F. McCollom, whose maiden name was Johnson, was born in Johnsonville, Illinois, forty-two years ago, and, after a lingering illness, passed over into "the land that is fairer than day" at the parsonage in Ludlow, Illinois, November 12, 1907.

She was joined in marriage with her greatly bereaved husband, the Rev. C. S. McCollom, September 10, 1891, with whom she cheerfully shared the labors of the Christian ministry for fifteen years.

There were born to them in this union five children, namely: Herchel J., Blanche E., Mary Isabella, William Melvin and Ruth E., all of whom, excepting Mary Isabella, survive their precious mother.

Sister McCollom was a frail body physically, but courageous of faith and self-sacrificing in devotion to her Lord and Master.

She was of such genial disposition which was chiefly occasioned by her hopeful view of the Christian faith, that all who intimately knew her were attracted to the admiration of her beautiful Christian character.

Funeral services were held in the M. E. Church at Ludlow, Illinois, by Rev. J. Edward Artz, pastor of the First M. E. Church, Paxton, Illinois, assisted by Rev. Gye Park, pastor, and other brethren of the Conference, and Rev. Parker Shields, district superintendent of Mattoon District, at St. Elmo, Illinois, assisted by Bro. Whiteside, the pastor, where she was laid to rest to await the glorious resurrection.

MAHALA SMITHSON M'FADDEN.

Mahala E. Smithson was born in Martinsville, O., April 12, 1846, and died at her home in Tuscola, Ill., February 18, 1908. Her parents were members of the Friends' Church and she was brought up in that faith, but under the ministry of Rev. William Mitchell she transferred her membership to our Church. In 1872 she married Rev. M. B. McFadden, a member of Illinois Conference. She was well fitted for the work to which the providence of God had called her and entered at once into his labors as pastor both in spirit and service, and for thirty-five years shared his labors as helper, companion, and friend, entering cheerfully into all the services where her consecration and ability were required. Hosts of acquaintances admired her Christian loyalty, her unceasing devotion, her strong faith and gentle disposition. She was a blessing to many and an example of fidelity and devotion to all. She was active in the woman's crusade movement in the seventies and when that movement crystalized into the Woman's Christian Temperance Union she became a member of it and remained identified with it to the end. On account of her failing health Brother McFadden took a superannuated relation last fall and retired to his home in Tuscola, Ill., near to where she was reared and not far from their first pastorate. So it happened that she closed her life among old friends. Though she lived so short a time among us her sweet and gracious personality coupled with her patience in suffering endeared her to all who met her. Her husband and one child, Mrs. Edna Zanglein, survive.

MARGARET FULKERSON OWEN.

Mrs. Margaret Owen, daughter of James and Elizabeth Fulkerson, and wife of the late Rev. William Owen, was born near Jonesboro, Washington County, Tennessee, on the 21st of July, 1829, and died at her home near Tennessee, Ill., on the 26th of March, 1908. She came with her parents to Illinois in 1831. They settled in Hills Grove neighborhood in McDonough County in the spring of 1832. Here she grew to womanhood.

She was given a thorough education and became a teacher. She continued in the work of teaching until her marriage with Rev. William Owen, a member of the Illinois Conference. She was converted in her youth and united with our Church. She was truly a spiritually minded woman. She had great faith in God and was a diligent student of the bible. She was a woman of unceasing industry. Ever unmindful of herself, always thinking and working to give comfort and happiness to others. She was endowed with the student's temperament, loving study and finding great enjoyment in reading the writings of our best thinkers. All that she did was marked by thoroughness. Sincerity, humility, thankfulness, helpfulness, perseverance, a loyal love for friends and a broad sympathy for all were striking traits of her character.

Her love for and her devotion to her husband and family were most ideal.

Though an invalid for years her cheerful, patient courage was an inspiration to those about her. A true, earnest, self-sacrificing life is ended but a crown has been gained.

Her husband died October 28, 1906. Three daughters are deceased. Three sons and two daughters survive.

MARGARET WELSH POWELL.

Margaret Welsh was born near Jacksonville, Ill., Dec. 22, 1828, and grew to young womanhood on a farm in Fulton county. Here she was married to Curtis Powell, who, after they had four children, united with the Illinois Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church. Mrs. Powell was faithful as a pastor's wife in the pioneer days, and on through many years till her husband retired from active service in 1889, residing at Bowen, Ill. She was faithful and devoted as wife and mother, and has left to the world a rich heritage in the strong and useful family which she reared. They will rise up and call her "Blessed." Bro. Powell died at the home of his son, the Rev. L. A. Powell, in Mt. Sterling, Jan. 30, 1893, Mrs. Powell at the home of her oldest son, Mr. Thomas Powell, at Bowen, Ill., Jan. 2, 1908.

MARY REES WEEMS.

Mary R. Rees, daughter of Zachariah and Mary Rees, was born near Richmond, Ind., April 12, 1833. She was reared in the Friends' Church. The family removed to Westfield, Ind., where she grew to womanhood and where she received her education in the Friends' School, and later in the school at Thorntown, Ind. She was the last survivor of a family of nine brothers and sisters, all of whom, with father and mother, preceded her to the spirit land. Her acquaintance with Thomas D. Weems, her now bereaved husband, began in the year 1848, with whom she was united in marriage April 14, 1851. To this union nine children were born—six boys and three girls. Sister Weems was a true Christian mother to all of these children and spared no sacrifice or labor to train them up in the Church of her choice. Her religious life doubtless began at an earlier time, but she did not make a profession of religion until mature womanhood, at a camp-meeting at Albany, Mo., under the ministry of Rev. Calvin Allen. Some time previous to this she had become a member of the Methodist Episcopal Church at Newton, Iowa. Her husband, who had served the Church some nine years as a local preacher, was in 1868 received into the traveling ministry of the Illinois Conference. Sister Weems entered heartily into the regular pastorate with her husband, accepting loyally and uncomplainingly all the appointments as they were given them by the bishop. She possessed rare qualities and gifts of usefulness which made her a helpmeet indeed to her husband in the responsible duties of the Methodist pastorate. She was gifted with a rare intuition of the right and of the proprieties that made her a valuable counsellor. As a gifted singer, leading the choirs in the churches they served, her sweet voice will long be remembered. In the Missionary Society, Ladies' Aid Society and the Sunday-school she was always active and useful. For thirty-one years in the pastorate this Christian mother of a large family did not omit the duties of the home, but found time to serve with her husband the various charges to which they were appointed, and when failing health made it necessary for Brother Weems to superannuate, she laid the work down with a sad heart. In her religious life her faith never faltered from conversion until the end of life. She came with her husband to reside in Holdenville, Okla., in 1903. Her feeble health, especially for the last year, deprived her of the means of public worship. She had grown too feeble to help herself, until Thursday, January 30, at 3 p. m., lying down to rest, she attempted to rise, fell and fractured her thigh, from the shock and pain of which she never recovered, and on Sunday night, February 2, 1908, at 11 o'clock, her life went peacefully out. During the day Sunday she had conversed freely with the loved ones about her, speaking most cheerfully and even joyfully, of the meeting soon to be with other loved ones gone before. As the end drew near her soul was in an ecstasy of religious joy and triumph, until she fell asleep in Jesus. She leaves a husband, with whom she shared the companionship and labors of life near fifty-seven years, and three sons and one daughter, with numerous other kindred and friends, to mourn their loss. She rests in peace in the sleep of the just. "Absent from the body" and loved ones on earth, but "present with the Lord" and other loved ones in heaven.

Address

The student of history is never at a loss to analyze the motives that prompted the Barbarians, when they overran the Western Empire. That which drew them toward the rich and fertile regions of Gaul, Italy and Spain is sufficiently apparent; they were to exchange their huts for palaces; their poverty for the riches of those who commanded the world. All the advantages, all the attractions, of a superior civilization, were the prizes which were theirs for the taking, constantly drew them forward and nerved them for the conflicts through which they passed. But the history of the movement which has resulted in the conquering for civilization and for Christ of this great western empire, of which we are a part, is exactly the reverse. No palaces, no fruitful fields, but wilderness and wildness, savagry and solitude, obstacles that might appal the stoutest heart, were constantly before them. What motive then prompted these pioneers to brave the dangers they knew they must meet. It could not be that of the necessity of providing a home for themselves and loved ones, for long before the region in which they dwelt had been fully occupied they moved out, across mountains, penetrating forests, daring the rage of savage beasts and more savage men, to find at the end of their journey solitude, and the necessity of unceasing vigilance if life itself be preserved. While the motive of the barbarian was to conquer a civilization and enjoy its fruitage, the motive of these western pioneers was to conquer to civilization this wilderness, and make it "blossom as the rose." And yet not to all of those who crossed the mountains and forded the rivers and endured the hardships incident to pioneer life, can this high motive be attributed. Among them many fugitives from justice had insinuated themselves. While many had come to this western wilderness with the high purpose of converting it into a land of plenty and safety, others had insinuated themselves among these pioneers for the purpose of continuing a life of lawlessness, begun in the older settlements, and when justice began to pursue them they sought refuge in the then vast western wilderness. To the dangers of the wilderness were added the dangers from those outcasts from civilization. Peter Cartwright—still remembered by some of us that are still here—thus writes of these early days. He says: "Logan County (Ky.), when my father moved to it was called the 'Rogues Harbor.' Here many refugees, from almost all parts of the Union, fled to escape justice or punishment; for although there was law, yet it could not be executed, and it was a desperate state of society. Murderers, horse thieves, highway robbers and counterfeits fled here, until they combined and actually formed a majority. The honest and civil part of the citizens would prosecute these wretched banditti, but they would swear each other clear; and they really put all law at defiance, and carried on such desperate violence and outrage that the honest part of the citizens seemed to be driven to the necessity of uniting and combining together and taking the law into their own hands, under the name of Regulators. This was a very desperate state of things.

Shortly after the Regulators had formed themselves into a society, and established their code of by-laws, on a court day at Russellville, the two bands met in town. Soon a quarrel arose, and a general battle ensued between the rogues and Regulators, and they fought with guns, pistols, dirks, knives and clubs. Some were actually killed, many wounded; the rogues proved victors, kept the ground and drove the Regulators out of town. The Regulators rallied again, hunted, killed and lynched many of the rogues, until several of them fled and left for parts unknown. Many lives were lost on both sides, to the great scandal of civilized people. This is but a partial view of frontier life." While this picture drawn by the venerable Cartwright exhibits its darker shades, even the lighter shows the privations that were endured by these early settlers of the great west whose courage and endurance made possible the civilization with all its luxuries under which we live, and of which we are partakers.

While it is true that not knowing or even dreaming of the many luxuries that have become to us necessities, it is well that we remember that they "were men of like passions with us" and that the monotony of ordinary life must in some manner be broken. Do we wonder that in these days men journeyed long distances on Sunday to meet together, for the chase or fishing, that they improvised horse races, played cards, danced, and sought that diversion which somehow seems necessary to life. We who have along with the pleasures and necessities of material life, so much that is available for our intellectual, moral and spiritual wants, will do well to remember how little of such they possessed. With few books and but little time to read how dwarfed must they have soon become, how deficient in mind and soul culture. Mind becomes dormant for want of exercise and will revolt at a demand for effort. Even sentiments of religion however deeply they strike root by nature in the human heart will grow feeble and inactive where the Word of God is seldom heard. Such were the environment of these early settlers. Religious services of whatever form, whether of public prayer or preaching, were but seldom enjoyed. Often were the dead laid in their last resting place without the survivors being permitted to have a word of religious consolation uttered over their remains. On my first circuit lived an old sister whose family was one among the earliest settlers of what is now Douglas County. She told me among other stories of their early hardships, of the death of a loved sister the first winter of their stay on the Okaw in Illinois. How at her death there was no coffin procurable nearer than Indianapolis. How a neighbor volunteered to make one; how with the help of others a dead elm tree was felled; how the body lay frozen in a shed room for two weeks until the rude coffin was finished; how they lined it with the nicest quilt which they had brought from their Eastern home; and how when at last all was ready to bury the body there was no one to utter a word of prayer; and how they waited another two days while a neighbor went thirty miles and found a man who knew God and who was a Methodist class leader and who came and gave Christian burial to the loved one. As she told me all this in detail she said all the rest was hard enough, but to see my sister buried without any Christian rites was more than I could bear. The name of that class leader the sister had forgotten, and with it are thousands of heroic names that have been forgotten, and thousands of heroic deeds for Christ that have never been recorded here, but they are all written down in the "Book of Remembrance" of Him who never forgets. Is it any wonder that with such dearth of books and of teachers that the credulity of the early settler was great and that superstition easily took possession of many. Some of the hardest battles of the early itinerant was against imposters that in the name of religion sought to gain power with and influence over the people. One of our early preachers gives an account of a contest with one of these imposters. He says: "There was in Marietta a preacher by the name of A. Sargent. He had been a Universalist preacher, but finding such a motley gang he thought (and thought correctly, too), that they were proper subjects for his imposture. Accordingly, he assumed the name of Halcyon Church, and proclaimed himself the Millennial Messenger. He professed to see visions, fall into trances, and to converse with angels. His followers were numerous in the town and country. The Presbyterian and Congregational ministers were afraid of him. He had men preachers and women preachers. The Methodists had no meeting house in Marietta. We had to preach in the court-house when we could get a chance. We battled pretty severely. The Congregationalists opened their academy for me to preach in. I prepared myself and gave battle to the Halcyons. This made a mighty commotion. In the meantime, we had a camp-meeting in the suburbs of Marietta. Brother Sale, our Presiding Elder, was there. Mr. Sargent came and hung around and wanted to preach; but Brother Sale never noticed him. I have said before, that he professed to go into trances and have visions. He would swoon away, fall, and lay a long time; and when he would come too he would tell what mighty things he had seen and heard.

On Sunday night at our camp meeting Sargent got some powder, lit a cigar and then walked down to the bank of the river, about one hundred yards, where stood a large stump. He put his powder on the stump and touched it with his cigar. The flash of the powder was seen by many in the camp, at least the light. When the powder flashed down fell Sargent; there he lay a good while. In the meantime the people found him lying there and gathered around him. At length he came to and said he had a message from God to us Methodists. He said God had come down to him in a flash of light and he fell under the power of God, and thus received his vision. Seeing so many gathered around him there I took a light and went down to see what was going on. As soon as I came near the stump I smelled the sulphur of the powder; and stepping up to the stump there was clearly the sign of powder, and hard by lay the cigar with which he had ignited it. He was now busy delivering his message. I stepped up to him and asked him if an angel had appeared to him in that flash of light. He said, "Yes." Said I: "Sargent, did that angel smell of brimstone?"

"Why," said he. "Do you ask such a foolish question?"

"Because," I said, "If an angel has spoken to you at all, he is from the lake that burneth with fire and brimstone, and raising my voice I said: 'I smell sulphur now.' I walked up to the stump and called on the people to come and see for themselves. The people rushed up, and soon saw through the trick, and began to abuse Sargent as a vile imposter. He soon left and we were troubled no more with him or his brimstone angels."

While we may smile at the crude state of these new settlers as indicated in this narrative, we must nevertheless conclude that these communities could not have continued long in such a state of ignorance without falling into utter barbarism. Also, the presence of the actively evil elements spoken of which had found their way here added to their danger. If it be true, as some claim, that the human spirit possesses within itself an inward energy capable of rising to the perception and observance of the eternal laws of morality; it is equally true that such an attainment is only the result of wise culture for the masses, or is an endowment of certain privileged natures. The most ambitious philosophy, even when it pretends to be the sole guide and aid for the conduct of life, can only claim the control of certain elect souls, and confesses its inability to save the majority of mankind. However natural and vital be the instincts of men for the just and good, yet the clearest conception of moral truth will become obscure and finally extinct unless the sentiment of religion is present to bring the human creature into the presence of his Creator, that he may thus be mindful of his origin and dependence, and that the eternal connection between virtue and its reward, sin and its punishment, may be ever before his eyes. Who then should bring to these settlers those higher considerations which amid the pressure of their many and urgent physical wants, those higher considerations which should lift their affections from earth and elevate their thoughts above gross materialism? Who would be the shepherds of these wandering flocks? Lost in the depths of the wilderness, isolated from one another, separated from civilized institutions by distance, and still more by the perils of the journey, from whom might they expect to hear the Divine Word? When we remember the conditions that preceded and succeeded the War of Independence that severed this country from England; when we call to mind the raising up of Wesley, and the strange warming of his heart, can we doubt for a moment that God was preparing for the salvation of the souls in this wilderness. When we reflect the strange, the unprecedented way in which God spread the knowledge of Himself over this then vast domain, can we doubt for a moment that we are the spiritual sons and daughters of these Giants whom God raised up to enter into this wilderness, and subdue it for Himself. For be it known that but for the fire that so strangely warmed Wesley's heart he was as helpless as any one of the thousands of the learned clergy who regarded his work as sheer fanaticism, and it will be well for us to remember that however excellent is learning, however potent is culture, that alone they become powerless to overcome the sin that is deeply imbedded within the human heart. Hear what an observing Roman Catholic writer has said of Methodism, while writing a review of the life and influence of Cartwright, and his hatred to modern innovations. He says: "It is unreasonable to make the matter of salvation depend on costume, or to see in any particular choice of diet an invincible obstacle to the practice of virtue. Nevertheless, if we are to pardon this hostility to luxury and the refinements of civilization, we may especially do so in a child of the woods, recognizing also that there is in the complaints of Cartwright a basis of truth. Having seen the days of the vigor of Methodism, the aged preacher has lived to see the commencement of its decay. (Written in 1872). The fecundity of Methodism as we have striven to show, lies chiefly in its organization, which has for its object to develop and nourish the spirit of propagandism.

It called forth unceasingly within the mass of adherents new Apostles whose efforts were assured of at least temporary success, and whose zeal might reanimate the general torpor. There was a constant mutual stimulation on the part of clergy and laity. The system of rotation of circuits was in this respect beneficial, for, by bringing preachers and audience together who had not had opportunity to familiarize themselves with each other, it demanded unusual effort on the one side, and rendered attention more easy on the other through the incitement of novelty. In fine, the itinerancy of the preachers, the facility of the arrangement for establishing class leaders and exhorters, allowed Methodism to make its influence felt in every place and at all times, and in this view we may say that Wesley bestowed upon Protestantism an element of force, and a lever analogous to that secured by the religious orders in the Catholic Church. Statistics alone can show in full the propagating energy of Methodism and the rapidity of its progress. When the Methodist Church was organized at the Baltimore Conference it counted eighty-six preachers and a little less than fifteen thousand members; in 1843, sixty years later, there were four thousand itinerant preachers, more than one million communicants, and the number of attendants upon its services was reckoned at five millions in addition. While the most prosperous of other sects had increased simply ten fold, Methodism had grown in proportion to one to seventy-one. Now its ratio of increase follows, if it does not surpass, that of the general population." We have introduced this quotation from this Catholic writer in order that we may profit by the conclusions of one whom we are quite well convinced is ignorant of the spirit of Methodism. That "strange fire" that warmed the heart of Wesley and that is still burning on the altar of every truly regenerated heart, was the propelling force that thrust out not only Wesley, but his, brave, brawny sons in the gospel, whose labors and sacrifices we "delight to honor" and whose memories we shall not willingly let die. Not as our Catholic friend concludes, was the desire to "nourish and develop the spirit of propagandism," the propelling force, but "the call of the wild" to those men meant that souls were perishing without God and without Christ and that they were called of God to proclaim a full, free, complete salvation from sin to these "sheep without shepherds" wandering in this vast western wilderness.

But some have said, what good to study or spend time on these, who under conditions that have passed away, did their work well, but now under new conditions we who must face new problems, cannot hope to win with the methods they used, the instruments they employed. True. But are we not today wise to remember that however great the changes in civilization; however wide the difference in the bare, uncarpeted cabin of the pioneer, and the elegant church, and palatial home of today, that the same spirit, the same consciousness that sin is hateful to God, the same insistence that cultured sin is as hateful to God as coarse sin, and the faithful declaring of the whole counsel of God, is as necessary today as it was in the days of the fathers. Hear the words of this same Catholic writer whom I have quoted, who says that Cartwright having seen the vigor of Methodism, has also lived to see the beginning of its decay.

He says: "In proportion as Methodism has increased its numbers and wealth it has been called upon to satisfy more extensive demands, and has sought to put itself upon a level with other churches. Therefore, it has founded seminaries to instruct its clergy and colleges to recruit its seminaries. It has established journals for the promotion of its interests and for controversy. It has instituted associations and business enterprises for the publication and spread of its literature. Each of these establishments, which are constantly multiplied, involves the creation of numerous positions which add to the attractions of a settled life, the advantage of a comfortable remuneration, and which naturally claim the best talent. Since it was possible to exclude from the church men who were an honor to it and its apparent chief strength, these continually multiplying occupants of the local positions are maintained in all the prerogatives of the ministry. Cartwright complains of seeing men vote in the conferences, who have never had charge of a circuit, know nothing of the life and wants of a preacher, and have, indeed, perchance, never once preached. He anticipates with dread the day when these dignitaries of settled position shall constitute a majority in the conferences, and shall give law to the preachers."

Continuing, our Catholic reviewer concludes: "Whenever, indeed, this inevitable revolution shall be accomplished, Methodism will be destroyed in its very essence; it will cease to be a militant Church, a nursery of propagandism; nothing will distinguish it from the innumerable sects which spring up around it, and which are constantly enfeebled by the spirit of schism. Cartwright's fears are, therefore, legitimate; but no one can arrest the course of Methodism in the fatal decline to which the force of circumstances impel it." "Meantime the course of emigration still pursues its way toward the Pacific, and the perils and the necessities of the pioneers are not less than before. But now upon their track comes the Catholic Missionary. Since it set foot in the United States in following the Irish emigration, the Catholic Church has made marvelous progress in the West. It has its regular clergy for the towns, its religious orders for the scattered populations, and, thanks to the two-fold militia which it unceasingly recruits in both hemispheres, it will perhaps inherit the Mississippi Valley the place which the Methodist Church has for nearly a century filled."

We have quoted thus extensively from this Catholic reviewer of Cartwright and of Methodism, in order that we might more fully see how far from being true are the hopes of the one and the fears of the other. No spirit of propagandism of creed, opinion, belief urged the early pioneer to his task. But a life begotten within him, and which he knew was from above and which he desired all men to be partakers of, urged him forward and strengthened him for the conflict, and gave him the victory. Now that conditions have changed and the country has become populous and the people more cultured, now when plenty instead of poverty is the heritage of the masses, we who have taken up the work, or rather who have been chosen of God to carry on this work, if we have this heaven-born life within us, know that our task calls for as much effort, as much sacrifice, to win souls as our fathers were called to endure, though not of the same kind. We know that wealth, culture, density of population, have no regenerating influence upon the human heart. The toiler in the city finds that all these things were undreamed of by those pioneers, have in many cases instead of becoming allies in the struggle for truth and righteousness, are its most determined enemies, and if they whose mantles have fallen on us were in need of daily and hourly communion with Him in whose name and for whose sake they battled, we, too, if we win in this great contest must without entanglements be wholly consecrated to his work.

No one can study the lives and work of the early Methodist preachers and resist the conviction that these men were assured that they were called of God to their high and holy office. They were not men who had chosen their vocation, nay, many of them, perhaps, most of them, had shrunk back and only when they found no way of escape, except willful disobedience, did they answer with, "Here am I, send me." And being certain that they had "been chosen and ordained" to the greatest work to which God can call a man, they went forward with that work and no hardship or difficulty was too great to deter them. Why should one who is called of God falter. They did not falter, and in my humble judgment the study of their lives, their work, their hardships, their battles and victories will do more to strengthen and equip the young preacher of today than the study of nine-tenths of theories on preaching that are being put forth by men who have never fought a real battle or won a real victory for Christ. Hence, I believe it to be a duty we owe to ourselves and our children to collect and preserve the records of the mighty deeds of these heroes of the cross. If the Master himself appealed to his works surely the works he has performed through these men ought not to be forgotten. President William Henry Harrison, himself a Presbyterian, writing to a friend in the East concerning these early itinerants says: "Who and what are they? I answer, entirely composed of ministers who are technically denominated "circuit riders," a body of men who, for zeal and fidelity in the discharge of the duties they undertake, are not exceeded by any others in the world. I have been a witness to their conduct in the Western country for nearly forty years. They are men whom no labor tires, no scenes disgust, no danger frightens in the discharge of their duty. To gain recruits for their Master's service they sedulously seek out the victims of vice in the abodes of misery and wretchedness. The vow of poverty is not taken by these men, but their conduct is precisely the same had they taken one. Their stipulated pay is barely sufficient to enable them to perform the services assigned them. With much the larger portion the horse that carries them is the only animated thing which they can call their own, and the contents of their valise, or saddle-bags, the sum total of their other earthly possessions.

"If within the period I have mentioned, a traveller on the Western frontier had met a stranger in some obscure way, or assiduously urging his course through the intricacies of a tangled forest, his appearance staid and sober, and his countenance indicating that he was in search of some object in which his feelings were deeply interested, his apparel plain but entirely neat and his little baggage adjusted with peculiar compactness, he might be almost certain that that stranger was a Methodist preacher, hurrying on to perform his daily task of preaching to separate and distinct congregations, and should the same traveller, upon approaching some solitary, unfinished and scarcely habitable cabin, hear the praise of the Creator chanted with peculiar melody, or the doctrines of the Saviour urged upon the attention of some six or eight individuals with the same energy and zeal that he had seen displayed in addresses to a crowded audience in a populous city, he might be certain without inquiry that it was the voice of a Methodist preacher." These men did not go forth in the role of reformers. While it is true that the habits of the early settlers were changed and purified by their contact with the early preacher, their task was not to preach reformation but regeneration, and in their journeyings, while encountering almost incredible hardships they "counted it all joy" that they were permitted to bring to these wandering ones a Christ who could, and did by his spirit, regenerate them and "make them new creatures." One writing of Henry B. Bascom says: "He forded rivers and swam mountain torrents as they rushed along their downward channels, in cold weather as well as warm. Often he emerged from the wintry stream, his garments glittering in the clear, cold sunlight as if they had been of burnished steel armor, chill as the touch of death. During that twelve months, in the midst of such scenes, he travelled on foot and horseback four thousand miles, preached four hundred times; and found on casting up the receipts, woolen shirts, cotton vests and a little silver change, that his salary amounted to twelve dollars and ten cents." Who can doubt that these men were prophets of the Most High, called to their work and strengthened for it as much as was Elijah or John the Baptist?

At the session of the Western Conference, held in 1808, one hundred years ago, at Liberty Hill (Tenn.), the Indiana District was formed with Samuel Parker as P. E. Included in this district was Illinois Circuit, which embraced the whole State of Illinois with Jesse Walker preacher in charge. The new Presiding Elder had been but four years a traveling preacher, being appointed to the district the day after his ordination to the eldership, while the preacher in charge was a veteran of many years service. It is possible that some of us might learn a lesson from this bit of history.

Ten years later we find Illinois, advanced to the dignity of a district, with five appointments and Jesse Haile Presiding Elder. When we remember that this was the year in which the territory became a state, that fifteen counties had been organized, that the population had increased to forty-five thousand and that emigration was rapidly pouring in, we can form some estimate of the work committed to the hands of this Presiding Elder and the pastors of these five circuits.

Ten years later (1828) and we find the Illinois Conference has been born and is four years of age. It includes besides the State, a part of Indiana, and now has two Presiding Elder's Districts, with fourteen pastoral charges in Illinois. In that year Reuben Gregg was born, who unless he has departed this life, is still a member of this conference. Daniel H. Hatton was seven years old, William McKendree McElfresh was three years old, James Shaw was in Ireland, Archibald Sloan was born, P. F. Thornburg was three years of age. At this conference William L. Deneen, grandfather of the present Governor of Illinois, was admitted on trial and appointed as junior preacher on Shoal Creek Circuit. Peter Cartwright was a young Presiding Elder entering his third year. Coming down to the session of this conference and for a few years succeeding it, material has been gathered and preserved for the future historian. But for the last third of this century of the history of Illinois Methodism but little heed has been paid to the treasuring up of these jewels which will prove so valuable in the years to come. Scattered throughout the length and breadth of our conference are men and women, old saints of God whose memories hold many a gem which will adorn future history, if we the successors of those men and women, who in the crucible of hardship and suffering, were able by the help of the Holy Spirit to bring forth those gems, more valuable by far than those sought after by the Alchemists of old, will only secure them. And if every one of us will do this before the possessors pass away we will at least have done something for which future generations will bless us. Will it do to contemplate our splendid institutions of learning and forget the sacrifice of the unlearned pioneer who unable to conjugate a verb, yet gave of his small allowance half, to establish the schools which were the precursors of these same institutions of which we are so justly proud. Will it do for those of us who are permitted to preach in some of our splendid churches, to forget that to the pioneer preacher, whose hardships have been never adequately chronicled or appreciated, we are indebted for those self-same churches. I think not and I believe we shall regard it as a most high privilege to hand down to the generations following our indebtedness to their work and labor of love. When Moses at the command of Jehovah instituted the passover, he was told that when it was kept, and when the children would ask, "What mean ye by this service?" that they were to tell them the wonderful history of God's dealings with their fathers. If this were wise, and right in the sight of God, is it not true that will be as wise and right for us to teach our children the wonderful dealings of God with our Methodist Fathers.

"Not themselves—but the truths that in life they have spoken,
Not themselves—but the seeds that in life they have sown,
Shall pass on to ages—all about them forgotten,
Save the truths they have spoken, the things they have done."

So let my living be, so be my dying;
So let my name lie, unblazoned, unknown;
Unpraised, and unmissed, I shall still be remembered;
Yes—but remembered by what I have done."

Laymen's Association

The Laymen's Association met in annual session at Carrollton, Ill., in the First Baptist Church, at 9:30 A. M., Friday, September 18, 1908.

In the absence of Judge W. G. Cochran, President of the Association, Jas. L. Loar, Vice President of the Bloomington District, called the meeting to order, and on motion of John Kissack, of Farmer City, Mr. Loar was elected Chairman of the meeting.

The program began with a song by the quintet, composed of Messrs. Harry, Glassco, Perry, Hamilton and Orr.

Rev. Jasper Miller led in prayer. A song and praise service was conducted by Professor S. A. D. Harry, of Hoopeston. On motion the chair was empowered to appoint a Committee on Resolutions and a Committee on Nominations.

Bishop W. F. Oldham, being present, addressed the Conference.

Officers reports were next on the program. Mr. Loar, of Bloomington, made the first address, in which he advocated the organization of all the different men's movements into one central organization and have the men get busy.

John Kissack, of Champaign District, made a brief talk.

S. A. D. Harry, of Hoopeston, made a report for Danville District.

H. B. Wise, of Decatur District, not being present, Milton Johnson, of Decatur, represented that district in a short talk.

E. M. Metcalf, of Greenfield, reported for the Jacksonville District.

U. T. S. Rice, of Mattoon, reported for Mattoon District and made some good suggestions.

Quincy District was not represented.

T. E. Orr, of Buffalo, reported for the Springfield District and made some good suggestions in regard to the finances of our Churches being put in a better condition and on a more business-like basis.

West Jacksonville District was not represented. The Secretary made a brief report. The Treasurer made a report of the moneys on hand.

Chairman announced the following Committees:

Committee on Resolutions, Harry, Crawford and Kissack; Committee on Nominations Perry, Hamilton and Coon.

Rev. M. W. Satterfield, of Wesley Hospital, made a brief address.

Judge Cochran, the President of the Association, having arrived, was called to the chair and made a brief address, after which the session was adjourned for the noon hour.

Reconvened at 1:30 P. M., Judge Cochran presiding. The quartet sang a couple of songs. Jas. L. Loar made an address on "Why are men in the minority in our Churches," which was full of good suggestions of how to get the men more interested in Church work.

Committee on Resolutions at this juncture made their report. These resolutions were acted upon later. The discussion of the subject spoken on by Brother Loar was further discussed by Frank Kuhl, of Springfield, Judge Cochran, J. W. Perry, E. G. Coon and others.

The subject of an "Ideal Preacher" was discussed by H. R. Crawford. This was discussed at length by other members.

Rev. Horace Reed presented the matter of publishing the minutes and a collection was taken up for that purpose.

Miss Tobie of the Chaddock Boys' School was introduced and addressed the Conference.

U. T. S. Rice, of Mattoon, presented the claims of the Memorial Hospital at Mattoon.

On motion the above were elected as officers for the ensuing year.

On motion of J. W. Perry the Executive Committee was empowered to select a Vice President for the additional districts, if they should remain at eight or nine.

The resolutions were taken up one at a time and on motion adopted.

RESOLUTIONS.

Whereas, We reflect with pleasure upon the great advancement made in our own State and in the Nation in the passage and enforcement of laws in the interest of temperance and moral reform, therefore be it

Resolved, We heartily commend all public officers who endeavor to enforce the law and pledge them our support. And we condemn all officers who will not endeavor to enforce the law and all legislators and members of Congress, who in any way interfere with or obstruct the passage of any law that looks to the protection of the people in their moral rights.

Whereas, We have heard with pleasure a presentation of Wesley Hospital, Chicago, by its Corresponding Secretary, Rev. M. W. Satterfield, therefore be it

Resolved, That we cordially commend Wesley Hospital to those of our Churches who are in need of expert medical or surgical service, and that we will encourage the support of the Free Bed work of this noble institution.

Whereas, We have heard with great pleasure and profit concerning the wonderful progress of our missionary work, as presented to us by our beloved Missionary, Bishop W. F. Oldham, therefore be it

Resolved, That we wish to express ourselves as being in full sympathy with what is known as the Layman's movement, recently organized in our Church. And we promise hearty support of this movement and loyal co-operation with our pastors in bringing our beloved Church up to its opportunity of saving the world that lies beyond us as well as to save our very near neighbors.

We heartily endorse the Illinois State Epworth League in founding the Institute and Chautauqua at the beautiful location at Quiver'Lake. We pledge our loyal support to the project and urge our people to plan to spend their vacation there with the young people of our church.

We commend to the membership of our church those institutions within the bounds of our Conference, viz; The Illinois Wesleyan, at Bloomington; Chaddock Boys' School, at Quincy; The Illinois Woman's College, at Jacksonville, and the Mattoon Memorial Hospital, at Mattoon, and the Cunningham Deaconess Home, at Urbana, and urge that all possible support be extended to them.

Whereas, It is understood that a reduction in the number of districts is being considered by Bishop Berry,

Resolved, That it is the judgment of this body that the number ought to be reduced to eight and that the West Jacksonville District be eliminated. There is no large city or collection of interests, as the natural capital of this district, and the territory comprising it can be efficiently supervised from Quincy and Jacksonville. But Springfield, Decatur, Bloomington, Champaign, Danville and Mattoon are the natural centers of such vital importance, that no two of these can be merged without serious injury to our work and great dissatisfaction to our people.

Rev. Robert Stephens addressed the Conference in regard to the superannuates.

On motion each charge was requested to send in one dollar to the Treasurer for the expense of the Laymen's Association for the coming year.

Thornton, Springfield; W. N. Tobie, Springfield; J. W. Van Cleve, Champaign; M. M. Want, Bement.

Rules of the Board

With Plan of Examination for 1909-1910.

1. The Conference Course of Study shall be assigned to the various examiners, the Chairman and Registrar being a committee for this purpose. It shall be the duty of each examiner to assist as fully as possible, by correspondence or otherwise, the undergraduates in the studies of which he has charge.

2. The Board of Examiners shall arrange an annual program of examinations (to be published in the Conference Minutes), and make recommendations to the Annual Conference concerning the passing or conditioning of undergraduates subject to the requirements of the Discipline.

3. Examinations shall be held on the first Tuesday in June and the first Tuesday in August upon the studies named in the schedule for the first and second periods respectively. These examinations shall be held at one or more places in each District, as may be determined by the Chairman. They shall be in charge of District Supervisors designated by the Chairman, and, in case no member of the Board is conveniently located, the Chairman shall arrange with a member of the Conference as Special Supervisor for the purpose. Undergraduates may appear before any regularly appointed Supervisor, but no examinations will be allowed at any other place or at any other time than those named, except those at the seat of Conference on the day before the opening of the annual session.

Each undergraduate shall before the day of examination, notify the Supervisor before whom he is to appear, so that questions will be certain to be on hand for his use.

Any undergraduate failing to pass in any study or to appear for examination shall not have the privilege of being examined until the next regular time for examination.

4. In case an undergraduate fails to pass in a given study, the Registrar of the Board shall report the fact to the undergraduate and to the chairman of the Board. No other grades will be given until Conference.

5. Examiners shall report grades on all papers within two weeks after the examinations are held. All examination papers of the year shall be held by the Examiners in charge of the studies, and shall be brought to the seat of the Annual Conference if subject to appeals by undergraduates upon the grades therein, which appeals shall be made in ample time before the Conference to the chairman of the board. Such appeals shall be decided by the board at their Annual Conference meeting. Examiners will not return papers except upon request of undergraduates, accompanied by postage for pre-payment.

6. Each undergraduate, before his examination begins, shall be required to promise that in the examination he will not avail himself of any notes or other helps, and that he will not communicate then or thereafter, to any one the questions submitted to him in the examination.

7. The examination questions in each branch of study shall not be less than ten nor more than twenty, according to the scope of the text. They shall be plainly written or prepared (not with pencil), and shall state the name of the Examiner preparing them, and the subject examined upon. The grading shall be upon a scale of 100, and none below 70 shall pass.

8. No syllabus or book Review will be required upon the "books to be read." Instead of this, the undergraduate will be required, at the place of the June and August examinations to fill out blanks of the following form for all the books assigned to his class to be read in each respective period.

I hereby certify that I have given the book (or books).....
 (Fill in name) a careful and conscientious reading, covering the whole of its (or their) contents.
 (Signed)

These certificates will be forwarded by the District Supervisors to the Registrar and by him recorded. A similar certificate is required for the reading of the leading articles in the Methodist Review.

9. All credits from the Methodist Literary and Theological Schools, to be allowed undergraduates for work done therein, shall be sent to the Chairman of the Board, who shall decide upon the credits under instructions from the Annual Conference, and shall give prompt notice of his decision to the undergraduate sending the credits. These credits must be on a scale of 100.

10. The Examiners, in accordance with the assignment of studies of the course, shall be required to send to the Chairman of the Board duplicate copies of all sets of questions to be used in examination two weeks or more before the examinations take place, the questions to be passed upon by the Chairman before being used in examination. After approval by the Chairman, the questions shall be sent to the Registrar for duplication and distribution, and the Registrar shall be responsible for placing them in ample time, with the District Supervisors for all examinations, both regular and special.

11. An annual fee of $1.00 shall be required of each undergraduate, or examinee, to provide for the expense of correspondence, printing, postage and other necessary expenses of the Board. This fee shall be paid to the Registrar of the Board within thirty days after the adjournment of the Conference session, for which the Registrar shall furnish receipt. District Supervisors are instructed not to proceed with the examination of an undergraduate who does not produce this receipt as evidence that his fee is paid. No money shall be paid out by the Registrar except on the order of the Chairman; and the financial accounts of the Chairman and Registrar shall be audited by the Board at their annual conference meeting.

12. On the completion of the entire course of study by an undergraduate, or in case of his retirement or transfer from the conference before its completion, he shall be entitled to a certificate, covering all his work, signed by the Chairman and Registrar of the Board.

13. It shall be the duty of the chairman to secure as full information as possible, in advance of the meeting of conference, concerning the history, character and general fitness of candidates for admission on trial and for admission into full connection; which information he shall lay before the Board of Examiners; and it shall be the duty of the Board, having carefully considered all the information obtainable, concerning the candidates, together with the result of their examinations, to report to the Conference their judgment as to the advisability of receiving the several candidates. It shall also be the duty of the chairman to make similar investigations into the case of any applicant for admission from another communion, and the board to make a similar report as to the wisdom of receiving such applicant; and it shall require a two-thirds vote of the members of the conference present and voting to admit candidates or applicants of either of these classes against the adverse judgment of the Board of Examiners. District Superintendents are requested to report to the Chairman of the Board of Examiners, all candidates for admission on trial from other churches, and into full membership, and for Orders, at least thirty days before Conference or as soon thereafter as possible, concerning the applicants, with references, that the Chairman may have ample time to investigate.

14. It shall be the duty of District Superintendents to report to the chairman of the Board, as early as practicable, the names of all special candidates for orders, with their postoffice addresses, in their respective districts, and of those who will be candidates for admission on trial. These classes of candidates will be expected to take their examinations at the regular times; but special arrangements may be made in individual cases by the chairman, when there are good reasons for so doing. But the annual fee must be paid by these as well as by the members of the regular conference classes before they shall be entitled to examinations.

15. The annual meeting of the Board of Examiners shall convene at the seat of and on the day before the session of the Annual Conference, at the hour of 9 o'clock a. m., to examine any who have not been examined during the year, to consider the matters involved in Rule 13, to review and complete the work of the year, and to arrange for the work of the year to come.

"Honorable mention," with a public recognition of success will be conferred at each Annual Conference upon the four men having the highest averages in the first, second, third and fourth year classes, respectively; but undergraduates who have been conditioned, or continued on trial beyond the regular time, shall not be eligible for such honors.

Reports

A. District Superintendents

BLOOMINGTON DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop and Brethren:

In re-districting the Conference last fall seven charges were added to the Bloomington District, making thirty-four in all.

The work has progressed during the year in a very satisfactory manner. The pastors went early to their work and have served their charges faithfully throughout the year, but one break being made occasioned by the death of Rev. A. C. Byerly at Delavan. Rev. E. S. Wamsley, one of our honored and successful superannuate preachers, was placed in charge of that work at Delavan and has rendered a very satisfactory year's service.

Seven of the charges increased the amount paid to pastors, the total increase being one thousand dollars, and we hope that the former record of Bloomington District in meeting the pastors' claims in full will still be maintained at this Conference.

Revival meetings have been held in nearly all the charges. It is a pleasure to report that the old time custom of limiting revival work to a few months in the winter is being discarded and some of the best meetings which have been held in the district have taken place during the Summer months. 1,250 conversions are reported by the pastors from the different charges, with 1244 accessions.

Soon after conference the corner stone for the new church at Middletown was laid, and in May one of the most beautiful and commodious little churches within the bounds of the district was dedicated. This church is a fitting climax to the five years pastorate of Rev. T. L. Knotts, who has served that charge with great acceptability. In July following the dedication of the church a splendid revival resulting in 112 conversions was held at that place.

It would seem almost by magic a splendid new church has sprung up at Downs. About six months ago the pastor and his official board determined to build. The money was subscribed, contract let, and on last Sunday, the 12th of September, a ten thousand dollar church was dedicated, free of incumbrance. In connection with his pastoral work and the building of this church Rev. C. S. Boyd has done a year's work in the Illinois Wesleyan University.

At Walker's Grove on the Easton charge a beautiful new church was dedicated in June, at a cost of $3,500. Although this society is small, they have a building that would do credit to a much larger place. Rev. W. T. Evans has been untiring in his efforts to build this structure, which was dedicated free of debt.

At Grace church, Bloomington, the congregation has outgrown its quarters. The Sunday School is cramped so that it cannot do the work which the field demands. Accordingly, under the inspiration of that peerless leader, Rev. M. N. English, plans were made some months ago to enlarge the church. An estimate of the cost was made and ten thousand dollars was quickly raised to erect the addition. The work is now in progress and when completed will make this church one of the most complete in Bloomington.

At Arrowsmith the pastor and his wife moved into a new parsonage after Conference, built at a cost of about $3,000. This is now one of the beautiful little charges of the Bloomington District.

Another new parsonage has been erected at Kenney, under the leadership of Rev. G. E. Tremaine, who has done a year of excellent work, not only in building the parsonage, but in winning 150 souls for the Master. Brother Tremaine comes to us from the United Brethren church and will be a valuable accession to our Conference.

In addition to the buildings referred to, improvements have been put on the churches of the district to the amount of $2,000 and on the parsonages to the amount of $1,325. Bloomington District now has splendid parsonages and in most instances modern and thoroughly equipped churches.

The Benevolences have been fully presented by the pastors and the collections have all been taken in most instances.

On missions there is a decided increase in the total amount and also a liberal increase from the charges which constituted the District before it was enlarged. The missionary spirit is growing among the people, due we think to the influence of the mission study classes and better enlightenment of the people on the subject, and a more thorough consecration of their money to the Master's work.

This has been the crowning year so far of the history of the Illinois Wesleyan University. The enrollment has been larger, the character of the work has been advanced and all of the departments show a liberal increase in the work that is being done. In his quiet, and yet sure way, Rev. Theodore Kemp succeeded in raising the balance of the $60,000 necessary to secure the Carnegie fund. The money has been collected in, Mr. Carnegie notified and his assurances have been sent that his $40,000 would reach us in a few days. Plans have been secured for the erection of the Science Hall and in a little while a new and beautiful structure can be seen on the old campus of the Illinois Wesleyan University. We hope the preachers of the Conference will feel the interest in this institution that they should, enlist for it friends among the laymen, and secure for it students among the young people of their charges.

Soon after Conference that veteran of the Illinois Conference, Rev. A. C. Byerly, began to decline in health. He sent for me to visit him and we arranged to supply his work for a little while that he might take rest and secure medical assistance. He was advised by his physicians to submit to a surgical operation, which he did. He seemed to rally from this for a time but was never able to serve his charge again. After a few weeks he began declining rapidly and in March last the portals opened and received one of our most faithful and beloved brethren into the ranks above. Few who remember his buoyant and sprightly addresses last Conference thought it would be the last that he would be with us, but such it is, God buries his workmen and carries on his work. The words of the poet are fitting:

“Servant of God, well done,
Thy glorious warfare is past,
The battles fought, the victory won,
And thou art crowned at last.”

Twenty-five years ago this Fall we stood at the bar of this Conference asking admission. Our request was granted and now for a quarter of a century we have been trying to do faithfully the work of a Methodist preacher. Twenty years of that time was given in the pastorate in much the same lines as other ministers of this Conference follow; raising money for the church and for benevolences, building parsonages and churches and holding revival meetings, and doing such other work as seemed for the best interests of the church. Four years of my pastorate was spent on this charge and among the church enterprises with which we had to do was the erection of this present structure in which our Conference is now being held.

During the twenty years it was my privilege and joy to take into the church over 2,500 members.

Five years has been spent on the District. In this I have tried to serve the church faithfully and can say I have done the best I could with the talent which I possessed. I have tried to be faithful both to the charges and to the men and it is a source of gratification to note that while there has not been a great increase at any one time, there has been a steady increase all the time, and in material, intellectual and in spiritual work the District has made a perceptible growth.

One year ago last January my wife, who has helped me during these twenty-five years to achieve what success we may have had, was stricken with the grip. For five weeks we despaired of her life, after which she partially recovered. For some months she has been steadily declining in health and it is evident that a change of climate and of work for a time is necessary to prolong her life. So at the conclusion of this Conference I shall ask to be relieved from the duties of the District and the activities of the ministry for a year at least, in hopes that it may benefit her and if possible restore her to her former health. I regret to take this step but feel that duty to my wife demands this course at present.

Allow me to say in closing that my relations through this five years with the preachers and their families, with the officials and laymen of the district have been of the most pleasant nature, and I shall miss the kindly hearts, the cordial greetings and the many, many friends that we have been permitted to make during our service on the Bloomington District.

Praying for God's richest blessings upon you and upon all the Conference, I remain,

Yours faithfully,

J. B. HORNEY.

CHAMPAIGN DISTRICT.

To Bishop Daniel A. Goodsell, and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference—Dear Fathers and Brethren:

With an unusual sense of my great privilege and responsibility, but with gratitude to God for both, I present this my fifth annual report of the Champaign District.

Thirty-two pastoral charges form the district. Thirty-two pastors were appointed to these by Bishop Berry a year ago. All reported for duty and entered upon the discharge of their responsibilities promptly following the adjournment of Conference.

Pastoral Changes.

In December last, Rev. C. A. Smith in charge at Sadorus, was transferred to the Columbia River conference. W. E. Bell, a graduate of Scio college and Boston School of Theology, was secured to supply the work. He entered upon his duties March 1 and for the six months of the year has wrought as a master hand and brings up the best report ever made from the charge. His return at an advanced salary is urgently requested by the charge.

Clyde R. Booth, appointed to Third Church, Urbana, and Whiteheath, served acceptably and successfully for half of the year, infusing new life into the work. On account of failing health, however, he asked to be relieved April 1st. Since then the charge has been supplied by Loyd K. Ellsberry, a student at the U. of I. He fitted well into the work and a very encouraging report comes from this struggling charge. On April 11th, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Parks, of Urbana, presented to our church as an Easter offering, the valuable property occupied by this society.

During August, Rev. J. L. Minney, stationed at Fithian, was transferred to Jerome, Idaho. Rev. W. D. Morton, of the Philadelphia conference, is supplying the work.

Ministerial Support.

The claims for support of pastors were advanced by $1,400 this year. This makes an advance in the past 5 years of $6,000, or about 20%.

Our pastors look after the claims for the Episcopal and Conference Claimants' funds with conscientious interest and with few if any exceptions these claims will be reported in full.

Special Evangelism.

Not an unusual ingathering has obtained, this year, compared with other years of the five, but standing alone the results furnish cause for profound gratitude. More than 1,000 conversions have been reported.

Auxiliaries.

Our Sunday Schools give every evidence of improvement in methods and efficiency. Nearly every charge carries a successful Home Department and Cradle Roll. There are a number of Men's Bible classes. Conversions in the schools are frequent. All are supplied altogether or in large part with publications authorized by our church.

The energies of our young people in the Epworth Leagues are directed principally toward evangelism, home and foreign. The District held a largely attended, profitable and inspiring convention at Bement in June. It continues the support of Eleric Williams as missionary to China.

The ladies of the W. F. M. S. and W. H. M. S. are alive to the great interests they represent, and each year marks a forward movement.

There are about fifteen Methodist Brotherhoods in the district. This work is in its initial stage but promises well for the future church.

Building Enterprises.

A beautiful country church, costing $4,500, was dedicated by Bishop Berry at Mayview, last December. The cost was all provided for before the day of dedication.

On Sunday, January 17, our church at Bondville was completely destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of $3,500, with $1,500 insurance. On Monday, January 18, the pastor, C. L. York, and the officials of the society met with the District Superintendent and inaugurated a new building enterprise. May 16 the corner stone of a new building to cost about $7,000, was laid by the District Superintendent and the dedicatory services will be held early in the new conference year.

Bement has built one of the best parsonages in the district. It is modern in every respect, with best finishings and will cost completed about $5,500. Rev. M. M. Want, the pastor, served as architect, prepared the plans and specifications and directed the construction. This means the very best results in every detail. It will be ready for occupancy by the new pastor. With the exception of two or three charges the church and parsonage property in the district is first class.

During the five years of the present incumbency $196,000 have been expended in new church buildings and $15,000 in new parsonages.

Benevolences.

The apportionments to this district for this year are as follows: Foreign Missions, $4,500; Home Missions and Church Extension, $4,500; Freedman's Aid and Education, each $629; Domestic Missions, $535. From reports of the pastors at the 4th quarterly conferences, these will be very nearly if not quite in full. A few charges have failed of the full apportionment, but others have exceeded. A. M. Wells, St. Joseph, reports all financial claims met in full and 100% increase in benevolences. H. M. Derby, at Philo, advances the benevolences 60%.

Superintendent and Mrs. Davis, of the Cunningham Orphanage at Urbana, have had an unusually busy year. Ninety orphans have been cared for during the year, there being forty-five in the Home at present. The health of the children has been generally good. A water plant, a very much needed improvement, was installed during the early summer at an expense of $1,200. The beneficent work of this institution is only limited by its lack of facilities and endowment. Mr. and Mrs. Davis are assisted by four deaconesses at present. They are conducting a highly commendable philanthropy in a very economical and efficient manner.

General Remarks.

In the main the health of preachers and families has been good. Notable exceptions in two instances. Brother M. M. Want has endured a great trial of affliction. The serious sickness of his son, Cullen, while at Annapolis Military school, and the death of Mrs. Want in April rendered this the saddest year of his life. But through it all he has been sustained, no interest of his charge has suffered, and the work has prospered. The secret of his steadiness under great tribulation may be gathered from his words to the District Superintendent: "The firm hope of an immortal life beyond and the consciousness that we can not all go at once, with the sympathy of my brethren, sustains me now." Mrs. Want was an ideal mother and pastor's wife and the great loss is to the church as well as to those who mourn a wife and mother.

In the Ogden parsonage, typhoid fever prostrated Mrs. Baldwin and son, Paul. Thanks to a kind providence, both have recovered from the fever and Brother Baldwin, who was nearly prostrated, escaped.

The District Ministerial Association was entertained by Pastor A. M. Wells and his good people at St. Joseph. The meeting was unique. There were no set papers. A free and frank discussion of questions of vital interest to the ministerial and personal life, and the largest success of our work, furnished a program that was searching, instructive and inspiring. The devotional meeting for preachers only at the opening of the sessions, put the brethren in a frame of mind and heart ready to give and take and profit withal.

With gratitude for our common successes; with regret for my failures; with great appreciation for the goodness of God and the uniform and unstinted kindness of my brethren, this, perhaps my final report, is submitted.

C. B. TAYLOR.

DANVILLE DISTRICT.

To the Bishop and Members of the Illinois Conference:

The Danville District has had from the pastors of the district a year of very earnest and faithful labor and with a great degree of success crowning their efforts. There was a very manifest purpose upon the part of the pastors to bring the membership to a higher standard of Christian living and activity; to attain this result revivals were held in every charge in the district with varying degrees of success. The reports will show that fifteen hundred conversions have been recorded during the year, quite a number of whom were people who were already in the membership of the church, but needed conversion just as much as some who were not members. By far the larger part of the revival work was done by the pastors helping each other.

The benevolent interests of the church have been carefully looked after by the pastors and the District Superintendent and the reports will bring gratifying results in this department of the work.

In the material interest some valuable work has been accomplished; May second the beautiful new building at Hume was dedicated free of debt, the plant in its entirety cost $17,000 and is a very complete modern church building. Pastor J. M. Judy and his board did heroic work. A new building is under construction at the Kingsley appointment on the Fairmount charge. Brother Wherman is leading his people successfully; the building will be ready for dedication early in the fall. It will cost when completed $10,000. At Potomac Pastor W. T. Beadles has had a very difficult task to accomplish but like all his past records he did it and a new modern church building is under contract and will be completed in the coming Spring. It will add greatly to the working advantage of the Society and will be a thing of beauty and a joy for long years in the future. At Hoopeston, under the direct supervision of the pastor, Dr. N. P. Hall, one of the best parsonages in the Conference has been constructed with every convenience, partly furnished, and is large and ample for any pastor who may be so fortunate as to fall into the charge. At Ridge Farm the old parsonage property being too small and not in the right location, was sold and a new and commodious property was purchased, well located, large and well finished, modern throughout, and the pastor, Frank Harry, has been enjoying that beautiful home for the last three months. At Rossville the parsonage property has been improved by the installation of a new hot water heating plant and complete plumbing in the building. The improvement cost $1,000 and makes it a delightful home for the pastor, E. H. Lugg.

Changes In Pastors During the Year.

At the close of the first quarter Rev. James McCrory of the Oakwood charge surrendered the charge to the very great comfort of the charge and the District Superintendent and moved his goods to Missouri and I have a letter asking for his location at his own request. Rev. J. M. Goodspeed, a member of the Conference, was appointed to supply for the year and he did his work well. In February Rev. J. H. Howsmon by a mutual arrangement and with the consent of Bishop Berry, was taken to the Decatur District and stationed at Elwin. A supply was found in the person of Ira S. Haverfield, who took up the work at once and has had a very successful year.

In June Rev. T. F. Shouse, who was in his fifth year as pastor of Lincoln church, was transferred by Bishop Quale to Newkirk, Okla., and Rev. E. J. Williams was transferred from that charge to Lincoln church, Danville. Brother Williams entered upon his work at once after the transfer and has met with gratifying success and is in favor with his people.

Rev. J. S. Dancey of First Church, Danville, will retire from the pastorate for the purpose of attending school. Rev. Bert Cunningham, who has served Grace Church, Danville, will ask to be appointed to a Professorship in the Wesleyan University at Cameron, Mo.

Rev. M. P. Wilkin of Indianola and Rev. W. H. Musgrove of Armstrong will ask for a superannuate relation and retire from the work. These brothers have served long and faithfully and deserve a place upon the honor roll. There will in all probability be some other changes that Bishop Goodsell will announce later.

The Sunday School department of the work has been growing and there is a manifest increased interest in this branch of the work. We also believe there is coming a better day for the Epworth League. The young people are taking a larger interest in this line of work and there are signs of an awakening that looks brighter. May it soon appear.

Financially I am glad to report that the salaries will be paid. The churches are coming to realize that responsibility more and more.

Sickness and Death.

Twice during the year was Rev. W. H. Musgrove compelled to go to the hospital for treatment for trouble that seemed to threaten his life. We are glad to record that he seems fully recovered and filled his pulpit regularly for the last three months. In the month of August death came to the parsonage at Collison and took the sweet little baby girl of eight months from Brother and Sister Hamand, but in this sad loss the Great Comforter has comforted their hearts and sustained them.

Personally it would give me great joy to speak of each pastor in the district, but I could not well speak of some and leave others unmentioned and a report with thirty-six divisions would be too long for these strenuous days. Each pastor has done his work in his own way and done it well. They deserve all the credit for what has been done. Some of them have been in the district during the entire time of my administration and are of course very near to my own life, but others who have not been with me so long are just as kind and have worked just as faithfully and I pray for all the blessing of the Christ whose we are and whom we serve.

And now a final word personally. This closes forty consecutive years of service in the Conference without a single break. Eighteen of the forty have been spent on three districts. I realize that the Conference has shown me great favor and has honored me far above any claims that I might have had and there is no place for single complaint.

In the District work I have been associated with one hundred and forty Pastors and my relations with each one have been most pleasant and there are no men on earth that I love as I do the Methodist Brotherhood. But realizing that there is a call out of the Ministry (as to its active relations) as well as a call IN I feel that the time has come when I should give place to men who can do the work better than I can. I realize the march of events and the changed condition and feel that my little place can be made larger and more successful by letting another step in and take up the armor that I lay off. I have given these forty years gladly and cheerfully and would give forty more if I had them to give. I have but one request—that I may be remembered by what I have done.

S. W. WHITLOCK.

DECATUR DISTRICT.

As we again assemble in Annual Conference session, custom and duty demand that I shall present to you a resumé of our activities, of the service rendered our Zion, the successes which have been won in His name, and the triumphs achieved for His Kingdom, within the bounds of the Decatur District.

At the command of Bishop Berry, quickly the armor was adjusted and every man was found early in his place, ready to dare and to do, that right might triumph and His Kingdom be established. The battles of the year have been hard fought, but the victories have been worthy.

The pastoral changes have been few. Early in February L. C. Moore, who was appointed to the Bethany charge, upon the approval of Bishop McDowell, was released from his charge that he might devote himself exclusively to evangelistic work, within the bounds of the district, under the direction of the district superintendent. Here he has labored faithfully and earnestly during the rest of the conference year, aiding in some of the hardest fields and in the most needy places. Scores bear testimony to the saving power of the Gospel under his labors. Irwin McMurray, a supernumerary member of our conference, was secured to succeed Brother Moore. J. F. Clearwaters, who was appointed to do Sunday School work in Wyoming, under the direction of our Board of Sunday Schools, was succeeded at Illiopolis by J. C. Bell of Elwin. J. H. Howsman was appointed at Elwin to succeed J. C. Bell. During the latter part of April, failing health compelled J. W. Whitlock to ask to be relieved of the Butler charge, and H. C. Munch was appointed to close the year there.

In the general prosperity, which this portion of the country continues to enjoy, the pastors have shared to the extent of $1200, represented in increased salaries. A long standing debt at Tower Hill was cancelled the last night of the old year and thus on this account the new year was ushered in amid the doxologies of a joyful people. A new barn has been built at Arthur, and other improvements made on the parsonage property. The interior of the church at Bethany has been greatly beautified. Important improvements have been made on the church at Lake City, as well as on the church at Millersville. The Blue Mound chapel on the Elwin charge was rededicated on Feb. 7th, 1909, after being thoroughly remodeled and enlarged, making it practically a new church. This was at a cost approximating $5000. What has been said of the Blue Mound chapel will apply to the Niantic church, which was rededicated on the 5th of the present month, with all obligations met. Extensive repairs and improvements, although less costly, have also been made on the Harristown church, on the same charge. The parsonage at Illiopolis has been greatly enhanced in value by a new heating system and other improvements, adding to the comfort of the pastor's family. The finishing touches are just being placed on a new parsonage at Blue Mound. It is commodious, containing a basement and eight rooms, and is thoroughly modern in every particular. At Pana valuable improvements are being made on both our church and parsonage property. Here a new heating system has been installed in both buildings, while other equipment has been added to the parsonage, increasing its convenience and size. The church has been painted and refrescoed, a hard wood floor placed in the auditorium. These with several other improvements add much to its attractiveness. It will be reopened the first Sunday after the close of the conference session. The church at Lovington will now be heated with steam. The basement has just been completed and thoroughly equipped with a view to introducing some institutional features in the church life. About $1,800 has been secured at Rosemond for the purpose of building a parsonage. It will be undertaken in the near future. At Latham the new church building is advancing well; when complete it will be a creation of beauty. In its construction nothing has been overlooked that makes for the efficiency of every department of church work. This will, when equipped, approximate $13,000 in cost. Our Society at Cowden is also engaged in a new church building enterprise. This structure is of brick. In the plans every attention has been given to durability, beauty of architecture, convenience and every other need of a well equipped and progressive church. Initial steps have been taken for the erection of a new church at Long Creek, on the Mt. Zion charge. This purpose which now promises speedy realization, represents hopes deferred.

The pastors have had their supreme task at heart and to this task they have given their best endeavor. Few are the charges which have not been pervaded by the revival spirit and some revival fruit is found. Other charges have had wide-reaching revivals which have been rich in results. Among the more successful revivals held, were those at Arthur, Butler, Cowden, Irving, Hillsboro, Macon, Nokomis and Tower Hill. In many of these our acting district evangelist rendered valuable assistance. Our reports will show a gain of more than 500 in full members, the largest number of any given church being the increase at First Church, Decatur.

Faithfulness, devotion and zeal have characterized the pastors in all their endeavors to sustain our benevolent causes. They have more than maintained the high standard of other years, and from data at hand I am warranted in announcing that the total advance this year in Foreign and Home Missions will exceed $1,500, while there will be a substantial advance in Domestic Missions and Education.

Our Sunday Schools are being well sustained. A growing interest is being manifested in this department of our work. The children are coming to their own in the church, and this phase of our work is being accentuated as never before. While the care of the children is being emphasized, organized adult Bible classes are formed in almost every charge, and this entire department of our work is increasing in efficiency.

During the month of June, a well attended and enthusiastic Epworth League convention was held at Assumption. This was followed by a sub-district convention, held at Butler, which was no less enthusiastic. These afforded some inspiration, but so much more is needed. A number of the chapters are alive and have a true conception of the genius and spirit of the organization and are a vital force in the church, but there are yet too many chapters which cannot be regarded as an important factor in the church life.

Success has crowned the faithful efforts of the Woman's Foreign and Home Missionary Societies. I think the other benevolences have been rather aided than hindered by their activities. Not a few of the Official Boards have cause for gratitude for the faithful services rendered, and in some instances sacrifices made, by the Ladies' Aid Societies.

Typhoid fever kept H. F. Powell, of the Decatur Circuit, out of his pulpit for three months during the winter. The same disease brought anxiety to the parsonage at Arthur, where, in the early summer, Sister Williams' life for some days hung in the balance. It has now in its grasp two of the members of the parsonage home at Owaneco, the pastor's wife and sister. Though the crisis is past and they are slowly convalescing, it is doubtful whether the pastor, J. T. Stretton, will be able to attend this session of the Conference.

Deeper shadows have fallen on other parsonage homes. A few weeks ago the messenger beckoned Mrs. Hoyt from the parsonage at Blue Mound, she being the mother of Sister Simmons, and made her home with the pastor's family. Almost gladly she responded. She was gentle in spirit and saintly in character.

In the late winter Sister Whitlock, of Butler, wife of the pastor, Brother J. W. Whitlock, laid down life's burdens. She was a true helpmeet to her husband in the ministry, gracious in spirit, lofty in character and loyal in service.

The district and the conference has sustained a great loss in the death of L. L. Baker. He had been left without an appointment to attend school and had just completed his course at Drew Theological Seminary when he was stricken with his fatal illness. He died at the seat of the Seminary, Madison, New Jersey, February 28th, 1909. He was a young man of rare promise, of deep consecration and of unsullied purity of character. He had offered himself to the Missionary Board for service in the foreign field and in the closing hours of his life his heart was burdened for the regions beyond.

Throughout the year the pastors have co-operated heartily in every project looking toward the accomplishment of greater results. Hospitality and loyalty have characterized the churches and people among whom I have mingled. Only kindness has been accorded me by the pastors and their families. I thank God for the privilege of being associated with these faithful and loyal pastors in their labors, and count it an honor to share, even, in a small measure, in their joys and triumphs.

B. F. SHIPP.

JACKSONVILLE DISTRICT.

We desire to put on record that a more loyal, devoted and courageous body of ministers never set their faces toward the duty assigned them than those who were appointed to the various charges on the Jacksonville District one year ago.

There will always come to the servant of Jesus Christ, as he reviews the labors of the year, a consciousness that if he had again in his possession the time and opportunities now passed away, better results would be obtained. But to the one who is conscious of doing his best according to the light afforded, there will be no serious regret, but there will be a determination to profit by the mistakes of yesterday.

By the rearrangement of the districts at the last annual conference, we have thirty-eight pastoral charges in the territory. But with the greater compactness it is easier to travel and we find it better in every respect. True to our Lord and church we have kept in mind the main object for which we exist—the salvation of men.

That religious cyclone, Rev. William Sunday, visited Jacksonville in October and there followed a veritable shaking of the dry bones. Hundreds who were dead in sin trespasses, became alive to righteousness while the city and vicinity were aroused as never before. Centenary church received about two hundred and fifty accessions, Grace church one hundred and fifty-four and Brooklyn church twenty-six and other places felt the tide of a rising religious life. While each pastor of the city did his best to gather the fruits of this revival, we will not be misunderstood when we speak of the coming of Brother McCarty to the Centenary church at the critical time and of the masterly way in which he, a stranger, conserved the fruits of this outpouring for God and Methodism.

One of the most remarkable and blessed revivals occurred at Waverly and it can be largely traced to the thorough preparatory work of the pastor, Brother Kirkpatrick, although the Rev. Tilman Hobson, an evangelist of high character, rendered efficient help. Rev. Hobson is a veritable apostle of sunshine.

Excellent meetings held at Carrolton, Franklin, Meredosia, and Murrayville resulted in over a hundred conversions in each place. Successful meetings have also been held at Whitehall, Berdan, Bluffs, Alexander, Greenfield, Rockbridge, Manchester, Beardstown, Jacksonville and West Jacksonville Circuits with visible and glorious results, while in other places the seed was sown which will bear fruit in the days to come. We must not fail to mention the union tent meeting at Astoria, held during the summer under the leadership of Evangelist Dow, which resulted in about eighty conversions, and Hebron, on the Jacksonville Circuit, under the leadership of Rev. Dan W. Nichols, has enjoyed a gracious revival. We rejoice to record an ingathering of 1,750 souls during the year.

As a matter of course, there is considerable visible improvement in the temporal aspects of the Kingdom and conspicuously because of its position, stands the new Grace church in Jacksonville, led by Dr. J. C. Nate, whose persistent faith, courage, and tact, has produced abundant fruit in leading the enterprise to victory. Over sixty thousand dollars in cash will be put into the new edifice, which, with the salvage of the old building, will make their new property worth at least $85,000. A cordial invitation will be presented, asking the conference to hold its next session in this new Temple; this invitation is backed up by the entire Methodist of the City of Jacksonville, and it will, without a doubt be heartily accepted.

A new church is being erected at Palmyra costing $18,000. The building is the gift of Mrs. C. T. Hanshaw as a memorial to her husband. The society furnishes the church, including a pipe organ, to cost not less than $1,500. Truly in this way, "he being dead yet speaketh."

A new church building at Wrights will be ready for dedication soon after conference which will cost $2,500. A new parsonage at Manchester worth $2,200 will be appreciated, making a comfortable home for the pastor and his family.

Waverly Methodism waves her banner to the front. A new pipe organ, bowled floor, and other improvements, costing $3,000, proves their loyalty and liberality. Other expenditures of similar character might be mentioned as follows:

Concord, $75; Greenfield Circuit, $75; Waverly Circuit, $300; Bluff Springs, $300; Brooklyn, $400; Chandlerville, $242; Astoria, $525; Carrollton, $100; Centenary, $1,450; Rockbridge, $600; Oakford, $375; Jacksonville Circuit, $350; Oxville, $534. On old indebtedness at Naples, $220; Murrayville, $230; Whitehall, $1,500; Carrollton, $250, and Winchester, $1,350.

The pastors are alive to the necessity of having church and parsonage property present a good appearance, and with few exceptions, this is being carried out.

We are glad to report an increase of $900 in the apportionment for pastoral support, and yet there are preachers living on much less than a comfortable subsistence. We are calling attention to the increased cost of living and are asking for a corresponding advance in salary.

The benevolent collections have had the hearty sympathy of every pastor. We have urged that they follow up the last man and lay siege to the last dollar, making a personal canvass of the entire membership, laying before them the facts and necessities and urging a conscientious support of our world-wide beneficent enterprises. There will be good reports and, in many instances, substantial increases.

We are glad to mention the legacies coming from the estate of Brother J. Vince Hawk, a faithful member of the Greenfield Circuit. He bequeathed a thousand dollars to the trustees of the Greenfield Circuit, and the residue, about $9,000, to be divided equally between the Preacher's Aid and the Missionary Societies. He also remembered his pastor, Rev. Harry M. Ingram, to the extent of $500, an occurrence we would like to see more frequently done, and that pastor has been wearing a broad smile ever since.

Two of the veterans of our Conference have passed to their reward during the year—Dr. W. F. Short and William McKendree McElfresh.

Early in the Spring Dr. W. F. Short was taken ill, yet after lingering through the summer his condition improved and his friends entertained hopes of his recovery, so that when the end came, on Sabbath morning.

August 29th, it was a surprise to all. As a preacher Dr. Short was methodical, earnest, impressive and eloquent. As a citizen he was one of God's great noblemen, with strong convictions of right and the courage to defend them. As a Christian Dr. Short was devout, intensely spiritual, a model of piety, and real consecration to God and his service. He was one of the most beloved of whose career is past but whose memory is a benediction.

How can we speak of McKendree McElfresh in the space afforded by this report, while he towered before us in majestic altitude; as a man, a preacher, a citizen, a scholar and above all a devout, consecrated Christian, he stood high among the best that this land could produce. These two men belong to the old guard who never surrendered and whose watchword was victory through the everlasting covenant. Their lives were patterns to believers, their words were seasoned with grace, their deaths a triumph, and their reward victorious crowns.

The Woman's College continues to grow; that sentence can be stereotyped, for as long as Dr. Harker remains at the head it will expand with the seasons. The beautiful new $60,000 building will be ready for use at the opening of the school year, which promises to be the most successful in its history. Just what the next move will be, we are unable to say, but there is no halting place with the busy and successful president of the best Woman's College in the Mississippi valley. Every preacher and layman can work for it with reserve.

Concluding, we would like to mention many things of interest and commend every preacher's faithfulness. They have wrought well; only the master knows the cares, difficulties and temptations of ministerial life and how often with scanty support from those they serve, victory is snatched from defeat.

To Him, who guideth His people by the pillar of fire and the cloud by night, be all the glory.

Respectfully submitted,

A. A. WHITE.

MATTOON DISTRICT.

Bishop Goodsell and Brethren:

In the greatest work of the centuries, the saving of men, the preachers and people of Mattoon District, in co-operation with God, have been engaged during the past twelve months in seeking to bring the lost to Christ. They have also sought to edify the saints and build them up in this great salvation.

Changes Among Ministers.

Frank W. Moore was released from Windsor in March to take up work at Nowata, East Oklahoma Mission. T. A. Adams of Hindsboro was appointed to Windsor and John W. Dundas, who had just completed the course at the Boston School of Theology, was appointed to Hindsboro. J. H. Elder of Westfield, on account of failing health, was transferred to Eustis, Florida, and C. E. Parsons of that place came to Westfield. A. J. Meyers, a local preacher in charge at Greenup, surrendered his work in April and A. F. Roberts was appointed to fill out the year.

Revivals.

This has been a year of blessed revival success. Bishop Berry, at our request, appointed E. K. Towle evangelist for the Mattoon District. The plans for his fourteen meetings were mapped out by a committee of three ministers, his support guaranteed and never has a man sent from God worked harder to win souls to Christ and to build up the church. He led the campaign at West Union, Oakland, Martinsville, Casey, Neoga, Greenup, Dudley, Marshall, Toledo, Sullivan, Middlesworth, Dry Grove, Ashmore and Windsor. There were over seven hundred professed conversions besides the great good accomplished in arousing the churches and preachers to renewed consecration. The Lord has plainly revealed His leading in this work and we fully endorse the plan providing you can find the right type of man. Mrs. Towle also proved a most efficient helper in all the meetings, frequently addressing hundreds of women. In addition to the revival spirit that accompanied the labors of the District Evangelist, many of the pastors have had successful meetings. At Mattoon was held a sweeping work of grace, resulting in over two hundred conversions. At Central church, on Humboldt circuit, at Graham Chapel, Sulphur Springs and Fletcher Chapel on the Bruce charge, at practically every point on the Etna, Lerna, Paris and Vermillion circuits, at Patton on the Oliver circuit, at Cottonwood and Jewett on the Toledo circuit came blessed awakenings and indeed the whole district has felt the touch of power divine. There have been close to three thousand conversions and no doubt over two thousand accessions to the church during the year. The honor and praise belongeth unto God.

Pastoral Support.

During the four years of our superintendency there has been an increase of $10,393 on pastor's salaries, or over 40% advance, and with each year witnessing a forward movement. The average salary now paid in the district is $915. With a prayerful presentation of systematic giving every charge can be advanced in the support of our ministry.

Benevolences.

The benevolences have been well looked after and in a few places there will be a marked increase. Most of the charges will not report any decrease from last year though a few in the southern part of the district, where for three successive years there has been a failure of the corn crop and this year more so than the two preceding years, will be unable to raise their apportionments even after resorting to every honorable recourse.

Material Improvements.

The Sunday following the adjournment of the last session of our Conference the new church at Oliver was dedicated. One year previous to that we had no organization at that place. M. C. Hull, then pastor of Paris Circuit took up the field and led the people in the building of a beautiful little church. In March a new modern $30,000 church was dedicated at Marshall. E. L. Pletcher has won a great victory in this enterprise and we have a church worth a third more than it cost. At Allenville as a result of a sweeping revival in a nearby country church, our pastor, D. H. Munson, led in the purchasing of a United Brethren church, which has been thoroughly overhauled at a cost of $1,600. We now have a strong class there. On the Fourth of July the Methodist Protestant Church, known by the name of Washington, located southwest of Martinsville, was dedicated. It is now a part of the Martinsville circuit. At Martinsville an addition to the church costing $2,500 has been built and at Isabell a similar addition costing about $800 has been constructed. At Paris the new organization, known as the Tabernacle Church, only a year and a half old, is pushing forward a fine brick church which will cost about $12,000. W. L. Ewing leads the forces. At Findlay a modern church costing $15,000 is being erected. C. S. McCullom is the victorious leader there. At Westfield C. E. Parsons captured the situation and now leads the people in the erection of a modern brick and stone church costing not less than $12,000. This will place our church in the front rank of that little college city. At Arcola an up-to-date parsonage costing $4,500 has been completed and awaits the new pastor or the reappointment of the present one. At Gays a parsonage costing $1,500 has been completed and this little city will become the head of a circuit. At Marshall, in addition to erecting their church, a parsonage equal to any in the district has been added to their real estate. At Kansas a fine property has been purchased and awaits the coming of the new pastor. Many of the other parsonages and churches have been improved and beautified.

But One Death.

Mrs. Hooper, widow of the late W. S. Hooper of sainted memory in our conference, passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Kern, in this city. A suitable obituary has been prepared and will be presented at the memorial service.

Memorial Hospital.

This is the only hospital under the direction of our church within the bounds of our Conference. It is close to the heart of the church and is doing a work that has long been neglected. Last winter an aged farmer died at this institution. He was a plain, old man, but he planned wisely for the small fortune he had delved out of the soil. His farm and all that he possessed was left to the hospital. By this generous gift, together with $500 that will come from the estate of Mrs. Fisher of Greenfield the hospital is free from debt.

One of the veterans of our itinerant ranks asks for superannuation this conference. Dr. T. J. Wheat, after forty years of faithful labor, finds it necessary on account of physical affliction and increasing years, to ask for this relation. With his devoted wife he will seek rest and recuperation. The people of his last charge where he served four years, passed most complimentary resolutions regarding his ministry among them. May his days be filled with peace.

PARKER SHIELDS.

QUINCY DISTRICT.

Dear Bishop Goodsell and Brethren:

In making my second annual report of the Quincy District, I would first record my gratitude to Almighty God for my excellent health throughout the year. I have not missed an appointment. Secondly, I would in this more permanent form, thank my brethren in the ministry and the loyal laymen for their many Christian courtesies. I am under many obligations to all of them. I have enjoyed their fellowship and that of their families more than I can tell. They are as fine a lot of men to work with as ever labored together in the cause of righteousness. They are whole-souled, large-hearted, spiritual leaders. They are full of optimism and faith; and their work spells success.

It would not be wise to single out any one of them and say, "he excels." For they have nearly all been as faithful as men can be, and have done what they could, some of them in specially hard places. Happy the District Superintendent who has such a band of co-laborers!

Death has not invaded any of our homes except that of Brother Woodworth, where the death angel took their new born babe.

I have by Epistles, and otherwise, tried to spur every man on to his best; urging him to make himself too large for his present field, so that those he served would want to keep him, and other charges would seek his services. I am glad to say that many have created such a demand for their services; and the charges have asked to have them reappointed. Some are fitted for the best appointments in the Conference, and they would "make good" if they were given a chance.

At the beginning of the year eight charges were left to be supplied. About a month after Conference I had all these places filled. Besides, I formed several new charges and found pastors for them. These new men have done good work. There are now forty-three charges, with nearly one hundred churches in the district. The Quincy Methodist, and the Pike County Methodist, have furnished me with a channel through which I was able to keep our people informed concerning district happenings. I am greatly indebted to the editors, Brothers J. W. Miller and S. R. Reno.

The achievements of the District have not been brilliant or spectacular, but we believe them to have been real and substantial. The benevolences will show a commendable increase over last year. And the conversions number more than fifteen hundred. While we still believe with our founder, "that soul-saving is our chief business," we cannot say any longer with him, "We have no other work to do." For we have. In our day ministers must be "all-round men," and give their attention to many things. Our work is no longer only spiritual, but material and financial. As one says, "It dare not be all revival, nor all instruction, nor all worship, nor all service, nor all systematic money effort; but it should be all these, in right dimensions and relations, sensibly and religiously coordinated." This is what my brethren have tried to do with varying success.

Among the things worth mentioning are a great revival at Barry, under the leadership of Dr. Mahood, in which our church was greatly benefited. Eighty-one of the converts came to our church. This has resulted in stimulating the Sunday school and the organization of a working Methodist Brotherhood. At Bowen a new furnace has been put into the church and the parsonage has been improved. They need larger quarters for their Sunday School and Epworth League. At Camden and other points on that work they had glorious revivals in which eighty-four people were brought to Christ. A new parsonage has been built at a cost of $1,200; new lights have been installed at the Camden and Shiloh churches, and at Chapel Hill the house has been papered and painted. The pastor's salary is to be increased next year. At Camp Point eighteen were converted, and the preacher's horse enjoys the comforts of a new barn. At Clayton they liked their preacher so well they increased his salary and improved the parsonage at a cost of over $400. At Hulls they are re-roofing the church and making other changes. This has been the best year in the history of the society, so writes the pastor. A successful tent meeting was held there and at Rockport and at Nebo, by the brethren of that section of the district. They denied themselves their vacations to hold these meetings, and God has rewarded them.

At Kinderhook, under the leadership of Brother Hibbens, the old church was made practically new at a cost of $1,878. At Lima a good revival resulted in the salvation of many and the building of a new parsonage costing $1,050. They also purpose paying the pastor $200 more salary next year. Littleton had good meetings. They also bettered the condition of the parsonage, and paid off $1,950 of their church indebtedness. Lorain paid off all indebtedness against the churches, and improved them some. At Marden a new church is under construction under the leadership of Brother L. A. Powell, a superannuate. There is a lot of service in him yet.

Mt. Sterling, notwithstanding the impaired health of their pastor, has had a good year. Our Conference Evangelist, F. L. Buck, held a meeting for them in which many were helped and the church strengthened. We regret very much that Brother W. H. McGhee, the pastor, who has always served his charges well, is obliged to retire from active service. A brother beloved will be missed. May God restore him to health and to the service of the church in the near future.

New Canton has had the greatest revival in its history, and has pledged the support of a preacher who will live among them. Their League has put in a new light plant at a cost of $90. New Salem had revivals at every point, under its evangelistic pastor, F. M. Gibson, who also assisted other brethren. Over one hundred were converted on his own charge. His Epworth League at New Salem succeeded in taking the Banner from all the other leagues in the district. All their properties are being improved. Things are happening on that charge. Paloma had a good revival and has developed sufficient strength to become a station. The rest of the circuit will be formed into a new charge. Pittsfield has grown steadily under the direction of Brother A. S. Chapman, and they have remodeled their parsonage at a cost of $2,000, practically making it a new home. Pleasant Hill had an unusual revival. Over a hundred souls were converted. Since then they have spent over $2,400 in church improvements. Plainville spent $500 in improvements on the parsonage and $200 on the churches. On the Rockport circuit the old New Hartford society has been resurrected and they have regular preaching services again.

Grace church, Quincy, has acquired its own property by the purchase of the Merick Hall. They are out of debt and have a hopeful future. Vermont Street church has also had a good year. It has the largest Sunday School in the district. Other organizations of this church are alike strong. The church received over a hundred converts from the Ostrom and Mahood meetings. A new parsonage has been built costing $6,700, which will be ready for occupancy after Conference. This church will nearly double its missionary offering over last year. Chaddock Boys' School had a very good year. Many of the boys were converted in the Ostrom and Mahood meetings. Miss Tobie and her force of teachers are a self-denying and self-sacrificing lot of women. The church does not half appreciate their service. The new school year is opening with a nice lot of boys. The institution has received some very valuable property during the year, but it is not available for immediate use. We need many generous givers just now. To secure the needed money for immediate use the management has employed the Rev. E. E. Hunt, who comes to us from the Dakota Conference, as financial agent. Brethren, give him a warm welcome for the sake of the boys and the school. At the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home Brother M. M. Davidson, the active chaplain, is rendering as efficient service as in his palmyest days. He is beloved by all the old veterans and others.

Rushville, under the able ministry of A. P. Stover, whose preaching ability is as great as ever, has had a prosperous year. Their great Sunday school and their Woman's Foreign Missionary Society are the rivals of any in the Conference. The pastor reports a gift of $1,500 to the different societies of the local church, from Mrs. Ruth Sloat, recently deceased. Versailles has had another prosperous year of institutional work. The town is much cleaner because of the work of our pastor there. Warsaw had one of the greatest awakenings for years. One hundred and fifty-two souls were either converted or reclaimed during the great meeting held by the pastor, P. R. Powers. The District Superintendent had the privilege of baptizing 47 of the new converts (the largest number he ever baptized at one time) and receiving them and others into the church. The church and parsonage has been greatly improved, and it is now a desirable charge. West Point has been faithfully served by Brother A. L. Shafer, who wishes to be left without an appointment so as to attend Garrett Biblical Institute.

Other charges not specially mentioned have been cultivated as assiduously as the rest; but adverse conditions, for which the workers were not always to blame, prevented what we should have been pleased to have noted. In meetings held at Augusta, Bowen, Chambersburg, Detroit, Griggsville and circuit, Huntsville, Hulls, Kinderhook, LaPrairie, Lorain, Mendon, Milton, Payson, Pittsfield, Plainville, Plymouth, Rushville and circuit, Ripley, Versailles and West Point, a larger or smaller number were converted. At most of these points the pastors held their own meetings; a few were assisted by their brethren or outside evangelists.

The record of the year has been made. It has been a busy one to me. I have not taken a week's vacation. I have tried to help the brethren wherever I could, not sparing myself. The Lord has been with me in my counsels with the churches; and He has stood by me in the preaching of His Word. The Lord has ever been before my eyes, whose I am and Whom I serve. And if I may I'll serve another day.

J. F. WOHLFARTH.

SPRINGFIELD DISTRICT.

To Bishop D. A. Goodsell and Members of the Illinois Annual Conference:

With profound gratitude to God for His constant aid and comfort, I present this, my first annual report as superintendent of Springfield District. During the year I have been blessed with perfect health and have been able to meet every engagement with the exception of two minor ones, and these failures were due to faulty transportation and not any feebleness of mine. O, may the day of flying machines hasten to come! Then, perhaps, district superintendents can be in two or more places at once.

On assuming the work of the Capital City district, I found everything in ship-shape as the result of the labors of my now lamented predecessor, Dr. A. C. Byerly, whose consecration to the work and skill in administration was noticeable in every department of the work. The district was well manned and every preacher with two exceptions, to be noted later, kept to his field during the entire year.

Springfield District is cosmopolitan in its population. Composed like the multitude that John saw, of "all nations and kindreds and people and tongues." But, unfortunately, not standing, like that throng, in the attitude of devout worship before the throne of God and the Lamb.

The work of the district presents as many problems as can be found in any district in Methodism. Here we have every phase of the city question and every form of the country problem. Here we have capital and labor generally on peaceful terms, but occasionally just standing on the verge of an ugly chasm. Here we find a multitude, indeed, of people who are seemingly in no bond of sympathy with us ecclesiastically or politically.

They are total strangers to American standards, customs and traditions. I can take you into large communities that never recognize the Sabbath, where the name of Jesus Christ is only an expletive, where the Bible is an unheard of book and where beer drinking and carousing are the usual vocations of every holiday. These communities are as certainly missionary territory as can be found anywhere beneath the shining sun.

In the Capital City itself we have all the problems of the greater city. Two hundred and fifty filthy craters of hell continue to pour forth the smoke of the bottomless pit. Gamblers, pimps and scarlet women haunt the streets with tempting bait to lure unsuspecting youth into the jaws of death. Politicians, under the plea of expediency, bargain with these depraved elements and sell virtue and human flesh and blood for a price. Here race hatred smoulders and only needs the fiery stimulation of intoxicants to some day break forth again into a flame of frenzy.

Over against these terrific dangers I can see but one remedy and that is the Cross of Jesus. "And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me."

During the year I have studied these problems and often has my heart sunk within me and I have said, "Who is equal to these things," and the words of the great apostle to the Gentiles have come ringing down the ages to greet my ears, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me." Brethren, let us take heart and attack these mighty problems in the strength of the Great Conqueror.

My district comprises thirty-seven charges, two of which are almost nominal. Thirty-one pastors were appointed by Bishop Berry last Conference; four supplies were named by Dr. Byerly and two were secured by myself. With the exception of First Church, Springfield, and Buffalo, all the pulpits have continued to be supplied by the pastors appointed by the bishop. No serious illness has entered the parsonages and the angel of death has passed over the homes of the workers; and for this we are devoutly grateful.

The pastors, for the most part, planned for an early campaign and revival fires began to burn on most of the charges early in the year. Under enthusiastic leadership, the battle has been carried to the gate. In the city of Springfield our pastors united with the other evangelical ministers and secured the services of the Rev. W. A. Sunday for a five weeks' campaign. The forces were well organized, the churches enthusiastically co-operated, and as a result something near four thousand souls were converted or reclaimed and the standard of righteousness was placed a notch higher than it had been for several years in the Capital of Illinois. The results of this great revival were immediately seen in the quickened life of all the co-operating churches. Congregations became larger, prayer meetings increased in numbers and spirituality, interest in all phases of religious activity grew and the fire spread to communities outside the city and nearly all the churches for miles around were greatly helped.

I will not tax your patience by attempting to present a detailed report of all the revival work done in the district. Suffice it to say that besides the great work done in Springfield there were splendid ingatherings at Auburn, Berry, Buckhart, Carlinville, Chatham, Dawson, Divernon, Grove City, Mechanicsburg, Pawnee, Pawnee circuit, Petersburg, Riverton, Rochester, Thayer, Virden and Williamsville. There were revivals at other places not mentioned in this list such as will leave a lasting benefit in these charges, but not of quite such magnitude as the ones named. I think that when the register in heaven is opened it will disclose more than two thousand conversions to the credit of the Methodist pastors and people of Springfield district for the year just closing. Brethren, these are trophies that will rejoice our hearts when all our worries and cares and tears are forgotten in the glory of the celestial city.

Now, concerning the collections, I will say that ante conference data is never to be relied upon. I will, therefore, make no attempt to foreshadow exact results that may be read some time in the future, (if you live long enough) in the conference minutes. From what I can gather by my inquiries at the fourth quarterly conferences, the aggregates for benevolences will be considerably in advance of last year.

When the apportionments reached the preachers last fall, some of them thought Uncle Joe or somebody else had revised them—upwards. The explanation is about this: Your district superintendent being an unsophisticated youth, thought that perhaps the head offices at New York and Philadelphia knew better how to make the apportionments from the infallible data said to be at their command than the superintendent could. So he did not attempt a revisal this year and sent them to the preachers as a guide to what the great missionary generals thought they ought to do. Next year, if by grace of our presiding bishop, I am continued in this office, I shall take a hand in making the apportionments myself. Some of the apportionments, however, you made by your own vote and these, no superintendent, however audacious, would have the temerity to change.

For example, by vote of the conference as shown in the report of the Educational Committee, twenty cents per capita was levied on all our charges for educational purposes. (See page 74, Conf. Minutes.)

However, the apportionments were generally received with willingness and a hearty effort was made to meet them and the result is that in many cases they are full and running over. I am glad I can say this to the credit of enthusiastic pastors and a liberal constituency of laymen, or perhaps, better say a constituency of liberal laymen. God bless and largely increase the tribe.

Material Improvements.

This has not been a year of notable material improvements. Most of the charges within the district are fairly well equipped with churches and parsonages. But there has been some material gain.

The first Sunday after conference Bishop McDowell reopened the First Methodist Episcopal church in Springfield. A disastrous fire had greatly damaged it early in the year preceding and the trustees believed that the time had come for long needed improvements. This was undertaken and carried to a successful completion at a cost of near $20,000. The church is now one of the most commodious and beautiful in the city.

At Riverton extensive improvements, amounting almost to a complete rebuilding of the church, were begun early in the year and completed in February and the Superintendent had the privilege of raising the last dollar of debt and dedicating the beautiful renovated structure to the service of Almighty God. The cost of improvements was about $5,000.

Zion, on the Dawson charge, completed a beautiful modern chapel in May at a cost of about $1,200 and honored the District Superintendent by inviting him to dedicate it, which he did without a dollar of debt.

At Buffalo, S. M. Vancleve initiated the enterprise of building a $15,000 church, before he was transferred to the S. W. Kansas Conference. Brother J. D. Shouse stepped into the pastorate of that place and has carried the enterprise triumphantly on and the new edifice will be ready for dedication before winter.

The good people of the Waggoner Circuit placed their pastor in a fine new parsonage at Farmersville at a cost of about sixteen or seventeen hundred dollars. This solves the problem of where the preacher is going to live on that charge for the future.

Taylorville, under the leadership of Dr. Scrimger, has provided for an old debt of $1,000 on the parsonage. This will remove a handicap that has to some extent embarrassed that thriving charge.

Laurel charge, Springfield, has come into possession of a handsome parsonage at a cost of about $5,000, and pastor McAnally has enjoyed its shelter for a little more than half the year.

Kumler church will soon complete a handsome new parsonage at a cost of near $4,000 and they think Dr. Thornton, their popular pastor, ought to enjoy it for several years.

To name all the churches and parsonages on which minor improvements have been made, would swell this report to undue dimensions. A large proportion of them have been renovated, decorated and improved at the expense of several hundred dollars in the aggregate.

Changes in the Force.

The first of April S. M. VanCleve, feeling that a change of climate would be advantageous to him, secured a transfer to the S. W. Kansas Conference and J. D. Shouse came from the Southern Illinois Conference to take his place and in the brief time that has elapsed since he came to Buffalo, he has established himself in the good graces of his people.

Immediately after the Sunday meetings in Springfield, Dr. C. P. Masden was forced by reason of impaired health to take a vacation. His strenuous work in connection with that campaign was the direct cause of the nervous break that forced him to retire. He went to California, where he hoped soon to recuperate and return to his work; but his health did not return as rapidly as expected and he was compelled to ask to be relieved for awhile. He hopes after a year of rest to take up again the work of the pastorate.

I secured the services of Dr. Alba C. Piersell, Dean of the College of Liberal Arts of Iowa Wesleyan University, Mt. Pleasant, Ia., to take care of the work laid down by Dr. Masden and he has brought to the task all the powers of a consecrated manhood and done such good service that the people of that parish desire him to continue with them a while longer.

I shall not attempt to report in detail upon the work of the pastors within the district. That would prolong the report beyond the limit of your patience. But I can say as Agesilaus said to the ambassador from Epirus, "Every man is a brick." They are all pure gold; but let no man mix my figures and say they are gold bricks; for there is not a fraud among them.

I believe every man has done his best. Many of them have achieved grand results in barren fields. They have toiled faithfully for small compensation so far as money is concerned. They have not complained, but with a holy optimism they have set their faces toward the front and battled nobly for the right.

Dr. McElroy, one of the veterans of the conference, has spent a busy year preparing what will be an invaluable history of Methodism in Illinois. To this task he has brought the experiences of nearly a half century in the itinerant ranks, together with a vast fund of knowledge of persons and events, gathered in a wide field and all crowned with an elegant literary style which ought to make one of the most interesting and readable books ever brought from the press. May God spare his life until the work is finished.

The Doctor recently met with an accident that has caused him much pain and may confine him to his room for some time.

All the men have wrought diligently and with sincere devotion to the cause of Christ and humanity. There has been a generous response on the part of the laity and we hope soon to see all the churches bound forward toward the goal of world-wide redemption. May no region be too remote to plant there the banner of the cross; no people so debased that they may not at least have a chance to hear the wonderful message of salvation.

Only recently two men turned their backs upon the comforts and pleasures of home life and plunged with almost superhuman courage into the frozen wastes of the north. For months they disappeared from the gaze of the world; so long were they gone that some wondered if they were still alive; when all at once the wires trembled and flashed the thrilling intelligence that both had reached the long sought goal. But what a goal! An imaginary point amid the lifeless gloom of an unending winter. Where flowers never bloom and the sun's rays possess no power to generate or sustain life. Bleak desolation crowns the scene and universal death reigns supreme.

But for this achievement the world covers these hardy adventurers with glory and crowns them with undying fame.

How great the contrast between these heroes of the frigid north and the valiant men who dare and endure and sacrifice and toil, not to disclose the forbidding and lifeless pole, but to uncover to the gaze of dying men the glorious Cross of Christ pulsating with life eternal. Not shrouded in mists and beaten by deadly blasts, but shining in the splendor of heaven's undying day and pouring into the hearts of men a healing balm and a life giving stream.

BENEVOLENCES.

Foreign Missions.

We recognize the essentialness and opportunity of the church to enlarge her sphere of usefulness in sending the word of God to the uttermost parts of the world, and we hereby pledge ourselves, as a great Missionary church, to maintain the high standard of giving already attained, and to do all in our power to incite our people to add to their gifts. We also pledge ourselves to inform our people upon the various charges of the great Illinois Conference in regard to the special work that Bishops Hartzel, Oldham and Bashford are trying to accomplish in Africa, India, and China.

Resolved, That we pledge ourselves to help these great Missionary Bishops to secure a special offering for the extension of their work in these great fields, where there are millions of men and women who have never heard of Jesus Christ.

Home Missions.

We recognize the necessity and opportunity of the church in doing a great work in our home mission fields. Therefore we recommend that the pastors and laymen give these special causes a worthy consideration.

Local Benevolences.
